

DEATH OF CAPT. WILLIAM PERRY.

ONE OF WALHALLA'S OLDEST CITIZENS—
POSTMASTER UNDER ARTHUR.

Capt. William Perry died at his residence in Walhalla on Tuesday, 25th instant, at 11 a. m., after a lingering illness from the infirmities of age. He was born at Patterson, New Jersey, on March 20, 1810, his parents being James and Ellen Walker Perry. His youth was spent in that city, and at the age of eighteen years he came to Virginia, where he resided for several years, engaged in the manufacturing business.

On June 22, 1846, he was happily married to Miss Margaret McCarty, of Alexandria, Va. A few years before the war they removed to South Carolina and lived for some time at Vaupese, Alken county, where he was in charge of a cotton mill. At different times Capt. Perry was engaged in the manufacture of cotton goods at Vaupese, Batesville, Reedy River and Pendleton in this State. About twenty-five years ago he removed to Walhalla with his family and has resided here ever since.

He served one term of four years as postmaster of Walhalla under the administration of President Arthur.

Mrs. Perry died here ten years ago. He leaves surviving their eleven children, namely: Mrs. E. G. Roberts, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. J. W. Keys, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. S. K. Denny, Walhalla; William G. Perry, Greenville; Walter J. Perry, Spartanburg; Charles W. Perry, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Kate P. Lewis, Walhalla; J. Addison Perry, Broxton, Ga.; Louis E. Perry, Asheville, N. C.; George D. Perry, Silver City, N. C., and Miss Carrie Perry, of Walhalla. In their bereavement they have the sincere sympathy of many friends in this and other States.

His remains will be buried this (Wednesday) afternoon at six o'clock in Westview cemetery beside his wife. The funeral services will be conducted at the residence by Rev. J. C. Yongue.

In the death of Captain Perry we lose one of the oldest residents of the county. In former days he was a successful manufacturer and was among the pioneer cotton mill men of South Carolina. After retiring from business, he located in Walhalla, where his latter years were spent in a quiet home with his daughters, Mrs. Lewis and Miss Carrie Perry, who were devoted to their attention to his every need.

His long life of more than four score years was one of great usefulness. During the days of mature manhood he gave his entire attention to the conduct of cotton manufacture. In this work he spent and was spent; and to such courageous pioneer spirits the manufacturing South to-day owes a debt of lasting gratitude. They belonged to the former generation, but they blazed out the way in which so many since have followed.

In domestic life Capt. Perry was a devoted husband and affectionate father. He was greatly blessed in his children, and at the ripe old age of over eighty-seven years, he leaves eleven children, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren surviving. To them he has left the record of a life well spent, and the precious legacy of a good name.

A Large Family of Cabbage Snakes.

Frank Heaton, of the Fall Creek section, left at The Courier office last Thursday a bottle of cabbage snakes—mother and children—numbering upwards of 100.

Mr. Heaton is a miller by occupation and several days ago a patron presented him with a head of cabbage for dinner. He laid it down on the mill house floor, and in a short while happened to be sitting near the cabbage. He heard something "cuttin' the greens" and waited for further developments. In a few minutes a cabbage snake, about thirteen inches long, flipped itself out on the floor. He procured a fruit jar and placed some water in it and then put in the "snake" and set it aside. In a short while he looked at the jar, and, to his surprise, he found it about one-sixth full of the snakes. He had a small bottle, and transferred the mother "serpent" to it, with, as said before, about 100 of her offspring. He could not get over half the children in the bottle and threw the remainder in the creek.

The bottle of cabbage snakes has been placed in The Courier museum, and can be seen any day from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. without charge.

Chance for an Oconee Girl.

The South Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will this year award a scholarship in full, good for three years at Winthrop College to a girl of Confederate descent. Applicants for this scholarship must be able to enter the Sophomore class at Winthrop, have the endorsement of the president of her local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy; must be at least 16 years of age and must pledge themselves to complete the three years' course offered by the division. They must present a certificate stating that their family cannot afford to pay for their education; they must be the daughter or lineal descendant of a Confederate soldier of honorable record, and in cases of equal attainments offered preference will be given to the daughters of widows of Confederate soldiers. All applications must be filed with the State Division, U. D. C., president, Miss Mary B. Poppenheim, Charleston, S. C., by July 1st.

Tetter Cured.

A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicine gives splendid satisfaction in this community.—M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicine are for sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

COMING EVENTS IN THE COUNTY.

ALL-DAY SINGINGS—PICNICS—MELTINGS OF DIFFERENT KINDS.

teachers at Walhalla.

Scholarship Examinations.

