WALHALLA, SOUTH CAROLINA.

Local and Personal.

—Go to W. M. Brown for buggies, wagons, harness, etc.

—There will be preaching at the Bethel Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the pastor.

—"A Diamond," did you say? Yes, I keep them and can save you as much as $50 on a one-karat.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Adams are entertaining a little visitor at their home on Faculty Hill. The young lady arrived Monday, March 2d.

—J. A. Brock, Seneca, has a machine for testing the eyes and can fit glasses correctly.

—Hon. E. E. Verner was in Walhalla for a short while Monday last. He is looking remarkably well, and shows plainly that Congaree water does not kill on short notice.

—Thoroughbred White Wyandotte eggs for setting.

—The Conneross school honor roll of department for week ending Friday, 28th, is as follows: Mertie Hesse, Daisy Hesse, Gracie Abbott, Ollie Abbott, Dewey Butler, J. H. Cantrell is the teacher of this school.

—Listen! Everything in the store of E. & E. Callas will be sold by March 15. If you don't buy it's your fault!

—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nield, of Wicksburg, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nix, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ferguson, of Hartsville, returned to their respective homes last week.

—It would surprise you to know how many railroad watches J. A. Brock sells.

—W. Thomas Maxwell returned last week to Greensboro, N. C., at which place he has been under treatment for some months. His many friends will be delighted to know that his health is improving decidedly.

—All priced buggies at W. M. Brown's—from $50 up.

—The many friends of C. Schluter are glad to see him out again, after a severe attack of grip. For some time he has been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ladey, but has so far recovered as to be able to return to his own home.

—A nice line of china in odd pieces at J. A. Brock's, Seneca, S. C.

—C. E. Gaillard and D. A. Smith attended the Odd Fellows' district meeting at Piedmont last Saturday as representatives of Oconee Lodge. They were delighted with the meeting and the reception given them by the people of Piedmont.

—Sixteen steers and three fresh milk cows for sale cheap, for cash or on time, by T. E. Alexander.

—Miss Hannah Burs left last Friday for Atlanta, where she will be for a week or ten days selecting a full line of millinery, which will be on display soon at the Miss Burs' millinery store, on Main street, in the Walhalla Hotel building.

—The State Sunday School Secretary and Evangelist of South Carolina will conduct services at the Walhalla Baptist church on March 8th. All contiguous Sunday schools, Sunday school superintendents and workers are asked to attend.

—L. T. Weldon, Pastor.

—When in Seneca stop in and inspect my varied line. It will be a pleasure to show you, whether you buy or not.

—Anderson Mail, February 29: "D. A. Smith and C. E. Gaillard, of Walhalla, were in the city to-day en route to Piedmont, where this evening they will attend the district meeting of the Odd Fellows. These gentlemen represent Oconee Lodge, No. 64. The district meeting embraces delegates from all lodges in Oconee, Greenville, Anderson and Pickens counties. James H. Craig, of this city, is representing Toxaway lodge."

—Pure Brown Leghorn eggs for sale; 50c per setting.

—Mrs. I. Good, Walhalla, S. C.

—At a special congregational meeting of Chauga Baptist church last Sunday Rev. S. D. McAbee was called to the pastorate of that congregation. Rev. S. A. McDaniel presided over the meeting as moderator. Rev. Mr. McAbee was called for one year, and will preach his first sermon as the regular pastor on the fourth Sunday in this month at 11 o'clock a. m. All members and the public are cordially invited to this and all other services.

—Oconee Knitting Mill wants twenty girls to learn topping and knitting, and ten girls to learn looping.

—For sale, first class corn and fodder. C. Melchert, Walhalla. 7-10

—The Board of County Commissioners will meet at their office at the Court House next Friday morning.

—Hons. C. D. Mann and E. E. Verner are in Columbia attending the special session of the General Assembly.

—The base ball season is getting ripe. One game already reported in this county. This also means the opening of spring.

—All Heptasophs are urgently requested to attend the meeting tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. Business of importance to transact.

—What's the use of going to a large city when J. A. Brock, Seneca, S. C., keeps what you are looking for?

—Go to T. E. Alexander for your buggies and harness.

—We are informed by a note from A. L. Gossett, our Westminster correspondent, that he is still confined to his bed. We regret deeply to learn of his continued illness, but trust that he may soon be restored to perfect health.

