LOCAL AND PERSONAL

—James M. Moss is in Columbia attending the State Fair.

—Read the new advertisement of the Matheson Hardware Company.

—Miss Marie Isbell spent several days in Anderson last week visiting her sister, Mrs. L. M. Murphy.

—Mrs. S. K. Dendy left Monday for Greenville, where she will spend a week or so among relatives and friends.

—Wanted—A renter for a one or two-horse crop on a good farm above Walhalla. Apply to this office.

—W. P. Nimmons, of Seneca, is making a very attractive offer this week. Read what he has to say and give him a call.

—It is well for the partridge hunters to bear in mind that it is unlawful to shoot these birds until November 15th. The open season is from November 15th to March 1st.

—C. B. Oehning left last week for Columbia, where he will spend this week with his daughter, Mrs. C. F. Hoefler, and other relatives. He will also take in the State Fair.

—Our people are urged to attend the Sunday school convention at the Lutheran church to-morrow. It is hoped the town will give a good turnout. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

—Mrs. J. K. Hane and daughter, Miss May, left yesterday for their home at Fort Motte, after having spent some weeks pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Harrison, on Faculty Hill.

—If you will try Kerfee's paint you will be convinced of its superiority in looks and wearing qualities. Sold by Dan E. Good, Walhalla.

—All members of Walhalla Lodge, No. 67, K. of P., are urged to attend the meeting next Monday night promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Work in Rank of Esquire. Visiting Knights will be cordially welcomed.

—Judge D. A. Smith, it is stated, will start a movement for a passenger booth to be located near the "Y." He feels that this is almost an absolute necessity for the better accommodation of the travelling public.

—Estray—Bull yearling; found estray in my pasture. Owner can have same by describing and paying for keep. Will hold until November 15th for purpose of identification. Henry W. Brandt, Walhalla, S. C., R. F. D. No. 1.

—Married, on Sunday morning, October 30th, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. A. Bond, in Midway, John C. Warren and Miss May James. Friends of the couple offer congratulations and best wishes for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

—Plenty of ice Saturday and Sunday mornings. On Saturday morning the Blue Ridge mountains were covered with snow. According to our oldest citizens this is the first time the mountains have been known to be covered with snow in October. Snow fell in Atlanta, and many of the Southern States.

—For Sale—2 1/2 acres land on North Broad street, Walhalla, 300 yards from Court House; in high state of cultivation. Apply to F. A. Lewis. 38-45

—When you come to Court next week call and see us and make your headquarters with us. Take a look at the label on your Courier before you leave home and bring enough money with you to make the label read 1911. If it now reads 1909 it will take just "two bucks" to change the figures to 1911. See the photo?

—Next Tuesday is election day. Look up your last year's tax receipt and registration certificate and get ready to cast your vote for the nominees of the Democratic primary, as you pledged yourself to do at said election. Let every registered man in the county take an hour or two off on that day and cast his ballot.

—F. W. Harbort has our thanks for the finest sweet potato specimen we have seen this year. Mr. Harbort informed us that he has raised about fifty bushels this year from less than an acre of ground. The one he brought to The Courier office weighed slightly more than four pounds and was of the pumpkin yam variety. His entire yield was of large potatoes, but this was the largest one of the crop.

—Dr. Thos. G. C. Fahnstock, dentist, will be in his office every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

—Here's the record-breaker for a lady farmer, so far as we have been advised: Yesterday morning Mrs. W. A. Brown, of Walhalla, sent to The Courier office three sweet potatoes, the three netting 11 3/4 pounds. Mrs. Brown does not make a business of farming, of course, and she lives in town. But we find this appended to her note: "I say MY potatoes because I bought the potatoes, had them bedded, drew the slips and sent them to the farm, and had the ground prepared and the slips set like I wanted it done." Evidently Mrs. Brown knows how sweet potatoes ought to be cultivated and grown. We are not informed just what Mrs. Brown had done, but as a lawyer would insist, "the potatoes are the best evidence." She takes the laurels, and we take, with thanks, three of the biggest potatoes we have seen.

—Read Lowry & Holloway's new advertisement.

—Dr. B. P. Sloan is attending the State Fair this week.

