

IVNOSHED ONV IVOOX

—A full line of black turbans just arrived at lowest prices. Mrs. R. Callaway, Walhalla.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schroder and Miss Ruth Kay are spending several days at Highlands.

—Lucien Maxwell, of Johnston, is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. G. K. Maxwell.

—Robert Y. Leavell, of Newberry, was among the business visitors to Walhalla the first of this week.

—Dr. E. C. Doyle and Frank S. Holleman, of Seneca, were among the business visitors to Walhalla yesterday.

—For Sale—Almost new 4x5 Prumo camera and outfit, cheap. Otto Schumacher, Jr., Walhalla.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pitchford and baby, of Atlanta, are spending several days in Walhalla with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford.

—Mrs. Lillie Phillips and little daughter, Beatrice, and brother Alex, of Double Springs, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ross in Walhalla.

—F. A. Lewis and son left last week for Brevard, N. C., where they will spend a short while visiting Mr. Lewis's oldest son, who is in business at Brevard.

—Rev. A. E. Driggers, of Walhalla, will preach at Friendship Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

—Two cars buggles and wagons for sale. Cash or time. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster, S. C.

—Miss Norma Moore left Monday for Meisenheimer Springs, N. C., where she will join her aunt, Mrs. R. Callaway, on her way North to purchase her fall millinery.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Maxwell and children, of Columbia, spent a short while in Walhalla the past week at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. G. K. Maxwell.

—Miss Fannie Tolbert, of Greenwood, arrived in Walhalla yesterday to spend a few days here with her grandfather and uncle, Messrs Robt. and A. P. Crisp. Miss Tolbert is on her way to Cashier's Valley, where she will be for some time with relatives.

—Regular services will be held at St. John's Episcopal church next Sunday evening at the usual hour. Rev. Mr. Tillinghast, of Greenville, rector of St. John's, will conduct the services, to which all are cordially invited. Mr. Tillinghast has just returned from a month's vacation spent in Virginia.

—We are giving special bargains in every department for next thirty days, and you get votes in the piano contest. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster, S. C.

—We are requested to announce that there will be an all-day singing at Pleasant Ridge Baptist church on the second Sunday in August (next Sunday), at which Profs. Morton, Smith and Long will be present to conduct the singing. The public is cordially invited to attend and take well-filled baskets.

—J. R. Hughes has recently had an individual acetylen gas lighting plant installed for his home on Faculty Hill, which adds greatly to the conveniences of his already model home. The plant is furnishing splendid light, equaling, if not surpassing, in efficiency electricity. A. C. Merrick is preparing to have a similar plant installed at his home in East End.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. G. Herndon and children, of Tyler, Texas, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Herndon. They will be here and among other South Carolina relatives and friends for a month. They are pleasantly remembered here, and have hosts on friends to welcome them back. They have resided in Texas for several years and have adopted the Lone Star State as their permanent home.

—For Sale—60 acres of fine farming land, near South Union; 12 acres well-drained bottom land; 30 acres in cultivation; balance original timber; good peach orchard; two good houses and other buildings. For terms apply to D. Ryland Shelor, Richland. 27-35

—Last Tuesday evening the "Priscillas" were informally entertained by Mrs. Claude Reid, assisted by her mother, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford, on Faculty Hill, in honor of Miss Dora Pitchford. The grove was beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns, and a delicious ice course was served by Misses Letitia Reid, Ida Blennann and Idah Pitchford. Each "Priscilla" was requested to invite a young man. Those present were: Miss Dora Pitchford and Marvin Phinney, Miss Mamie Harrison and John Bauknight, Miss Annie Blennann and Wade Hughs, Miss Gertrude Blennann and Billie Craig, Miss Eloise Strother and Will Verner, Miss Sue Maxwell and Rieppie Blennann and Eddie Cudworth; Miss Norma Moore and Dick Blennann, Miss Helen Fant and Walter Moss, Miss May Fant and Lewis Harrison, Miss Hannah Miller Harrison and Monroe McDonald, Miss Letitia Reid and Charlie Pitchford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reid. The music by Misses Helen Fant, Dora Pitchford and Letitia Reid was very much enjoyed.

