MOST MARVELOUS MACHINE.

Some Interesting Facts Presented in Connection with the Human Brain.

The human brain is the most marvelous machine in the world, says Harpers' Magazine. It occupies less space in proportion to its capabilities than any machine it ever invented.

It sends a special nerve to every ultimate fiber of some 500 muscles, to many thousand branching twigs of arteries, to every pinhead area of the numerous glands which keep the machine properly oiled, heated or cooled; to some sixteen square feet of skin, which is the outpost guard of its castle, with which completeness that the point of a pin cannot find an area unguarded.

It possesses special quarters for the reception and translation of a constant stream of vibration that are the product of all things movable or still in the outer world. On the retina of every open eye is a picture of the outer view, a focused imprint of every ray of light and color; and in the visual chamber of the mental palace stands a vibrascope, a magic lantern, that receives the retina picture in its billion speeding series of light waves and throws upon them its mental screen as a living moving picture of light and shade and color.

In the chamber of sound is a vibraphone, over whose active wires passes every wave of sound, from the dripping of the dew to the orchestral fortissimo, from the raucous screech of the locomotive to the sighing of the wind through the meadow grass. In the chambers set apart for scent and taste and touch are the secret service guards to report upon the air and food which gives sustenance to the palace and upon the solid qualities of the tactile world. And wonder of all wonders! this complex human brain can think in all languages or in no language, and even conceive its own physical mortality.

What About a Cook Stove?

Now that summer time and "dog days" are just ahead, everybody who "summers" at home, is considering how to simplify things and get the most comfort out of an uncomfortable situation.

We interview the ice man, order thin clothes, plan to ease up here and relax there, but more than likely forget the one most important item in the whole hot-weather scheme—some means of doing the family cooking without the insufferable heat of a coal fire in the kitchen.

Every one with experience knows how tiresome it is to stay in a stuffy room to prepare a meal, let alone the doing of a big baking. But every one doesn't know how very easy it is to change a hot kitchen to a cool one, and do better cooking at the same time. Just add to your list of summer conveniences a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook Stove and you've done all that any one can do to lessen hot weather discomfort.

Wouldn't it be fine of a summer morning to step in the kitchen, put on the kettle, broil the steak, bake the muffins, filter the coffee and give the breakfast call in one-fourth the time you'd take to do it all on a coal stove?

And wouldn't it be fine to be as cool when the breakfast was prepared as when you first entered the kitchen?

People who have tried it say that the New Perfection Oil Stove actually does everything in the line of cooking and domestic service without overheating the room or the worker. Undoubtedly the reason is to be found in the blue flame principle on which the stove works.

A cylinder of electricity concentrates the heat at the stove top and in this way prevents surface radiation as in a coal or wood stove.

It is easy to see that this lessens very much the matter of personal discomfort in summer housekeeping. So don't forget the New Perfection Oil Stove in your summer plans and you will have a comfortable kitchen and the best cook stove in the world.

BIG PROFITS IN LIQUOR.

County Dispensaries Doing About Same Business as Old System.

During the quarter ending March 31 the county dispensaries in South Carolina sold $970,964.01 worth of whiskey, in twenty-four counties, of which one has since gone dry. On this business an average profit of 39 per cent was made, the total profit being $268,941.98. This is at the rate of over one million dollars a year profit.

According to the statement recently prepared by Comptroller General Jones the State dispensary during its thirteen years of business paid into the State Treasury for all purposes the sum of $1,515,107.57. The proportion of profit paid to the counties and towns varied at different times, but the total profit of the State dispensary business, even when there were dispensaries in forty-one counties, did not reach one million dollars per year, or thirteen million dollars in the thirteen years that it was in operation.

According to the report made by Dispensary Auditor West to Governor Ansel at the close of the fiscal year the total amount of sales by the county dispensaries during the nine and a fraction months they were operated in 1907 was $2,691,663.43, on which the net profit declared was $695,056.61. The business for a full year or twelve months, runs easily in excess of three million dollars, which was the high water mark for the State dispensary, while the profit of the county dispensary system for twelve months runs in excess of one million dollars, which the State dispensary never did attain, though its founder predicted it would. Though there are now dispensaries in only twenty-four counties the profit from the county dispensary system is proportionately so much greater than from the State dispensary, and it is distributed between the county and towns, that as a revenue producer the county dispensary is going to prove more popular than the old system, and for that reason, if for no other, it is more difficult to vote it out than it was to close the county dispensaries under the so-called Brice act under the State dispensary regime, when prejudices and antagonism to the State dispensary had something to do with the large prohibition vote cast in several counties of the State.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever coffee substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for coffee. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. Sold by A. P. Crisp.

Negro Killed by Officer.

In attempting last week to arrest Chester Cobb, a young negro twenty years of age, Deputy Ervin Prince, of Abbeville county, was forced to shoot the negro in self-defense. Mr. Prince is an officer for Magistrate Harkness, of Abbeville county, and early Sunday morning he met Cobb in the road, for whom he had a warrant, and when he attempted to make the arrest the negro drew a gun and fired, the deputy firing at about the same time. The officer's bullet went to the mark while the bullet from the gun of the negro missed and as a result the negro is now stone dead and the officer is still enjoying good health.

An inquest was held over the dead body of the negro Sunday afternoon and the jury returned a verdict that the negro came to his death at the hands of officer Prince and that the killing was justifiable.

To avoid that "all in" feeling after any violent or unusual exercise, Sloan's Liniment should be used as a rub-down.

Harry K. Gillman, instructor of athletics, 417 Warren street, Roxbury, Mass., writes: "During my connection with athletics and athletes, will say that I have used Sloan's Liniment in extreme cases of fatigue after physical exertion, where an ordinary rub would not prove beneficial, with splendid success. I have also used it in massaging elderly men afflicted with rheumatism. We always keep a bottle around the house for any household emergency, and I always carry one in my grip, and will in the future."

Green Lizard in Sardines.

(Augusta Chronicle.)

A day or two ago, Lem Jenkins, a negro farm hand who lives near Augusta, purchased a small box of sardines and carried it home for Sunday supper. He duly ripped open the tin, poured out the cotton seed oil, and began to make away with the shiny little fishes.

Reaching the second layer, with a keen edge still on his appetite, Jenkins came upon a tiny green leg protruding between two finny carcasses.

"I hev heard tell of findin' wings in a rabbit pie," muttered the Epicurean, "but I never seen a sardine with legs before," and he dug his fork into the marvel.

Out came a long green lizard, with a shrivelled hide and the oil dripping from the end of its spotted tail.

"Gawd-a-mercy, Mr. Ramsey will sho' git me now, fo' I see a dead nigger," moaned Jenkins, and immediately became sick unto death. But he has recovered and forsworn sardines.
