Col. J. H. Estill Dead.

Savannah, November 9.—John Holbrook Estill, proprietor and editor of the Morning News, and prominently connected politically and in business, died at the Isle of Hope, near here, to-night. He made two campaigns for Governor. He was once chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee and was once a member for Georgia of the Democratic National Committee.

He was a member of the Oglethorpe Light Infantry in the Civil War, and has been prominently connected with various interests in Savannah.

Shot His Head Off.

Laurens, November 9.—A rather singular accident took place near here today when a negro boy by the name of Austin shot himself, almost severing his head from his body, in trying to shoot at birds which were flying over him. He was hunting several miles from this city, and, according to his companion's statement, had sat down to rest. The birds were noticed to be coming his way and Austin attempted to draw his gun in position when it was accidentally discharged. Austin died almost instantly. He was about 14 years of age.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Sad Death of Six-Year-Old Boy—Other Items of Interest.

Westminster, November 11.—Special: Mrs. A. C. Burton and Little son, of Walhalla, are visiting the family of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Leathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Zimmerman returned last night from Atlanta.

Mrs. John D. Hull, of Madison, S. C., spent last Tuesday afternoon in Westminster with relatives.

Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Brockman visited in Greenville Saturday. They accompanied the track meet to that city.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Haywood E. Wilson sympathize with them in the loss of their only boy, Harold C. D. Wilson, who died at 7 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning. He was a bright, handsome little fellow, and his death is not only a blow to his fond parents and grandparents, but to all who knew him. He was taken sick 43 days ago, but had sufficiently recovered as to be able to be up and about, and it was thought that he would soon be well. A few days ago diphtheria and membranous croup developed, and his physical condition being unfavorable for these maladies, he began to sink rapidly and could not rally. He was six years old last February. The interment will be in the town cemetery to-morrow some time. Arrangements have not been perfected at this hour (8 a. m.). They will probably await the arrival of Mr. Wilson's relatives at Austell, Ga. Mr. Wilson is the night telegrapher for the Southern at this place.

Flour is high and feed stuff may be scarce next summer. Farmers, sow wheat and oats liberally.

Track Meet.

Last Saturday was a great day for the high schools of the Piedmont section. Track meet contestants were from the Furman Fitting School, Easley High School, Westminster High School and Central High School (Greenville). The Furman Fitting School won, with Easley second and Westminster third, out of the four schools entering. When it is considered that the Westminster boys have never undertaken anything of the kind before, they did well. Quite a good deal of enthusiasm was manifested by all the teams, and especially so in the Easley Team. Those people over there certainly believe in standing up for anything Easley has anything to do with. The Easley band went over, paid their expenses in order that they might help their team win. The Westminster boys wish to have a track meet here on Thanksgiving afternoon, November 28. It is the purpose of Principal M. E. Brockman to arrange a meet of this kind with Prof. Kennedy, of Walhalla, and Prof. Nicholson, of Seneca; also Townville and Oakway if they wish to enter the meet. It is a fine sport for high schools. We are sure that if these schools see fit to take it up they will find that much interest will be taken in it by the boys. It is understood that none but school boys will be allowed to enter the meet. The entries are as follows:

1—50-yard dash, one man from each school.
2—100-yard dash, one man from each school.
3—220-yard run, one man from each school.
4—440 yard run, one man from each school.
5—Relay race, three men from each school.

6—Standing high jump, two men from each school.
7—Standing broad jump, two men from each school.
8—Running high jump, two men from each school.
9—Running broad jump, two from each school.
10—Shot put, two from each school.
11—Tug of war, six from each school.
12—Three-legged race, two from each school.

There are also a pole vault, composed of two from each school, and there will be some other entries for the amusement of the crowd, such as sack and shoe races, etc. All of these afford much amusement. While in Greenville the Westminster boys were entertained by the Furman Fitting School boys. The boys appreciate their hospitality very much. Let us have a meet on Thanksgiving, composed of the above named schools.

SAVED TOWN; DOZEN DEAD.

Engineer Ran Burning Train at Top Speed, but Lost His Own Life.

Douglas, Ariz., November 9.—Jesu Garcia, a locomotive engineer, saved Nacoaritz from destruction by running a burning powder train through the town at top speed, but lost his own life and caused the death of a dozen or more Mexican section hands through the explosion of two cars of powder just as the flaming train was passing a section house. John Chisholm, a boy, was also killed by the explosion.

The train caught fire near Nacoaritz, on the narrow gauge railroad of the Pikes mine. In the train were two open cars heavily loaded with explosives.

Realizing that the concentrator and a good part of the town would be destroyed in the powder explosion there, Engineer Garcia called to the rest of the crew to jump and started to run the train through and away from the town. He had taken about half a mile when the explosion occurred, as the cars were passing a section house full of Mexicans. The terrific explosion blew up the house, the train, the men and the engineer to atoms.