—Just received a car load of Alph Portland cement. W. M. Brown.

—For buggles, wagons and harness see W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Miss Dora Pitchford returned to Atlanta last week, after having spent two weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford, on Faculty Hill.

—Dr. B. S. Lucas, of Laurens, is visiting at the home of his son, E. R. Lucas, in Walhalla. The Doctor has numerous friends here who are always delighted to note his presence in Walhalla.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. Walter Thompson and three children, of Hamlet, N. C., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Herndon. They have many friends here who are warmly welcoming them back to Walhalla.

—Wanted—All the good white oak, post oak and chestnut oak cross-ties 7x9-8 1/2 feet long. Will pay 35c. cash or 40c. trade at cash prices for goods. Carter & Co., Walhalla. 1f

—Earle Beard has discontinued his business of operating a pressing club and has entered the insurance field, having accepted the local agency for the Southern States Insurance Co., of Atlanta. He has sold his pressing club outfit to Geo. C. Ford, who will continue the business at the same stand, on Catherine street, opposite the Walhalla Hotel.

—The faculty for the Walhalla High School has not as yet been completed, there being two vacancies to fill. The corps of teachers for the coming session, however, will contain the following names: Prof. H. W. Gasque, principal; Miss Kate J. Steck, Mrs. A. P. Crisp, Miss Alice Strong and Prof. W. R. Smith. The primary department remains to be provided with two teachers.

—A very enjoyable meeting of the "Priscillas" was held with Miss Burda Long on Friday, August 6th. After some time was spent in needle work and in conversation concerning the club, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. This was the last meeting at which Miss Long will be present, and it is with regret that the members give her up. The next regular meeting will be held with Miss May Fant.

—Just received, on August 1st, another car of High Point buggles. Now that crops are laid-by you can enjoy life by buying a High Point buggy. "If you ride, ride right." Our guarantee goes with each vehicle. "They must be right." W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C. 31-

—Hon. J. E. Boggs, of Pickens, was among the visitors to Walhalla Monday last, and was circulating among his numerous friends here. Mr. Boggs informed us that he, in company with a number of Pickens citizens, will establish in the near future a new paper in "The State of Pickens," and that this new-comer in the journalistic field will be a winner on merit. He and his associates contemplate an establishment first class in every respect.

—W. B. Lewis, of Atlanta, died at his home in that city on Tuesday evening of last week at 6.30 o'clock, after an illness of some length. Mr. Lewis suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago, from the effects of which he never fully recovered, and a second stroke about two weeks ago resulted in his death. He was known to a number of people in and around Walhalla, where he had visited on a number of occasions. He married Miss Rosa Pitchford, a sister of C. W. and S. N. Pitchford, of Walhalla, who survives him. Mr. Lewis was a locomotive engineer and had been a valued employee of the Southern Railway since 1885. Mr. Lewis was prominent in secret order circles, being a 32d degree Mason, an officer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and a prominent member of the Woodmen of the World. Funeral services were conducted last Thursday morning in Atlanta, services at the grave being in charge of the Masons and Engineers. S. N. Pitchford, of Walhalla, attended the funeral services. There are many who will join with us in extending to the bereaved ones sincere sympathy.

—For best grades cement and roofing call on W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Last Friday afternoon the members of the Paul Hayne Circle and a few visitors were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. A. Steck. Miss Annie Reid assisted Mrs. Steck in receiving and entertaining the guests. The parlor was decorated in beautiful cut flowers, and in the hall refreshing fruit punch was served. The program was as follows: Roll call, "Musical Celebrities of Vienna;" reading, "The Music of Austria-Hungary;" Mrs. Hittick; "Short Sketck of Joseph;" Miss Strong; current musical events. At the close of the program an historic contest was enjoyed. Quite a number tied for the honors and drew for the prize, which was won by Miss Ruth Walker. The first prize was a beautiful potted pink geranium. In the draw for the second prize Miss Annie Reid drew the shortest straw and received a book entitled "Anne Bond," by Harbin. Delicious ice cream and cake were served at the close of the contest. Those present were: Mesdames C. P. Hittick, L. M. Brown, J. H. Darby, C. W. Bauknight, Sidney Adams, S. A. Lockwood, R. L. Rogers, Geo. Blummer; Misses Gertrude Smith, Ruth Walker, Daisy and Alice Strong, Annie Reid, Mamie Ann, Annie Blennann, and Mrs. Chas. M. Nield, of Vicksburg, Miss.; Miss Mattie Biggerstaff, of Philadelphia, and Miss Cora Strong.

