MATTERS AT SENECA.

Dr. E. A. Hines Honored—Good Rain—Local News.

Seneca, July 4.—Special: The long drought was broken on Saturday last, and on Monday rain fell again. It is said, however, that rain is still needed to make out a "season."

Mrs. E. C. Verney returned last week from Augusta, where she spent the winter and spring months.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy T. Grove and daughter will arrive Thursday, and will be with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Reid and other relatives for a visit of some length.

Miss May Hamilton has returned to her home here, which is pleasant news to her friends.

Wilton Davis is visiting his home-folks at Beavertown, and is accompanied by his friend, Bee Benedict. Mr. Benedict has many friends in Seneca who are pleased to see him again.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Stribling and children, Mrs. Luke Verner and children are spending the Fourth picnicking at High Bridge.

Miss Ivor Brown, accompanied by her friend, Miss Bessie Dye, reached Seneca last week. Miss Brown has been teaching at Heath Springs and is with her home-folks for the summer vacation.

Dr. J. S. Stribling has arrived with his bride and they will be at home to their friends in his cottage on First South street.

Miss Norma Gignilliat is at Honea Path, where she is a member of a house party in the home of her friend, Miss Brock.

The friends of Mrs. T. E. Dickson and her daughter, Miss Inez, will be pleased to learn that they will spend the summer in Seneca. Mrs. Albert Adams, formerly Miss Christine Dickson, will be in Seneca for a visit, arriving this week.

The Seneca Hardware Company has bought the J. H. Adams furniture and undertaking business. F. B. Adams will, however, conduct the business for the hardware company.

Seneca and Walhalla played ball on Saturday, resulting in a score of 7 to 1, in favor of Seneca. The feature of the game was the pitching of Harper for Seneca.

T. M. Lowery is in Seneca, having arrived Tuesday morning from Americus, Ga.

Miss May Russell visited her sister, Mrs. T. M. Lowery, the past week-end.

Prof. and Mrs. D. F. Nicholson were among the visitors from Walhalla to the concert last Friday night by the Richland Quartette.

Prof. Nicholson will represent his fraternity at the big national convention which meets in Chicago this month. This is a high honor and is worthily bestowed. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson have many friends in Seneca, who were pleased to meet them again.

Dr. E. A. Hines is another Seneca citizen who is not out of honor at home nor abroad. At the recent meeting of the National Medical Association in Los Angeles the Doctor was chosen presiding officer of the Convention of Secretaries and Journal Representatives. (It will be remembered that Dr. Hines is secretary of the State Medical Association of South Carolina.) He was also honored in being chosen toastmaster at a magnificent banquet tendered this convention, at which, however, the Doctor declares, "nothing stronger than good coffee and apolinaris water were drunk."

A fair-sized audience greeted the Richland Quartette on Friday night at the auditorium. The intense heat doubtless prevented the attendance of some, but those who braved the heat were richly rewarded. The delightful program was faultlessly rendered and was received with marked enthusiasm. We congratulate the members of the quartette on the splendid impression made.

Seneca business houses, with some exceptions, are closed for the Fourth. Tom Cherry is in Seneca and is with his mother at Mrs. W. K. Livingston's.

Mrs. E. C. Doyle tendered an elegant and beautiful entertainment to the Once-a-Week Club last week, which marked the closing of the club for the summer. Fruit punch was served the visitors upon their arrival, and after a delightful social hour a delicious ice course was served. The program of entertainment was in the nature of a photograph contest, the members having been requested to bring baby photos of themselves. This caused a deal of amusement and at the close of the contest it was found that Mrs. B. L. Lowery and Miss Eleanor Richardson had tied for the prize. In a draw Miss Richardson was lucky, and was presented with a framed picture. The Gossipers were also included among the guests of the afternoon.

Miss Frances Arrington, of Greenwood, will spend the coming week-end with friends here.

The Southern Railway is building a new water tank on the square near the location of the old one.

