Mrs. J. E. James, who is spending the summer with the family of her father, Gen. Verner, at Brevard, N. C., is seriously ill. She went to Brevard a few weeks ago in perfect health. A few days ago a surgical operation was found necessary and the work was done at Brevard by an Asheville specialist. Since the operation her condition is most critical.

The Misses Harris, of Anderson, will visit Miss Marguerite Adams this week. During former visits here these attractive young ladies have become most popular, and their coming is regarded as a delightful acquisition to the society of Seneca's young set.

Miss Verna Stribling is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Helen Hopkins, in the country.

Mrs. Reuben Moorman arrived in Seneca yesterday for a visit of some days to relatives here. Last night she was called by long distance telephone to Brevard to nurse Gen. J. S. Verner.

Miss Emily Hunnicutt, of Atlanta, has been visiting Mrs. J. L. Marett. Master William P. McWhorter will be at home to a large number of his young friends at a birthday party Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. McGowan and Mrs. L. M. Oliver, of Alabama, who were expected to arrive this week to visit their friend, Mrs. E. C. Verner, will not visit South Carolina this summer. This is a real disappointment to their friends here, who had anticipated their coming with genuine pleasure.

Misses Sarah and Lula Frierson, of Anderson, will arrive to-day for a visit of several days to Miss Rebecca Todd.

Miss Bertha Lee Cox was at home to Seneca society en masse last Friday evening from 8.30 to 12 o'clock. The affair was given in honor of her visitors, Misses Flossie Brown and Jessie Anderson.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Holleman will be glad to learn that their little daughter, Frances, is improving from a recent illness.

Mrs. Lee Carpenter and her guest, Miss Annie Belle Johnson, of Union, will arrive to-day to visit Mrs. W. S. Hunter.

Seneca is dry from continuous drought. There are indications of rain to-day.

Major B. F. Sloan has returned from a pleasant outing to Caesar's Head. M. V. S.

Minister Opposes Prohibition. Charleston, July 25.—Rev. Dr. Howard Lee Jones, the able and eloquent pastor of the Citadel Square Baptist church, preached a sermon to-night on "Prohibition, a Force or a Farce," in which the scholarly minister advised against the support of prohibition in Charleston at this time.

The sermon was probably the strongest support which could have been given to the anti-prohibition movement in Charleston, coming as it did from Dr. Jones. Dr. Jones is himself a prohibitionist and only recently preached a sermon in advocacy of prohibition in Berkeley county, and will make similar addresses elsewhere during the present campaign, showing that in taking the position that he does in Charleston he is acting along the line which he considers best for the cause and best for the community.

Cloudburst Kills Two. Boulder, Colo., July 24.—Two are dead and two seriously injured as a result of a cloudburst that deluged Two-Mile Canyon, north of Boulder, to-day. The victims were members of a picnic party. When the rain began to fall the party sought shelter under a large boulder. Presently a torrent two feet deep swept down the canyon. The walls of the canyon were precipitous, and it was with difficulty that they found places of safety. Six were able to gain shelter, but in adding their companions two of them were swept down the current.

Bell, Walhalla; Stonecypher Pharmacy, Westminster, S. C.

Although his back was not even wet, water had gotten into his lungs, and he died within a few minutes. His friends say that he had been acting strangely for several days.
