

UP TO EDITOR WALLACE TO EXPLAIN.

REV. COKE D. MANN RISES TO CORRECT THE "HISTORY" BY MR. WALLACE.

To the Editor of the News and Courier: The News and Courier of Saturday morning, February 9, had a short communication in it copied from the Newberry Observer, which I want to answer in your paper. Some things which the gentleman states are true, while many of them have not the semblance of truth in them.

First. He says I was an ardent admirer and supporter of Senator Tillman in 1890. I was not in Newberry in 1890. I was living in Edgefield county, on the Saluda circuit that year. I was in Newberry in 1891 and 1892. I voted for Senator Tillman in 1892. This I do not deny.

Second: "So ardent a Tillmanite was Mr. Mann at that time (1890) that he fell out with the anti-Tillman town of Newberry and said some right hard things about the town people."

Who were the people I said the hard things about? It was low down scoundrels who had libelled me, and nobody knows this better than the author of the squib that was copied in Saturday's News and Courier.

Third. He says: "He influenced the members of the churches of his circuit, or the trustees of church property, to sell their parsonage in town—the place now owned by Mrs. Willie Ruff, on Boundary street, adjoining the Boundary Street school—and to buy a piece of land two or three miles from town, upon which the parsonage was to be built."

This, I say, is absolutely false, and I ask him to tell from whom I bought the piece of land. The sale of the Methodist circuit parsonage, in the town of Newberry, had no politics in it. It was sold for division of the property belonging to the Prosperity circuit, which was one-half of the old Newberry circuit, set off two years before by the South Carolina conference, in 1890, at Anderson, S. C. If there is any further dispute about this I ask the public to ask the official board on the Newberry circuit if what I have written is not true.

In conclusion, if I am not very much mistaken I have as many true friends in Newberry county and town as the writer of the article referred to. I am the same Mr. Mann, exercising my constitutional right on all privileged questions. My friend will have to go to the records and search for other data, for what he has stated in reference to my action in regard to the sale of the circuit parsonage is not true. Men ought to know what they are saying before they speak or write about men.

Thinking that this will be sufficient, I am as ever,
The Same Mr. Mann.

Chronic Constipation Cured.
One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation, as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe, and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. Bell.

In Memory of Little Brother.
Last Tuesday night the death angel claimed our darling baby boy, who had been with us only a short while. He was born November 12th, 1906. He was two months and three weeks old at the time of his death. It was hard to give him up, but God wanted him to live with Him. He was sick only one week with pneumonia fever. Everything was done that could be done to save his life. Dearest brother, he has left us. Left us, yes, forevermore; But we hope to meet our brother On that bright and happy shore. Lonely the home and sad the hours Since our dearest one has gone; But a brighter home than ours— In heaven is now his home. Jessie Porter.

HEALTH
Means the ability to do a good day's work without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without its upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest relieved by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes (April 3, 1902): "I use Herbine, and find it the best medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." 50c. Sold by Walhalla Drug Co.; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Rev. C. D. Mann Replies.

To the Editor of The State: I saw in the State one day last week that a citizen of Oconee county is really exercised over my not voting for the senior Senator to succeed himself in the United States Senate. He intimates that I have committed perjury in not voting for the senior Senator. I much prefer to exercise my constitutional rights in measures of this kind and not have men who are biased in their judgment to dictate to me as to how I shall act in matters of this kind. I am over 50 years of age and have been in public life for 35 years and have never yet seen the wisdom or necessity of asking anyone how I should act on privilege questions. I can see, however, that it is necessary, in some instances for some men, to be dictated to in matters of this kind, as it is evident they have to be told what to do, and when told they act right or wrong. Now the difference in such men and myself is that I have some independence of character and realize my individuality and personal responsibility to the God who made me, while it seems they do not. Oh, that some men were better informed as to their personal rights and privileges! They assume rights when they have none. A free press and free speech are the paladin of civil and religious liberties and anyone who is so narrow and contracted in his general make-up as not to want others to exercise their prerogatives is as contemptible and mean as he is little in the eyes of all fair-minded people. So far as I am concerned in not voting for the senior Senator, it has not given me one moment of concern. Whereas if I had done so it would have haunted me by day and by night the remainder of my life. Fools, you know, hold carnivals where wise men and angels would dare not tread. The laws of the State have wisely provided for all classes of her citizens. If a man is a lunatic he should be sent to the State asylum; if idiot, to the almshouse; if a criminal, to the chain-gang or penitentiary, according to the turpitude of his crime. No man has any moral or legal right to raise this question except the senior Senator. If he will challenge my reasons and prove that they are not well founded I will do as he did in the United States Senate when he attempted to be funny. Now, will not other people keep their mouths out of this matter, as it is up to the senior Senator to disclose and prove what I charge is not true. I am responsible for what I have done. Now, in the language of that fearless and patriotic statesman, Patrick Henry, if that be treason then let them make the most of it.

