Local and Personal.

—Dr. G. C. Probst, Dentist; office at his residence, Walhalla.

—Prof. J. L. Kennedy and family have moved into Dr. D. L. Smith's residence on Faculty Hill.

—L. L. Jarrard, formerly of Westminster, is now residing in Seneca, having accepted a position with G. W. Gignilliat.

—Prof. Burns, Grubbs and Smith will conduct a singing next Sunday afternoon at the West Union Baptist church. Public cordially invited to attend.

—Rev. C. D. Mann will preach at New Hope next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend and take part in the services.

—The soles of the feet of early sportsmen are beginning to itch for the tiresome tramps over hill and dale for a few pop shots at the partridge. The open season begins November 1st and April 1st.

—Mrs. Dell G. McAlister, of Columbia, and Miss May Bell left Walhalla last week for Hot Springs, Ark., where they will spend two months or more on a pleasure and health-seeking trip.

—Louis A. Brennecke and sister, Miss Marguerite, left last week for Hot Springs, where they will remain for some time, hoping to obtain relief from rheumatism. Their many friends hope they may be permanently cured.

—For sale—Good yoke of steers, weight about 2,100 pounds. Apply to L. G. Gaston, Westminster, S. C.

—H. G. Wallace, who lives near Walhalla, has sold his farm of 100 acres to a Mr. Davis, of Ware Shoals, for the sum of $2,500. Mr. Wallace expects to leave in a few months for Oklahoma and may make that State his future home.

—Read T. M. Lowery's new advertisement on the fifth page of this issue and watch for his announcement next week. He is ready to serve the farmers of the county with the best in farm implements, horses and mules at right prices.

—T. Sumter Fennell, of Peizer, spent several days last week visiting his brother, W. A. Fennell, and family. He paid The Courier an appreciated call Saturday afternoon. Mr. Fennell is enjoying the best of health and a goodly measure of prosperity. His friends here were glad to meet him again.

—Call on J. M. Martin, Westminster, S. C. He will cut your feed. Terms, 75 cents per hour.

—Sam J. Isbell brought to our office Monday morning two large turkeys of the Purple Top variety, one weighing 6½ pounds, the other five pounds. He has one acre in turkeys, from which he expects to make 350 bushels. Last year Mr. Isbell presented us with several of his turkeys and made one of the best yields we heard of.

—Go to T. E. Alexander for your buggies and harness.

—H. D. Freeman, Carl Freeman and J. H. Simpson, three promising young men, left Walhalla last Monday for Paint Rock, Ala., where they expect to engage in the lumber business. H. D. Freeman and J. H. Simpson have for some time been clerking for C. A. Burton and A. C. Burton, in Walhalla. They have the best wishes of many friends for their success.

—Last week J. W. Holleman, Esq., was appointed by Governor Ansel as Coroner for Oconee county, vice W. L. Harbin, resigned. Mr. Holleman was the first Coroner Oconee ever had and made a faithful and capable official. Mr. Harbin held the office for six years and leaves a splendid record behind him. He resigned the office to accept a position that required all of his time.

—Read Ruskin Anderson's announcement on the second page of this issue. He has bargains to offer for everybody. Dry goods, notions, clothing—everything—is being put up to the top notch for quality and the bottom for price. You will do well to read carefully his announcement on the second page, and on the fourth page will be found something to interest all wearers of shoes. Call on Mr. Anderson when in Seneca.

—We had the pleasure of welcoming to The Courier office this week two of our oldest subscribers—Milton Nicholson, Sr., of Whitewater, and Capt. James T. Reid, of Evatt. Mr. Nicholson's name has been on The Courier's list continuously since November, 1851, and Capt. Reid's since 1854. There are no better citizens than these venerable gentlemen, and The Courier extends to them its hearty best wishes for yet many years of prosperity.

—Fair Dodd, of Atlanta, Ga., visited at the home of Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Strother, in West Union, this week.

—Rev. J. C. Younge is in Belton this week, assisting in protracted services in the Methodist church at that place.

—Found, a sum of money, which owner can have by proving same and paying for this advertisement. W. O. White, Walhalla.

—Wanted—1,000 bushels of sweet potatoes, yam variety; will pay 40 cents per bushel. J. H. Barnett, Westminster.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Bentley are entertaining a young lady at their home on Faculty Hill. The little stranger arrived last Wednesday, the 9th.

—Mrs. Lula Mickler Barr, after a pleasant visit to the family of Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Strother, returned to her home at Ridge Spring this morning.

—J. W. McCaslan, of Greenwood, was in Walhalla yesterday on business. He is an old Adger College boy, and the days he spent in Walhalla are pleasantly remembered by him.

—It will be learned with regret that Rev. M. O. Fuhl, of Postville, Iowa, who was called to the pastorate of St. John's Lutheran church here, will not become the pastor. He had accepted the call, but later circumstances have intervened, and he has been compelled to decline.

—Don't fail to attend the K. of P. meeting next Monday evening. The entertainment committee promises something rich, rare and racy. The spelling bee last Monday night was quite a success. Handsome prizes were given. This feature will probably be continued through the winter months.

—J. A. Alexander, of Lake Toxaway, N. C., is in Walhalla, and will remain here during the winter months. During the open season of the hotels at Lake Toxaway he held the position of steward for the Toxaway Company, and will return to this position about April 1st, 1908. The Toxaway hotels enjoyed one of their best seasons the past summer.

—Last Sunday morning, while attending to her household duties, Mrs. G. K. Maxwell had the misfortune to miss her footing as she started to descend the steps from her dining room. She was thrown down by the misstep, and her right leg, just below the hip, badly wrenched. No bones were broken, however, and it is hoped she will soon be entirely recovered. The injury is very painful, but not serious.

Notes from Chester Creek.

Chester Creek, October 12.—Special: Paul King and sister, Miss Viola, of Retreat, spent last Sunday at Taber.

Rev. W. J. Spearman filled his regular appointment at Mount Pleasant Baptist church last Sunday morning, preaching to a large congregation. He also preached at Reeder's Ford in the afternoon.

We are glad to know that Ran King is able to be out again.

Little Willie Haley is improving. We hope to see him out again soon.

James King is very sick at this writing.

Rev. J. Childs will preach at Mount Pleasant New Baptist church on the fourth Sunday evening.

Irving Carroll, of Oakway, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Georgetown.

Rev. Jack Childs and wife spent last Sunday with the family of J. P. Hill.
