Looking One's Best.

It's a woman's delight to look her best, but pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils rob life of joy. Listen! Bucklen's Arnica Salve cures them; makes the skin soft and velvety. It glorifies the face. Cures pimples, sore eyes, cold sores, cracked lips, chapped hands. Try it. Infallible for piles. 25c. at all druggists.

Items from Salem.

Salem, June 19.—Special: A large crowd of the Salem people attended the all-day singing at Fall Creek last Sunday.

Miss Kate Lusk, a charming young lady, was the guest of Misses Addie and Clara Grogan last week.

Miss Nannie Robertson has recently returned home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. D. H. Alexander, at Toccoa, Ga.

C. A. Brown, who had the misfortune to get his leg broken at the ball game a few weeks ago, is improving.

Frank Lusk has returned home from Wofford College. We are glad to welcome him back in our midst.

On June 12th Miss Addie Grogan was hostess to the Hiawatha Sunshine Society. The program was of unusual interest. A paper was read by Mrs. G. R. Pike on "Sunshine." Mrs. Duncan, Miss Kate Lusk and Miss Addie Grogan gave readings from poets. After a short business session the meeting adjourned.

Little Floy Chapman, of Pickens county, is spending a few days with J. R. Grogan and family. A. K.

Meeting County Farmers' Union.

The Oconee County Farmers' Union is hereby called to meet at Bounty Land school house, with Bounty Land Local, on Friday, July 2, 1909, at 10 a. m. A full delegation from each local is requested. Also as many of the brethren as can attend.

J. Wade Dickson, President.
J. W. Alexander, Secretary.

CONFEDERATE CONSTITUTION.

Historic Document on Exhibition in the Library of Congress.

Washington, June 19.—There has been deposited in the Library of Congress and placed on exhibition in the manuscripts' division the original engrossed "permanent Constitution of the Confederate States of America." The constitution was adopted on March 11, 1861, by the Confederate Congress at Montgomery, Ala., and signed by delegates from South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. When the capital was moved to Richmond it was carried to that city, and upon the evacuation of Richmond, was sent with other papers farther South, where it was rescued by F. G. Defontaine, at Chester, S. C., from a band of looters.

Mr. Defontaine kept this and other documents for some years, and, in 1883, it passed into the hands of Mrs. G. W. J. DeRenne, whose son, W. J. DeRenne, of Savannah, Ga., now owns it, and has recently deposited it, as a loan, with the librarian of Congress.

FOR CIVIC IMPROVEMENT.

Association was Organized Last Saturday Afternoon.

Quite a goodly number of ladies met at Pitchford's Hall last Saturday afternoon and organized a Civic Improvement Association. There was a lively interest manifested, and the organization starts off officered by able leaders and good workers. The election of officers resulted as follows:

- President—Mrs. S. K. Dendy.
Vice President—Mrs. A. C. Merrick.
- Recording Secretary—Miss Gertrude Smith.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. E. L. Herndon.
- Treasurer—Mrs. Sidney Adams.
- The Executive Committee (Mrs. Jas. M. Moss, chairman) is composed of all the charter members of the association, who were: Mesdames Mary N. Ansel, C. L. Angel, S. Adams, W. M. Brown, C. W. Bauknight, Jas. H. Darby, S. K. Dendy, J. R. Hughes, E. L. Herndon, J. L. Kennedy, Jas. M. Moss, A. C. Merrick, J. S. Newman, Geo. Seaborn, W. T. Stoddard; Misses Kate Ansel, May Bell, Julia Maxwell, Maude Moss, Gertrude Smith, Ruth Walker.
- This makes an original membership of 22, each of whom is on the working committee. These ladies deserve praise for their start in this work, and every lady in town ought to join with them in the association and in their efforts for local civic improvements. The first meeting was a success, and we bespeak for them even better results from their organization than they hoped for. There are women of ability, influence and tact in the lead—women who are not willing to fail and are ready to keep everlastingly at it until something worth while is accomplished.

