BOUNTY LAND.

Bounty Land, June 4.—Weather continues cool. Cotton, which at first was a poor stand, is dying in some places. Miss Carrie Smith, after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. J. R. Heller, of Fair Play, has returned home, to the delight of her many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Corbin and baby, Emily, spent a few days last week with relatives in this and Richland vicinities. Miss Cornelia Pickett left Sunday morning for Sandy Springs for a visit of some length to her sister, Mrs. Mae Milam. Mesdames McDowell and Gilmer, after a delightful visit to relatives in Walhalla, have returned to the home of their sister, Mrs. J. B. Pickett. Miss Leize Peritt taught the fifth and sixth grades in the Seneca school last Wednesday, as the teacher of these grades was unavoidably absent on that day. J. L. Smith lost a valuable milch cow last week. Walter Rankin successfully applied "louse killer" powders to his Irish potatoes for the destruction of the potato bug. Mr. and Mrs. Maret, their daughter and son, Miss Kate and Master John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rankin recently. Mrs. D. A. Peritt has been quite ill since Friday, but is improving. Ernest Smith, of Calhoun, visited homefolks Sunday. Mrs. J. M. Barron and two bright little children, of Seneca, spent Saturday night with her father, Capt. A. H. Ellison. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis are entertaining boy No. 6. Where's the need of foreign immigration, anyway? Mrs. J. B. Shaublin and children, of Anderson, are visiting relatives and friends in this community. Mr. Gist, of Vicksburg, Va., was a guest at the home of J. J. Davis yesterday. The ladies of the Missionary and Aid Society of Richland appreciate the kind invitation of Mrs. Clara McCarey to meet with the Seneca society at her home yesterday afternoon. It was our sad misfortune to miss this delightful occasion on account of a violent headache. Several times during the day we tried to imagine we were able to go, but being by nature very unpretentious, all efforts in this line proved futile. We are glad, however, that our society was so well represented, there being ten or twelve of our members present. All report a most enjoyable afternoon. Miss Bertrand Peritt was one of the graduates of the Seneca Graded School this year. Besides her diploma, she received a certificate of honor. E. M. D.

SENECA.

Seneca, June 4.—The friends and relatives of Fred. W. Auld were pained to hear of his death, which occurred at his home in Elberton, Ga., on last Wednesday. Mr. Auld was a nephew of Mrs. L. B. Johnson, of Walhalla, and Mrs. J. B. Pickett, of Richland, and married Miss Lizzie Verrier, of this county, some years ago, and has, therefore, a wide connection of friends and kindred who will be grieved to know of his untimely death. John N. Herndon, the secretary of the Seneca Cotton Mill, who succeeds Marshall Jordan, is moving his family to Seneca and will occupy the H. J. Gignilliat house. We extend a hearty welcome to them. R. D. Niell is visiting, it is said, his homefolks near Brevard, N. C., for a week or two days. Hal Todd is with his homefolks for the summer vacation, after attending the past session at the Presbyterian College of South Carolina at Clinton. Miss Ethel Kirkpatrick is at home again and is accompanied by Miss Julia Holt, of Davidson College, who will visit her sister, Mrs. M. R. Kirkpatrick. Mrs. T. M. McCutcheon has with her her sister who will be with her for some weeks. The baby show, given by the ladies of the Episcopal church, was a pronounced success. A large number of beautiful children were entered, and were voted for by paid ballot, thus obviating the painful necessity of a decision by poked judges. The following children were awarded prizes: Annie Harper, Warren Gignilliat, Edgar Hines, Jr., and Sue Alice Lawrence, from classes 1, 2, 3 and 4 respectively. A neat sum was realized from the entertainment. The Children's Day exercises for foreign missions, at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath, were most interesting, being held at the hour for the regular morning service. Mrs. Mary McGee and Mrs. Sallie Hunt are visiting relatives in Westminster. Mrs. Frank Martin and children, of Greenville, are visiting Mrs. C. K. Livingston. A bright party of the younger society set are picnicking at Coleman's mill today. Mesdames W. J. Lunney and Lillie Tribble are the chaperons. A number of Seneca gardens are yielding beans and other seasonable vegetables, the late splendid rains coming just when needed for their maturity. Louis H. Cary is in Seneca, and acted as umpire in the ball game yesterday between Westminster and Seneca. The game resulted in a score of 10 to 5 in favor of Westminster. David McClanahan, of Retreat, was in Seneca yesterday and witnessed the ball game. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Kate McClanahan. Housekeepers who have been anticipating the inconveniences incident to a short fruit crop, and who have been told that the never-fail blackberry crop was likewise a failure, are glad to know that the latter is a mistake and that there will be a good crop of this reliable old stand-by.