J. H. Thompson, of Atlanta, is in Seneca, and his friends are according him a hearty welcome.

Mrs. C. V. McCarey spent several days last week at College Park, Ga.

Sprains require careful treatment. Keep quiet and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely. It will remove the soreness and quickly restore the parts to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.

WESTMINSTER'S LOCAL NEWS.

We regret to learn of the death of James Goss, who died Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the home of his brother-in-law, James Sisk. He is a son of Miles Goss, of this place.

Master Will Frank Parker arrived here Sunday from Pine Bluff, Ark., to spend a week with Mrs. M. E. Messer and friends. Will Frank is remembered as having lived here all his life until about two years ago, when his father died and he moved to Pine Bluff to live with his sister, Mrs. Code Campbell.

The "Big Red Ball Team" leaves today for Pelzer, where they expect to play two games. We understand that Pelzer has a strong team and are going to make our boys work for what they get. Here's hoping the "Reds" come up to their usual record.

Mr. and Mrs. Robb and Winnie Carter, of Gainesville, are visiting at the home of their brothers, J. S. and Dr. W. J. Carter.

Miss Grace Routh, of Anderson, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Alexander. Miss Routh is an accomplished young lady. She finished at Converse College, Spartanburg, in June.

Mrs. Margie Fellers and step-daughter, and Mrs. Geo. Hunter and two sons, of Newberry, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Sheldon.

Dr. W. C. Marrett left Monday for Baltimore to take up his work in Bay View Hospital. Dr. Marrett came home with his mother, Mrs. A. P. Marrett, who has been in Baltimore for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Simpson, of Atlanta, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGee. Mr. Simpson leaves Wednesday for Atlanta.

Miss Galloway, of Due West, and Miss Bradley, of Latta, are visiting Miss Mary Carter. These popular young ladies will leave Wednesday for Charlotte, N. C.

Dr. W. J. Carter leaves on No. 39 today with his father, J. Carter, for Battle Creek, Mich. The latter expects to spend some time in Battle Creek for treatment in the sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morgan, of La Chi Foo, China, are now in Battle Creek spending a month or so recuperating their health. Mrs. Morgan will be remembered as Miss Leila Carter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carter, of Gainesville, Ga.

Townville Local News.

Townville, July 3.—Special: Miss Hettie Grubbs, of Fair Play, visited her brother, S. J. Grubbs, and family, recently.

Mrs. Justin Woolbright is quite sick with fever.

Mrs. J. D. Babb, who has been quite sick, is improving.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church the second Sunday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Woolbright attended the quarterly conference at the Wesleyan Methodist church at Walhalla Sunday.

Mrs. J. D. Compton died Tuesday afternoon, June 20th. She had been very sick with typhoid fever for the two weeks preceding her death. Mrs. Compton, before her marriage, was Miss Lizzie Lowe. She leaves a husband and six daughters to mourn her death—Mrs. Charlie Queen and Mrs. Justin Woolbright, of Townville; Mrs. J. D. Gill, of Atlanta, and Misses Eulah, Genie and Grace. The remains were laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery, Revs. Carter and Porter conducting the services. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Sears, after spending the past two weeks with J. C. Boggs, have returned to their home near Westminster.

Miss M. A. Bruce has been sick for the past week, but we are glad to learn that she is much better.

Misses Lizzie and Maude Grant, of near Seneca, visited Mrs. Jesse Campbell and Mrs. Belle Grant last week. Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holland, a son.

Joe and Lovie Fant and sister, Willie, who attended school at Cedar Springs, are spending vacation with their mother, Mrs. W. E. Fant.

Townville and Seneca crossed bats on the latter's diamond Thursday, and the score was 5 to 4 in favor of Seneca.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Gles, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cole, of South Union, spent a while recently with the latter's father, B. D. Campbell.

Children's Day at Clearmont.

Clearmont, July 3.—Special: Children's Day will be observed at Clearmont church the second Sunday in July. Exercises will begin at 10 a. m.

