CONNEROSS AND VICINITY.

Rains Damage Crops—A Correction. Local Happenings.

Conneross, Sept. 26.—Special: Rev. W. W. Stow, of Toccoa, will preach at Conneross Baptist church on the second Sunday night in October at 7.30 o'clock. Members and visitors will be heartily welcomed at these services.

The following persons—A. N. Prichard, W. H. Butler, Misses Sallia Abbott and Rena Hunsinger—were elected by the Sunday school here to go as delegates to the interdenominational convention, which will be held with the Richland Presbyterian church on October 7th.

Owing to the shortness of the days we have changed our Sunday school hour from 3.30 o'clock to 3 p. m.

Please allow me to correct a mistake that was made in the last week's Conneross locals, either by the correspondent or the editor. Instead of Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger being chosen as one of our deacons it was S. M. Hunsicutt.

Miss Rena Hunsinger, who has been conducting the school at Chauga, closed her school Friday, after teaching a very successful term. Miss Rena was well pleased with the interest manifested by the patrons in all her efforts for the advancement of the bright boys and girls in her charge.

The trustees were also ever ready to encourage and support all measures and deserve much commendation. This was the second term she had taught at Chauga, and the children became very much devoted to her. It was a matter of congratulation that she was re-elected.

W. O. Alexander, Sr., made a combined business and pleasure trip to Toccoa and other points in Georgia last Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Vesta Marett, of Walhalla, spent several days of last week here with her sister, Mrs. Selma Barker, returning to her home Thursday.

We had some very heavy rains last Wednesday. Streams all over the community are reported to have been badly swollen and several bridges were moved. Crops on bottom land, in a number of places, were badly injured. The rains interfered with the farmers very much in getting their crops gathered, but we have no ground for complaint.

J. D. and Roney Abbott spent yesterday in Westminster.

About forty of the neighbors and friends of S. J. Barker gathered at his home here Monday night and picked his pinders off the vines. After all of the work was done and everybody had eaten pinders till their appetites were satisfied, several innocent games were played, and about 11 o'clock everybody left for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Prichard were recent guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Calhoun Boggs, of Clearmont.

The little Misses Julian, of Clearmont, spent last Wednesday and Thursday with their cousin, Miss Zadie Abbott, here.

Mrs. Enoch Breazelle returned to her home here last Wednesday, after spending ten days with her son, K. D. Breazelle, and family, in Cordele, Ga. She reports a pleasant visit. She was accompanied home by Mr. Breazelle and his bright little son, E. T., who have been visiting relatives here and in Westminster.

We have changed the regular hour for our prayer meeting on Saturday nights from 8 o'clock to 7.30, and also will have a prayer meeting on next Sunday night, instead of Saturday, on account of an oyster supper, which is to be given by the Conneross Farmers' Union on next Saturday night. The lesson for our next meeting will be the 8th chapter of Matthew.

Miss Ruth Hunnicutt, formerly of New Hope, but who is now a popular saleslady at Newry, was the guest of her brother, S. M. Hunnicutt, the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barker left last Thursday for Walhalla, where they will spend several days with the family of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Marett, after which Mr. Barker will go to Central, where he has accepted a position with the Morgan Mercantile Co. Mrs. Barker will remain in Walhalla for several months.

ject of "The Heavenly Home." The following children were present: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ertzberger, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Coe. Relatives from a distance: Mrs. M. J. O'Neal and two children, Pendleton; Mrs. R. A. Hayes, Anderson; Lester Dalton, Norman Dalton, Panama Canal; Mr. and Mrs. James Beardon, Oakway.

At the Baptist church last evening Miss Emma Gary, a returned missionary of China, of the Methodist church, gave a most instructive lecture on China, the great, peaceful nation. Miss Gary's lecture showed careful study of Chinese life and history of our queer neighbors across the sea.

Plenty of Magis black school ink, tablets, pens, etc., now at Tannery's.

Rev. I. E. McDavid, of Royston, Ga., who is pastor at South Union, preached a very thoughtful sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening, the text being "No man careth for my soul." When one thinks of the great number of foreigners who come to our shores and the inadequate number of missionaries to train this vast horde, it is appalling.

LOCAL MATTERS ABOUT SENECA.

School Board Takes Good Step—Religious Census—Personals.

Seneca, Sept. 28.—Special: The meeting at the Presbyterian church it attracting the attention of our church-goers this week, and the congregations are large at the night service. All denominations are taking part, and the spirit of fraternal relations is evidenced by the interest shown. Dr. George Robertson, of North Carolina, is doing the preaching. He is a strong, forceful preacher and has made a favorable impression on our people. There are two services daily—at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. The meeting will continue through next Sunday.

Miss Bertrand Perritt returns today to Rock Hill, where she resumes her studies in Winthrop. She is accompanied by the Walhalla delegation of Winthrop students.

The friends of Mrs. H. J. Gignilhat and daughter, Miss Lois, were pleased to have them in Seneca recently. They go this week to Washington, where Miss Lois will enter the school of kindergarten, preparatory to teaching.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Thomson sympathize deeply with them in the death of their infant son, which occurred late this afternoon.

The continued cold weather is disturbing the peace of mind of farmers in our vicinity. A killing frost would result disastrously to their interests, and the indications for an early fall seem unprecedented, according to the say-so of our oldest citizens.

