Sentences.

W. H. Malloy, convicted of murder, with recommendation to mercy of Court. Confinement in State penitentiary at hard labor for life.

Logan Ramey, convicted of murder with recommendation to mercy of Court. Confinement in State penitentiary for life.

On Tuesday morning of this week Ramey (white) and Malloy (colored) were taken to Columbia by a guard from the penitentiary to begin their long sentences. Both looked care-free and content. Ramey is a young man of intelligent face, which portrays a quick temper, though it did not impress us with being that of a wanton murderer. As he walked, handcuffed, by the side of Sheriff Kay toward the depot, he was intent on reading from a paper, while Malloy followed in charge of the penitentiary guard, apparently taking in the fresh morning air with great relish.

Former Mayor of Atlanta Dead.

Atlanta, Nov. 17.—Judge William Lowndes Calhoun, aged 76, a Confederate veteran, member of the Legislature for two terms, Mayor of Atlanta for two years, ordinary of Fulton county for over sixteen years and one of Atlanta's pioneer and best known citizens, died at his residence, 233 Washington street, shortly after 9 o'clock Monday morning. Judge Calhoun had been in declining health for over two years. He had been a resident of Atlanta for over half a century.

A Paying Investment.

John White, of 38 Highland avenue, Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

NEGRO DESPERADO KILLS EIGHT

Bloody Gun Battle Occurs in Oklahoma—Desperado Burns Self.

Okmulgee, Okla., Nov. 15.—Eight persons were killed and ten others were wounded to-day in a fight between James Deckard, a negro desperado, and officers.

The disturbance began at the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad station, where Deckard engaged in a fight with an Indian boy, Steve Grayson, and beat him into insensibility with a rock. Friends of Grayson called the police. When Policeman Klaber went to the station, Deckard fled to his house nearby and barricaded himself. When Klaber approached the house, Deckard shot and instantly killed him.

Sheriff Robinson gathered deputies in a few minutes and hurried to the scene. This party contained several negroes, whom the sheriff commissioned as deputies. As the attacking party approached the Deckard house, Deckard opened fire with a rifle, firing as rapidly as he could load his weapon. The sheriff fell first, instantly killed. Then five of the negro deputies were also slain.

Deckard's house was soon surrounded by a frenzied mob of armed men. Fire was set to a house just north of Deckard's. Volley's of bullets were poured into Deckard's house and he was shot down. He was soon rolled over, strike a match and set fire to his own house, which was soon a roaring furnace, in which his body was baked. Deckard evidently had a large quantity of ammunition stored in the house, for many cartridges exploded.

Governor Haskell, of Guthrie, was advised of the fight and the bad feeling between the whites and the negroes that had grown out of it, threatening a race riot. The Governor at once ordered the militia company at Muskogee to prepare to go to Okmulgee, and a special train was made ready to carry the troops. The Governor remained at his office to keep in touch with the situation.

News of the preparation to send militia had a good effect on the disorderly element of both races, and to night the crowd dispersed. Further trouble is not expected. When it became known that no other negro had assisted Deckard against the officers the talk of reprisals subsided.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress street, Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c.

REUNION OF ORR'S RIFLES.

Survivors of Famous Regiment Met in Abbeville Last Week.

Abbeville, Nov. 13.—The survivors of Orr's Regiment held their annual reunion here yesterday. The meeting had been postponed because of the illness of Gen. R. R. Hemphill, president of the association, hoping that he would be able to attend, but his condition did not warrant him venturing out. Capt. W. F. McGill, of Anderson, first vice president, presided and introduced the various speakers.

The meeting was held in the opera house, which was packed. The children of the graded school and the veterans all marched through the square to the opera house in a body, about 100 veterans and 400 children being in line. Music was furnished by a choir of 24 voices, got up for the occasion.

Gen. M. L. Bonham made a very fine address indeed in his usual happy style. Gen. Bonham belongs to Abbeville and he is always given a warm welcome when he comes here for any occasion.

At the conclusion of the meeting Dr. Harrison, on behalf of Abbeville, invited the association to meet here again next year. The invitation was received with cheers and accepted at once.

Capt. McGill paid his respects to the citizens of Abbeville, saying the last two meetings held here were by far the best and most pleasant they had ever planned.

The ladies of Abbeville, through the Daughters of the Confederacy, served a bountiful dinner to all the old soldiers at Rosenberg's hall.

A large number of veterans went over to Gen. Hemphill's home in Fort Pickens to speak to him before going home.

Woodward Withdraws.

Atlanta, Nov. 17.—Jas. G. Woodward withdrew from the race for mayor last night, leaving only one candidate, Robert F. Maddox, in the field.

Mr. Woodward announced his withdrawal in a letter which he sent by a friend to a meeting of Maddox's supporters.

He stated that his reason for withdrawing was a desire not to see Atlanta citizens split up at this time.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world-wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

STOP AND THINK!

Here is Something Worth Your Thought and Attention!

How can the South (the Farmer) reduce his living expense and at the same time create a higher market for his products. One way is by using the products of Cotton Seed—Cooking Oil to cook with, Cotton Seed Meal for horses, hogs and Hulls for horses and cattle.

We would say that there are about 20,000,000 people in the South, and five to the family, making 4,000,000 families, each using 100 pounds of hog lard per year at a cost of 11 cents per pound, equals $11. One-third less is required when using Cooking Oil, or 66 2-3 pounds at 8 cents per pound, equals $5.36 per year to the family, a saving of $5.64, and a saving to the South of $22,560,000.

Come to see us and we will show you a nice horse that has been eating Cotton Seed Meal with every meal he has had, and has been at it for six months. Man did not find the horse eating corn any more than he found him eating Cotton Seed Meal. Corn has about 15 per cent Portine and Meal about 42 per cent Portine.

2,000 POUNDS OF COTTON SEED WILL BUY FROM US 2,000 POUNDS OF 8.75-2-2 STANDARD GUANO.