—Mrs. Jas. M. Moss has returned from Mount Pleasant, where she spent several weeks visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Bowen.

—A special meeting of the Lutheran congregation is called to be held after services next Sunday. We have a big opportunity to get a good man as pastor. Be sure to be there.

—Don't forget the convention of the Sunday schools of Wagener township at the Lutheran church to-morrow. Come and enjoy the day. Help and be helped in the great work of the church.

—A meeting of Oconee Memorial Association will be held at office of R. T. Jaynes on Friday evening next at 5 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as matters of importance demand attention.

—Just received another car load of High Point buggies. Every one sold under a personal guarantee. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Miss Hattie Rutledge, accompanied by her little nephew, Burt Rutledge, left for Columbia this morning, where they will visit the former's father, Robt. S. Rutledge, State Armorer.

—On account of making a change in my business, I will commence closing out at cost all my pattern and trimmed hats to-morrow, Thursday, November 3d. Mrs. R. Callaway, milliner, Walhalla, S. C.

—A meeting of the board of trustees and board of stewards of the Walhalla Methodist church is called for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of E. L. Herndon to consider important matters.

—There will be a call meeting of the Civic League on Monday, November 7th, at 1 o'clock, at Mrs. W. M. Brown's. All members will please attend promptly, as business of importance will be considered.

—Revival services at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. B. J. Woodward, will continue through this week. Services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every day. Every one invited to all the services.

—For Sale by J. B. S. Dendy—Tract of woodland, four miles from West Union, on Blue Ridge Railroad, containing one hundred and fifty acres. Price, $1,500.00. 44

—The ladies of the Episcopal church will serve an oyster supper at Eaton's store room on Friday, November 11th, beginning at 6 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. Oysters will be cooked in any style and served to order.

—Banaman's Monkey and Goat Show has its tents pitched in South Broad street, near the Court House, and is being visited by fairly good crowds. They will give another performance to-night, and will probably remain longer, though they came for a two-day show only.

—Miss Hattie and T. B. Shelor have been quite unwell for a week or more, to the regret of their friends here and elsewhere. Miss Shelor's condition is reported somewhat improved this morning, but Mr. Shelor is reported no better. Their friends hope for their early recovery.

—Postmaster A. C. Merrick was quite sick for several days last week, but his many friends are pleased to know that he has improved to such an extent as to be able to attend to his official duties partially at present. We hope that he may soon be entirely restored to his usual good health.

—For Sale by J. B. S. Dendy—A farm of one hundred and fifty acres two and a half miles from Walhalla. Price, $2,500.00. Terms to suit purchaser. 44

—Miss Carrie Darby, of Sandy Springs, I., expected to arrive in West Union next week to assist in the West Union school, which was opened last month with Miss O. Belle Martin as principal. Miss Martin is stopping with the Misses Stucke at the West Union Hotel. Miss Darby will be with her aunt, Mrs. Jas. Phinney.

—The reports from the Boys' Corn Club Contest are coming in very slowly. So far only seven out of the thirty-five have reported. Don't drop out if your yield happens to fall short, for there will be a prize for the best written report, best ten-ear exhibit, etc. Send in your reports at once. Remember the contest closes November 15th.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wiebens, of Chicago, arrived in West Union last week and are stopping at the home of the Misses Stucke. Mr. and Mrs. Wiebens will probably spend the winter here, the Misses Stucke having opened the West Union Hotel permanently. Mr. Wiebens is remembered here by numerous friends, who are pleased to meet him again.

—Several from Walhalla attended the circus in Anderson last Friday. Some fell victims to pickpockets, but enjoyed the show nevertheless. It is understood there were seventy-nine cases on the Anderson police court docket for Friday. The major portion of the charges were for pickpocketing. Among those from this county who fell victims to the light-fingered manipulators were A. T. Smith, W. B. Guinn, J. H. Dendy, Sam McCrary and Dr. W. K. Sharp. There were perhaps others that we have not heard of. Several arrests were made on the passenger train from Anderson to Walhalla Friday night.

—See advertisement of bridge lettings next Saturday, the 5th.

—Lost—Between D. F. McAllister's and West Union, suit case containing lady's clothing. Reward if returned to J. C. Knox, West Union.