On July 5th vacant scholarship and entrance examinations will be held at Walhalla for the various institutions of learning in the State. The scholarships are valuable, and we would like to see a large number of Oconee's energetic boys and girls compete for these scholarships. They will be awarded by the following well-known institutions:

Winthrop College.
Clemson Agricultural College.
College of Charleston.
University of South Carolina.

The advertisements of these institutions appear in this issue of The Courier. For further particulars look them up.

A Social Event—"Matching Stars."

The beautiful and spacious country home of Major and Mrs. Wm. J. Stribling was the scene of much gayety on Friday evening last, the occasion being an entertainment given by the Misses Stribling in honor of their fair guests and handsome beaux, Miss Nance, of Due West; the Misses Stribling, of Westminster; and Allen Watson, of Ninety-Six; Geo. Watson, of Greenwood, and Wiles Lowery, of Seneca.

On the arrival of the guests they were presented with a red star, to be used as a score card in the lively contest of "matching stars." This contest was entered into with zest and good natured rivalry. As a star was matched, the fortunate one would have a small gold star pasted on her score card and when time was called Miss Nance had gained the largest number and was presented with a picture framed in a large star.

A delicious ice course was served on the piazza and lawn, which were lighted by numerous Japanese lanterns. The punch bowl, being in the extreme corner of the lawn, was the excuse for strolls, but many couples lingered on the way, tempted by the numerous rugs and cozy corners on the lawn. Some of the fair guests added much to the pleasure of the evening by their sweet music.

At last the happy party broke up, each returning to his or her respective home, to dream of the charming evening they had just spent at this hospitable home in suburban Walhalla. The Misses Stribling are charming entertainers.

Some Base Ball Dope.

The "Fats" and "Leans" crossed bats on the diamond on Factory Hill last Friday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock.

The line-up was as follows:

"Fats" ..... "Leans"
Gillard ..... Chas. Wickliffe
Geo. Jones ..... Dr. B. F. Sloan
R. W. Grubb ..... S. N. Pitchford
Geo. Wilson ..... Jay Hutchison
Jube Strother ..... Dr. L. D. Smith
Guy Grove ..... S. E. P. Hutchison
C. W. Pitchford ..... R. F. Dr. P. Thomson
Chas. McCall ..... C. F. Jack Darby
W. M. Kay ..... L. F. Claude Reid

The game was intensely interesting and amusing throughout, and was greatly enjoyed by those who were "fortunate" enough to be without anything to do.

"If" the "Leans" hadn't played better ball than the "Fats" the latter would have beat in the final wind-up. See?

Umpire Seaborn's decisions were questioned in a great many instances, and "if" the "Fats" had had advantage of all these, they would, we think, have been victorious.

Until the ninth inning things looked very flabby for the "Fats," but at this juncture it stacked up very well considering and wound up pretty—"nit."

Score by innings was as follows:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Total
Leans ..... 1 6 3 4 5 0 3 2 ..... 24
Fats ..... 0 2 2 3 1 1 0 6 ..... 15

NO BIG PICNIC FOR WALHALLA.

THE COTTON ASSOCIATION WILL HOLD ITS MEETING AT RICHLAND.

Richland, June 25.—Editors Keowee Courier: I noticed your editorial regarding the farmers' and Cotton Association picnic on July 19th at or near Walhalla.

E. D. Smith wrote to me a few days before your announcement came out as to coming to Oconee. I wrote him that we would announce his coming for Richland on the 19th, as this place is nearer the center of the cotton growing section of the county, also on the railroad.

Therefore, the Cotton Association is called to meet at Richland Academy Hall on July 19, at 10 o'clock a. m. E. D. Smith, F. H. Hyatt, F. H. Weston and perhaps other prominent speakers will make addresses on that date. The public are cordially invited to be present. A basket picnic dinner will be served in the grove after the speaking is over.

Our bankers, merchants, and in fact all of our business men who are interested in maintaining a profitable price for cotton for the producer, are urged to take a day off and come.

The Cotton Association is an organization of Southern business men, looking to the up-building of the cotton States by holding up the price of their staple crop—King Cotton. Does this platform interest you, kind reader? Then come out and hear and help us.

E. D. Smith as an orator has few equals in the South. On the cotton and warehouse proposition he is a whole cyclone, and is probably the best posted man in the South along this line.

Already a number of our ladies have expressed a desire to hear Mr. Smith speak again. Now he is coming, and the ladies have a special invitation to be present. No pains will be spared for their comfort and pleasure during the day.

The arrangements and program will be announced more fully later.
J. P. Stribling,
President Oconee Cotton Association.

Picnic on Fourth.

There will be a big picnic at the McMahon Shoals, (known as the old Robinson Shoals), on Little river, two miles above Newry, July 4th. Everybody invited to come and bring well-filled baskets. Special arrangements have been made for the enjoyment of all.

New Odd Fellow Officers.