Coke D. Mann.

Ex-Directors Met Tuesday of Last Week.

The ex-directors of the State dispensary held a meeting yesterday and thus put themselves on record as believing that they have not yet been ejected from the office of trust from which they had been removed by the order of the Governor of the State acting upon the suggestion of the General Assembly by unanimous vote. The directors met by virtue of a rule to show cause issued by Judge Ira B. Jones, of Lancaster, and served upon Governor Ansel before Governor Ansel's order of eviction and dispossession had been served upon the members of the board or their attorneys.

W. T. Aycock, attorney for Jodie M. Rawlinson, chairman of the board, said yesterday that the meeting of the board was perfectly natural. They make the point that they have been deprived of the profits of and emoluments of their office and they do not wish to be put in the position of making a fight on purely academic grounds. All that they seek is the restitution of their honor. They care naught for the position per se.

Governor Ansel had nothing to say yesterday on this proposition, but he is thinking. On all occasions he smiles. There is a pleasant urbanity in his attitude at all times, and he never acts hurriedly. He does his thinking in the early morning between 6 and 7 o'clock. When all is quiet and reposeful, he deliberates carefully over the program for the day and when the time for action comes he is ready—and immovable, as he has been in this case.

Attorney General Lyon seemed to attach little importance to the ruling of Judge Jones. In the case of Cantwell, from Charleston county, the Supreme Court has held that it will not discuss hypothetical or speculative cases. And as the local option bill has passed both Houses and Governor Ansel in all probability will have signed it by next Tuesday, Mr. Lyon thinks that this will then have become a speculative case, one with which the Supreme Court will not care to bother itself.

The action of Judge Jones caused more comment in the General Assembly than anywhere else and in the Senate last night Senator Graydon offered a joint resolution confirming the action of the Governor and thereby shutting off any further controversy.

Some think that this board hopes to prove the local option bill unconstitutional and thereafter to try to prove its "rights" and to come back into office.

Senator Graydon's resolution reads:

"Be it enacted by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

"Section 1. That the office of the board of directors of the State dispensary be, and the same is hereby abolished.

"Sec. 2. That this act shall go into effect immediately upon its approval by the Governor."

Thirteen Million Fighting Men.

Washington, Feb. 19.—More than thirteen million men in the United States are available for military service, according to the report of the Military Secretary of the army concerning the militia, which has just been made public. Of this number 112,890 men are organized in State militia and ready for immediate duty.

New York leads the list in the number of men available for duty, having 1,394,000 such citizens. Ohio is second with 1,085,110. Illinois comes third with 1,084,559 and Pennsylvania fourth with 1,017,000.

In the aggregate strength of its organized militia New York leads with 14,711 and Pennsylvania is next with 9,836. Illinois is third with 6,613. Inspecting officers urge larger appropriations and better equipment for the militia. Major John A. Dapray, United States army, in speaking of conditions in Florida, says:

"As a part of a general plan for the protection of militiamen against the unpatriotic and unsympathetic people in mercantile life it is suggested that all the States be enjoined by the Federal government to pass laws guarding the members of the organized militia against interference or discrimination on account of their connection with the militia. It should be made unlawful for any person or class of persons to interfere with the right of a citizen to perform military duty when legally called upon by the State."

Good Man for Commissioner.

The friends in this city of Thomas E. Dickson, who now holds a position with the State dispensary, are anxious that he should be made one of the commissioners who are to be appointed by Governor Ansel to dispose of the stock of whiskey held by the State dispensary.

Mr. Dickson was born and raised in this county, and is spoken of in the highest terms by every one who knows him. Although an employee at the dispensary he has kept his hands clean, and has, when an opportunity presented, condemned the methods pursued by those in authority.

Mr. Dickson can secure a splendid endorsement in this city and county.—Anderson Intelligencer, Feb. 15th.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerve which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep; had no appetite; indigestion very bad, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."