—The ladies of the Civic League will serve a dinner on Wednesday, November 9th, from 12 to 3 o'clock, at the old dispensary building, corner Main and Tugaloo streets. Everyone welcome and a good dinner for all. Price 25c a plate. The following menu will be served: Baked hen, boiled ham, macaroni, creamed potatoes, baked beans, rice, slaw, bread, coffee, Pie, 5c.; cake, 5c.

—Be certain to attend the auction sale at the store formerly occupied by A. Charles Brucke, deceased, in West Union, S. C., next Saturday, the 5th instant. A lot of ear corn, fodder, tops, rough and dressed lumber, one pair Stinson computing scales, show cases, set of blacksmith tools, and many other things, all to go at a bargain for cash. A. W. L. Brucke, Executor.

—Speaking in regard to numerous land sales that Capt. D. A. Taylor has pulled off in the recent past and will conduct in the near future, the Anderson Intelligencer says: "On October 20th Capt. Taylor sold at Walhalla for the Anderson Real Estate and Investment Co. 72 lots. This was one of the best sales ever turned off in this State and the largest gathering ever seen at an auction sale."

—When you want the best buggy on the market for the money buy a "Hughes" buggy from T. E. Alexander, Walhalla. 231f

—Lee Kerr, coroner of Oconee county, has accepted a position as night watchman at Clemson College. We are glad to note that he has been given this responsible position, as we are sure that no one would fill it more acceptably than he. Until further notice if any emergency requiring him should arise, he can be reached by phone at the treasurer's office at Clemson College. Any one desiring to see his books or inspect his records may do so by seeing W. C. Hughes, who has them in charge for Mr. Kerr.

—Next Monday and Tuesday nights the Sylvia Summers Company will appear here, presenting two popular plays at popular prices. This company comes with high endorsement from the public and the press, and will doubtless attract good audiences both nights. This company recently appeared at the theatre in Anderson, and at that time the Anderson Daily Mail, speaking of the company, said: "The Sylvia Summers Company put on an unusually good show at the opera house last night. The house was well filled and the audience was highly pleased with the presentation of 'Jack's Wife.' The company is an exceptionally strong one and deserves good patronage." The Sylvia Summers Company, composed of eight people, will be in Walhalla for two nights only, and the show-going population can expect two of the best performances that have ever been presented here, according to the information received by us in regard to the show.

—Court will convene next Monday. This is also legal salesday for November. A large crowd is expected in town on that day. It will be a good time to meet your friends from all over the county. Make it a point to call at The Courier office for a few minutes. We are always glad to see our friends and patrons; also, to make new friends and patrons. We will try and have fresh water and a warm place for you.

—H. C. Miller, Esq., left Monday for Greenville, where he will be located for the future, and at which place he will practice law in connection with B. A. Morgan, Esq. During Mr. Miller's short stay in Walhalla he made numerous friends, who will join with us in wishing him every success in his new home. He is a young man of ability, and we regret his departure from Walhalla. In speaking of his removal Mr. Miller was unqualified in his praise of the people of Walhalla, who had received him most cordially, and for whom he formed a great attachment.

—On Tuesday, October 25th, the Paul Hayne Circle held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. A. Steck. At this meeting the election of officers for the year 1911 took place, and was as follows: Mrs. E. L. Herndon, president; Mrs. Jas. H. Darby, vice president; Miss Ruth Walker, secretary; Mrs. W. L. Verner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. L. Rogers, treasurer. The course of study decided on was France and Austria. After other minor business the club adjourned, and was served by Mrs. Steck and Mrs. Adams to a cup of very refreshing coffee with crackers.

A Progressive Age

While this age has been termed a progressive one from all standpoints, the progressiveness of Farming has attracted a more wide attention than any line of business. This age has taught us well that Cotton, while a money crop, cannot be relied upon entirely, for to keep up our soil we must rotate. It has been well proven that the open furrow system is the only successful way of sowing grain, and that it does not pay to sow without fertilizer. We have placed in stock just a few of the Famous Farmers' Favorite Grain Drills, in the light two-horse size, which are made up with the many important features.

We are going to sell these Drills at a very reasonable margin, within the reach of all farmers. Let us show you the many advantages it has.