Rev. L. M. Lyda and Hon. E. E. Verner will address the people on the subject of Sunday schools.

The afternoon will be devoted to singing. All leaders of music are requested to come and bring a supply of song books.

We expect to have Profs. Durham and Grubbs with us. Come one and all and let's enjoy the day together—and be sure to bring your dinner baskets.

IN GENERAL SESSIONS COURT.

Record of Proceedings in Cases that Have Come to Trial.

The Court of General Sessions for Oconee county convened Monday morning and has been in session continuously since. Judge T. S. Sease is presiding and Solicitor Bonham is on hand giving his attention to the work of court.

When the grand jury assembled to deliberate on the work before that body it was found that two members were absent, Robt. L. Symes having died since the last term of court and W. C. Myers having moved from within the bounds of South Carolina.

Four additional names were selected, and the first two to respond to their names as called were sworn in as members of the grand jury, these being J. L. Smith and R. F. Kaufmann.

Cases Disposed Of.

The following cases have been called and disposed of up to the time of going to press at noon:

State vs. Reuben Benson—forgery. Pleading guilty. Sentence: That the defendant serve 12 months on public works of Oconee county or like period in State penitentiary, at hard labor. That after serving 6 months of sentence defendant may pay fine of $1, remaining 6 months of sentence to be suspended during good behavior.

State vs. Ossie Rutledge—assault and battery. Appeal from March term, when defendant was found guilty and sentenced to pay fine of $200 or serve 3 months on public works of county. The fine alternative was later modified to read $100 instead of $200. The following entry is made on record of present term:

"It appearing to the court that appeal in above case has not been perfected, and the time for so doing having expired, now, therefore, it is

"Ordered: That the same be declared abandoned, and dismissed for want of prosecution. It is further

"Ordered: That a bench warrant issue for the apprehension of the defendant."

State vs. W. H. Hughes—violating dispensary law. Appeal from March term. Order similar to above entered on record.

State vs. John Bradley—disposing of property under lien. Appeal from March term. Order similar to above entered on record.

State vs. Joe Berry—breach of trust with fraudulent intent. Remanded to magistrate for trial.

State vs. R. N. Ellis et al—resisting officers and assault and battery with intent to kill. Dismissed as to Ellis. Sentence as to A. M. Gilstrap: That defendant serve on public works of Oconee for period of 30 days or like period in State penitentiary; as to John Moorehead, Frank Blakeley and George Tate, that defendants serve 30 days on public works of Oconee or like period in State penitentiary, at hard labor, or pay fine of $100 each. Notice of appeal given. Defendants admitted to bail in the sum of $200 each, bond to be approved by Clerk of Court, and justified.

State vs. Napoleon Johnson and Joe Lewis—violating dispensary law. Not guilty.

State vs. John Simpson—violating dispensary law. Pleading guilty. Sentence: That defendant serve one year on public works of Oconee county, or like period in State penitentiary, at hard labor, and pay fine of $500. Sentence suspended until defendant shall be indicted by grand jury of Oconee or any other county of the State for violation of dispensary laws.

State vs. Henry Jones—larceny. Pleading guilty. Sentence: That defendant serve on public works of Oconee for a period of one year, or like period in State penitentiary, at hard labor.

State vs. T. J. Simpson—assault with intent to ravish. Not pressed.

State vs. Sam Keels and Mary Keels—assault and battery with intent to kill. Guilty of assault and battery of high and aggravated nature. Sentence: That each of defendants serve for two years on public works of Oconee, or like period in State penitentiary, at hard labor.

State vs. Jim Hopkins—murder. Not guilty.

State vs. J. M. Jenkins—violating dispensary law. Pleading guilty. Sentence: That defendant serve four months or public works of Oconee, or like period in State penitentiary, at hard labor, or pay a fine of $125.

