—The excursionists from Charleston left Walhalla Monday, after a pleasant stay of two weeks here among relatives and friends. Their visit was greatly appreciated by all the people of Walhalla, who enjoyed having their friends from the "City by the Sea" in our midst. To all appearances the visitors enjoyed and were benefited by their stay and returned to leave so soon. It is hoped that next year a larger number will visit Walhalla and be given a longer term for their outing. On account of the damage to the various railroads by high water, the excursionists had to return by way of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Carter has two trees, seven years old, and this year they are bearing their second crop. In 1906 he got the first crop, in 1907 the entire crop was killed in the bud by frost, and this year the young trees are literally loaded with fruit averaging about fourteen inches in circumference. Mr. Carter has quite a large orchard of fine trees of various varieties.

South Carolinians should be especially interested in these principles, as President Johnson, of Winthrop College, at Rock Hill, was one of the committee which framed them. The more important of the principles will be printed next week.

—A charming affair of the past week was the party given by Mrs. J. A. Steck in compliment to the Paul Hayne Circle and a few invited visitors. When all had gathered little leaflets entitled "The Gates to Open," were distributed, and the guests were bidden to begin the unravelling of the puzzle. Miss Daisy Strong, who opened the greatest number of the gates, was presented with a beautiful cut glass salted almond dish. During the afternoon refreshing sherbet and cakes were served. Mrs. Steck was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Harry da Ponte. Among those enjoying the pleasures of this delightful Saturday afternoon were: Misses Cora and Daisy Strong, Annie Blummann, Mary Ansel, Alice Strong, Mesdames J. A. Ansel, E. L. —Mrs. Dock Hunnicutt, of Greenville, who has been on a visit to the family of R. S. Rutledge and other friends, returned to her home Monday. This was Mrs. Hunnicutt's first visit to Walhalla in a number of years, and her many friends here were delighted to meet her again. She was accompanied to Walhalla by her daughter, Miss Maggie, who will remain in town for a week or ten days.

—Twenty-one hundred voters have been registered in Oconee county so far, and there are yet others who ought to be registered. During this month the Registration Board will make a trip over the county for the purpose of renewing certificates and registering voters. Elsewhere will be found a notice of the dates and places where citizens may secure registration certificates. Read this notice carefully, and when the board is at your nearest point call and have yourself put in position to exercise your rights as a citizen. It is important.

—Rev. C. E. Weltner, of Columbia, occupied the pulpit of St. John's Lutheran church last Sunday morning, when the large edifice was crowded to overflowing, the gallery as well as the church proper being filled. Rev. Mr. Weltner has received a most cordial welcome, and the Sunday service was greatly enjoyed by all. During the week he has been conducting a "Sunday School Normal," which will close to-day with a lecture "Round Table Talk," at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Weltner is one of the most learned theologians of the Lutheran church, and his manner of presenting and handling Bible truths is most interesting and attractive.

—Miss Maud Redmond, of Columbia, left Walhalla yesterday for Easley, where she will spend a few days among relatives before returning to her home. She is one of the orphans at the Epworth Orphanage at Columbia, and is the young lady selected by the Walhalla Methodist Sunday school when she was quite small as the special charge of the members of the school. Each month a collection is taken up for her here, and has been for years. It was a great pleasure for the members of the Sunday school to have her in Walhalla for a visit, and the little lady seemed to enjoy her stay among her friends here, whom she had never seen before. Her visit has increased the interest of the Methodist school in the work of assisting the orphans.

—Mrs. T. Walter Thompson and children are at the home of E. L. Herndon, in Midway, for a few days.

—Last Saturday an election was held in West Union School District on the question of levying a four-mill tax for school purposes. Thirteen votes were polled favorable to levying the tax and nine against the levy. This district will, therefore, have a larger revenue and a better school. We also understand that it is the intention of the trustees to build a modern school building.

—At the Wagener Theatre to-morrow (Thursday) night K. Shiol, A. B., M. A., will lecture on the Russo-Jap War. His lecture will be illustrated by moving pictures and stereoscopic views. Go out and hear him. It will be well worth your time and money. Admission, adults 25 cents; children 15 cents. To-morrow night at Wagener Theatre.

—Correcting a "Campaign" Report.

—Until now I have paid no attention to the various "campaign reports," but I find one gaining pretty wide circulation in the last few days that must be answered. On account of the fact that Mr. Cantrell and I agreed not to make any further personal canvassing tour of the county, it becomes necessary for me to use the public press to reach the people with my answer.

—The report is, that if I am elected Superintendent of Education others will run the office for me. This is absolutely false, for I have never thought of allowing such a thing. On the other hand, if elected, I shall give the office and schools my strict PERSONAL attention, and will be Superintendent of Education in name and in fact, subject to no person, faction, nor party, but a servant of the whole people.

—I wish to say to the voters of Oconee, if it is necessary for me to stoop to falsehood to be elected, I must and ought to fail, for truth is one of the first qualities that one should possess to fill this position. I have not, nor will I, throw any reflections, by reports or otherwise, upon my opponent, and I do not want my friends to do it. I am running this race upon my merits and not his demerits. If I have not merits enough to win, then I ought to be defeated.

—Yours very truly,
Wade C. Hughes.

—FIERCE FIRE AT NEW ORLEANS.

—Picnic Costs the City Upwards of Two Million Dollars.

—New Orleans, La., Aug. 31.—Fire, which broke out in the center of the commercial district here this afternoon, swept over portions of three blocks, destroying a large number of wholesale stores, manufacturing plants and small stores. Originating at Bionville and Chartres streets, the flames worked their way north as far as Conti street and west toward Royal, bringing about a property loss of between one and two million dollars before they were finally subdued.

—Several circumstances combined to give the fire a headway which proved hard to overcome. At the time the alarm was turned in, shortly before 3 o'clock, the New Orleans firemen were in the midst of their annual picnic at a suburban park and the engines and patrols responded with a mere handful of men. It was fully an hour before the department was in a position to make anything like a successful fight against the fire, and even then the handicap against it was added to by an inadequate supply of water.

—The fire was one of the most spectacular that has occurred in New Orleans during recent years. The section devastated was made up largely of old buildings, some over half a century in use. They proved like so much tinder to the flames, and fanned by a high wind, the fire made rapid progress.

—Two warehouses, filled with wine and liquors, were among the buildings destroyed by the fire. As they burned the barrels of whiskey and brandy exploded with thunderous roars which could be heard for several blocks, and which shook the walls of adjoining buildings and endangered the lives of firemen engaged in fighting the flames.

—It was not until several hours had elapsed that the fire was gotten under control, and even then it continued to burn well into the night.

—Dr. J. G. Law has returned from a pleasant stay at Montreat, N. C.