Our milliners are in ship-shape for their fall openings, which are set for the 1st and 2d of October. Merchants are also opening up fall goods, and their windows show interesting displays of handsome dress goods, clothing and novelties.

Miss Lillie May Russell, of Prosperity, is visiting her friend, Miss Maude Hopkins. Miss Russell has many friends in Seneca who are most pleased to see her again.

J. A. Brock has on display in his show window the cut-glass bowl which he offers as a prize at the coming Flower Show. Chrysanthemum growers are redoubling their efforts, and competition will be strong for this and other handsome prizes which are offered by our business men.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Holleman will be glad to learn that the latter is convalescent from a long illness and will be able to return to her home here soon.

Mrs. J. K. Livingston and children have been in Seneca the past week. Work on the depot is progressing, and it will not be long before Seneca will have a building of which she can be justly proud. Modern conveniences will mark the decided improvement, which has been a crying need for years by the traveling public.

THE NEWS FROM BOUNTY LAND.

After an illness of only one week, of typhoid fever, little James Harold Cartee died on Tuesday, September 21. Little Harold was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cartee and was one year, 9 months and 14 days old. His remains were interred on Wednesday, the 22d, at Hopewell cemetery. Rev. C. S. Blackburn conducted funeral services.

Rev. Wilburn Abbott will preach at Bounty Land school house on the second Sunday in October at 3 p. m. Never in the history of Bounty Land has the sun shone more brightly at night than it did last Friday night, when quite a number of the young people of the community met at the school house and enjoyed a box supper. Even Lady Moon revealed her smiling face—no, they say it is a man's face we behold when we look at the moon. But be that as it may, the light of Lady Moon's fair countenance is not obscured by the presence of that face, and we feel sure that the rays of our little society would have been more bright and far-reaching by the presence of a few more masculine faces Friday night, although the young men who were there reflected credit to themselves, some buying a number of boxes. A neat little sum was realized, which will be used in Sunshine work. After the boxes had been emptied of their delicacies, which were enjoyed to the utmost, lively games were played until 10.30 o'clock, when all departed for their respective homes.

Misses Carrie Smith, Julia and Myrt Davis visited at the home of W. R. Davis last Friday night.

The lecture by Mrs. Herbert, of Orangeburg, and address by Miss Gary, of Atlanta, at Rock Springs church yesterday afternoon, were quite interesting and instructive and greatly enjoyed by a large congregation. The lectures were on prohibition, and statistics on the expenditure of money in our country for whiskey, tobacco, etc., were given, in striking contrast to the amount spent for actual necessities. No doubt much good will result from the meeting.

SAYS THE CITY COURTS CAN'T

Try Tigers—Judge Aldrich Renders Far-Reaching Decision.

(Columbia State Special.) Anderson, Sept. 25.—An appeal case from the mayor's court, involving an important question of jurisdiction, was decided before Judge Aldrich in the sessions court today. The appeal was from a decision of the mayor imposing a fine of $100 or 30 days for selling whiskey.

The decision of Judge Aldrich, in case it is sustained by the Supreme Court, will be of the most far-reaching consequence. It might seriously hamper the enforcement of the liquor law in every town and city in the State. All that the police department of a city could do would be to make arrests and have a warrant issued by a magistrate. The magistrate would then, if upon a preliminary hearing the evidence warranted it, send the case up to the sessions court for trial.

The decision has attracted a great deal of interest here. The city will appeal to the Supreme Court, and a decision of that tribunal will be awaited with general interest over the State.

New Trial for Webb Simmons. Judge Aldrich to-day granted a new trial for Webb Simmons, the young white man under sentence for the murder of United States Deputy McAdams last February. Simmons was sentenced by Judge Ship in May to hang July 23. The grounds on which a new trial was granted was an affidavit of J. H. Hardin, a well known young farmer, to the effect that P. E. Norris, a member of the jury, told him that Simmons should hang, and that if he, Norris, was drawn on the jury he would hang Simmons.

In granting the new trial Judge Aldrich recommended to Solicitor Bonham that a warrant be issued for the arrest of Norris, charging him with perjury, and that Mr. Dagnall, attorney for Simmons, be made a witness to prove the charge. Norris emphatically denies the charge.

A Sprained Ankle. As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation; try it for a sprain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

G. W. Murray Caught. Sumter officials have been notified of the capture in Chicago of George W. Murray, the negro ex-Congressman of this State, who is wanted in Sumter in connection with land frauds. He was tried and convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years, and then fled the State while he was out on bond pending an appeal of his case to the State Supreme Court.

On a lonely night Alex. Benton, of Fort Edward, N. Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it is the greatest throat and lung cure on earth. Coughs, colds, croup, hemorrhages and sore lungs are surely cured by it. Best for hay fever, grip and whooping cough. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

GOLD DEPOSITS AT FOUND. Nuggets of the Yelle Metal Found in North Carolina Stream.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 24.—Placer deposits of gold, which promise rich returns, were discovered to-day in Catawba county, near Hickory, this State, on what is known as the Abelsides Farm. Hearing rumors that gold was being dug up on the place, Messrs. Campbell and Stroub, who recently purchased the farm, made investigation, panning out the gravel of a tiny stream, which traverses the place. Twenty tiny nuggets of the pure metal were found in a short time.