S. M. Butt Arrested.

A telegram was received by Sheriff Kay this morning from Payne, Ala., Jackson county, stating that one S. M. Butt, alias W. M. Lyles, had been arrested there and was in jail awaiting transfer to South Carolina. Butt is wanted in Oconee to serve sentence for the killing of Daniel Roach, he having been convicted of manslaughter at a recent term of criminal court for this county. He was sentenced to serve three and a half years' imprisonment, but his case was appealed and Butt released on $1,500 bond pending hearing by the Supreme Court. Butt, however, failed to perfect his appeal, and left for parts unknown. Officers have been constantly on his track since, however, and he was finally located in Alabama. Information came to the officers here that Butt was to be in Payne, the county seat of Jackson county, Alabama, on the 4th of July, and accordingly the proper authority

Let All Survivors Attend.

To the Survivors of Orr's Regiment of Rifles: You will see from the above program that we will meet this year at Walhalla. The people of Walhalla are preparing to give us the best reception we have ever had. Let every survivor attend. Every one who can possibly do so should be there, as we will not have many more reunions.

Since our last reunion, at Belton last year, several of our comrades have passed away, and cannot answer the roll call here with us this year. Then let us all accept the hospitality of these good people of Walhalla and attend this year.

The Abbeville, Anderson, Pickens and Oconee papers are respectfully requested to publish the foregoing program.

WHITE GIRL WEDS CHINESE.

Baltimore Sunday School Teacher Becomes Bride of Laundryman.

Baltimore, June 30.—Members of the Fulton Avenue Presbyterian church were greatly interested, and relatives of pretty Jessie Lieb, a 20-year-old Sunday school teacher, were astonished and shocked to-day to learn that she had become the bride, on Tuesday last, of Lee Jo, a Chinese laundryman. The girl's father has closed the doors of his home to his daughter and son-in-law, and the couple have taken up their residence in rooms above the "O. K. Laundry" at 2214 Ashland avenue, where the bridegroom is proprietor.

More than a year ago Rev. J. E. Cook, pastor of the Fulton Avenue church, established a Sunday school for Chinese residents of Baltimore. Miss Lieb was selected as one of the teachers, and Lee Jo, or Joseph Lee, as he sometimes calls himself, became her pupil. There was mutual attraction from the first, the happy pair say, and before long the feeling of admiration ripened into love.

Miss Lieb at last told her father and her sister, Mrs. C. E. Craumer, both of whom reside at 710 Fulton avenue, that she was very fond of her pupil. They did not think that she contemplated marriage in the near future at least, but fearful that the attraction might become stronger, they tried to persuade her to take an extended trip abroad or to California. She preferred to stay in Baltimore, however, and the matter was not given serious consideration by her relatives until her marriage was made known to-day.

was sent to the sheriff of the Alabama county to arrest and hold Butt. He will be sent for at an early date and brought back to Oconee to serve his sentence.

True Bills.

The grand jury has returned true bills in the following cases:

Jim Murphree, violation of dispensary law.

Ernest Mulwee, violation of dispensary law.

G. M. Harris, larceny.

W. A. Owens, violation of dispensary law.

No Bills.

Turner Oglesby, forgery.

Mull Smith, violation of dispensary law.

Makes New Shoes As Pliant As Old Ones

Queen Quality SHOE

THE Flexible "Wonder Worker Process" slashes on the underside of the innersole a series of overlapping joints, not unlike the scales of a fish, both in appearance and flexibility. This process makes the ordinary Weltd sole as flexible and elastic as that of a Turn sole, the most flexible sole used on a shoe.

MRS. F. B. WATSON IS NO MORE.

Estimable Woman Passed Away at Fair Play Last Wednesday.

Fair Play, July 3.—Special: On Wednesday, June 28, 1911, at 6.30 a. m., the spirit of Mrs. Floyd B. Watson, of Fair Play, winged its flight back to God, who was so kind as to bless all of us with the privilege of knowing, associating with, and learning what true Christian character is. Surely, yes truly, if there ever lived a woman who loved everybody and who desired to make others cheerful and happy, Theodosia Barton Watson was one. It seemed to be her desire and purpose to do all the good she could, to whoever she could, whenever she could. What higher and nobler aim could one have? No one was ever known to hear her say ought against any one, and we fully believe her heart was as free from malice and her lips from guile as the heavens are high over the earth. Her Christian character, her example, was such that won the admiration of every one she came in contact with. Oh, that everybody could be as good as she was!

