

MICHAEL HACKETT OUT.

After Serving 25 Years in Sing Sing Sees Light Again.

New York, September 25.—Away from the world for a quarter of a century, closed in by cold stone walls, then suddenly set free to breathe the clear air, to feel the bright sunlight and see the monuments to Progress erected in a great city, was the experience of Michael Hackett, former New York policeman, who was liberated from Sing Sing prison today after serving twenty-five years of a life sentence for murder.

In all those years Hackett had caught no glimpse of the outside world and had obtained all his impressions of its advancement from occasional papers and magazines. In 1882 there were no skyscrapers, trolley cars or automobiles and Hackett's sudden plunge into the heart of the city was like a visit to another world.

"Like a child he gazed, wondered and asked questions. 'What that automobile that flashed by? What funny noises it makes? Is that the 'gasoline smell'? How fast can it run? You see I never saw one before,' he explained to B. J. Sullivan, secretary to Mrs. Ballington Booth, who was taking Hackett to temporary quarters at the Volunteers of America Home."

Volunteers of America Home. exclaiming. "That next remark betrayed the fact that he had been in the world before. 'Of course the women themselves are lovely,' he said, 'but I don't like their clothes. Those rich colors are too flashy, the skirts are queer, and those big hats make them appear too heavy. I think the women of 25 years ago were more becomingly attired and looked sweeter.'"

Some of Hackett's experiences were pathetic. He hadn't had a pocket in his clothes in 25 years, and he felt about in constant fear that he would lose the things he was carrying. His derby hat made his head ache, and when he took his first look at the big skyscrapers the light hurt his eyes.

Do you know that Pinesalve Carbolic acts like a poultice in drawing out inflammation and poison? It is antiseptic. For cuts, burns, eczema, cracked hands it is immediate relief. 25 cents. Sold by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Pat. Calhoun in Trouble.

San Francisco, September 25.—The State Supreme Court has sustained the validity of the grand jury which indicted Schmitz, Ruef and Patrick Calhoun, head of the United Railways, and others, for corruption. Mr. Calhoun and others pushed the case before the Supreme Court, hoping to gain a decision declaring the grand jury illegal.

The decision rendered yesterday means that Calhoun, who is now out on heavy bond, must stand trial on a charge of bribing city officials to secure franchises for his street railway.

Sold by Hollister Drug Company, Madison, Wis. GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

Offered Juror $1,000 Bribe.

Findlay, Ohio, September 26.—Byron W. Williamson is to-day in the county jail charged with having offered on behalf of the oil trust a bribe of $1,000 to Chase Thompson, a juror in the Standard Oil trial last June. Statements were made today by Williamson in an attempt to involve ex-Senator Thomas H. McConica, a prominent Republican politician and the leader of the Foraker forces in this section, in the scandal.

Thompson would have nothing to do with the matter, and as soon as the trial was over gave his information to Prosecutor Davidson. After signing a statement in which he told of a meeting with McConica and the arrangements to give a bribe to Thompson, Williamson pleaded not guilty and was consigned to jail for failure to give $3,000 bond.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent and refreshing restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting the fullest nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless help to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system. Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retro-version or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This world-famed specific for women's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients are printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments. If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

MOST SWEEPING INJUNCTION.

Court Order Includes Attorney General and Everybody.

St. Paul, September 24.—Judge Lochren of the United States Court today issued an order for an injunction, which absolutely ties up the State's commodity rate law, pending a final decree in the case, or until the lower court's decision is overruled on appeal by the State.

Order is Sweeping. The order is sweeping in its terms, taking in not only the defendants at bar, including the Attorney General and shippers who were made parties to the actions, but all other persons as well. It means that even though the county attorneys throughout the State, whose duty it is to institute and prosecute criminal actions under the law, were not made parties defendant in the suits instituted by the railroads through their stockholders, yet the county attorneys and everybody else are warned to keep their hands off the railroads while Judge Lochren's order is in effect. Not only is everybody enjoined "from taking or instituting or causing or advising to be instituted any action, suit, stop, or proceeding for the violation of said act, but anybody and everybody is enjoined from demanding that any of the rates contained in the act be given to them."

Big Fight Ahead.

The order issued today relates to the Northern Pacific case. Similar orders will be drawn in the other eight cases and injunctions will be served in accordance with the orders. It is reported today that the State officials are planning to violate the injunction in such a manner that habeas corpus proceedings will have to be instituted, in which event the case will at once be appealed to the United States Supreme Court, and the whole matter determined there instead of going through the usual routine, lasting probably three years.

BRIDE AND GROOM IN JAIL.

Bride was Awaiting Her Groom when He was Arrested.

Atlanta, September 25.—Imprisoned at an hour when his bride-to-be awaited him for the marriage ceremony, charged with burglary and larceny, Claude Raysor, aged sixteen years, and on the latter's confession his two pals in the crime, Marshall Holly and Terrell Butler, of the same age, was today held in jail. Raysor's affianced wife, Mrs. Blanche Smith, aged 25, divorced, were also held for trial, charged with receiving stolen goods. Mrs. Smith has been a traveling cornetist, employed at cigar stands in Tampa and Duval Hotel, of Jacksonville, Fla., and lately here, where she presided over a refreshment stand in a prominent office building.

