To the Democratic Voters of South Carolina:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the friends in ever county who have given me their loyal and unwavering support i my candidacy for Governor and to request a continuance of their effort until the polls close in the second primary. The time before that election is short, and I will not have the opportunity to communicate wit many of them personally. From the indications of the first primary, an the assurances received already from every section of the State, 1 ar confident of being the next Governor of South Carolina, but the victor cannot be achieved without the assistance of my friends in each county

I wish to say that from now until the next primary I will hav headquarters in Columbia, where matters pertaining to the campaign will be attended to, and where my friends may communicate with me Sincerely. C. C. FEATHERSTONE.
