C. H. SPURGEON'S SERMONS—CHRISTMAS SERMONS BY PASTOR JUDD.

At the Walhalla Baptist church prayer meeting on Thursday night, December 20th, Pastor G. H. Judd stated that over one hundred and fifty millions of C. H. Spurgeon's sermons had been sold by the publishers. Every sermon is stereotyped and the plates preserved so that any number of copies can be printed at any time. They have been translated into Arabic, Armenian, Bulgarian, Chinese, Dutch, French, German, Hindu, Italian, Japanese, Kaffir, Norwegian, Polish, Russian, Spanish, Swedish, Taniel, Urdu and other languages. Many people had been converted in different parts of the world through reading the sermons. He said that he never knew Mr. Spurgeon to enter the pulpit a minute late. He used to say that he did not want to be known as "the late Mr. Spurgeon" before he was buried. There was room for improvement in punctuality in some South Carolina churches.

Christmas sermons were preached at the Walhalla Baptist church on Sunday morning and evening, December 23d, by Rev. G. H. Judd.

The morning subject was the adoration of our Lord by the wise men from the East, in which the difficulties of their journey were described by him from personal experience. He mentioned that he saw the reputed tomb of one of these Magi in the church of Mart Mariam at Urmia, Persia, probably the oldest Christian church in the world.

The evening sermon was about the angels' message and the adoration of our Lord by the shepherds, in which he described his visit to Bethlehem. Several practical lessons were enforced.

Eighteen Injured in Wreck.

A dispatch from San Jose, Cal., says: "Eighteen persons were injured, several of them seriously, and a whole train load of three score passengers severely shaken up on Christmas eve when the two day coaches and the baggage car of Southern Pacific train, No. 502, bound from Oakland to Wright's, left the track on a curve near Birmingham siding and plunged 75 feet down an embankment. That many were not killed outright is due to the fact that the train had slowed down before it struck the curve, where it is supposed the spreading of rails caused the accident.

Cost of Denatured Alcohol Plant.

Commissioner Yerkes, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, has come forward with a statement that the farmers can establish distilleries for denatured alcohol at an expense as low as $200. He explains that if a farmer or other person desires to go into the business of manufacturing denatured alcohol, at a plant however small, he will be required to construct his plant in the manner prescribed by the general laws and regulations. He will be required to give a bond, the effect of which will be to prevent him from defrauding the government of the tax on any distilled spirits produced by him. He will be required to establish a distillery warehouse; to deposit the spirits produced by him in this warehouse; to establish a denatured bonded warehouse and to tax pay or denature, just as he may wish, the alcohol produced by him. All of this will be done under government supervision, but the government pays for this supervision. The manufacturer of alcohol does not pay one cent for it. There is no objection to a farmer manufacturing his alcohol in "his back yard," provided he wants to establish a distillery there. But mind you, this stuff, the manufacture of which Yerkes is talking about, is not good to drink. It is alcohol in name, but is a poison as deadly as strychnine.—Charlotte Chronicle.

To Rebuild Oil Mill.

[Anderson Mail, December 21.] The entire property of the Townville Oil Mill, at Townville, was sold at auction at Townville yesterday, and was bid in by L. N. Geer, the president of the company, for $11,500. The oil mill was burned some weeks ago, but the company owned a good ginney, some real estate, notes and accounts, personal property, etc., and all of this included in the sale, as well as the burned over machinery. Mr. Geer said the oil mill will be rebuilt probably during the coming summer.

Patrick Given Life Term.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Governor Higgins has commuted the sentence of Albert T. Patrick, who was condemned to die for the murder of William Marsh Rice, to life imprisonment. The Governor in a statement explaining his action commented that Patrick was largely convicted on the evidence of "Valet" Jones, who purchased immunity from the prosecution, although confessing guilt, by testifying against Patrick. The fact that three of the judges of the Court of Appeals held there were errors in Patrick's trial is given as a reason for commuting the sentence.

ELEVEN KILLED IN RAGE RIOTS.

RENEWED OUTBREAK CAME ON CHRISTMAS—TOWN UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Jackson, Miss., Dec. 26.—As a result of the race war in the Northern part of Kemper county, nine negroes and two white men are dead, and one white man is badly wounded.

Governor Vardaman has hurried troops to the scene and the entire neighborhood will be promptly placed under martial law.

Information direct from Scooba at noon says that everything is quiet there. Six persons have met their death in the riots—four negroes and two whites.

The four military companies are still on duty, but no further serious trouble is anticipated.

As quiet apparently had been restored yesterday the troops were withdrawn, but three hours afterward five negroes who, it is alleged had taken no part in the former troubles, were massacred, quickly followed by an uprising among the negroes of the population, and resulting in the death of two men, the serious wounding of another and the killing of four more negroes.

News of the outbreak was wired to the Governor's office and the Chief Executive immediately ordered Col. Samuel McCanta, of the Second regiment, to return to Wahalak with a detachment of soldiers from the two Meridian companies. The troops left Meridian shortly before midnight.

Governor Vardaman may go to the scene in person.

The first news from Wahalak came in the shape of the following official telegram:

"One company of infantry and a battery of artillery are in charge. Two more blacks have been killed by citizens. Troops are now guarding the town. A body of negroes, said to be armed, are fortified about two miles from the town."

A little later word came over the long distance telephone that posses were forming with a view to storming the negro stronghold in the woods. The negroes had sent in a warning that they would burn the town if another of their race was killed.

Some Changes at the Anderson Depot.

The Anderson Mail, of December 27th, says:

Capt. J. R. Anderson, superintendent of the Blue Ridge Railroad, announced to-day that T. E. Howard will be made ticket agent at the union depot to succeed S. H. Prevost, who has held the position for some time, and who recently tendered his resignation to become clerk to the Commandant at Clemson College.

Mr. Howard has been baggage agent at the depot for several months, and before that was local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company. He is a popular gentleman and will make an efficient ticket agent.

H. J. Gignilliat will become baggage agent. Mr. Gignilliat was in the railroad service at Seneca for a long time, but recently moved to Anderson and engaged in the transfer business. He is an experienced and capable man, and the baggage service will be safe in his hands.

The changes will go into effect the first of January.
