

ORGANIZER HOLLOWAY.

The Man Who Will Be Met by the Farmers of Oconee.

The following clipping from the Farmers' Union Sun will be of particular interest to the farmers of Oconee at this time, as J. B. O'Neill Holloway, to whom the article refers, will be among them at farmers' meeting during this month. Mr. Holloway is pretty well known in the county among the older citizens, and is a man of marked ability and particularly well adapted to the successful carrying on of the work in which he is now so deeply interested. The Sun says:

"The executive committee of the State Farmers' Union has had the good fortune to secure the services of the named gentleman for the work of organization. As will be seen in another column of this issue, his work during the summer months will be confined to the upper counties of the State, Oconee, Pickens, Anderson and Abbeville.

"Mr. Holloway is a man of great intelligence, an excellent speaker and a good organizer. If, as is confidently believed, his efforts at organizing new unions in the counties mentioned proves successful, he will be commissioned to engage in similar work elsewhere throughout the State. His work, however, will not be limited simply to the organization of new unions, but the more important part of it will consist in the strengthening of those unions already in existence and reviving the interest of those that have grown cold in the cause of union."

"I speak for Mr. Holloway a cordial reception wherever he may go. He is engaged in a good work, and should have the hearty endorsement of every South Carolina farmer. The aim of the Farmers' Union is one of unselfishness, and those who labor in its interests are actuated by motives almost wholly altruistic. The great fundamental principle which moves Mr. Holloway and other workers is that 'in union there is strength.' By uniting and pulling together the farming class can secure the justice, together with the fruits of their labor, that has been so long denied them. We hope, therefore, that Mr. Holloway will meet with abundant success, and cause those with whom he works to see the light as he sees it."

A Man of Iron Nerve.

Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators, for keen brain and strong body. 25c. at all drug stores.

Bounty Land News.

Bounty Land, Sept. 5.—Special: Mrs. Rachel Auld and son Rob are visiting at the home of J. B. Pickett. Accompanied by Mrs. Pickett, they will leave to-morrow for Sandy Springs, where they will be guests of Mrs. Mack Millam.

Mrs. D. A. Perritt is expected home to-morrow from Charleston, returning via Paeolet for a visit to her uncle, Ephraim Penney.

Miss Cornelia Kelley, of Tamassee, and Alex McMahan and daughter, Miss Myra, of Seneca, were guests Friday of the family of John L. Smith.

Little Misses Etrulia and Aurea Beth Hubbard, of Seneca, and Miss Ida McMahan, of Greenville, are visiting at Thomas Hubbard's.

Miss Bertie Smith has accepted the position as teacher of Retreat school. Miss Bertie is an experienced teacher, and the patrons of Retreat are to be congratulated on securing her services.

Mrs. James McHugh, of Clemson, was a recent guest at the home of Thomas Hubbard.

Arthur Dean and two daughters, of Martin, Ga., visited at J. J. Davis's home last week.

Miss Marie Isbell, of Walhalla, and Mr. L. M. Murphy, of Anderson, were guests last week of the Misses Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shanklin, of Clemson, and J. B. Shanklin and family, of Seneca, visited their mother, Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin, Sunday.

Revs. W. Bruce Doyle, of Hot Springs, N. C., and G. M. Wilcox, of Walhalla, visited in the community Sunday. Rev. Doyle preached an excellent sermon at Richland in the morning. Services at 8 o'clock were conducted by Mr. Wilcox. Good congregations attended both services.

Miss Cora Hubbard, who has been spending a couple of weeks' vacation at home, will return Tuesday to Spartanburg. Miss Hubbard is with the A. W. Smith Co.

J. Walker Foster, of Collins, Miss., gave his friends in this community an appreciated call a few days ago. Mr. Foster is a son of E. D. Foster, of Richland, and left this State about 20 years ago, making Mississippi his adopted home. He has for several years been profitably engaged in lumbering. His friends here are always glad to see him.

Harry Singh and sister, Miss Yancy, of Anderson, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. McMahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Gillison went to Bear Swamp to-day to attend a reunion of the Fennell family, which will take place at the home of W. M. Fennell.

