

GREAT COMMONER NAMED.

Democratic Convention Nominates Wm. J. Bryan on First Ballot.

Denver, July 10.—Col. Williams Jennings Bryan was nominated by practically a unanimous vote at 3.42 o'clock this morning after an all-night session. Mr. Hammond, who named Governor Johnson, moved to make the nomination unanimous, and this vote was quickly followed by the other States which had cast votes for either Gray or Johnson. The resolutions were carried with a wild whoop, and then the convention recessed until one o'clock to-day, when a running mate for Mr. Bryan will be named.

The official vote was for Cr. Bryan 892, Judge Gray 59, and Governor Johnson 46; absent 8.

Bryan Makes Announcement.

Fairview, July 10.—"The Presidency is the highest official position in the world, and no one occupying it can afford to have his views upon public questions be biased by personal ambition. Recognizing his responsibility to guard, and his obligation to his countrymen he should enter upon the discharge of his duties with singleness of purpose, believing that one can best do this when he is not planning for a second term, I announce now, as I have on former occasions, that if elected, I shall not be a candidate for re-election."

Mr. Bryan added: "This nomination is as pure a nomination from the people as ever was made. If elected my obligations will be to the people. I appreciate the honor the more because it came not from one person or a few persons, but from the rank and file of the Democratic party, acting freely and without compulsion."

JOHN MITCHELL DECLINES.

Appears Before Alabama Delegation and Declines Nomination.

Denver, July 10.—John Mitchell, the former head of the United Mine Workers of America, to-day made a personal appeal to the Alabama delegation not to present his name to the convention for the Vice Presidential nomination.

Alabama being the first on the alphabetical roll of States, could give the Mitchell movement impetus by presenting the name of the labor leader in advance of other candidates. When Mr. Mitchell heard that the delegates had planned such a step, he lost no time in trying to head it off.

In discussing the situation at the Alabama headquarters, Mr. Mitchell said that while he would possibly strengthen the Democratic ticket in some quarters, he would weaken it in others, and therefore he advised the delegation to abandon its plan.

Speaking of his personal wishes in them, after he said he had made plans for the future and that he should like to be undisturbed in carrying out his program, particularly as he was greatly averse to entering on a political campaign.

DIAMOND RING IN CHEESE.

Sold by New Jersey Grocer to Woman for Eleven Cents.

New York, July 10.—Fritz Weber, a grocer in Bloomfield, N. J., sold eleven cents worth of cheese to a woman customer. A few hours later the woman returned to the store and asked Mr. Weber if he had lost a diamond ring. He replied that he had not, for he had never owned one.

The woman then produced a ring set with three glistening stones, which she said she had found imbedded in the cheese he had sold her. She was happy when told that the grocer did not own her find, which she said would enable her to take a needed vacation.

It is believed the ring, which is valued at $1,000, got into the cheese at the factory. Weber could not be induced to give the name of his lucky customer.

VICE-PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE.

John W. Kern, of Indiana, Given Second Place on Ticket.

Denver, July 10.—At 4.11 o'clock this afternoon the National Democratic Convention completed its work by the nomination by acclamation of John W. Kern, of Indiana, for Vice President, and at 4.22 the convention adjourned.

The end came after a three-hour session, which was marked by the greatest enthusiasm, despite the fact that the delegates had hardly recovered from the harrowing experiences of the previous session, which had lasted almost until the break of day.

Who He Is.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 10.—John W. Kern has been a prominent figure in State politics for a period of twenty-four years, having been nominated by the Democrats in 1884 for reporter of the Supreme Court and being elected with the entire State ticket.

He was born and reared in Howard county, and before his nomination for reporter was regarded as one of the brainiest young lawyers of the State. Since he retired from the office of reporter he has served four years in the State Senate from this county, has been twice honored by his party with the gubernatorial nomination, and once receiving the complimentary vote of the legislative minority for the United States Senate.

Mr. Kern has always been a very staunch party man. In the preliminary campaign of 1896, when there was such a determined free silver sentiment and it seemed inevitable that the approaching Democratic State Convention would endorse free silver, he was a pronounced gold man, and entered freely into the fight to create sentiment in the party against the new political dogma.

"We get some sad cases," said the attendant at the lunatic asylum to the visitor, and opened the door of the first cell.

Inside was a man sitting on a stool gazing at the wall.

"Sad story," said the attendant. "He was in love with a girl, but she married another man, and he lost his reason from grief."

They stole out, softly closing the door behind them, and proceeded to the next inmate. This cell was thickly padded, and the man within was stark, staring mad.

"Who is this?" inquired the visitor. "This," repeated the attendant—"This is the other man."—Tid Bits.

SOLDIERS IN A RIOT.

Free-for-All Fight at a Resort Near Washington.

Washington, July 9.—As the result of a serious riot late Tuesday night at River View, a resort on the Maryland side of the Potomac, about fourteen miles below here, twenty-five privates of the United States army are under arrest at Fort Washington, Md., and Capt. Edward N. Macon, who endeavored to suppress the outbreak, suffered a broken arm and many of the rioters sustained painful injuries. The participants may be court-martialed.

Tuesday being pay day, seventy-five of the men, it is said, had been drinking, and became involved in a free-for-all fight at River View, in which several civilians participated. Men, women and children excursionists fled from the resort. Capt. Macon and a company of men went to the resort, and after considerable resistance, finally put the rioters under guard at Fort Washington.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good"; and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enjoys an immense sale, while most of the pretentious claims that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity, and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popularity, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-poens humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Loss of appetite, and some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

STATE ENTOMOLOGIST RESIGNS.

Mr. Chambliss Accepts Position in Department of Agriculture.

Columbia, July 9.—C. E. Chambliss, State entomologist, has resigned his position and accepted a position in the bureau of plant industry, department of agriculture, where he will carry on his work of the last few years in investigating rice blight and other matters affecting the rice crop of the country. This new position gives Mr. Chambliss a much wider field in which to work and broader facilities for that work, and while he will no longer make his headquarters in South Carolina, this State will feel the immediate good effects of his investigations as much as at present.

During the last few years Mr. Chambliss has done some notable work in this line, and while his efforts have not been as State entomologist confined to rice, his work on this line has attracted the attention of the government officials, and this new position was recently offered him without his knowledge of the matter previous to the time he received the offer. He has forwarded his resignation to the sub-committee of the Clemson College Trustees, and left this afternoon to take a brief rest before assuming his new duties. His headquarters will be in Washington, his work coming under the supervision of the bureau of plant industry, department of agriculture, but he will visit South Carolina frequently. His work will also take him into Louisiana, Texas and other States where rice is planted.

Mr. Chambliss is a great believer in South Carolina rice and its possibilities, both commercially and agriculturally. He now has on the plantation of W. E. Haskell, near Charleston, a large number of varieties secured from all portions of the world, and his investigations on this line have been most interesting and valuable.

BONI'S SUIT NO SURPRISE.

Attorneys for De Sagan Expected Him to Try to Create Scandal.

Paris, July 9.—The attorneys for the Prince de Sagan are in no way surprised that Count Boni de Castellane intends to attack not only the Prince de Sagan, but the Princess, in his forthcoming suit to gain possession of his three children.

They say that they expect that the Count will attempt to create as much of a scandal as possible and they look forward to a protracted legal battle. The Prince and Princess de Sagan arrived at Versailles to-day and took up their quarters in a hotel where they will probably remain until they open their home in Paris in the autumn. They both decline to talk of the suit brought by Count Boni.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever coffee substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for coffee. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. Sold by A. P. Crisp.
