SAYS ANSEL MUST ANSWER.

Cole Blease, Not in the Collar, Says Conspiracy is Against Him.

Columbia, Feb. 15.—Senator Cole Blease arose to a question of personal privilege in the Senate yesterday and replied to the testimony of Lewis W. Parker before the dispensary commission to the effect that Samuel J. Lanahan told him that Blease represented Wm. Lanahan & Sons before the dispensary board. Blease charged that there was a conspiracy Governor Ansel, Patton of the Commission, Parker and a newspaper correspondent from Greenville to injure him politically. He read affidavits from the Lanahans and others contradicting Parker. Blease said:

"Why did Parker wait till Lanahan was dead? I do not say that Parker is a liar, but Lanahan says that Parker is a liar. If Lanahan said that I was his agent he lied, and if Parker says that I was Lanahan's agent he is a liar. The man who will come to my face and tell me that I was Lanahan's agent, the world will find out whether he and I are both brave men or not. This summer Governor Ansel will answer to the people for the conspiracy between him and his Greenville ally, the newspaper correspondent. He will not only answer politically, but he will answer to me as a man, face to face, be he Governor or be he who he may."

The dispensary committee were in session again to-day. It was found that King & Co. and Kelly & Co., of Chattanooga, Tenn., are one and the same firm, and their claims were consolidated. It was also found that they overcharged the State $20,533.50. The amount of their claim is $6,395.84. This leaves a credit to the State of $14,137.66. The session will probably last three or four more days, when the attorneys from Atlanta will have concluded their work.

DAVID PAYSON VERNER DEAD.

Stricken Suddenly with Heart Failure at his Home at Retreat.

It is with regret we chronicle the death of D. Payson Verner, which occurred at his home at Retreat, in this county, on Thursday, February 13th, 1908, at 9 o'clock A. M., in the 49th year of his age. His death was sudden and unexpected. He was apparently in usual health and was attending to his affairs when taken with a sudden and fatal illness. His trouble is supposed to have been heart failure, and he died before a physician could be summoned. The announcement of his death is received with sorrow by many friends. His life was spent on the farm, and he was noted for his quiet, kind and generous disposition. He was never married and made his home with his mother, Mrs. Malinda Verner. He is survived by his aged mother, and by his sisters, Mrs. J. A. Wyley and Miss Harriet Verner, of Retreat, and by his brothers, J. D. and W. L. Verner, of Walhalla, and H. C. Verner, of Martin, Ga. He was a consistent member of the Retreat Presbyterian church, and his body was buried there last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Revs. J. J. Harrell and Wm. Wyley, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. We extend sympathy to the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

Notes from Ramsay's Creek.

Ramsay's Creek, Feb. 17.—Special: We have perhaps more mud at present than anything else, and most of the roads are nearly impassable.

J. S. Floyd, who has been indisposed for several days, is much better to the delight of his many friends.

Oak Grove school house, with all its contents, was destroyed by fire late Monday afternoon, February 10. It is supposed that the fire caught from the fire-place inside, and was therefore entirely accidental. For general appearance and convenience it was considered one of the best rural school buildings in Oconee. This fact makes the patrons of the school feel the loss very heavy.

The new church known as Bethel, at the Cross Roads or muster ground place, is nearing completion.

Dick Floyd, who spent a fortnight with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Floyd, expects to return to Asheville Wednesday.

Henry Lee spent last Friday here with his friend, Charlie Lee. D.

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure-you quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

GIRL-BOY CAN'T MARRY.

Error Made in Registering Birth of Child Causes Complications.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Mlle. Leys, a handsome young brunette of Dunkirk, recently became engaged, but when her parents applied to the registrar of births for the necessary copy of their daughter's birth certificate to lodge it in view of her marriage, they discovered that by a mistake the girl was registered as a boy, and that her name was down on the list of conscripts to be called up for military service this year. The mistake arose owing to the parents having called their daughter in sound, a name rather masculine in sound. As in the eyes of the law the girl is a man, the mayor of Dunkirk has refused to publish the banns. Mlle. Leys has, therefore, been obliged to petition a court to have the mistake rectified, which will take about six months. Meanwhile the military authorities have notified her, as Arsené Leys that she will be called up for military service very shortly.
