Merrett-Barker.

On Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock, January 29, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pick Merrett, in Poplar Spring neighborhood, Miss Selma Merrett and S. J. Barker were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, in the presence of a number of relatives and a few intimate friends. The event, one that has been looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by the many friends of both bride and groom. It was a quiet home wedding. Rev. W. E. Huff, of Seneca, officiated. The home was tastefully decorated, and in the soft light the bridal party made a beautiful picture as the solemn ceremony was performed. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations from the guests an elegant wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Barker will make their home for the present at Central.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp, and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak lungs and for preventing pneumonia King's New Discovery is supreme. 50c. and $1. at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

ACCIDENT AT WHITEWATER.

John McCoy's Team Goes Over the Cliff and is Probably Lost.

We have just received notice of a peculiar accident that occurred at Whitewater on the 31st of January. John McCoy, a well known teamster, was driving his team, a good yoke of oxen, along the road in the vicinity of the Whitewater Falls, when the team lost their footing and were precipitated over the cliff into the depths below. The wagon is a complete wreck 300 feet below the place where the team went over, and the oxen are about 150 feet below, not materially injured, save that one of them lost both horns in his rapid descent. There is no way to bring the oxen back to the upper world without making an almost endless detour of miles and miles around the precipitous heights, and it is then doubtful if the steers could be gotten up without some kind of assistance, as the gulch into which they fell is walled in on all sides by almost perpendicular mountainsides that almost preclude the possibility of a good mountain climber ascending or descending in safety. The cause of the accident was that the road was at the time like a solid sheet of ice, and the team lost their footing. McCoy jumped as his team and wagon went over and saved himself. Some time after the accident a neighbor who came to the assistance of McCoy in his dilemma took a trip across the icy road at the point where the team met with disaster, but he took the precaution to pass it on his hands and knees. McCoy is well known here, though his home is in Transylvania county, North Carolina. For a long time he was connected with the livery stables at this place, and is known as an expert, though rather reckless and daring driver. He was unhurt by the accident, except that he received a few slight bruises when he jumped from his mountain schooner.

Oldest Baptist Church Burned.
Washington Baptist church, three miles east of Pelzer, was destroyed by fire last Sunday about mid-day. The fire was caused by a defective flue, and occurred during the holding of regular church services. The church was the oldest in the upper part of South Carolina, and its loss is keenly felt in the community.

"MY DEAR APPELT" NO MORE.

Editor-Senator Stirs Up a Hornet's Nest in Senate.

Columbia, Feb. 7.—There were warm times in the Senate this morning when about a dozen Senators arose to a question of personal privilege to reply to and denounce an editorial in the Manning Times by Senator Louis Appelt to the effect that legislation looking to prosecution of the dispensary grafters was being blocked on account of there being so many men in the Senate who were lawyers for whiskey houses. The article was characterized as "an insolent lie," "too mean for a dog to write," etc.

Senator Blease opened the fight by reading an editorial and denouncing it. He said he paid very little attention to newspaper criticism, but he thought such insinuations as contained in this article called for attention when they came from a fellow Senator.

Senator Earle followed Senator Blease and denounced the article as "infamously false."

The whole chamber seemed to look for a fight at this point, but none came. Senator Appelt said that the names of the Senators representing whiskey houses were not given to him, but he had secured his information from what he considered reliable sources, and he proposed to continue to criticize and write about Senators when he saw fit.

Senator Weston, of Richland, frankly stated that he represented two liquor houses to try to collect their claims, but he considered he had a right to give his professional services to any one he saw fit.

Mr. Ransom said that he had never represented any whiskey house, but he thought he could do so without influencing his vote. But he declared with ringing voice, "this article is insolent and outrageous."

Senator Sinkler, of Charleston, bitterly denounced the article. "I will not say that it took a dog to write such an article as that, as I would consider that a slander on the dog," he said.

Senator Christensen, who is the editor of his home paper, The Beaufort Gazette, defended Senator Appelt's right to criticize other Senators, saying he had himself criticized the Senate, and he would do so again.

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

Ayer's
We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol
from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.