—Dr. Fahnestock, dentist, in office Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will make appointments for other days if desired.

—Paints, roofing, guttering, etc. See D. E. Good, Walhalla.

—Joseph and Oliver Sharp, of Rivoli, Anderson county, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Moss.

—A protracted meeting will begin next Monday night at Double Springs Methodist church. Rev. W. C. Kelley, of Anderson, will assist the pastor.

—R. Turner Kay, of Birmingham, Ala., visited friends and relatives in Walhalla last Friday and Saturday. His friends here were pleased to meet him again.

—Will pay 15c. cash for your eggs this week. Fowler Bros., Walhalla.

—Friends of Capt. John C. Neville will regret to learn that his condition is not improved this morning. Capt. Neville is extremely ill. grave fears for his recovery being entertained. He has hosts of friends here and elsewhere, however, who hope for his recovery.

—Mrs. J. D. Watson and daughter, Miss Lillie, Orr and George Watson, of Greenwood; Miss Lizzie Carter, Joseph and Erskine Carter, of Clinton; J. R. Crawford, of Clemson College, and J. W. Stribling, of Seneca, are visiting at the home of Major and Mrs. Wm. J. Stribling, near town.

—Marvin and George Phinney, H. P. Holleman, Frank Brennecke, Klaren Ritter, Clyde Smith, Harry Cary, Dick Blennann, John Schumacher, Lewis Rowland and Gray Macaulay left Tuesday morning for a ten days' trip in the mountains. They have our sympathies—the mountains, we mean.

—There will be services at the Lutheran church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Gertrude Simpson, of Prosperity, S. C., field secretary of missions, will address the afternoon meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend. Be sure to come for Sunday school at 9.45 o'clock.

—Lost—Coat, on road from Poplar Springs to Wolf Stake church, Saturday, July 29. Return to H. A. Wood, V Union, Route 1, and get reward.

—Farm and Factory: "Blood poison, developed from the effects of a rat bite on the finger, caused Mr. Murphy, miller at Coleman's mill, to have his hand taken off. Several days after the rat bit him his hand swelled to almost double its natural size, and it was thought best to take it off. Mr. Murphy is resting easy."

—W. D. Martin, of the Oakway section of Oconee, reports a rather remarkable record for a few acres of his cotton, which was late in being planted. Owing to unfavorable weather Mr. Martin did not get a good stand of early cotton, and on June 10th he planted several acres over. Last Friday, the 4th of August, his first bloom appeared in this field. His field now, he says, is thick with blooms, and his prospects for a good crop are excellent. The appearance of blooms on cotton 55 days after planting is a good record.

—Mrs. J. Allen Kelley died at her home in the Wolf Stake section, just Monday morning after a brief illness. Mrs. Kelley was a most estimable lady, and her death will bring sorrow to many. She was about 56 years of age, and for many years had been a consistent member of the Baptist church and a consecrated worker in the affairs of the church. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon, interment being made in the New Hope cemetery. We join with other friends of the family in extending sympathy in their sorrow.

—For Sale—One good 1,100-pound mule, cash or on time; 100 bushels Appier seed oats, 75c. per bushel; 50 White Leghorn cockerels from finest laying strain in the South, $1 each. Get one and improve your flock. Mrs. S. H. Coe, Richland. 32-1f

—Seneca Farm and Factory: "C. T. Phillips is dead. The end came Sunday evening at half past eight, at his home on First North street. For three months he had suffered with paralysis, most of the time confined to his bed. Charles Tillman Phillips was 64 years old. December 21, 1871, he married Miss Margaret Sue Harper, to which union three children were born. They are Misses Daisy and Bessie Phillips and Mrs. Ernest Cochran. L. O. and W. H. Phillips, of this county, and B. D. Phillips, of Ninety-Six, are brothers, and Mrs. M. T. Conwell and Miss Alice Phillips, of Oconee, are sisters. The remains were laid to rest in Friendship cemetery after funeral services at the residence by Rev. C. S. Blackburn, of the Seneca Baptist church. Mr. Phillips had lived in this county many years, six months ago moving to Seneca."

