LOCAL MATTERS ABOUT SENECA

Negro Woman Killed by Husband, Stores to Close—Personals.

Seneca, April 4.—Special: Following are the names of the Seneca business concerns that have agreed to close their stores from April 4th to October 1st, Saturdays excepted: Byrd & Cromer, Lowry & Holloway, Knox & Barron, O. P. Bacon, J. M. Barron & Co., Seneca Mercantile Co., W. H. Stribling, T. E. Stribling, J. H. Adams Department Store, Wood & Maret, W. S. Hunter & Co., R. P. Cochran, W. P. Nimmans (September 15th), Sitton & Huff, R. L. Nimmans, J. E. Harper, J. M. Vickery, Seneca Hardware Co., Ruskin Anderson, G. B. Cochran.

Seneca was thrown into intense excitement last Saturday night about 9 o'clock when it was reported that there had been a killing in East End, near the post office. Berry Orr, colored, quarreled with his wife and stabbed her, death being almost instantaneous. Orr and his wife had not lived together for some time. Chief of Police Hulenutt heard them quarreling and saw Orr strike his wife, but did not know that the affair was serious, though he ordered him to halt and shot after him several times. Orr is still at large and a posse is hunting him. An inquest was held over the body of the dead woman by Judge J. E. Hopkins.

The Farm and Factory has installed a handsome linotype machine of the most improved make, and your correspondent had the pleasure of seeing it on a recent visit to the office of this progressive publishing concern. It occurred to the writer that with the addition of this the Farm and Factory building is pretty near "full up," particularly on press night, when the office is a popular place of resort for town people. The visitors, however, are shown the most courteous attention, which explains in part the reason for the aforesaid popularity of the resort.

On next Friday night a unique entertainment will be given at the school auditorium, the details of which are explained in the following, taken from the Farm and Factory: "The people of Seneca will have an opportunity of enjoying a unique entertainment in the graded school auditorium next Friday evening. Some of the teachers and older pupils have been taking a course in globe making and color drawing, under the direction of Superintendent E. L. Hughes, of the Greenville schools. The results will be shown on next Friday evening at 8.30. Superintendent Hughes will give a lecture demonstration on the 'Ministry of the Beautiful,' and will be assisted by teachers, pupils and audience. Not only will the work already done be exhibited, but some of the same kind will be done as part of the program. One result of the work has been to provide each class room in the school with a large globe, a combination blackboard-eraser, and a color outfit for making school charts for illustration. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to pay for these. A general admission price of twenty-five cents will be charged, and an evening of unusual enjoyment is promised."

Miss Maud Hopkins returned last Friday from a visit of several weeks to Prosperity. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Lillie May Russell, who is deservedly popular here. J. H. Thompson sold his business stand, adjoining his residence, last week to J. W. Byrd.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Austin and son Willie, and Miss Gladys Ramsay, are in Atlanta. Misses Mary Earle and Mary Sullivan spent the past week-end with Miss Carol Herndon. Miss Carrie Hunter visited in Greenville last week. Miss Anna Hunter is visiting in the family of W. S. Hunter.

Wales Lowery is in Atlanta. Miss Ada Wyly and Henrietta Verner, of Richland, spent last Friday here, the latter remaining over until Saturday. C. H. Mayhew is building a concrete wall at the residence of J. N. Herndon on Walhalla street.

J. J. Dean has moved his family into the Fincannon house. We welcome these good people to the town. Dr. John Hopkins is visiting in Greenville county. The Once-a-Week Club will hold an open meeting this week with Mrs. J. N. Herndon.

A handsome new lot of books has been received at the library. Wilton Earle, who has been attending the School of Pharmacy in Atlanta, is visiting at his home on Beavertown, where he has accepted a position.

The Once-a-Week Club and also "Ye Gossipers" were lucky last week in claiming Miss Margie Holland as hostess. At the meeting of the club on Thursday afternoon the regular literary program was followed by a contest which had been skillfully prepared by the hostess. A romance in which blanks were filled by names of news books, the whole making a charming little love tale, was the theme of an hour's entertainment, in which Miss Ella Richardson won the prize, a dainty jabot. Delicious cream and cake were served.

On Saturday afternoon the Gossipers gathered with the same dainty hostess at the home of Mrs. W. K. Livingston. Hand work, accompanied by the latest gossip, was engaged in for some time, when the hostess asked the guests to repair to the dining room, where she had arranged a miniature flower show, perfect in detail and preparation, which was displayed on the handsome dining table. The guests viewed the "show," after which each was blind-folded in turn and requested to guess the names of the flower by its perfume. The brightest, jolliest time ensued, after which a course luncheon was served. The color motif—red, green and white—was most effectively used in the preparation of the elegant menu, from the dainty sandwich to the delightful American Beauty salad. No brighter or more successful meeting of the Gossipers has been held this year than this with Miss Holland. M. V. S.