The numerous friends of Misses Margie and Jeanette Holland, two popular Seneca girls, will be gratified to learn that they will be among the Journal's guests to the exposition. The honor is most deservedly placed, and Seneca is proud of the fact that she gives two successful contestants in the 'large number which will go from the Southern States as guests of Atlanta's great party. The meeting of the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society with Mrs. C. V. McCarey Monday afternoon, was a most delightful one, there being, besides the members, a large number of visitors present. The Richland Society was invited and sent a splendid delegation, those with invited guests from town, with the members of the Seneca Society, filling the large apartments. The lower floor of Mrs. McCarey's beautiful home was thrown together, the reception hall and parlor being used for the business part of the program. Numbers of vases of roses adorned the mantels, tables, etc., while the dining room adjoining was beautiful in lavish decorations of native daisies. The large dining table held a center mirror decoration, the outlines of which were defined by a bank of daisies, a broad band of the same dainty flower bordering the table. Vases of daisies were used about the room attractively, the whole harmonizing delightfully with the handsome room, the color tone of which is green. The business meeting was conducted easily and gracefully by Mrs. W. S. Hunter, who announced the subject for the month's study, "Unoccupied Fields." The pastor, Rev. M. R. Kirkpatrick was requested to make a talk on the subject, which he did in his accustomed easy and graceful style. A music program had been arranged by the hostess, which proved a pleasant feature. A bright talk by one of the Richland delegates, Miss Eunice Ballenger, was another delightful feature, Miss Ballenger being the secretary of the Richland Society. After disposing of the business program, the president turned the meeting over to the hostess, who invited her guests into the dining room, where a delicious buffet luncheon was served. The service was delegated to the skillful hands of Misses Carrie Hunter and May Hamilton, who presided smoothly and beautifully. Delightful punch was served throughout the afternoon from an improvised punch-bowl, which was out from an immense block of ice and which was placed in the reception hall. Mrs. James Thompson was in charge of this ever popular institution, and was ably assisted by other members of the Seneca Society. Bon-bon dishes, containing mints, were found on the tables and mantels, to which the guests helped themselves ad lib. The meeting was one of great pleasure and will doubtless prove one of equal profit to the large number of good women who are representing this branch of the work. M. V. S.

A Fortunate Texas.

Hopewell News.

Hopewell, June 3.—Last Saturday and Sunday the quarterly meeting was held at Hopewell. In spite of the unfavorable weather there was a large crowd attending on both days. Rev. J. S. Beasley, the presiding elder, preached an excellent sermon Saturday morning. Afterwards a very appetizing dinner was spread, of which all ate heartily. After the conference was attended to in the afternoon, the presiding elder baptized little Levis Jenkins, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jenkins, and little Maud, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ratio Meadows. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith, of Toxaway section worshipped here Sunday. Misses Claude and Louise King, two attractive young ladies of Greenville, visited Miss Mamie Davis the latter part of last week. Mrs. J. E. Leverett, of Stephens county, Georgia, is visiting relatives in this locality. Rev. G. T. Harmon called in his appointment at Nazareth for Sunday afternoon and invited that congregation to Hopewell for the Sunday morning service. A few accepted the invitation and were heartily welcomed by the church here. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballenger, of Franklin county, Georgia, attended the quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday. Lee O'Kelley, the section boss on the railroad, has been sick for the past two or three weeks, but is improving. Royal Dawkins, formerly of Turnersville, Ga., is night operator at Harbin's now.

Several people from Westminster attended the quarterly meeting here Saturday. There was a singing at F. T. Jenkins' Sunday afternoon. Misses Mary and Lucy Jones, of Madison, attended preaching here Sunday. Miss Alpha Bryan is visiting her brother, Gus Bryan, near Central. Mrs. Walter Thomas, of Alabama, is on an extended visit to relatives in this section. She is pleasantly remembered as Miss Susie Ward and has a host of friends here, who are glad to see her again. A. J.

G. Poore, last week. Miss Lola Vaughan, who has been attending Shorter College, at Rome, Ga., is spending vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Vaughan, at Mrs. E. F. Brown's boarding house. News reached Westminster yesterday morning that Capt. Clarence L. McLin was drowned in the Mississippi river at Burwood, La., near New Orleans. He was the only surviving son of John L. McLin, of Westminster. Mr. McLin received a message yesterday conveying the sad news. No particulars were given, the telegram merely stating that Capt. McLin was drowned Sunday morning. Capt. McLin had charge of the United States dredge "Barard," one of the finest steamships in the United States. He had many warm friends in both Anderson and Oconee counties, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their hour of distress. Mr. McLin leaves a wife and one child, a sister, Mrs. J. C. Boarden, of Atlanta, and many relatives in Westminster. Mrs. Tompkins, wife of J. W. Tompkins, died at their home below Oakway one day last week. Mrs. Tompkins lived in this section for a number of years and her friends regret to hear of her death. She leaves four children, John and Thomas Tompkins, Mrs. Carrie Roberson, of Pelzer, and Miss Maggie Tompkins. She was the mother of James J. Willard and Mrs. John V. Stribling, deceased. The Carolina friends of Fred. W. Auld will regret to learn of his death, which occurred at Elberton, Ga., on last Saturday. It will be remembered that Mr. Auld's wife died on the last day of December from injuries received by accidentally falling from a train on Christmas day. Services are being held in the Presbyterian church each evening this week from Monday till Friday, preparatory to the communion service next Sabbath. Capt. W. E. Cheswell is having a glass front put in the store room recently vacated by Haskell Holmes. A first-class barber shop will be opened there soon. The Pickens boys could not come Friday on account of the rain. They were to come yesterday, but a telegram was received at a late hour stating that they would not be here. T. Cotton crop is from two to three weeks late and in a very good condition. W. C. Loeber, of Walhalla, was in town Sunday. Mesdames H. M. Peden and T. C. Peden have returned from a visit to Greenville. Little Miss Estelle England celebrated her birthday on last Saturday by entertaining her young friends from four till six. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. England. D. G. Sheldon was in Walhalla yesterday. The Westminster baseball nine went to Seneca yesterday afternoon and played a match game with the nine there, resulting in a victory for Westminster by the score of 9 to 4. Mrs. Cariker, of Marietta, will arrive to-day to spend a while with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Peden. Rev. J. R. Moore has returned from a trip to Norfolk, Richmond, Jamestown and Washington. A. L. Gossett.