Mrs. Mary Fennell and Mrs. Jane Buckhalter left Wednesday for a visit to relatives at Baldwin, Ga., and are expected to return to-day.

The Tash of a Friend

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me completely. I never coughed at night now." Millions know the matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, in grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. WHO PAYS TEDDY'S BILLS?

"You Lie," Shouts Man to Roosevelt, at Close of Speech.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 5.—A man who fought his way to Ex-President Roosevelt and called him a liar gave a bad scare to the crowd at Island Park in this city. Col. Roosevelt seized the man and helped to eject him from the platform.

The Colonel had just finished his Labor Day address, which was delivered to one of the largest crowds which has gathered to see him on his Western trip. A heavy rain storm drenched the people, but most of them sat through the afternoon in their wet clothes to hear him speak.

As Col. Roosevelt spoke the last sentence, the crowd cheered and then there was a rush for the speaker's stand of thousands of people, who sought to get near enough to see the speaker and shake his hand.

The Man with a Question.

A small, poorly dressed man pushed his way through the mass of people until he could make himself heard by the colonel. He wore a battered hat and was unshaven.

"I have a question to ask, Roosevelt," he shouted.

Fighting his way through the crowd the man at length reached the speaker's stand. He mounted the steps and stopped when he reached the top. Standing about six feet from Col. Roosevelt he called out once more: "I have a question to ask you, Roosevelt."

The men and women on the stand grew silent. Col. Roosevelt turned and faced him. Waving one arm the man shouted:

"I want to know who is paying the expenses of this trip of yours about the country?"

"An Impertinent Question."

The question angered the Colonel, and his face showed it. He advanced a step toward his interrogator and shot back the answer:

"I consider that to be an impertinent question," he said. "However, I have no objection to telling you," he added, "that the expenses of the party are being paid by the magazine of which I am one of the editors."

"You lie!" the man shouted so loud that hundreds of persons in the crowd could hear him.

As he spoke the words, Col. Roosevelt stepped forward quickly and seized his arm just above the elbow. He explained later that he did not know who the man was or what his intentions were, and that he had taken hold of his arm as a measure of self-protection. He pushed the arm outward, turning the man half around so that he was powerless to use the arm. It was an old trick of self-defense which he had learned years ago, the Colonel said.

His vigorous action did not deter the man from finishing what he had to say. He shouted out:

"Your expenses are being paid by the people of the United States."

Death of Mrs. John J. Woodall.

Battle Creek, Sept. 7.—Special: Mrs. Sallie Woodall died at her home in the Long Creek section on Saturday, September 3d, after several months suffering with heart dropsy. She was born March 18, 1825, and was, therefore, 75 years, 5 months and 13 days old at her death. She joined the Baptist church in 1855 and had been a faithful Christian ever since, living up to her Christian professions. She was a kind and loving mother, a true and devoted companion. She leaves her 55 years of work and faith and love to comfort the bereaved ones. Truly a good woman has gone to her reward.

Before her marriage her name was Sallie Jones. She was married to John J. Woodall on the 18th day of May, 1857, and they lived together 53 years, 3 months and 13 days. There were born to them seven children, five sons and two daughters, who survive their mother. There are also several grandchildren and some great-grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn her death. Her death is her eternal gain. Her remains were buried at the Long Creek church cemetery on Sunday, the 4th, after funeral services by Revs. Masiah Cobb and D. F. Carter.

Your complexion as well as your temper is rendered miserable by a disordered liver. By taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets you can improve both. Sold by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla; Charles W. Wickliffe, West Union.

Locals from Pulaski.

Pulaski, Sept. 3.—Special: The friends of Mont Bowen were shocked to hear of his death, which occurred at his home in Toccoa, Ga., August 30th. His body was buried in the Damascus cemetery the following day.

Ransie Phillips, of Westminster, is spending this week with his brother and other relatives in this section.

Jason Lee is at home. He has been attending school at Long Creek.

Burt Deaton captured last week a wildcat that weighed 21 pounds.

