Bell, J. R. Hughes, J. A. Ansel, Jas. H. Darby, Sidney Adams, Geo. Blunmer, S. A. Lockwood, E. L. Herndon, J. B. S. Dendy, and Misses Roxie Reid, Gertrude Smith and Sue Maxwell.

His buggy was filled, and he was standing on the back, when the horse took fright, and Mr. Yongue was pitched off. He was knocked unconscious and otherwise badly bruised, but fortunately no limbs were broken." There are many friends here who will learn with deep regret of Mr. Yongue's misfortune. He is a brother of the late Rev. J. C. Yongue, former pastor of the Walhalla Methodist church, and at one time assisted in a protracted meeting here, at which time he made a host of friends.

Friends of the family hope for the complete restoration of the little one to health. Mr. and Mrs. Blachoff have gone with the little sufferer to spend a while in the mountains, hoping that the change will be beneficial.

—D. A. Smith left last Saturday for Milwaukee, Wis., where he is attending the session of the Supreme Conclave, Improved Order Heptasophis. Mr. Smith carried with him as a souvenir from the South about 500 bolts of cotton, each bolt, with a full stem, being attached to a shipping tag, on which is printed "Milwaukee, 1911—Compliments of D. A. Smith, D. D. S. A., District No. 68, Walhalla, S. C.—South Carolina and Georgia." Mr. Smith will be absent from Walhalla for some ten days. He was accompanied by W. D. The stenographer, at any time convenient, takes this record, placing it on the transmitting machine, which gives the dictation accurately, though the business man may be miles away attending to other matters. Where the system has been in use it has been found not only thoroughly practical, but of wonderful advantage, especially in offices and businesses where the one who gives dictation is frequently interrupted.

—Royal Portland cement $2.25 per barrel, in cloth sacks; sacks worth 10 cents each. Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster, S. C.

—Columbia State, June 9: "Mrs. Mary C. Arnette, of Fairfield county, and well known throughout the State, died yesterday in this city. She was a granddaughter of Gen. Winn, the founder of Winnsboro, and a niece of the late David Wynns, Congressman for many years from that district. She is survived by four children, Mrs. E. R. Lucas, of Walhalla; J. C. Arnette and R. E. Arnette, of Fairfield county, and W. Julian Arnette, of Greenville. Two sisters of the deceased, Mrs. W. J. Elliott and Mrs. O. M. Wallace, reside in this city." The many Walhalla friends of Mrs. Lucas and the other bereaved ones sympathize deeply with them in their sorrow. Mr. Lucas attended the funeral, but Mr. Lucas was unable to go on account of the illness of their baby.

—Last Friday night the Walhalla depot was entered by sneak thieves, or a sneak thief, and the money drawer was torn loose from its "moorings" and rifled. Fortunately all the money had been removed from the drawer at the close of business, and fifty Lincoln pennies constituted the sum total of the theft. "These had been set aside, wrapped in paper, and were doubtless thought by the thief to be a valuable little package. Aside from these a few loose pennies were all that had been left in the drawer, and they were strewn about the office floor. Entrance into the office was made by breaking the glass at one of the windows, a small hole having been made sufficient to admit a person's hand, and the inside fastenings were then undone. The rock that was thrown through the window was found on the office floor. No other damage was done, and fifty or seventy-five cents covers the monetary loss.

—Clarence Duncan returned to his home in West Union Saturday, after having spent the fall and winter months in Summertown, S. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Reid and Miss Letitia Reid are again making their home in West Union, having moved from Walhalla last week.

—Miss Beth Harrington, of Central, returned to her home Saturday after spending ten days with her friends, Misses Ellen and Dora Duncan, of West Union.

—Train No. 42, known as the Bell train between Charlotte, N. C., and Seneca, will change schedule next Monday, the 19th, leaving Seneca at 7.35 a. m., thus giving connection with the Blue Ridge train leaving Walhalla at 7 o'clock. The "Bell" train has heretofore been leaving Seneca at 6.50 o'clock. The change will give the traveling public from Walhalla additional accommodation in making points East and North. No. 42 will make close connection at Spartanburg for Asheville.

—Royal Portland cement, in cloth sacks, $2.25 per barrel. You can get 10c. each for the sacks. Now is the time to use cement. Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster.