Tetter Cured.

A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this community.—M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

He had a fine war record and had been prominently identified with the business interests in Charleston. He served terms in both the State Senate and House of Representatives.

FAIR PLAY.

Fair Play, June 4.—Miss Helen Thompson and Mary Shanon are the attractive guests of Mrs. H. T. Tolson, of Anderson. They will probably be gone two weeks or more. Mrs. Mark D. Stribling and little son, Joe, have returned from a very pleasant visit to the family of her uncle, Rev. Fletcher Anderson, of Gray Court, Laurens county. W. E. and R. L. Barto were circulating, in our midst last week. The former has a lucrative position in the real estate business, with headquarters at Montgomery, Ala., and Monroe, La. The latter is a resident of Mounds, Indian Territory, and both are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Barton, of Lavonia, Ga. These young men are grandsons of the late Rev. H. M. Barton. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Watson and bright little babe were visiting relatives here last week. The friends of the family of James Tompkins deeply sympathize with them in the loss of a devoted wife and mother, which occurred at their home, near Oakway, last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Tompkins had been sick for quite a while, but her death was unexpected. She was a devout member of the Methodist church. She leaves two sons and two daughters, besides a loving husband to cherish her memory. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Center church on Saturday following. Truly a good woman has gone to her reward. May God, in his all-wise providence, comfort the sorrowing ones in their hour of trouble. Dava Harris, of Anderson, visited homefolks last week. J. Lawrence Burris and C. Ban Allen, of Anderson, were among the visitors here last week. On account of unfavorable weather on the fourth Sunday in May, Children's Day program at the Presbyterian church was called off. A nice little program had been prepared, and many were disappointed by the rain. Dr. Powers, assistant State Veterinarian, and Mr. Dickens, of Clemson College, were in town Saturday night. The Farmers' Union has its meeting on the first Saturday in each month at the Fair Play Academy. This Union is in a flourishing condition and is sure to prosper with such wide-awake men as H. E. Thompson as president and W. L. Dobbs as secretary and treasurer. Misses Ethel and Pauline Maret and brother, C. D. Maret, visited relatives at Oakway Sunday. Let everybody remember "Children's Day" next Sabbath at the Baptist church. Exercises will begin promptly at 10 o'clock, fast time, and continue till noon. No dinner on the grounds. A hearty welcome to all. J. B. Harris, one of South Union's up-to-date farmers and a most progressive citizen in every work he undertakes, was among friends here Saturday afternoon. Belton Maret is at home from the Westminster Graded School. Clinton Harris, of the Citadel, is not expected home until July. He will be one of the merry party of cadets to the Jamestown Exposition. Joe Sharp, one of our most highly respected colored citizens, who left this country with his family some months ago to sail for Africa, has since died, also one of his children. We hear another member of his family is sick. Joe was living here in very comfortable circumstances, and should have lot well enough alone. When questioned by some of his white friends as to why he was taking such a move, his reply was: "I want to be buried on African soil, the home of the negro race." The many friends and relatives of W. S. Glenn and family, of Ellenville, Miss., will be gratified to hear they are expected to arrive in Seneca about the middle of June, and while here will visit relatives in Fair Play and other parts of the county. This visit will no doubt be a source of great pleasure to Mr. Glenn, since his boyhood days were spent in and around the little village of Fair Play. Mrs. Carrie Tompkins Roberson, of Pelzer, came up Thursday to attend the funeral of her mother, at Center church, on Saturday. Miss Olivia Heller has returned to her home at Alpine, after a very pleasant visit to relatives here.

This Woman Weighed 511 Pounds.

Louisville, Ky., June 1.—Martha Johnson, whose weight is 511 pounds, died early to-day of heart failure. She was 62 years old and believed to be the largest person in Kentucky. The undertaker who was called said that fluid sufficient to embalm six ordinary persons was necessary in preparing the woman's body for burial. The casket is six feet long, three feet wide and twenty-one inches deep. Twelve stout negroes have been secured as pallbearers.