Wonder here our Supervisor and Commissioners have gone? There has not been any of them around here in three years. Guess they are afraid to come this way. One candidate, however, came around. He must have told how bad the roads were and the rest got scared. Hurrah for gullies and holes!

Thomas Carter was happily married to Miss Iler Alley, of Turnerville, Ga., on August 21st.

Master Charlie Boatright, of Walhalla, is spending a month with his grandmother, Mrs. Delphia Boatright.

There is a force of twenty-five men cutting timber on Mr. Lockery's land. He says it will take three years to cut all of his timber and get it to the river.

Master Harley Thrift, of Long Creek, passed through here yesterday. He is a jolly boy and his friends are always glad to see him.

Mrs. Beatrice Powell has been spending this week with her father and mother in Franklin county, Georgia.

The Tailor Dressed Man Gets In!

We are not content to sit idly by and let any man suffer the humiliation of poorly fitting clothes because he does not know The Royal Tailors' System. That is the purpose of this big advertisement. To let every last clothes-wearer in this town know that now he can have his clothes made to his own order at a price he can afford. That there is a master measure-taker here at this store waiting to take his measure and a Royal craftsman in Chicago or New York waiting to tailor his cloth over those measures in the latest styles.

Deep down in your heart, you have always coveted tailor-made clothes—every man has. Some men may have smothered pride and accepted a factory made substitute because of fancied economy. But the envy of the man with a good tailor lies inrooted in every untailored clothes-wearer.

That envy need no longer remain ungratified in you. Here is a tailoring service, that because of its enormous output, its national field, is bringing the best hand-tailoring within the purse reach of all.

We have 500 beautiful Fall and Winter Woolsens ready to show you. Call and see them to-day.

Local Matters at Tamassee.

Tamassee, Sept. 5.—Special: For the past week Tamassee has been plentifully supplied with rain.

Rev. Mr. Peabody, of Westminster, gave his many friends a pleasant surprise by holding service at Bethel Presbyterian church on the fourth Sunday. He filled Rev. Mr. Wilcox's places, the two having exchanged pulpits for that day.

Mrs. Geo. M. Ansel and son, Little George, and Miss Mamie Ansel, spent last week as the guests of Mrs. Cornelia Jones.

Miss Cornelia Kelley spent a few days very pleasantly at the home of the Misses Smith, near Seneca, recently.

Several enjoyed an all-day picnic in Mr. Cowan's pasture last Friday, and after dinner Picket Post and Tamassee boys played a very exciting game of base ball, in which Tamassee was victorious, 16 to 8.

Misses Carrie and Clyde Smith, of Seneca, spent the day last Friday in Tamassee.

The Tamassee school has closed after the summer session of seven weeks. There was an enrollment of 58 pupils. It was very successfully taught by Miss Ellen Ellison, of Winnsboro. It is with great regret that she cannot return for the winter term. Miss Ellison was a favorite with all whom she met. She leaves for her school at Blacksburg on September 9th. We hope she will take another school for us. Her place has not yet been filled, and it will take a very competent teacher to fill it as she did.

Result of Misconstruction.

To the Democratic Voters of Oconee county: I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to my many friends and supporters throughout the county for the handsome vote I received on August 30 for the office of Treasurer. I am truly grateful for the interest and kindness shown me, but regret very much that, on account my misconstruction of the law as to the proper time of filing my expense account, I was thrown out of the second race. However, I trust my friends will excuse me for this mistake, remembering that none are perfect, and I assure you that I regret it as much on your account as on my own. With best regards to all, I remain, Yours very truly,

John W. Reynolds.

Two are Reported Dead.

St. Louis, Sept. 5.—Two persons are dead, four missing and 12 seriously injured in the wreck of the Illinois Central train No. 5, the fast train for the West, near here early this morning. According to meagre advices from the scene, the train was running 60 miles an hour when part of it turned turtle. The train left Chicago at 3:45 a. m. and was due in Omaha at 3:45 p. m.

Appendicitis has now taken a back seat in favor of mazo-motoritis. You get the latter from automobil-ing and it costs more money.
