

Do You Walk or Ride ?

The man who has a Bank Account and pays for everything with checks is riding, while the man without a bank account is walking.

Better get in the "Band Wagon" to-day. We will help you.

ALMOST A HUNDRED YEARS OLD,

"Aunt Betty" Bearden, of Oakway, Has an Interesting History.

One of the oldest citizens in Oconee county is Mrs. Elizabeth (Aunt Betty) Bearden, of Oakway. She was born near Old Pendleton, Anderson county, on the 28th day of June, 1808, and will, therefore, be one hundred years old on the 28th day of next June.

Mrs. Bearden's maiden name was Elizabeth McGuffin, daughter of Jas. McGuffin and Annis Jolly, and a sister of the late Rev. A. W. McGuffin, of this county. With her parents she removed to Oconee when eight years of age, and has resided in the Oakway neighborhood for more than seventy-five years. In her young days she was married to William (Buckie) Bearden, with whom she lived to the time of his death, some twenty years ago, and reared a large family of children, who rise up to call her blessed, and from whom has descended quite a multitude in numbers and influence in this county. She now resides with her son, James W. Bearden, in the same neighborhood where she has resided so long, and over which she has exercised such an influence for good.

We can remember Aunt Betty from our childhood and she has been an old lady since our first acquaintance with her. Every one knew Aunt Betty and Uncle Buck. We recall one incident connected with their history. More than fifty years ago Wm. Bearden purchased a tract of land of one thousand acres, whereon Oakway now stands, for a rifle gun. Doubtless the original deed can be produced. This same tract of land is now owned by J. J. Haley, Andrew Bearden and W. A. Bowen, and could not be purchased for less than thirty-five to forty dollars per acre. In fact, just a few days since, Mr. Bowen purchased that part which he owns at the sum of eighty-three dollars per acre, for more than one hundred and thirty acres. Mrs. Bearden well remembers that all this part of Oconee county, up to a few years ago, was dubbed as "Nabbin' Ridge," and was considered as worthless. Part of the land now owned by W. A. Bowen has in the last few years produced as much as three bales of cotton per acre.

Mrs. Bearden has lived to see her large family of sons and daughter all become prosperous, progressive and influential citizens, with large families, filling almost all the professional positions and callings, respected by all, and to see her neighborhood, once considered waste lands, the most valuable part of Oconee county. She loves to talk of this. She is still in pretty fair health for one of her age and talks well, and one of her greatest delights is to see and talk with those who have grown up under her eye. May she yet live to see more of the growth of her family and country.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it gave relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Meeting Stone Church Association.

The annual meeting of the Old Stone Church and Cemetery Association will be held at the Old Stone Church, October 26th. Rev. W. H. Mills, pastor of Fort Hill Presbyterian church, will hold a short religious service by way of rededicating the old church to the worship of God. It is hoped that it will be possible to have the church put in a condition of repair suitable for use before that time.

By order:
J. J. Lewis, President.
R. N. Brackett, Sec-Treas.

A Criminal Attack

On an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c. at all druggists.

Fire at Prather's Bridge.

On Tuesday night, October 8th, True McWhorter and Robert Smith, who live near Prather's bridge, on Tugaloo river, had the misfortune to lose their barn by fire. The barn had in it a yoke of fine steers, a number of hogs and about two thousand five hundred bundles of fodder, all of which was consumed by the flames. They carried no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at J. W. Bell's, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

FROM BOUNTY LAND.

Farmers Holding Cotton—Some Accidents—Locals in Brief.

Bounty Land, October 14.—Special: The most unappreciated visitor to our community this week is Jack Frost.

J. B. Pickett made a business trip to Atlanta last week. He was accompanied home by his little granddaughter, Miss Talu Pickett, of that city.

Elijah Gillison went to Rabun county, Georgia, on business last week.

Miss Kelley, of Tamassee, was a guest at the home of J. L. Smith Sunday.

Mrs. Alethia Ballenger, of Elberton, is with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Pickett.

Mrs. R. H. Smithson, of Westminster, and Sumter Fennell, of Pelzer, were recent guests at the home of Elijah Gillison.

We are informed that Charlie Hall, of Chappells, elder son of the late Zach Hall, was shot a few days ago. We do not know whether the shot was fatal or not, as particulars as to the shooting have not been learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Maret, of Oakway, visited their daughter, Mrs. Walter Rankin, Sunday.

B. E. Bagwell and daughter, Miss Vera, are visiting in Williamston a few days this week.

J. B. Shanklin and Mr. Gist, of Anderson, were guests at J. J. Davis' this week.

Children's day was observed at Richland Presbyterian church last Sabbath. By order of the General Assembly, an interesting program of Bible reading, music and so forth was arranged, which was carried out. An able address was made by W. C. Hughs, of Greenville.

The Farmers' Union met at the Richland Academy Friday. The meeting was well attended. There has been a good deal of cotton stored in the warehouse at Richland, and farmers seem more than ever determined to hold their cotton for better prices. We are requested by the trustees of Bounty Land school to state that the school house will not be used for preaching hereafter without their permission. This decision was made necessary for the protection of the school property.