At the regular meeting of Oconee Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., held last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

W. B. Loehr, Noble Grand.
J. C. Moss, Vice Grand.
Anton Gerber, Recording Secretary.
D. A. Smith, Jr., Financial Secretary.
W. D. Moss, Treasurer.

F. A. H. Schroder, Outside Guardian.

The officers will be installed on next Tuesday night by C. R. D. Burns, Past Grand Master.

The appointive offices will be filled on the night of installation.

At the meeting on next Tuesday night there will also be work in the first degree.

John H. Pitchford Elected Circuit Judge.

The many South Carolina friends of John Henry Pitchford, formerly of Walhalla, will learn with pleasure that he has recently received the Democratic nomination for Judge of the First Judicial District of Indian Territory. A letter of date 17th instant, written by him to his brother, C. W. Pitchford, of Walhalla, conveys the intelligence of his nomination. It appears that the First Judicial District is composed of Sequoyah, Adair, Cherokee and Delaware counties.

There were several candidates for the position and the campaign was exciting. As the Democrats have a safe majority in the District the nomination is equivalent to an election. The office is similar to that of a Judge of a Circuit Court in South Carolina and carries a salary of $3,000 per annum for a term of four years. We unite with many friends in congratulating "Henry" upon his election, and the people of his district, among whom he will hold the scales of justice with an even hand. This is another instance of Oconee boys "making good" wherever they go.

Death of William Perry Roberts.

On Thursday morning, June 20, 1907, after a protracted illness, William Perry Roberts died at the residence of his grandfather, Capt. William Perry, of Walhalla.

He was born near Pendleton, S. C., January 7, 1896. He never married. For the past eight years he lived at Vicksburg, Miss., where he leaves many friends in business and social life. In social life he was a favorite and he made many close friends wherever his lot was cast. Endowed by nature with fine talent, he enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his associates in business circles.

He is survived by his parents, Capt. and Mrs. E. G. Roberts, and one sister, Mrs. H. G. Saunders, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who were all present at the time of his death.

He was brought to Walhalla about one month ago, accompanied by his parents, who hoped the change of climate would assist in restoring his health.

His remains were buried in Westview cemetery on Friday, June 21, at five o'clock, after funeral services at the residence conducted by Rev. J. C. Yongue.

To his bereaved parents and other relatives is extended the sincere sympathy of many friends.

Death of Mrs. J. Merrill Sanders.

Mrs. Jane Sanders, wife of J. Merrill Sanders, died at their home in West Union, Tuesday, 25th instant, 6 p. m., after a lingering illness from cancer. She was 60 years of age, and leaves her husband and seven children surviving. To them is extended the sincere sympathy of many friends. She was a consistent member of Poplar Springs Baptist church and her remains will be interred there this (Wednesday) afternoon. She was a good woman, and wrought diligently with her hands so long as her strength remained. For five years or more she was a constant sufferer, and since October last she had been confined to her room. Her suffering was borne with Christian resignation, and her end was peaceful.

Revival Meeting.

The special meeting, begun in the Walhalla Methodist church on Sunday, June 16th, is still in progress, and promises the accomplishment of much good. The attendance upon, and the interest manifested in, the services has been exceptionally good. The seating capacity of the church has, at times, been taxed to its utmost limit. The preaching has been of a high order, and the singing has been excellent. The following preachers have given the pastor valuable, and greatly appreciated assistance: Revs. N. B. Clarkson, C. D. Mann, R. R. Doyle, J. S. Beasley and R. A. Yongue, of the Methodist church, and Revs. J. G. Law and L. W. Brown, of the Presbyterian church. The order of service is 10 a. m. and 8.30 p. m. This meeting will probably close with this (Wednesday) evening's service. Everybody is invited, and the prayers and co-operation of all Christians is earnestly solicited. There have been two accessions to the church, thus far, and more to follow.

Quarterly Conference Notice.

The third quarterly conference for the Walhalla Circuit will be held at Double Springs church on next Saturday and Sunday, June 29th and 30th. All the official members of the circuit are requested to attend. It is the desire and aim of the pastor, and of the people of that community, to magnify the occasion, and make it both pleasant and profitable to all who attend. On Saturday dinner will be served on the grounds. Everybody who can do so is invited to come and bring well-filled baskets with them. If you can't bring the basket come anyhow. The order of service will be about as follows:

Saturday, 11 a. m.—Preaching by the presiding elder, Rev. J. S. Beasley.
12.30 to 2.30—Intermission for dinner.
2.30—Quarterly conference session.
3.30—Addresses on live topics by live and able speakers, interspersed with good singing.

Sunday 11 a. m.—Preaching by the presiding elder, Rev. J. S. Beasley, followed by sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Let everybody come who can.
