—Mrs. John W. Davis and children spent several days during the holidays with relatives and friends in Toccoa and Lavonia, Ga. They were accompanied by W. S. Davis, uncle of J. W. Davis, who is residing with them in Walhalla.

—Judge J. H. Pitchford and son, Irvin, returned to their home at Tahlequah, Oklahoma, last Saturday, after a pleasant stay of a week here with relatives. Their visit was greatly enjoyed by their numerous relatives and a wide circle of friends.

—We gladly welcome to our community Wm. H. Cary and family, of Seneca, who have purchased the Harper farm and residence (the old Gregg place) near town. Mr. Cary and his excellent family will be a decided acquisition to Walhalla and vicinity.

—Anderson Mall, 24th: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fretwell have arrived in the city to spend some time. Mr. Fretwell has been connected with the South and Western railroad at Marion, N. C., as contractor. Construction of the road has been suspended for a short while.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dodd and two children, of Charlotte, spent the Christmas holidays with the families of Mrs. S. J. Dodd and Mrs. W. A. Shockley, in West Union. They are gladly welcomed back each year to their old home, where they have hosts of friends to greet them.

—Ex-Supervisor L. H. V. Hobson, of Westminster, was in Walhalla yesterday on business. This is Mr. Hobson's first visit to Walhalla since January 4th, 1907. He has been peculiarly fortunate in that he has been too busy to leave home even for a short visit to his old friends at Walhalla, who were delighted to see him again.

—Ticket No. 2571 wins the steel range in the Moss & Ansel contest. The party holding the duplicate for 2571 should take same to Moss & Ansel as soon as possible and get the range. Don't write them that you have No. 2571 and expect them to put a 1-cent stamp on the stove and mail it to you. Take your ticket to the store and haul the stove away.

—News was received in Walhalla last Friday that Elbert Corbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. F. Corbin, was shot on Christmas out in Oklahoma. We are informed that a pistol ball struck him in the left side, making its exit from his back, below the shoulder blade. The wound is thought not to be serious. Mr. Corbin left Sunday for Oklahoma to see his son.

—Chas. W. Pitchford, Jr., Master Sam Pitchford, Misses Tommie and Dora Pitchford left last week for Atlanta, where they will join their mother and make their home in the future. Their departure is deeply regretted by many friends.

—Rev. L. T. Weldon will preach in the Baptist church on next Sunday, January 5th, at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Public cordially invited. All members of the church urgently requested to be present at the morning service, as a conference will be held immediately at its conclusion to consider the call of a pastor for the present year.

—The infant child of George Watkins died recently from an attack of diphtheria. Since the death of the child two members of the family have contracted light cases of the disease. The family is under strict quarantine at their home and no danger from spread of the disease is thought possible. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends.

—The Knights of Pythias of Oconee will learn with deep regret that Rev. J. H. Thornwell, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, died at his home at Fort Mill, S. C., on Monday, December 30th. Rev. Mr. Thornwell was a most estimable gentleman, an eminent divine and devout Christian. The Grand Lodge has lost a faithful and loyal servant in his death, which is deeply mourned throughout the State.

—Mrs. Josephine Tow, wife of Joseph L. Tow, died at their home, near Salem, on December 26, 1907, aged 40 years. She leaves her husband and six children, who have the sympathy of many friends. She was a member of Pleasant Ridge Baptist church and her body was buried at that place on Friday, December 27, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. S. A. Tow. A good woman has gone to her reward.

—John W. Davis has purchased from J. R. Earle, Esq., the frame building on Short street, formerly occupied by the Oconee News. The building will be moved to Tugaloo street and remodeled into a dwelling. Mr. Davis having purchased a lot south of the Episcopal church. As soon as the work is completed the house will be occupied by Miles L. Phillips and family, and Mr. Davis will move to the dwelling rooms over the old C. L. Reid store room, which was recently purchased by W. S. Davis. Some improvements are contemplated on this building also.

—W. M. Brown is about completing his handsome concrete building on Main street and is already receiving some of his stock. A number of fine horses have been added to his stables, and his building is having handsome buggies, carriages and harness stored preparatory to display. Mr. Brown has a business house that would do credit to any city, and he is to be commended for his push and energy. When everything is completed he will have one of the handsomest and largest business houses in Oconee. He intends to carry a stock of horses and vehicles, from which every purchaser can be suited.

Your Hair Contrary?

Is it inclined to run away? Don't punish it with a cruel brush and comb! Feed it, nourish it, save it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Then your hair will remain at home, on your head, where it belongs. An elegant dressing. Keeps the scalp healthy.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's

Formula with each bottle show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

We certainly believe this, or we would not say so. Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, is a great preparation for the hair and scalp. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff. Promotes the growth of hair.
