

G. R. CARTER IN GEORGIA.

Has Recently Been Given Good Position in "Empire State."

Cordele, Ga., April 11.—Editor Keowee Courier: It seems like getting a letter from home and all of the people in the surrounding country when I get The Courier every Thursday. I get letters from my better half on Tuesdays and Fridays, and between the two I keep in close touch with the times in Oconee.

This is Easter Sunday, and is a fine day, but a little windy.

I am located in Crisp county. I have been appointed prison warden for this county by the State Prison Commission of Atlanta and Road Superintendent by the Crisp Commissioners, so if I behave myself and keep my health I may stay here for some time. I have a good job that pays me $100 a month and all expenses. I have eighteen convicts in the camp and several free men. The most of the free men are from Wall-halla. W. P. Powell is my night watchman. James D. Hays, Harmon Keil and M. W. Carter are some of the machine men. I have a large 22 h-p. Port Huron engine and two heavy steel Champion road machines, and we are plowing up the ground and making some good roads.

This is a fine farming country for cotton, sugar cane, peanuts and potatoes. They raise peanuts to fatten their hogs. Everybody is through planting corn, and some are working it over. Cotton is about all planted and a lot of it is up to a good stand. Everything is green. Potato slips are up and ready to set out, and some new Irish potatoes are beginning to come on the market, and we will soon have plenty of cabbage and beans. I bought forty pounds of fish last night for an Easter treat for those in the camp. It is a real inspiration to hear the convicts singing at nights and on Sundays. Sometimes it makes me feel like being a convict, so I could enter into their music, but when it comes to the stripes and straps I would object, for I have to use the strap quite severely at times.

The mosquitoes will be out soon. Oconee people cannot realize what this pest really is. A man from our part of the country can scarcely endure them. So far, however, they have not bothered us much.

DYE CITY RED WITH BLOOD.

Two American Missionaries Reported Butchered in General Massacre.

Constantinople, April 16.—Information received here to-day from Adana, in Asiatic Turkey, declares that two American missionaries have been killed in the anti-Armenian outbreak at that place.

The Moslem fanaticism against the Christians of Adana appears to have broken out afresh. The Moslem attacks recommenced yesterday afternoon and continued throughout the night. Large numbers of Christians are said to have been killed. One report says that sixty Armenians have lost their lives and that many houses have been looted and burned.

There is no confirmation of the death of the two American missionaries. Their names are not given in the dispatch received here. The British vice consul at Mersina has proceeded to Adana.

The first news of this anti-Christian outbreak said the scene was at Mersina, but this was erroneous. The trouble occurred at Adana, which is about 36 miles inland from Mersina.

Ends Life in Bath Tub.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—Col. Moses Gibson, who served in the Confederate army during the campaign in Virginia, committed suicide here yesterday by drowning in a bath tub, after slashing his wrists with a razor. He was 72 years of age. He was in the coal business in Louisville for many years, and is said to have introduced anthracite coal to the people of Kentucky.

THREE NEW JUDGES SWORN IN.

Interesting Ceremony—Jones, Hydrick and Sease Take Oath.

Columbia, April 15.—An interesting ceremony took place in the Supreme Court at noon to-day, the occasion being the swearing in of Judge Ira B. Jones, of Lancaster, promoted to Chief Justice to take the place of Chief Justice Y. J. Pope; Circuit Judge D. E. Hydrick, of Spartanburg, to take Justice Jones' place as Associate Justice, and of Solicitor T. S. Sease, of Spartanburg, promoted to Judge of the Seventh Circuit in place of Judge Hydrick.

None of the other members of the Supreme Bench were present at the ceremony, and Governor Ansel could not attend.

The ceremony was very simple. First Judge Hydrick swore in Judge Jones as Chief Justice, then the new Chief Justice returned the compliment by swearing in Judge Hydrick as a member of the Supreme Bench. Next the Chief Justice administered to Mr. Sease the oath that made him a Circuit Judge.

The court room was crowded with ladies and members of the local bar.

Obligated the "Corpse."

An empty coffin reposed on a truck on the Atchinson depot platform one day this week. Out of mischief one of the employes of the baggage room crawled into the coffin box and drew the lid down. No sooner was he concealed than a young colored man with a jaunty swagger and tuneful whistle came along and wishing to rest settled comfortably on the casket. He fell asleep and was awakened by a distressing moan. The moan was repeated, and then somebody said: "Oh-o! Please get off my dead body." The negro granted the request at once. With a blood-curdling yell he leaped into the air and sped away. He attempted to cross the bridge, but Cy Smith, fearing that in his frenzy, he would leap into the watery depth below, blocked the way. Unable to cross the river, the colored man sprinted to the railroad yards, and when last seen was passing the coal mine and still going South.

The Baldwin Locomotive Works, at Eddystone, Pa., has received a contract to build seventy-five locomotives for a Western trunk line. Operations on the contract will begin soon. Virginia Hotel Collapsed.

Petersburg, Va., April 15.—Early to-day the foundations of the annex to the Chesterfield Hotel and the four-story shoe store adjoining began to sink, and at noon both structures collapsed. There were no fatalities. The hotel guests were aroused by the cracking of timbers at 3 a. m. and hurriedly vacated.

PRESBYTERY MET IN EASLEY.

Sixty-Six Churches in Presbytery. May Divide Body.