New Hope Items.

Jim White of Pickens was the "lucky" boy to carry off the prize. We wonder if they felt complimented.

Mrs. J. A. Kelley has been on the sick list the past week, but is convalescing.

Death of Caesar McDonald.

The soul of J. Caesar McDonald passed from earth into life eternal on November 4, about 3 o'clock. He had been in failing health about four years. While his death was not entirely unexpected, yet it was a shock. He came from his home at Belton with his family to his brother's, R. L. McDonald's, at James' Station, where he hoped to recover health, but God knew best and called him home. He was a member of the Baptist church. He was about thirty-five years of age, and the youngest son of William McDonald. He leaves a wife and two children, father, mother, several brothers and one sister, to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. T. Hays. His body was laid to rest in the Seneca cemetery. To the bereaved relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Personal Notes About Town—Rev. Finlay's Departure Regretted.

Seneca, November 12.—Special: Hunt & Harper will soon move their stock of goods into their handsome new quarters next door to the Occanee Inn. On this account they are offering special bargains for some days.

We take pleasure in correcting a mistake made in our last letter. The cottage occupied by Prof. David F. Nicholson is the property of D. Hunt, and not of Mr. Clinkcales, as stated.

The news of Major S. P. Dendy's death was received here with great sorrow by his many friends and relatives.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Carey cottage, on Townville street, which, when finished, will be occupied by Rev. C. S. Blackburn's family until the Baptist parsonage is finished.

Miss Bessie Wilson's friends are pleased to see her at home again from a recent visit to her brother at Ninety-six.

John L. McWhorter begun Monday the school at Speed's Creek.

Miss Pearl Verner, of Richland, is spending a few days in Seneca.

Wales Lowery, of Clemson, spent last Sabbath with his homefolks.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church is giving an oyster supper this evening.

Miss Emma Stribling spent Sunday here, returning to Walhalla Monday.

The Once-a-Week Club will meet this week with Mrs. H. P. Boggs.

The departure of Rev. K. G. Finlay from the up-country to Columbia is a keen loss to Seneca, where he is greatly beloved.

Mrs. John Hopkins' friends are glad to learn that she is better to-day.

Mrs. Rusk Anderson was hostess to the Once-a-Week Club last Thursday. The business program was most interesting, among other things being a fine paper from Mrs. Leland Maret on Julius Caesar, and another, "Famous Extracts from Shakespeare's Plays," by Miss Minnie Kirkpatrick. Both were exceedingly well done. After the business was dispensed with the hostess served delicious refreshments, consisting of tutti frutti, whipped cream, assorted cakes and coffee. The occasion was one of distinct charm, which indeed always characterizes the affairs of this gracious hostess.

Death of Miss Anna Moore.

Tugaloo, November 9.—Special: One of the saddest events that has occurred here in several years was the death of Miss Anna Moore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore. On the morning of November 6, at 2 o'clock, she quietly and peacefully breathed her last. She was only twenty years of age and died after an illness of five weeks. It does not seem real that one so young must be taken away with that dreaded disease, heart failure, but such was the case.

She seemed to have been forewarned of heaven several days previous to her death, for, even before the physicians lost hope, she called them all to her bed-side and bade them meet her in heaven. She was the incarnation of goodness and purity, and bore up cheerfully to the end, for death had no "sting" for her. She was the only girl and the idol of the family.

In August of this year she united with the Liberty Baptist church and has, at all times, lived up to her profession. In her we have lost one of our dearest friends, and we feel it deeply, but we are somewhat compensated in the assurance that, though it is our loss, it is heaven's gain. There is a vacancy in our hearts that cannot be filled, yet where she is most grievously missed is in the home, for she was an obedient and loving daughter, a true and affectionate sister.

Her remains were interred in the Unity cemetery Thursday at noon. The father, mother, three brothers and many sorrowing relatives and friends have our sincerest sympathy.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Ferry, the Seed Man, Dead.

Detroit, Mich., November 11.—Dexter M. Ferry, Sr., head of the well known seed firm of D. M. Ferry & Co., was found dead in bed early today by members of his family. Heart disease was the cause of death.

Elijah Gillison's barn, stables and crib, with contents, were totally destroyed by fire last night. One mule, two valuable cows and one calf, besides his entire crop of corn, fodder, farming implements, etc., were burned.

The loss is estimated at about $400. No insurance. Mr. Gillison is at Mountain Rest on business, and has not yet learned of his loss. His family were at his father's, and knew nothing of the fire until this morning.

Mrs. Gillison had emptied a pan of ashes in the stables yesterday and it is thought that the fire originated from a spark in the ashes.