—Mrs. Mary Lee, widow of the late Henry Lee, died at her home about three miles from Walhalla last Saturday morning about 2 o'clock, at the age of 78 years. She had been in declining health for a number of years, but had been seriously ill for only nine days when death came to relieve her suffering, which came as a result of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Lee was a good woman, a consistent member of Zion Methodist church, and her death will bring sorrow to many who had known her for many years and had loved her for her many excellent traits of character. She leaves seven children to mourn her death, as follows: Messrs. W. H. J. L. Robt. E. and Fred Lee, Mrs. Sallie Fitzgerald, Mrs. Lucy Ross and Miss Fannie Lee, all of Oconee county. To these bereaved ones we join with other friends here and elsewhere in extending sincere sympathy in their sorrow. Funeral services were conducted Sunday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. C. D. Mann, after which interment was made in the Neville cemetery in the presence of a number who had gathered to pay the last sad tribute to the deceased.

—Lost—On public road between Walhalla and Westminster, or Westminster and Richland, or Richland and Walhalla, Sunday afternoon, brass hub cap and brass hub cap wire lock, about 2 1/2 inches in diameter, from wheel of Chalmers car. Any person finding and returning same to this office will be amply rewarded.

—Lost—Gold signet stick pin. Reward if returned to The Courier office.

—W. R. Thelling, who spent several weeks here among relatives and friends, returned to Charleston last Thursday.

—Henry Steinbracker, of Charleston, spent last week visiting among friends in Walhalla, returning to his home yesterday.

—C. M. Nield, of Vicksburg, Miss., is spending some time here with his family at the home of Mrs. G. K. Maxwell. Mr. Nield has hosts of friends who are delighted to welcome him back to Walhalla.

—For Sale—Two milk cows with young calves. J. P. Stribling, Richland, S. C.

—W. R. Cobb, of Williamston, spent several days here last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cobb. He has numerous friends here and elsewhere in the county who were delighted to meet him again.

—Comptroller General A. W. Jones was in Walhalla last Friday and made his annual settlement with the different county officials. Mr. Jones reports that this was the best settlement made in the State in regard to time required making it.

—Oconee can congratulate three of her young men upon having received Clemson scholarships through the recent competitive examination. The successful ones were H. D. Barker, of Conners; George Harris, of Westminster, and Alfred Perritt, of Bounty Land.

—Anderson Mail, August 2d: "A card from Lee G. Holleman states that he left Anderson in his automobile at 7.30 a. m. and arrived in Salsbury at 9 p. m. Had a fine drive of 205 miles, with no accidents. Mr. and Mrs. Holleman and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sharpe are going through to Chestertown, Md."

—There will be an all-day singing at Whetstone school house on the second (next) Sunday, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning. All lovers of music are requested to attend and take part in the exercises. All are requested to bring well-filled baskets and come prepared to enjoy a full day of good singing.