FROM THE LAND OF BOUNTY.

Community Mourns Death of Mrs. Bagwell—Other Local News.

Bounty Land, April 4.—Special: The entire community is overshadowed with gloom in consequence of the sad and unexpected death of Mrs. Theresa Bagwell, which occurred at her home on Monday, the 28th, at 5 o'clock p. m. Mrs. Bagwell had been ill about two weeks, but had not been unable to be up but a few days during that time, and even on Saturday she assisted her husband in planting some vegetables. On Sunday morning she walked out into the yard and was stricken with apoplexy, from which she never recovered.

Mrs. Bagwell was a daughter of George and Caroline Wilson, of Anderson county, and was born in 1848. Had she lived another day she would have been 62 years of age. On August 13, 1867, she was united in marriage to Baylis Earle Bagwell, and to them were born eight children, viz.: Mrs. Myrtle Woolbright, of Townville; Mrs. Caroline Bruce, of Oakway; Mrs. Edie Stephens, Wilhamston; George Bagwell, Corona, Ala.; Misses Lena and Ora Bagwell, who reside with their father; Broadus Bagwell, Honea Path, and Mrs. Vera Grant, Seneca.

Mrs. Bagwell was a most estimable Christian lady. In early life she joined the Baptist church at Mt. Bethel, in Anderson county, and lived a consistent member until God in His infinite wisdom called her spirit to eternal realms of bliss above. She was a faithful and industrious wife, and an affectionate and indulgent mother, being always untiring in her efforts to add to the pleasure and comfort of her family. As a neighbor she was kind, peaceable and obliging, ever ready to lend a helping hand wherever her assistance was needed. In addition to her immediate family she leaves a mother, three sisters and five brothers to mourn her death. Her body was laid to rest in the Seneca cemetery at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large cortege of relatives and friends, funeral services having been conducted at the home by Rev. C. S. Blackburn. The heartfelt sympathies of many friends are extended to the bereaved relatives in this sad hour of affliction.

Mrs. A. S. Rollins, of Charleston, is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Perritt. Arthur Davis, of Greenville, and Grover Davis, of Atlanta, spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks here.

Mrs. Mary Fennell has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. M. T. Hughes, at Walhalla. Mr. and Mrs. Woolbright and children, of Townville; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bruce, of Oakway; Mrs. Sam Dickson, Westminster; Mrs. Lue Mitchell, of Williamston, and Mrs. Jane Cooley, of Honea Path, were among the relatives who attended the obsequies of Mrs. B. E. Bagwell.

Mrs. Mattie Brown, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends at Seneca, returned to the home of her brother, R. N. Rankin, Wednesday. South Union school closed last week, and Miss Clyde Smith, one of its assistant teachers, is at home for a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephens and Bradus Bagwell, of Corona, Ala., are spending a fortnight with his father, B. E. Bagwell. Miss Susan Doyle is spending a few weeks with relatives in Walhalla.

Miss Myra Ballenger will leave tomorrow for Mayesville, where she will be a guest of her sister, Mrs. H. A. Knox. Mrs. Lucy Burriss will visit relatives in Honea Path this week.

On next Sabbath the election of new officers and teachers for the Richland Sunday school will take place. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ellison made a brief visit to the former's parents, Capt. and Mrs. A. H. Ellison, yesterday. E. M. D.

Worse than Bullets. Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered with forty years. RICHLAND'S NEWS LETTER.

Local Items—"Pluck" Finds Himself Up Against the Devil.

Richland, April 4.—Special: The farmers of Richland are very busy, especially the boys who are planting their corn.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Davis, of Atlanta, spent Easter Sunday with the latter's parents. Mr. Davis returned Sunday evening, but Mrs. Davis is visiting friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Bruce, of Avonlon, Ga., spent Monday night at the home of J. P. Stribling.

Rev. Mr. Driggers, of Walhalla, spent Tuesday night at the home of Capt. J. J. Ballenger. Mrs. C. M. Gaines spent last Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. N. S. Sligh. Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Hughs visited friends and relatives at Richland last Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Hughs is principal of the South Union school.

Mr. Alexander, of the Conners section, was in Richland on business recently. April Fool's day went by quietly except the ladies played a joke on the men by going to Seneca on No. 12 and staying until No. 11. The center of attraction at Seneca was the millinery stores. Those who went on this trip were Mesdames W. H. Hughs, Grover Davis, J. P. Blackwell, Robert McDonald, Lucy Burriss and N. S. Sligh, and Misses Henrietta Verner, Ada Wyly and Lois Sligh.

