LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—J. C. Garrison is spending a few days in Greenville on business.

—For best grades cement and roofing call on W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Hon. J. E. Boggs, of Pickens, was among the visitors to Walhalla yesterday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen.

—Among the excursionists to Atlanta yesterday morning from Walhalla were Mrs. S. J. Aldrich, of Westminster, and Robert Todd, of Walhalla.

—Remember the ball game at Westminster Saturday. Westminster is determined to win the game, and the Walhalla boys are equally determined that they shall not. That's the spirit that brings out good playing.

—On account of the baccalaureate sermon of the Walhalla High School there will be no morning service at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath, May 14. Rev. W. H. Frazer, D. D., of Anderson, will preach in the evening at 8.30.

—Marshall Fennell, of Anderson, spent the week-end in Walhalla with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Fennell, who is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. T. Hughes, near town. Mrs. Fennell's children have been summoned to her bedside.

—Good 4 h.-p. upright engine for sale cheap for cash or on time. T. E. Alexander, Walhalla, S. C.

—Mrs. J. B. Umberger and children arrived last week from Virginia, where they had been spending some time visiting relatives prior to their removal to Walhalla. We welcome these good people most cordially to our midst. Rev. Mr. Umberger, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, arrived some weeks ago and has assumed the regular pastoral work of his church.

—The "Priscillas" were pleasantly entertained by Miss Burda Long on Friday afternoon, April 27. Miss Long was assisted by her brother, M. C. Long. For this reason very little work was accomplished. The girls felt that they rarely have the opportunity of being entertained by a bachelor, therefore their hands were idle. Those who enjoyed this delightful afternoon with Miss Long were Misses Nettie Darby and Esther Cary, visitors, and Misses Julia and Sue Maxwell, Eloise Strother and Geraldine Hughes, members of the club. The next meeting will be with Miss Eloise Strother on Friday afternoon, May 12.

—Two cars buggies and wagons for sale. Cash or time. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster, S. C.

—Read the advertisement of The Lumpkin Company, of Seneca, on the fifth page of this issue. This well-known Atlanta firm have taken over the stock of the J. H. Adams Department Store of Seneca, and are disposing of the entire stock (with the exception of the undertaking and furniture departments). This great sale, which will take place Tuesday and Wednesday, May 23 and 24th, will offer special opportunity to merchants to supply themselves with valuable merchandise at greatly reduced prices. The Adams stock of goods was always kept well up to date, and it can be depended upon to be everything that the new firm disposing of it claims for it. Read the announcement this week and be on hand ready to take advantage of their offers on the 23d and 24th of this month.

—Mrs. Mattie Huskamp died at the home of her son, W. J. Huskamp, near West Union, last Saturday morning, after a long illness, having been for several years in declining health. She had, however, been seriously sick but for a few days. Mrs. Huskamp was born in Germany in November, 1837, and was, therefore, in her 74th year. She came to America in 1852. She was twice married, her first husband having been — Schantz. In the early sixties she was married to John Huskamp, who preceded her to the grave some years. She is survived by five children—John F. Schantz, Mrs. B. F. Gibson, W. J. Huskamp, H. D. Huskamp and Mrs. R. N. Smith. She was a consistent member of St. John's Lutheran church, Walhalla, and was identified with the Lutheran denomination before coming to America. She was a good woman and consecrated Christian, and during her long life carried out her profession of Christianity in her daily life. She was a regular attendant upon services at her church until prevented by illness from attending. There are many friends of the family here and elsewhere who will learn with deep sorrow of her death. Funeral services were conducted Sunday from St. John's church, the interment taking place in the Lutheran cemetery. Services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. B. Umberger.

—The many friends of F. A. Lewis will be glad to know that, after an extended severe illness, he is able to be up again.

—Postmaster A. C. Merdek has for some days been unable to be at his post of duty owing to an attack of illness. His many friends will be glad to know that he is improving.

—We regret to learn of the illness of Rev. J. B. Hunsicutt, of the Stamp Creek section. We hope to learn of an early improvement in his condition.

—A new hardwood floor has been placed in the Jaynes store room, lower Main street, and a skating rink has been opened. Bowle White is the manager.

—Merchants should read the announcement of The Lumpkin Co., of Seneca, which will be found on the fifth page this week. This company has purchased the large stock of goods of the J. H. Adams Store and will sell it on May 23d and 24th to merchants only.

—Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment wonderfully effective. One application will convince you of its merits. Try it. For sale by all druggists.

—The office of Clerk of Court J. F. Craig is about the busiest place in these parts at present. He has on his clerical force engaged in the regular work of the office and special inquiries and recording the following ladies: Mrs. D. A. Smith, Misses Marguerite Brennecke, Helen Pant, Esthler Cary, Nettie Darby, Florence Rankin and Nezz Keith.

—Miss Sue V. Seaborn, a sister of James Seaborn, of Walhalla, died last Monday in Charleston after a short illness. She was in her 63d year, and was well known in Walhalla, where she had frequently visited at her brother's home. She was a most estimable lady, a daughter of the late George F. Seaborn. Two sisters, Mrs. Sallie T. Sloan, of Anderson, and Mrs. J. B. E. Sloan, of Charleston, and her brother, James Seaborn, of Walhalla, survive her. She spent some time visiting here recently, and the news of her death will be learned with deep regret by hosts of friends. Funeral services were conducted at Pendleton yesterday, the last sad rites being attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

—Miss Alice Strong entertained the tenth grade of the high school most delightfully Saturday morning. The wits of these girls, who are so soon to graduate, were put to a sharp test when they were asked to make as many words as possible of the motto, "We strive for higher things." Miss Margaret Hill won the first prize, an appropriate picture, and Miss Janie Harrison the second, a dainty jabot. The class colors, white and gold, and the class flower, the daisy, were tastefully carried out in the hand-painted place cards and in the delicious menu. The girls are quite enthusiastic over the charming manner in which the hostess entertained, and shall ever revert to the occasion with pleasure. Those invited were Misses Janie Harrison, Ruth Fricks, Margaret Hill, Dora Duncan, Elizabeth Stribling, Lettie Grant, and Charlie Pitchford.