Mrs. Mac Milan and children, of Sandy Springs were at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pickett, last week.

Miss Maria Dendy had the misfortune, while skating a few days ago, to fall, breaking her right arm, and causing great suffering. No, Richland is not far behind other towns, and like them, must learn, although sometimes by bitter experience, that human life is far too precious to risk on a pair of skates, and that the rapid revolutions of the wheels of time will enable us to complete life's journey without artificial aid.

Mrs. William Woolbright and two children, of Townville, are guests at B. E. Bagwell's.

Miss Leize Perritt has been elected to teach the Pickett Post school, which will open about the middle of November.

Monroe McDonald made a brief visit to his mother, Mrs. Mattie McDonald, a few days ago.

The friends of Hon. M. B. Dendy will regret to learn that he accidentally fell a week or two ago, resulting in the dislocation of his right shoulder. He thought it was only sprained until last week, when he consulted a physician, who advised him not to have it set. Owing to his old age and the length of time it had been misplaced, it would cause him much suffering.

Miss Emily Dendy, after a pleasant visit to her brothers, J. P. and J. A. Dendy, returned last week. E. M. D.

Oconee County Alliance.

The Oconee County Alliance will meet with Fairview Union on Saturday, October 15, at 10.30 o'clock.

J. B. Pickett, President.
J. E. Pickett, Secretary-Treasurer.

Colds on the Chest

Ask your doctor the medical name for a cold on the chest. He will say, "Bronchitis." Ask him if it is ever serious. Lastly, ask him if he prescribes Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this disease. Keep in close touch with your family physician.

When you tell your doctor about the bad taste in your mouth, loss of appetite for breakfast, and frequent headaches, and when he sees your coated tongue, he will say, "You are bilious." Ayer's Pills work well in such cases.

Double Wedding at New Hope.

On last Sunday, the 13th instant, New Hope church was the scene of much joy and merriment when Rev. Huff read the Parable of the Ten Virgins, as it had been announced that we were to have a double wedding. When the wedding march was played by Miss Meda Lee Hunt, of Liberty, the contracting parties, David Harvey Kennemur and Miss Ollie Glenn Kelley entered the church, led by Walter Miller. Mr. Kennemur's best man, and then Olar Kelley, brother of Anderson, led by Ilar Kelley, brother of the groom, as his best man. As they reached the rostrum they were met by Rev. Mr. Huff, who performed the ceremony that made the contracting parties man and wife. Both of the grooms were attired in black suits. Miss Ollie Kelley was gowned in white silk mull, trimmed in lace, ribbon, chiffon, with ribbon girdle, and Miss Anderson in white china silk, trimmed in lace and chiffon, with girde to match. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kennemur went to the home of the bride's father, John A. Kelley, where a delicious dinner awaited them, about fifty invited guests being present. The presents were numerous, beautiful and costly. Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Ramsey, Clemson College; Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Evans, Pickens; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith and daughters, Misses Mattie and Velma, Easley; J. M. Hunt and daughter, Miss Meda, Liberty; F. A. Bell, Central; Misses Anna and Carrie Kennemur, Pleasant Hill; W. W. Moss, Walhalla. Mr. Kennemur is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Kennemur, and grandson of Rev. D. H. Kennemur. He is one of the leading farmers in Pickens county. His bride is a beautiful young lady, very popular, and a leader in social circles. They left Monday evening for their future home in Central, Pickens county, where a delicious supper awaited them, and were met by about forty of their friends and relatives.

Meeting Pickett Post Farmers' Union.

Pickett Post Farmers' Union will meet on the fourth Saturday, October 26th, at 7 p. m. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will come before the body. T. Y. Chalmers, President. M. N. Hembree, Secretary.

No home is so pleasant, regardless of the comforts that money will buy, as when the family is in perfect health. A bottle of Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup costs 50 cents. It will cure every member of the family of constipation, sick headaches or stomach trouble. Dr. J. W. Bell.

CHATTANOOGA REVERSIBLE DISC PLOWS.

Remember that I have a car load of these Plows, two and three-horse sizes. They have been tried by many farmers in all sections of our country and have proven perfectly satisfactory. They have passed the experimental stage, and stand master of all Plows to-day. See them at Seneca and Westminster.

I have about 100 Two-Horse Imperial Chilled Plows, about 15 Hill Side Plows, 5 Mallery Plows, 30 Disc Harrows, 7 Farmers' Favorite Grain Drills and a lot of other implements—the same kind I have been selling for four years—that I will close out AT COST AND BELOW COST. Nothing wrong with these goods. I am simply going out of that line of business. Buggy, Wagon and Harness Stock always full. Will have Stables full of all classes Horses and Mules from now until April 1st. I build and repair Harness. Shop at Seneca. If you will come to see us, we can trade with you.

T. M. Lowery,
Seneca, Westminister.