Theodosia Barton was born November 14, 1874. Her parents were the late Rev. H. M. and Mrs. S. E. Barton, of this county. At the early age of fourteen she joined South Union Baptist church, and afterwards moved her membership to Beavertown, at Fair Play, where she labored unceasingly till God called her for a better work in a better world. In her early womanhood she was a successful teacher in several schools of this county, and everywhere her labors were spent, kind and gentle remembrances exist. She taught at Westminster and at Fair Play, to the knowledge of the writer, though her labors in the school room extended beyond these places.

On October 15, 1895, she was united in marriage to Floyd B. Watson, of Anderson county, and unto them were born eight children, one of whom, Joseph Bee, is dead. Those living are Thelma, Henry, Julia, Gary, William, Francis, and the dear little babe a week old. She leaves to mourn her sad death her husband, children, and mother, Mrs. S. E. Barton; one brother, Prof. M. C. Barton, of Piedmont; a sister, Mrs. W. L. Dobbs, of Fair Play, and a half-brother, Willie Glenn, of Mississippi. A host of other relatives and friends extend their sympathy to those who are so sorely bereaved.

On Thursday, June 29, 10.30 a. m., a large concourse of relatives and friends witnessed the last sad rites to this goodly woman. The exercises were conducted by Rev. A. P. Marrett, of Westminster, assisted in music by Prof. Durham. The floral tributes were both numerous and beautiful.

It is hard to realize that we shall see her face no more here below, but thanks be to God she has passed through the pearly gates and is now beckoning for us to follow her to the land where no sun, no moon, no stars shine, but Christ in His glory is sitting, waiting and watching for us to heed her calls.

RICHLAND AND HER SCHOOL.

G. M. Barnett Elected for Next Term. Additional Tax.

Richland, July 3.—Special: We were visited by another nice rain Saturday evening, which was very much needed. Crops here seem to be standing the dry weather as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Davis and son, William Julius, have been visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mrs. Furman Burns returned to her home at Whitmit Wednesday, after an extended visit to home-folks here. She was accompanied home by Miss Lynn Verner, who expects to be away about two weeks.

Miss Annie McMahan is visiting in Roswell, Ga.

Robert Davis spent the week-end with relatives in Seneca.

J. P. Stribling was in Seneca Friday on business, and while there got all of the medals which were to have been given out at the last of school, but were not. These medals were engraved with suitable inscriptions.

Our trustees have elected G. M. Barnett as principal of Richland school for the next time and he has accepted. Mr. Barnett is a recent graduate of Clemson College, at which institution he took a high stand. He has taught several terms and he comes to us highly recommended by those who have employed him. Already he has won a warm place in our boys' hearts by his help in their athletics.

Our trustees, patrons and pupils have never before been so united and determined to have a "Greater Richland School." We are now voting another two mills tax upon our district. This will give us four mills special tax. With all these agencies at work we see no reason why Richland school should not be the equal of any school in Oconee in scholarly attainments. We will have a school of oratory and athletics, also, and our boys are very jubilant as to their future. An assistant has not as yet been secured, but will be in the near future.

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by all dealers.

Children's Day at Clearmont.

Clearmont, July 3.—Special: Children's Day will be observed at Clearmont church the second Sunday in July. Exercises will begin at 10 a. m.

Rev. L. M. Lyda and Hon. E. E. Verner will address the people on the subject of Sunday schools.

The afternoon will be devoted to singing. All leaders of music are requested to come and bring a supply of song books.

We expect to have Profs. Durham and Grubbs with us. Come one and all and let's enjoy the day together—and be sure to bring your dinner baskets.