To Meet Next Saturday.

The Civic Improvement Association will hold its next meeting at Pitchford's Hall at 5 o'clock next Saturday afternoon, and it is hoped that each of the 22 original movers will be there, and that even a greater number of new members will be added to the list. Remember the day, the hour and the place, and be present ready to go to work with those who have made the start.

Locals from Fair Play.

Fair Play, June 21.—Special: Capt. and Mrs. J. S. Lee, of Birmingham, arrived last week to visit Mrs. T. R. Harris and family. They will leave next Saturday for Charleston to attend the commencement exercises of the Citadel, which will take place June 27 to 30th.

Lon Boleman and family and Mrs. Susan Smith, of Cross Roads, attended services at Beaverdam last Sabbath, and were the guests of W. R. Davis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Whitaker, of Westminster, visited Allen R. Marett and family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Stribling visited relatives at Richland the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Whitworth, of Lenoir, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobbs.

The quarterly meeting will convene with the Jones' Chapel church Saturday before the first Sunday in July. Rev. A. J. Cauthen, of Anderson, will conduct the services. A full attendance is desired.

Rev. J. G. Graham filed his regular appointment at Beaverdam on the third Saturday and Sunday. A full audience greeted him on Sunday, the occasion being communion day.

The friends of Mrs. Graham will wish her a rapid recovery from the recent fall she sustained.

The body of Aunt Ellen King was interred in the Beaverdam cemetery last Tuesday in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. She was the widow of the late Rev. Anderson King, who predeceased her several years ago. She is survived by two sons, James and Blakeley King, of Oakway. A good woman has gone to her reward. May our Heavenly Father sustain and comfort them in their bereavement. T. B. W.

Individual Watermelons.

A Washington dispatch is authority for the statement that individual watermelons, about the size of a cantaloupe, of delicious flavor, in color red and yellow, which can be grown in any section of the country, have been introduced through the Department of Agriculture by Horace G. Knowles, former American minister to Roumania, who discovered them in the foothills of the Carpathian mountains in Roumania.

For use in hotels, restaurants, clubs, on dining cars and elsewhere, the new arrival will fill a long-felt want. Extensive experiments have been made by the department through its numerous stations, which prove that climatic conditions, soil, etc., in practically all parts of this country are adapted to the growth of the melon.

This season a large quantity are being raised by the government for the purpose of seed propagation and for the introduction to the public.

No New School Trustees.

Pursuant to a ruling of the State Superintendent of Education, which is in accordance with an opinion of the Attorney General, I hereby announce to all concerned that there will not be any school trustees appointed this year, except where vacancies exist or where they are removed for cause. W. C. Hughes, Superintendent of Education.

IDENTIFIED HER ASSAILANT.

Columbia, June 21.—The young lady who was attacked last week by a negro in Georgetown, now in the penitentiary for safe keeping, came to Columbia to-day with her father and positively identified the negro now in prison as the man who attempted the assault on her. When confronted to-day with the man at the penitentiary, the young lady exclaimed: "That's the man," and then broke down and cried piteously, begging her father to kill the negro. It is stated that a special term of court will be ordered to try the negro.

"THE LUCKY BAG."

A Volume that Embraces Elegance and Excellence of Printing Art.

We have before us a handsome copy of "The Lucky Bag," the annual published by the graduating class of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. On the staff of this admirable and much admired volume we find that "The New South" is well represented, the staff being composed as follows: Editor-in-chief, J. W. Quillian, Georgia; P. L. Carroll, business manager, Louisiana; A. A. Merrick (Bub), assistant business manager, South Carolina (Walhalla); art editors, E. S. R. Brandt, New Jersey; S. R. Canine, Texas. The remainder of the staff includes ten men—Kansas 1, Georgia 1, Pennsylvania 1, Missouri 1, Iowa 1, Ohio 2, Washington 1, Indiana 1, District of Columbia 1. The South is represented by five on the staff out of a total of fifteen.