—There are quite a number of Walhalla people taking an unusual interest in the commencement exercises of Clemson College this year owing to the fact that two Walhalla boys—Lewis C. Harrison and James Harrison—will complete their education at that institution this year. These young men have taken exceptionally high rank in the student body, and we bespeak for them successful careers in whatever spheres they may occupy. They are both worthy young men, and their course at Clemson has been watched with interest.

—J. W. Lee yesterday brought to this office a young opossum which he had caught in a large wire rat trap. For a night or two Mrs. Lee had noticed that some of her young chickens were being taken from under the hens and eaten up. Thinking one end of the trap well filled set the trap, and was surprised indeed when he found yesterday morning one end of the trap well-filled with opossum. Mr. Lee thinks his captive is one that some one was raising, as it seems improbable that one so young would stray so far into town from the woods. It appears to be about three weeks old.

—The price of $2.25 per barrel on Portland cement will not last long. Do it now. Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster, S. C.

—John E. Humphries has accepted a position with the Dairy Ring Traveler Co., of Taunton, Mass., representing them in the States of South Carolina and Georgia. Mr. Humphries will travel in portions of these two States, retaining Walhalla as his headquarters. Mr. Humphries' company are large manufacturers of spinning and twisting travelers, used in the manufacture of cotton goods. He has hosts of friends here and elsewhere who will join us in wishing him well in his new field. He is an experienced mill man, having held several responsible positions in this State, the last being overseer of carding and spinning, with the Walhalla Cotton Mills, which he relinquished to enter other lines of work.

—W. W. Burnside died at his home near Holly Springs, this county, last Sunday afternoon, at the age of about 66 years. Mr. Burnside was a Confederate veteran, having served through the War Between the States, and was said to have made an exceptionally good soldier. He was a member of the Holly Springs Baptist church. Interment was made at the Holly Springs cemetery Monday afternoon in the presence of a large number who had gathered to pay the last sad tribute to the deceased. Mr. Burnside had not been sick, death coming suddenly and unexpectedly at his home while taking a noon rest. He is survived by his wife and five children—Mrs. S. K. Thompson, W. Charles Burnside, Mrs. J. J. Busch, J. Ed. Burnside and one young son at home. There are many friends of the family who will join with us in extending sincere sympathy to them in their sorrow.

—There are many in Oconee who will learn with deep regret of the death of Thomas D. Long, who passed away at Westminster last Saturday, after a long illness. Mr. Long was one of the familiar landmarks of Oconee. Honest, upright, truthful, and generous to a fault, he had during his long life made hosts of friends, and his jovial manner and genuine friendliness made it certain that, once a friend of Thomas Long, one was sure to be his friend always. Long years of intimate acquaintance with Mr. Long had strengthened his friendship for The Courier and The Courier's friendship for him into a true and linked them together in a strong fellowship that could be broken only by the hand of death. For many years he had been an occasional contributor to the columns of this paper, his communications always embodying a feature of news, into which was invariably woven a thread of good humor, for which he was so widely known. We sorrow with others in his taking away. He was a good man and true, and he will be missed.

—Norton Stribling and Jack Verner are at home from Clemson.

—Mrs. B. F. Solan is spending this week visiting among relatives at Clemson College.

HAYNE CIRCLE ENTERTAINED.

Meeting June 6th Was Held with Miss Alice Strong as Hostess.

One of the most delightful meetings ever held by the Paul Hayne Club was on the afternoon of the 6th of June, with Miss Alice Strong. The guests were given a cordial welcome by the hostess, who was assisted in entertaining throughout the afternoon by her mother and sisters, Misses Cora and Daisy Strong. After exchange of greetings and pleasant conversation for a few moments the club was called to order by the president, Mrs. E. L. Herndon. Miss Walker then called the roll, the members responding with current French art notes. The program, a most interesting one, was as follows: Art Galleries and Salons of France, Miss Walker; short sketch of Carol, Bon Heur and Asti, Miss Daisy Strong; poem, Venus de Milo, Mrs. John A. Ansel, (who kindly assumed an absent member's duty); and the Twelve World Pictures, Mrs. John A. Ansel. By special request Mrs. Ansel then read The Critic, which provoked hearty laughter, so true to life was its sentiment.

Business which followed was soon dispatched, and a motion to adjourn was carried. The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. W. Bauknight.