The police charge the three lads with being a band of thieves and burglars, operating in railroad stations and residences of the city. Identified articles that were stolen were found in the woman's trunk, which she admits were given to her by Raysor, but she denies that she knew that they were stolen goods. Raysor corroborates this, but two witnesses at the examination testified that they saw the lads under arrest take suit cases to her and open them in her presence.

Carrie Nation Gets 75 Days.

Washington, September 22.—In the police court today Mrs. Carrie Nation refused to promise not to talk to crowds on the streets in the future and was sent to the work-house for seventy-five days in default of the payment of a fine of $25. She was arrested yesterday for disorderly conduct. She was addressing a crowd in front of the Post Office Department on the evil effects of cigarette smoking and when she refused to stop, was arrested.

The pain in Ma's head has gone. She's as happy as can be. Her health is right, her temper bright. Since taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea at night. —Dr. J. W. Bell.

SPENT LIFETIME AT WORK.

President Sloan, of the Lackawanna, Died in Harness.

New York, September 24.—Samuel Sloan, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, and ex-president of the road, who has just died at his summer home at Garrison-on-the-Hudson, spent 50 of his 89 years of life in active railroad work and only ceased to be engaged in it a short time before his death.

In his long career, he joined forces one time or another, with men whose names are conspicuous in the financial history of New York. At one time or another he was directly associated with Jay Gould, Russell Sage, Commodore Vanderbilt and others, and he outlived them all and was still at work long after a second, and in the case of the Vanderbilts, even a third generation, had succeeded the man with whom he had been associated.

Mr. Sloan's interests were large, and he will always be remembered for his presidency of the Lackawanna. It was a relatively unimportant road when he became its head, but he built up until its stock sold very high, really higher than that of any other railroad in the country. He was a man of marked characteristics. Not the least of these was he who made the Lackawanna conspicuous during his administration because of its having no Sunday trains.

"I would not work myself on Sunday," was his explanation, "and I do not see why the men under me should be made to work on Sunday." Vacations were unknown to the head of the Lackawanna road. It was not that he was opposed to them, but he said: "I was too busy when I first went to work keeping my job to have time for vacations, and later I was too busy with my work to have any."

He preached what he did not practice in this respect, however, for he told young men that vacations were a modern improvement of which they ought to make full use.

Mr. Sloan believed also firmly that good work had its reward. "Any young man of fair ability," he said a few years ago, "who is honest and industrious, cannot only make a living, but a fortune in New York, in spite of the great competition here." Mr. Sloan was loyal to Ireland, his native land, all of his long life, and he was delighted four years ago to be elected a member of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

In 1897 the employees of the Lackawanna road presented him with a solid gold tea set, which is said to have cost $100,000.

Notice to Our Customers.

DEAR OLD WU TING FANG.

His Appointment as Minister at Washington Has Been Announced.

Pekin, September 24.—The appointment of Wu Ting Fang to his former post as minister at Washington was gazetted today. The appointment was made late yesterday. The Americans here ascribe to the action taken by the Throne to the friendliness of the American press to Wu, and express indifference regarding his reappointment. After leaving Washington Wu held the lowest ministerial post in the foreign office and was transferred to a subordinate post in the board of punishments, where he brought about a revision of the penal code and some civil codes and framed regulations governing limited liability companies, which are all said to be of questionable value, as the effect of their operation in China is not likely to be of any real use, and so far they have amounted to nearly nothing.

In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar prevents serious results. It costs cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. Bell.

CONSUMPTION OF COTTON.

Census Bureau Gives Figures as to Cotton Used by American Mills.

Washington, September 24.—The Census Bureau reported that for the year ending August 31, last, 5,296,783 running bales of cotton were taken by all the American manufacturers, compared with 4,820,690 for last year and 4,987,021 bales consumed compared with 4,909,479 for last year. The manufacturers' stock at the close of the year was 236,279 bales compared with 668,312 last year. The active cotton spindles numbered 26,242,407, compared with 25,260,096 last year.

The report says: "The statistics of cotton taken, consumed and of stock are for all statements using raw cotton, including cotton mills, woolen mills, hosiery and knitting mills, and those engaged in the manufacture of mattresses, and the statistics of active spindles, include those which consume cotton mixed with other fabrics. The totals of cotton consumed in 1907 include foreign cotton amounting to 5,018 bales taken and 5,231 bales consumed by manufacturers in cotton growing States, and 130,389 bales taken and 133,834 bales consumed by manufacturers in all other States."

Weights 525 Pounds.

Physicians at the Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, have the most remarkable case of that rare disease, elephantiasis. The patient is Mrs. Juliette Felt, of Brooklyn, a widow, 63 years old. Before she was attacked by the disease she weighed 149 pounds. She now weighs 525 pounds and is gaining daily in size. Her skin is thick, hard and coarse, like an elephant's.

The disease first manifested itself seven years ago. It began with an itching in one of her legs. This ceased after a time, but it was presently followed by a swelling of the limb, accompanied by pain. Then she took on weight rapidly. The body, arms and legs have been the parts affected, but not her face. She thought herself growing fat from natural causes, but could not account for the pain which attended her increase in bulk. Two years ago she weighed 350 pounds, and then, in alarm, she resorted to medicines and dieting, but these measures were of no avail. A week ago a physician diagnosed her trouble as elephantiasis.