The sketches contained between the covers of this novel publication, the 1909 edition of which, though limited to a few hundred copies, cost in excess of $8,000, are amusing and interesting, and the volume will be handed down to future generations with pride by those comprising the graduating class of this great institution.

We reproduce here the sketch of Walhalla's representative:

Anson Angus Merrick,
Walhalla, South Carolina.
"Bub."

"My often ruination wraps me in a most humorous sadness."—Shakespeare.

An indolent, sorrowful looking man who manages to get just about three times as much pleasure out of the routine life at the Academy as any of the rest of us. His sad visage, quiet speech and slow mannerisms seem to suggest disappointments which happened long before we young fellows were born. But don't judge too quickly; this is neither an object of sympathy nor a student of theology, but a clever, interesting chap—bright as a dollar—who ambles around disguised as a funeral for the purpose of "La poudre aux yeux." A man of unusual experiences, who tells just enough of the wonderful things which have happened to him to arouse our curiosity over hosts of hidden escapades. Shows his ingenuity in the fussing line by making his rendezvous just on the other side of the Executive Mansion, so that he can do his waiting in the little room where the two ducks hang. So devoted is he to the business interests of this book that the jingle of "Lucky Bag" dollars has been music to his ears.

How often have we seen him, seated on the last four vertebrae, feet stretched out, cigarette in hand, the look of "miles away" on his face—a picture of absolute repose.

"The less I have to do, the less I want to do."

Interest to Farmers and Mechanics.

Farmers and mechanics frequently meet with slight accidents and injuries which cause them much annoyance and loss of time. A cut or bruise may be cured in about one-third of the time usually required by applying Chamberlain's Liniment as soon as the injury is received. This liniment is also valuable for sprains, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. There is no danger of blood poisoning resulting from an injury when Chamberlain's Liniment is applied before the parts become inflamed and swollen. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

GOVERNOR GRANTS PAROLE.

Greenville Prisoner Secures Liberty Under Unusual Circumstances.

(News and Courier Special.)

Columbia, June 19.—Governor Ansel to-day granted a parole to Bert Stokes, of Greenville, under circumstances which are somewhat out of the ordinary.

The papers in the case show that Stokes was convicted seven years ago, in his absence, of violation of the dispensary law, and given three months in a sealed sentence. His attorney says he was convicted at a special term, being out on bond, and not knowing of the special session. Solicitor Boggs later agreed to let a new trial be had at the next term of Court and not press the case, instructing that Stokes in the meantime be allowed to go free. With the coming in of a new Clerk of Court, the old sealed sentence was fished out of a pile of papers last May and Stokes arrested, the Solicitor having forgotten to do as he promised regarding the new trial. Stokes is said now to be feeble and broken in health, having suffered two strokes of paralysis. In view of all of these circumstances, the Governor granted a parole.

Pointers from Poplar.

Poplar, June 17.—Special: Mrs. Julia Shanklin organized a Sunshine society here last Sunday morning. There were about thirty-five or forty members. James Davis was elected president, and Miss Mamie Addis secretary and treasurer. We hope they will all be faithful workers in this society.

Miss Janie Sanders visited her brother, J. C. Sanders, of Seneca, recently.

Mrs. Grant spent last week with J. F. Miller and family.

Miss Susie Miller visited relatives at Walhalla recently.

Miss Minnie McAllister entertained about 25 young people at her home on June 12th at a birthday party. The party assembled in the parlor, where they listened to some excellent music by Burt Hopkins and Walter Shockley, after which they went out under a large elm tree, which was lighted up with Japanese lanterns. Delicious ice cream and cake were served. The waitresses were Misses Julia Sanders, Agnes and Marie McAllister. It soon came time for the guests to leave, wishing Miss Minnie many happy birthdays. T. A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Hayne Circle Held Enjoyable Meeting with Mrs. B. F. Sloan.