Easley, April 14.—South Carolina Presbytery met in the Easley church, of which Rev. David L. Lander is pastor, at 8 p. m., Tuesday. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. H. C. Fennell, of Lowndesville. The retiring moderator is Elder A. B. Morse, of Abbeville. Rev. W. H. Frazier, pastor of the First Church, of Anderson, was elected moderator of this session, and Rev. J. S. James, of Newberry, was elected temporary clerk. The stated clerk is Rev. F. W. Gregg, of Abbeville.

South Carolina Presbytery embraces the counties of Abbeville, Anderson, Newberry, Edgefield, Saluda, Greenwood, Oconee and Pickens. There are 66 churches in the Presbytery. Every pastor and stated supply and one ruling elder from each church constitute the Presbytery.

Among the important matters that will come before the body at this session will be the question of dividing the Presbytery. It is the desire of some to have Pickens, Anderson and Oconee cut off of South Carolina Presbytery and a new Presbytery formed.

A new stated clerk and new committees for the home and foreign mission board will also be elected at this meeting.

Rev. W. E. McElwre, financial agent of Columbia Theological Seminary, and Joseph Benjamin, a Persian, are here.

An interesting feature of the morning session was the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the birth of John Calvin, leader in the reformation of Presbyterialism. Papers on the celebration were read by Revs. M. R. Kirkpatrick, of Seneca, and F. W. Gregg, of Abbeville, and a very able address was made by Rev. J. L. Wilson, D. D., of Abbeville.

Presbytery will probably adjourn Thursday evening or Friday morning. Easley is extending a cordial welcome to the visitors.

She recently left the hospital. In order to marry the young man who was held at Cranston jail because of his inability to furnish bail for $4,000 on a charge of assault with intent to kill, Miss Palmieri secured a reduction of the bond of $1,500 and then furnished the sureties necessary for her lover's release.

CHEAP ARMY RIFLES NO MORE.

Government Will Hereafter Destroy Discarded Army Equipment.

Chicago, April 14.—Chief of Police Shippy, of Chicago, explained to-day that he had discovered some weeks ago that many hundreds of the old United States army rifles had been sold in Chicago stores indiscriminately, and that he protested to the War Department against the sale of the weapons.

"I learned that the government had sold a large consignment of the rifles to one man and that he had sold them in turn to stores throughout the country," said Chief Shippy. "The stores were retelling them for almost nothing, and it seemed to me a dangerous thing. With such weapons obtainable so easily the community might be imperiled in times of strikes or riots. The War Department has informed me that it will sell no more of the weapons, and will melt up what remains of them."

Won't Sell Any More.

Washington, April 14.—No more will cheap revolutions in neighboring countries be encouraged by the easy manner in which it has been possible to purchase the old arms of the United States. Orders have been issued at the War Department stopping the selling of discarded arms of the United States. It has been reported at various times that revolutionists in Central and South America obtain arms from the United States.

It remained, however, for the police of Chicago to complain that the sale of the old Springfield rifles, recently discarded, was causing trouble for them. That complaint was followed by an order against the sale of the remaining 9,000 rifles by auction. These rifles may be sold to patriotic organizations only.

Pigeons Sent Deelgate.

The presence of a large blue pigeon in Room 718, of the Auditorium Hotel, at Chicago, occupied by Jos. Tucker, chairman of the Central Association, created comment until it was explained by Miss Margaret O'Reilly, the cashier, who said the bird came for its daily meal from Mr. Tucker. Mr. Tucker each morning feeds a large bun to the pigeons that flock to his window in the Rookery Building. Recently he forgot the bun and the pigeon found in his room was believed by Miss O'Reilly to be a delegate from the flock come to ask explanations as to the breakfast that failed to appear. Mr. Tucker fed the bird and promised not to forget next time.

A Family of Physicians.

(Anderson Intelligencer, 16th.) Dr. J. R. Heller, of Fair Play, was a visitor to the city yesterday. John is a clever young physician and bids fair to rank in due time with the highest of his profession. Walter B. Heller has returned to his home at Fair Play to spend his vacation. He has been attending the Atlanta School of Medicine and will return in the fall. Mr. Heller is a son of Dr. S. R. Heller, of Townville. It is rather singular that two sons should follow their father's footsteps, and it is said that still a third will follow the practice. If the three sons should make as good physicians as their father, they should not expect more.

Wears Stripes to Save Father.

Chicago, April 16.—Charles Bidwell's effort to save his aged father, Benson Bidwell, from prison at the cost of his own possible liberty, was accomplished in Judge Chilklin's court here to-day.

Both Bidwells were sentenced to indeterminate terms in the penitentiary for alleged swindling through the medium of a "cold" motor invented by the elder Bidwell. The son, to save his father, whose physical condition is precarious, agreed with the State's attorney to spare the State the cost of contesting his appeal, in which he had much faith, if the State would agree to a lenient course with his father.

In court to-day Benson Bidwell was allowed to plead guilty to a minor charge under which he must serve ten days in the county jail, after which he will be given his liberty. Charles Bidwell will be taken to the penitentiary next Friday to serve a term of from one to ten years under the indeterminate sentence law.

P. P. P. Cures Rheumatism

Read what Nicholas Lang, the largest retail grocer in Savannah says about P. P. P.

F. V. LIPPMAN, Savannah, Ga., Dear Sir:—

For many years I consumed much medicine, and in fact tried every means in my power to get cured of that terrible disease, rheumatism, which had undermined my health. I visited Hot Springs, Ark., without gaining relief, and at last in sheer desperation I took P. P. P. (Lippman's great remedy), and was in a short time entirely cured. In the eight years since that time I have not had a symptom of rheumatism.

P. P. P. did the work to my entire satisfaction and made a quick and permanent cure. Yours truly, Nicholas Lang.
