—Henry Grant, of Chattanooga, Tenn., spent several days here this week as the guest of Chas. F. Hetrick. Mr. Grant is an experienced hosiery mill man, holding the position of superintendent of the Davis Hosiery Manufacturing Company, of Chattanooga. He left here last night for Chattanooga and was accompanied by R. T. Jaynes, Esq., and Wm. A. Hetrick, of the Hetrick Hosiery Mills, who will remain in Chattanooga for a day or two on business.

—We regret to chronicle the death of L. H. Vaughn, which occurred at the home of his son-in-law, Rev. J. B. Tramel, near Picket Post, last Friday. He was 77 years of age. He had been a resident of this county only a year or two, but made many friends during his short stay in the community in which he lived. The remains were carried to Pickens county on Saturday following and interred in the cemetery of the Baptist church at Six-Mile. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of many friends.

—Twenty pounds good rice for $1 at Moss & Ansel's.

—On Saturday, May 7, there will be an educational rally at South Union, to which all interested are cordially invited, especially young people and school children. Several speakers have been invited, among them being Prof. W. H. Hand, Hon. Jos. W. Shelor and Superintendent of Education W. C. Hughes. Speaking to begin at 10.30. A pleasant time is anticipated, so come and bring your friends. Dinner will be served on the grounds, so don't forget the basket.

—On Sunday of last week, April 24, the home of R. S. Childress, near Salem, was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of about $500. The fire had its origin in a defective flue and had gained great headway when first discovered. Besides the house all of Mr. Childress' household goods, a quantity of meat, lard and other provisions were a total loss. Neighbors, however, came to the assistance of Mr. Childress and family, and his house was rebuilt, enabling the family to enter their new home last Saturday.

—Anderson Intelligencer, May 2d: "W. C. Rochester died at his home on Fair street at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the age of 42 years. He had been ill for some time, and the end was not unexpected. The remains were taken to Walhalla on the noon train Monday, and interment will be made near that place. Mr. Rochester is survived by his wife and several children. Before coming to Anderson to work at his trade as a brick layer, he lived near Walhalla. He was an industrious man, and had many friends who will regret to learn of his death." Mr. Rochester was well and favorably known here, where he resided for several years. He had numerous close relatives in Walhalla and in the surrounding country and hosts of friends, to whom the news of his death will come as a source of deep sorrow. Only a short while back he visited among old friends here, stopping with his brother, John P. Rochester. The relatives of the deceased have the sympathy of many in their sorrow. Yesterday morning at eleven o'clock the remains were interred in Westview cemetery.

There were a host of friends and relatives to witness the ceremony which made them one. They begin life with bright prospects and the best wishes and congratulations of many friends and relatives are extended.

Rear Admiral Highborn Dead.

Washington, May 1.—Rear Admiral Philip Highborn, U. S. N., retired, for many years one of the best known figures in the American navy, died at his home here to-night, at the age of 71 years. The admiral had been sick for the past two months. After thirty-two years of active service, Admiral Highborn, who at the time was chief constructor of the navy, was retired in 1901, with the rank of rear admiral. One of his most important services was the preparation of the American ships for the Spanish-American war. He entered the navy in 1869 as an assistant naval constructor, six years later being made a full constructor, and in 1893 chief constructor. Among his numerous lesser inventions are the Highborn balanced turrets and the Franklin life buoy. He was also the author of several important works on naval construction.

Notice of W. M. U. Meeting.

In view of the fact that the third quarterly meeting of Woman's Missionary Union of Beaverdam Association will be held with the First Baptist church of Westminster on May 12th, we extend to all those interested in this work a cordial invitation to be present.

We shall be glad also to have an attendance from those churches which have not the organizations, that they may become better acquainted with the work and profit thereby. Mrs. J. A. Watkins, For Committee.

Important Meeting at Double Springs.

A conference will be held at Double Springs (O.) Baptist church on the first Saturday in June. All members are requested to be present in person or by letter. At this meeting the membership roll will be revised, and those not present in person or by written request will be dropped from the roll.

Robt. L. Symes, Mart. L. Phillips, J. S. Callas, Deacons. K. I. Roach, Church Clerk.

Does Not Stimulate

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. It is not a strong drink. No reaction after you stop using it. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic and alterative. We wish you would ask your doctor about this. He knows. Trust him. Do as he says. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

What are Ayer's Pills? Liver Pills. How long have they been sold? Nearly sixty years. Do doctors recommend them? Ask your own doctor and find out.