—Died, in Midway, March 1st, at 4 p. m., Georgia Bond, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Bond. The little one was born May 6th, 1903, and died from the effects of measles. Funeral services were conducted at the home March 2d at 3 p. m. by Revs. L. M. Lyda and J. C. Yonque, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery. The family have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

—On Wednesday evening, February 19th, 1908, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harkins, about five miles from Walhalla, Miss Fannie B. Harkins and John C. Coward, of Whitewater, were married. Rev. Father Ford, of the Catholic church, Greenville, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Coward will reside at Whitewater. They have hosts of friends throughout the county who wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

—When in Seneca stop in and let J. A. Brock repair that watch, or sell you a new one.

—Anderson Mail, February 29: "Miss Carrie Shelor, who has been engaged in stenographic work at the Anderson Cotton Mill office, has accepted a position with the Tallulah Falls Railway Company, and will be located at the office of the company at Cornelia, Ga. Miss Shelor's many friends regret to see her leave Anderson, but wish for her a pleasant and profitable stay in her new field of labor. Miss Shelor will begin her work in Cornelia the first of March."

—Mrs. Phillips, about 50 years of age, wife of the late George Phillips, died last Thursday at the cotton mill village, after a short illness. Her body was taken to Double Springs Friday and interred beside that of her husband and daughter, both of whom died here within the past three weeks. The family has been sorely stricken by the hand of death. There are four orphan children left. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to them in their sorrow.

—Any jewelry purchased of J. A. Brock, Seneca, S. C., will be engraved free.

—Anderson Intelligence, February 28: "The Anderson victims of the 'Rev.' W. G. Whitaker, charged with using the United States mails to defraud various persons of sums reaching a total of nearly a million dollars, and who was recently arrested at Dayton, Ohio, will be pleased to know that he arrived in the city yesterday in custody of United States marshals. Failing to meet the required bond of $1,500, Whitaker was placed in the county jail pending the next term of the Federal Court."

—For Sale—Two sets of French hurr mill rocks. Apply to J. B. S. Dendy, Walhalla. 10

—Mrs. M. J. Merritt, of Gainesville, Ga., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Earle, in Midway. An interesting occasion last Saturday was the birthday party given by Mrs. Earle, who, having been born on February 29th, finds the celebration of that event not so common as the ordinary mortal, whose lot it is to be afflicted annually with a birthday, and thus grow old four times as fast as those few who, like Mrs. Earle, were ushered into the world on the last day of February in a leap year. May she celebrate yet many of these rare occasions! A dozen or more of invited friends were present. At the dinner hour an elegant course dinner was served.

—Early gardening is in order.

—To-day is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent.

—Rev. A. J. Cauthen, presiding elder of the Anderson District, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday morning, and preached an interesting and instructive sermon. The quarterly conference of the Walhalla Circuit and of the Seneca and Walhalla churches was held on Monday.

—Mrs. Jasper Doyle, of Bounty Land, has been chosen organizer for the Oconee School Improvement Association. It is to be hoped that the county schools will enlist heartily in the work of improvement, and to such an extent as to bring to Mrs. Doyle the gold medal offered to the organizer of the most progressive association.

—On the fifth page of this issue will be found an advertisement of M. J. Jordan, real estate dealer, of Canon, Ga. Read it. You will be interested. On March 25th he will sell some splendid property at Westminster—some of the best property in that thriving town. Write Mr. Jordan for particulars and attend the sale if you want a home or land for investment.

—J. L. Hutto fell from a wall at the Walhalla Cotton Mill last Saturday night and sustained painful injuries. Not being familiar with the grounds about the mill he walked off the high retaining wall to the east of the mill. Several ribs were broken and he was badly bruised, but is getting along all right, and will be out again soon. Mr. Hutto moved here recently from Spartanburg.

—Inspect my line of watches, clocks, cut-glass and jewelry before buying. The stock I carry would do justice to a city of 10,000.

—J. A. Brock, Seneca, S. C.

—News was received in Walhalla last week of the death of Miss Lena Schroder, at the home of Mrs. Doretta Dunnemann, corner King and Mt. Pleasant streets Charleston, on Wednesday, February 26th. Miss Schroder was about 50 years of age, and was a daughter of the late Jacob Schroder. She was born and reared to womanhood in West Union, and was a life-long member of the Lutheran church. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. C. R. D. Burns, of West Union; Mrs. Dr. W. E. Lake, Newberry; Mrs. A. G. Stapel, Montgomery, Ala., and one half-sister, Mrs. Doretta Dunnemann, of Charleston. She was well-known here and had hosts of friends in and near Walhalla, who will regret to learn of her death, and sympathize deeply with the bereaved ones in their sorrow. Mrs. Burns attended the funeral and burial which took place in Magnolia cemetery, Charleston, last Friday afternoon.