Samuel E. Ervin, of Westminster, was visiting in Richland Saturday. The attraction this week was the party given by Miss Lynn Verner in honor of her guest, Miss Verna Stribling, and her mother, Mrs. T. E. Stribling, of Seneca. Those present were: Misses Claudia Crowther, May Hubbard, Cornelia Foster, Freda Hughs and Messrs. Bennie, Jesse and T. S. Hubbard, Stiles and Bruce Stribling, Henry Hughs and Marcus McDonald. All had a delightful time. Mrs. Stribling and daughter returned home yesterday.

Col. T. D. Long visited Hon. E. E. Verner recently. Morris Shanklin left last week for California. He was accompanied by Frank Shirley, of Westminster. David Conger, of Georgia, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stribling last Friday night. Mr. Conger is doing work in Franklin county, Georgia, that ought to be going on in this county. He is making a map with every road and school district, every school house and dwelling and every church noted on it. If we had such a map of this county we could go to any part of it by looking on the map.

At a congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church yesterday Mr. Duhose and Duncan Wright were elected deacons for this church. Miss Marion Coe is helping the children of the school on their entertainment. She is a fine singer and has helped in arranging the program, giving special attention to the music. Miss Hortense Jones visited our school here last Tuesday before returning home.

Claud Gaines, who is a student at Furman University, with his sister, Miss Alice, who is attending Greenville Female College, visited at the home of N. S. Sligh recently. Rev. Mr. Wilcox spent Saturday with his old friend, Mr. Power. Mr. Wilcox announced yesterday that he would be away on next preaching Sunday, but it is probable that we will have preaching.

Haskell Dendy has been elected as assistant secretary in our Sunday school. We have not heard any more of the "dam" talk, but understand that the leaders have bought the property. The farmers are doing everything against it they know how to do, and that is they have told the leaders in the company that they cannot build it, and that is enough, I think.

We have found another snag in the way of moving the Court House, and that is when we start to move the Court House we will have "The Courier office to move also, and there is where the "devil" stays and we are encounter him. Pluck.

To Irrigate Land in Richland. (Columbia State.) Milo B. Williams, an expert irrigation engineer of the United States Department of Irrigation, will investigate the rich hay lands along the Congaree in the lower section of Richland county to determine whether or not it would be feasible to try the experiment of irrigation. He arrived in Columbia yesterday and held a conference with Commissioner Watson relative to the project.

For the past seven months Mr. Williams has been at work in Florida and Georgia. He is of the opinion, that with irrigation, this section can be made one of the most productive in the country. If the experiment in this county proves successful it is probable that Mr. Williams will try the plan in several other sections of the State. The Department of Agriculture will cooperate in the work.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Local Pointers Pencilled for Busy Readers—Missionary Meeting.

Westminster, April 5.—Special: D. Conger, of Georgia, was here last week.

Miss Mary Carter, who has just closed a successful term of school near Raleigh, N. C., is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Carter. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lunney, of Seneca, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bibb recently.

Miss Cordella Bearden, of Oakway, is visiting her brother, L. D. Bearden, and family. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Carter, C. P. Walker and Miss Ruth Walker, of Walhalla, were recent visitors here. Miss Alpha Jenkins, of Hopewell, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gilreath came from Greenville in their touring car last week to visit their uncle, A. N. Gilreath. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Bruce, of Avonlon, Ga., visited Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Peabody last week.

Miss Louise Sheldon was a recent guest of Miss Margie Stribling. The census enumerators appointed for Tugaloo township are Frank Barnett, Oscar Harris and J. L. McLin. The census enumerators for Oconee county will have a meeting at Walhalla Tuesday, April 12th, at 11 o'clock.

Miss Essie Davis has returned from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Mattison, of Honea Path, and her grandfather at Anderson. K. W. Maret and T. N. Carter, Jr., have been appointed delegates to attend the Baraca-Philathea meeting at Newberry April 8, 9 and 10. M. H. Smith and B. L. Mitchell will probably go to this meeting by the automobile route.

Miss Gaynell Todd, of Walhalla, is visiting Misses Willie and Christine Davis. John Carter, of Gainesville, Ga., gave a very interesting talk on China at the Wednesday evening prayer services at the Baptist church. The flashlights on Chinese customs were enlightening. One little incident is encouraging to Christians. While digging the foundation for a church a large idol was found buried. The missionary who was overseeing the work said to the natives: "This is a dead god, but this church is being built in which to worship the living God."