One of the most delightful afternoons the Hayne Circle has enjoyed was spent with Mrs. B. F. Sloan on the 15th of June. The guests were received in the reception hall by Mrs. Sloan and her sister, Mrs. R. Q. Merrick, the guest of honor. Here delicious punch was served.

When the guests were assembled in the parlors, the president, Mrs. Bell, called the meeting to order. The roll call was answered with facts about education in England. A delightful literary program was then rendered as follows:

A Day in Old Oxford—Mrs. Darby.
Women's Colleges in England—Miss Neville.

Poem—Stonehenge—Mrs. Ansel.
Selections from Oxford Note Book.

After a short business meeting the club adjourned for an enjoyable social hour.

The hostess and the president led the way to the dining room, where the long mahogany table was laid, with point lace and resplendent with cut glass and hand painted china. The decorations were magnolias and cape jasmine, pink ribbon being attractively introduced, reaching from the huge bunch of magnolias hung under the chandelier to the corners of the table, and soft candle light lending a charm to the whole.

The guests enjoyed a course of delightful ices, cakes and bon bons, the ice cream being especially attractively served in the halves of cantaloupes.

Those present were: Mesdames J. W. Bell, J. H. Darby, Sidney Adams, J. B. S. Dendy, C. W. Bauknight, Geo. Ansel, Misses Mamie Ansel, Daisy Strong, Annie Blemann, Gertrude Smith; Mrs. Worley, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Fair Dodd, of Atlanta; Mrs. J. C. Tandy, of Oklahoma; Miss Wright, of Manning; Mrs. Little, of Spartanburg, and Mrs. R. Q. Merrick, of Greenville.

If You are Worth $50,000 Don't Read This.

This will not interest you if you are worth fifty thousand dollars, but if you are a man of moderate means and cannot afford to employ a physician when you have an attack of diarrhoea, you will be pleased to know that one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure it. This remedy has been in use for many years and is thoroughly reliable. Price 25c. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

LIGHTNING PLAYS PRANK.

Struck Signal Tower in Which Workmen Had Taken Refuge.

Valdosta, Ga., June 19.—News was received here to-day of a dangerous prank played about midnight last night on the Withlacoochee River, near Olympia. Eleven men, who had been employed in bridge construction there, took refuge during a rain and windstorm in a signal tower. Lightning struck the wires running from the signal tower, ran along them into the tower house and struck the men, who were huddled closely together. Only two were uninjured. One of the nine, a negro, was fatally hurt.

The nine who were injured were all stunned, all of them being badly burned and blistered, some of them having places on their skin torn as if it had been ripped by a knife held beneath it.

A watch chain worn by one of the men was melted, but his watch was unhurt. The trousers of another were ripped from waistband to hem. The tacks in another's shoes were drawn and another's shirt was torn to shreds. The bolt shattered telegraph poles before striking the men in the tower house. Two of the men were so badly injured that surgeons were called to attend them.

Teachers' Meeting July 2d.

The next meeting of the Teachers' Association will be held in the office of the Superintendent of Education, at Walhalla, on Friday, July 2d. The meeting will be called to order at 2 p. m.

Subjects for discussion: "Relation of Superintendent and Assistant"—Prof. J. R. Lyles. "Practical Suggestions to Rural Teachers"—Miss Bertie Smith.

The date set is the day for the examinations for scholarships to the various colleges in the State, so let us have a good attendance. I hope every teacher in the county will make some extra effort to be present.

W. C. Hughes, President.

How to Raise More Cotton and Corn per Acre.

This can easily and profitably be done by using Fertilizers as a side application.

For corn use 300 pounds of Piedmont Guano per acre when the corn is knee high, and when you wish to use nitrate of soda, make an application of 100 pounds per acre at laying by time.

For cotton use a side application of 300 pounds of Piedmont Guano per acre, just about the time it starts to blooming, and when nitrate of soda is wanted use as in the corn.

If you decide to try this be sure to try our Piedmont Guano. It will do the work.

We will continue to buy cotton seed through this month at the highest market price. Be sure to bring them in by the first of June.