Immediately after adjournment Miss Alice, in a graceful manner, introduced a clever contest, which was wholly in keeping with the subject in hand and was a suitable climax to an already most interesting meeting. Arranged on the piazzas were copies of pictures by famous French artists, and the guests were asked to name these. Time was soon called and again those present were invited into the parlor, where each found her place at prettily appointed tables by means of miniature reproductions of famous artists. Refreshing iced tea and sandwiches were served, after which it was announced that Mrs. Sidney Adams was the only one who had all the correct names of the pictures. She was then given "The Girl With the Muff," which will serve as a pretty reminder of a most pleasant afternoon.

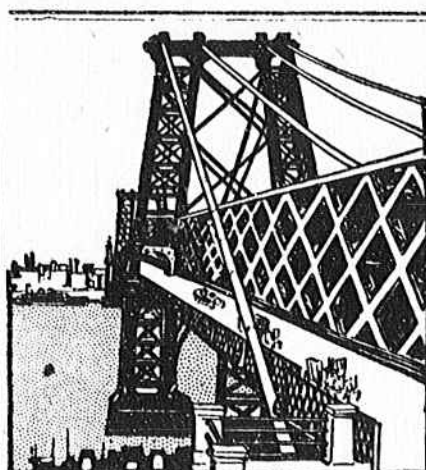

The guests were loud in their praise of such a successful and enjoyable entertainment. The club members were glad to have as visitors Miss Cora Strong, Mrs. Schroder and Miss Schroder, of Charleston, and Miss Patterson, of Philadelphia. Members present were Mesdames Herndon, Darby, Dendy, Verner, Blunmer, Ansel, Bauknight, Steck, Adams, Hetrick, Carter and Bell; Misses Daisy and Alice Strong, Neville, Smith, Ansel, Biemann, Harrison and Walker.

HON. THOMAS D. LONG DEAD.

Confederate Veteran and Prominent Citizen Passes Away.

(Greenville News, 11th.)

Thomas Drayton Long, brother of the late Dr. Rudolphus D. Long, of this city, died early yesterday morning in Westminster, where he had made his home for several years. The news of Mr. Long's death was received here with sincere regret by the older residents of the city, who remember him during his residence here. Mr. Long was born in the building now occupied by the Commercial Hotel on the 22d of February, 1837. Part of this hotel was built by his father, Capt. Davis Long, who came to Greenville by private conveyance from Shelburn Falls, Mass., when Greenville was only a small country town. The hotel was known then as the Planters' Hotel, and was run by Capt. David Long.

Mr. Long had seen Greenville grow from the small village to its present size, and he always felt the keenest interest in everything pertaining to the growth and interest of his native city.

He enlisted in Orr's Regiment at the beginning of the Civil War and was a member of that regiment through the struggle between the States.

Mr. Long married Miss Susan Perry, a niece of the late Governor Perry. Soon after his marriage he moved to Oconee county, where he had since resided.

The remains were brought to the city yesterday afternoon from Westminster and carried to the residence of Mrs. Emily S. Long, on East Washington street, where the funeral service will be held this morning at 10 o'clock and will be conducted by the Rev. Z. T. Cody, D. D. The interment will be in the family plot in Springwood.

Death of Mrs. Lillie Myers.

South Union, June 12.—Special: Mrs. Lillie Myers died at her home, near South Union, on Sunday morning, May 28, at the age of 41 years. She had been sick for only a short time and her death came as a severe blow to her husband and other loved ones. Before her marriage to Mr. Myers she was Miss Lillie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moore, of Walhalla. She was a woman of many noble traits and a consistent member of South Union Baptist church. She had been married about 21 years, and is survived by her husband and ten children, her mother, four brothers and two sisters. Funeral services were conducted at South Union on Monday, May 29, by Rev. A. P. Marett.

There are many friends of the family who will join with us in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones in their hour of sorrow.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Keowee Courier: To those who have kindly remembered us in the death of our daughter by sending messages of love and sympathy, and other deeds of appreciation shown us, we desire to acknowledge such favors as divinely sent, and ask that the blessings of an all-wise Father in Heaven may rest upon them forever. John W. Shelor and Family.

In Memoriam—Fritz Muller.

Your body's gone, dear Fritz,
In the cold vault to lay.
Our hearts are breaking, Fritz;
God has taken you away.
It's hard to bear, dear Fritz;
What can we do but pray
Thy will be done, dear Father;
But it's oh! so hard to say.

Home is not home without you;
We miss you day and night,
You were such a comfort to us,
But now you're out of sight.
We hope to meet you, Fritz,
In that fair land above,
Where there's no more sorrow,
But all is peace and love.