The Aid Society met at the Baptist church Monday and held a very interesting meeting. Mrs. J. A. Watkins, of the First Baptist church, was present and gave the information that the quarterly meeting would be held at that church about the middle of May. Program will be given later with exact date. Mrs. Watkins is a very consecrated woman and has many co-workers who will cordially entertain all who attend the meeting. S.

PRESIDENT AIDS PROHIBITION. Will Not Prosecute Revenue Law Violators for Taxes Only.

(Atlanta Journal.) Dr. G. W. Young, assistant national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, says that orders have been issued from President Taft to the United States attorneys of the various dry States, which in effect, direct these attorneys to aid all such States actively in the maintenance of their prohibition laws.

This aid is to be given in two ways: first by the strict prosecution of violators of the internal revenue laws in the matter of the sale of liquors, and, secondly, by the co-operation of the district attorneys' offices with the State in the State prosecution of these violators.

Heretofore the district attorneys' office and the revenue department have prosecuted violators of the internal revenue liquor laws altogether to secure taxes not paid. The change of policy will cause criminal prosecution. Where government officers discovering a liquor dealer operating without a Federal license, were formerly satisfied with the payment of his license, the effort now in dry States will be to give him a jail sentence. The old condition of prosecuting merely to collect taxes will continue in the wet States.

The Last of Grant's Cabinet. Portland, Ore., April 4.—Judge G. H. Williams, the last member of President Grant's cabinet, died here today. Judge Williams gave up active work several years ago because of poor health. He was born in New Lebanon, N. Y., March 26, 1823. In 1853 he was set to Oregon as chief justice of the territorial Supreme Court and drafted the constitution of the State of Oregon. He was appointed United States Attorney General by President Grant in 1871, serving until 1876.

Every family, and especially those who reside in the country, should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of an accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; C. W. Wickliffe, West Union.

MRS. MARIAN E. ABBOTT DEAD.

Passed Away Tuesday of Last Week Aged 69 Years.

On Tuesday evening of last week Mrs. Marian Earle Abbott, wife of Rev. W. W. Abbott, died at her home near Seneca, having been sick only a short while. Mrs. Abbott was 69 years of age, and was born in Oconee. She was a daughter of Rev. Thomas Dawson, one of the early Baptist missionaries, who died some years ago at Pendleton. She was married to Rev. Mr. Abbott on December 23, 1847, and is survived by her aged husband, six sons and two daughters. Eleven children were born to them, three having died. The sons and daughters living are Rev. W. T. Abbott, of Liberty; Jonas B. Abbott, Woodruff; Geo. L. Joseph M. D. and John J. Abbott, of Seneca; Mrs. Sallie Hopkins, of Atlanta, and Miss Mary Abbott, of Seneca. The bereaved husband is now in his 88th year, and is one of the oldest and most highly revered ministers of the Baptist church in Oconee. Mrs. Abbott was a splendid woman, a devout Christian and consistent church member. In early life she joined the Baptist church, having been a member about fifty years.

In her death truly a good woman has been called to her reward, and she will be sadly missed both in the family and in the community in which she spent a long period of years. To the bereaved ones, the deepest sympathy of hosts of friends in all parts of the county is extended. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. W. Holt, of Pickens county, and the remains were lowered to their last resting place in the Hopewell church yard in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

KING VIC HONORS TEDDY.

King and Queen Give Elaborate Dinner to Ex-President.

Rome, April 4.—Twice to-day Theodore Roosevelt was the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. The king received the ex-President at an early hour at the Quirinal with particular warmth and they talked together for nearly an hour. This evening there was a grand dinner at the palace given by the king and queen in honor of Col. Roosevelt and his family. Great preparations have been going on for this event, and the queen herself directed all the arrangements, desiring that no detail should be neglected. In all Mr. Roosevelt had a strenuous day. After his meeting with the king he visited the Pantheon where he was the object of a popular demonstration. He lunched with Ambassador Leichman and received the Italian journalists in the afternoon.

The Call of the Blood for purification, finds voice in pimples, boils, sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, mottled patches and blotches on the skin—all signs of liver trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills make rich red blood; give clear skin, rosy cheeks, fine complexion, health. Try them. 25c. at all druggists.

Fire Destroys Parsonage.

Darlington, April 4.—Fire completely destroyed the Methodist parsonage, located on Orange street, today, burning from about 12.30 o'clock until 3. The origin is not known, but it is supposed to have started in the roof from a defective flue. The work of the firemen confined the flames to the one building. The insurance amounts to $2,000. Rev. and Mrs. B. R. Turnipseed and children are at present quartered in a house on the same street, where they will probably remain until a new home is built.