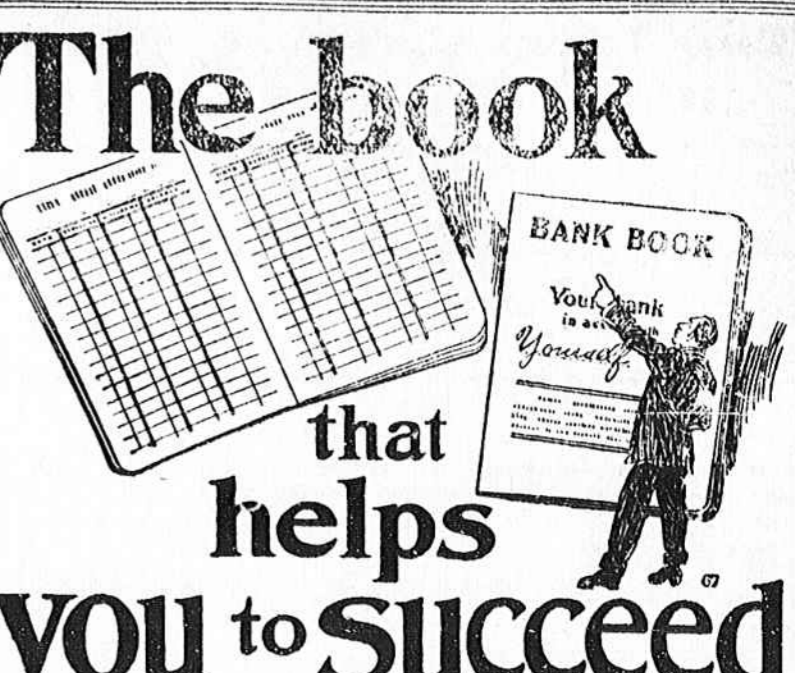

—For Sale—Thoroughbred Barred Plymouth Rock eggs for setting; $1 per setting of 15. D. A. Smith.

—Attention is directed to the announcement of John T. Burris & Sons, of Anderson, which will be found elsewhere in this issue. This firm is represented in Walhalla by J. C. Garrison, who will be pleased to present the merits of the Burris shingles to any one who may be contemplating building or repairing. A card addressed to Mr. Garrison at Walhalla will bring prompt information, or he will be pleased to attend personally to any call for information or estimates. The Burris shingles are well known and widely endorsed.

—B. D. Moorehead, wife and four children, of Americus, Ga., spent the first part of this week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Perry, the latter being an aunt of Mr. Moorehead. They will be among relatives and friends for a few days more. They are at Richland for the present, where they will attend the Old Richland Academy reunion. Mr. Moorehead is a native of Oconee, having been born in the Richland community, where he attended school until about ten years of age. He is a son of G. L. Moorehead, who is pleasantly remembered in Oconee. He is now a resident of Milan, Ga. (Locals Continued on Fifth Page.)

—Life Saved at Death's Door. "I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patton, of Wellington, Tex., "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble palled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive to-day is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure, it's the best remedy on earth for cough, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

The book that helps you to succeed

YOU do not need to be a scholar to get the greatest use from this book.
Many an uneducated person is now enjoying all the best the world can give with its help.

A bank book will start you on the road to success.
Come into this bank to-day and let us give you one.

The Bank of Walhalla,

Capital, $50,000.00. Surplus, $12,500.00.
Deposits, $175,000.00

Officers and Directors:

J. D. VERNER, President.	W. L. VERNER, Cashier.
J. W. WICKLIFFE,	S. L. VERNER, Asst. Cashier.
W. L. VERNER,	J. W. BELL,
J. G. LAW,	C. R. D. BURNS,
	J. W. SHELOR.

South Georgia Lands

Sixty-Five Thousand Acres $5.50 to $55.00 per Acre.

EASY TERMS.

HOUSTON COUNTY, BEST COUNTY IN SOUTH.

WRITE OR SEE

Strother & Smith,

(Jube Strother.)
PERRY, GEORGIA.

Real Estate FOR SALE!

53 Acres,
Two miles south of Walhalla, on public road; 2 good buildings, with all necessary out-buildings; land dark red; in a high state of cultivation; about 40 acres in cultivation; balance in pasture and woods.
Price, $2,200.

125 Acres,
Five miles north of Walhalla, on public road; 7-room dwelling finished; large barn and out-buildings; 3-room new tenant house with all out-buildings; about 50 acres in cultivation; 20 acres of fine creek bottom; lots of good timber on this tract. If you want a bargain come and see this.
Price, $4,000.

JAS. H. DARBY
Real Estate Dealer,
Walhalla, S. C.

AT THIS STORE

You will find every Tool that you could possibly need. Now you are going to do some Building this Summer, we know, then let us show you our line of Building Material, Builders' Hardware, Roofing, Plastering, Nails, Etc., then when you have finished this we have the best Paint (Sherwin-Williams) that can be had. We are especially prepared to fill your wants along this line.

SENECA HARDWARE Co.

Think of it, a piano given away. Who gets the piano?
The piano retails for $400 cash. Piano absolutely free to some one.

FRESH SUPPLY

CANDY

BELL'S DRUG STORE.