—The many friends of Mrs. Mary Fennell, who has for some time been quite ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hughes, will regret to learn that this morning her condition is in no way improved. Mrs. Fennell is quite an aged lady and her illness is of a serious nature. During the week her children and other relatives have visited her as follows: Mrs. Jane Burkhalter, an only sister, of Clinton; Mrs. A. G. Mints, of Blacksburg, and Mrs. Elijah Gillson of Mountain Rest. Mrs. Fannie Fennell of Anderson, Mrs. J. F. Powers of Meridian, Miss. Mrs. W. H. Strange, Baldwin, Ga.; T. S. Fennell, son, of Pelzer, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bowen, of Liberty, accompanied by their children, also spent a short while this week at the home of Mr. Hughes. There are hosts of friends of the two families who will join with us in the hope that this good lady may yet be restored to health.

—Mrs. Mahala C. Parker died at her home in West Union last Saturday night at the advanced age of 89 years and six months. She had been in feeble health for several weeks and her death was not unexpected. She was an excellent woman, a consistent member of the Walhalla Presbyterian church, and was known as one of those exemplary Christians whose profession was not only made in public, but lived daily under any and all circumstances. In the home, in the church and in the community in which she lived she will be greatly missed. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. L. L. Parker, who made her home with her mother, and several grandchildren. She had been a resident of West Union for many years. Services were conducted at the home Monday morning by Rev. G. M. Wilcox, her pastor, after which interment was made in Westview Cemetery, Walhalla. We join with many other friends in extending condolence to the bereaved ones.

—Mrs. Julius M. Visanska, of Charleston, was unanimously re-elected president of the Federation of Women's Clubs at the meeting in Columbia last week. Other officers of the Federation were elected as follows: Mrs. Alexander Long, Rock Hill, first vice president; Mrs. L. D. Childs, Columbia, second vice president; Miss Mary Waterhouse, Beaufort, recording secretary; Mrs. John A. Russell, Greenville, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank B. Gary, Abbeville, treasurer; Mrs. R. A. Chanler, Maysville, auditor. By the board of directors chairman of the various departments were elected as follows: Department of forestry and civics, Mrs. A. F. McKissick, Greenwood; department of domestic science, Mrs. L. T. Nichols, Chester; library department, Mrs. L. W. Parker, Greenville; department of music, Mrs. Cora Ligon, Anderson; department of literature and reciprocity, Miss Louisa P. Poppenheim, Charleston; department of education, Mrs. C. E. Graham, Greenville; department of health, Mrs. W. H. Beall, Sumter. The meeting was largely attended and was a most enjoyable occasion.

—Coffins, caskets and burial robes at all hours. Jaynes.

—On account of the absence of the pastor Rev. J. G. Law, D. D., will preach at Bethel Presbyterian church next Sabbath afternoon at 3.30.

—Jesse C. Neville, S. L. Verner and J. E. Bauknight are in the mountains this week enjoying a trout fishing expedition.

—We are giving special bargains in every department for next thirty days, and you get votes in the piano contest. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster, S. C.

—Mrs. Claude Reid has typhoid fever at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford, on Faculty Hill. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

MARRIAGE AT MADISON.

Miss Cleland and Mr. Bryan Wed. Other Local News.

Madison, May 8.—Special: School closed here last Friday. Misses Essie and Evie Jones attended the teachers' examination held at Walhalla last Friday. Ed. Cleland spent Wednesday in Toccoa.

Mrs. J. D. Hull is visiting relatives in Anderson this week. Mrs. R. P. Gaines, of Central, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. M. Wilbanks, who has been very sick for some time, is improving. David Cleland, of the Southern railway, visited homefolks Sunday.

Several of the young people from here attended the closing exercises of Tugaloo Academy school last Saturday night. They report a very pleasant time.

A marriage that will prove of interest to many is that of Miss Mary Cleland and Carl Lynn Bryan, which was solemnized at the Baptist church last Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cleland, of this place, and won friends wherever she went by her kind, loving ways. Mr. Bryan is the youngest son of J. L. Bryan, of Chauga, and has many friends here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. G. Lavender, of Westminster. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan left for Greenville, where they will make their future home. Only their relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Congratulations and best wishes.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. It's the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c. at all druggists.

A Father's Vengeance would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. It's the best kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, tired feeling, nervousness, loss of appetite, warn of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware. Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c. at all druggists.

Special Bargain Near Oakway.

I have to offer for the next two weeks a good bargain in a

132 Acre Tract of Land

about two miles from Oakway. This is an unimproved tract that will pay a handsome dividend with a little work and energy. The general lay of the land, the close proximity to churches and a good school, and being in a good community of improved farms, are some of the points that will command the attention of the home-seeker. The price that I am offering this place for will surprise you. You can't go wrong if you will hang on to some staple Real Estate near Oakway.
