WALHALLA, S. C.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1911.

E. E. VERNER FOR CONGRESS.

Hon. E. E. Verner, of Richland, Oconee county, has announced himself as an aspirant for Hon. Wyatt Alken's seat in the National House. In an interview in the Tugaloo Tribune yesterday he states that he is in the race on the protective tariff platform as opposed to Mr. Alken's well-known "revision downward" policy. Mr. Verner is an interesting talker and has given no little thought to matters of political economy. He is a hard fighter, game under all circumstances, and will contribute his full share of interest to a campaign which, if all reports are true, will be many-cornered.

WANT "RED SHIRT" HISTORY.

The members of Wade Hampton Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, are very anxious to secure authentic data in regard to "Red Shirt" history, and facts concerning their work in 1876 in Oconee county. The object of this call for accurate information is to secure every available fact in connection with the "Red Shirt" work all over the State, from which will be gathered material for a comprehensive history, authentic in every respect. Any information will be greatly appreciated and will receive careful consideration if sent to Mrs. H. W. Richardson, 1006 Barawell street, Columbia, S. C.

THE STATE FAIR.

The next thing on the program, of interest to all the people of South Carolina, will be the State Fair, which will be held in Columbia from October 30th to November 3d. Besides the usual exhibits that attract attention at the annual gatherings at the fair at the State Capital, there will be two new features added this year—an exhibit of minerals, prepared by State Geologist M. W. Twitchell, and a foodstuffs exhibit from the State Department of Agriculture. Included in this latter will be exhibits of defective corn and other cereals that have been seized by the State as detrimental to health. Altogether the fair this year promises to present much to the citizens in general and the farmer in particular that will both interest and instruct.

LONG STAPLE COTTON.

There are a number of persons in Oconee, and not a few in the vicinity of Walhalla, who have this year planted long staple cotton. As a rule there is no great advantage in the local markets handling the long staple, though it is worth considerably more per pound in actual value. L. W. Parker, of Greenville, is desirous of buying as much of the long staple as possible, and keeping in touch with the long staple market, is prepared to handle this grade of cotton to better advantage than the average buyer.

Mr. Parker will send a buyer to Walhalla to grade and sample long staple cotton provided as much as twenty-five bales can be collected so that it can be looked after in a short space of time. It is worth your while, if you have grown long staple cotton, to give this matter consideration. In order to find out definitely how many bales can be gotten together for samples and grading, those who have the long staple cotton are requested to notify E. R. Lucas at the Walhalla Cotton Mills, or John A. Ansel, at his store on Main street.

The little trouble costs nothing, and it may mean the securing of a much better price for this grade, as Mr. Parker represents interests that are desirous of getting all the long staple cotton grown in the up-country. Send to either of the above named gentlemen your name and number of long staple bales you will have for sale.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold, as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children, and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

PROPER WAY TO HOLD COTTON.

Mr. Cook Says Hold Seed Out of the Planter.

Madison, Oct. 16.—Editor Courier: We notice that there is a great deal being said and written in regard to the bumper cotton crop, and all the writers advise the farmers to hold their cotton for a higher price.

Now, we don't pretend to know anything about the matter except what we have learned by experience and observation. Our experience has taught us that the holding of cotton is all right, provided we hold at the proper time; and if we don't hold our cotton at the proper time the holding movement is a miserable failure. The most effective plan of holding cotton, and the proper time to hold it, is to hold the cotton seed out of the planter at planting time, and put corn, peas, oats, etc., in the planter instead of cotton seed. But if we fail to do this, then we should hold our seed cotton and not have it ginned, and then hold it, why, the heavy speculators know precisely how many bales are being held; they have only to get the gin report, and then deduct the number of bales that have been sold from the total number ginned, and they have it exactly. Then if the farmers happen to reduce the cotton acreage 20 per cent next year, the speculators will say, "Oh, well, you have four million bales surplus left over from last year's crop. This four million bales that you are holding will over-balance your reductions." Don't you see where they have us in the hole? But if we hold our cotton in the seed on the farm, and do not have it ginned, then it is impossible for the speculators to know just how much we have on hand.

Now, brother farmers, if we are not going to plant more grain and less cotton in the future, or hold our cotton at the proper time, as sensible men should do, why, then I make a move that we all get together and go up to New York in a body and have the Hon. Theodore Price legally appointed guardian for the cotton growers of the South. He has been acting as guardian for us for about fifteen years. But a self-appointed guardian always makes himself a nuisance, and nobody likes him. Let us have him legally appointed.

J. A. Cook.

Items from Tamasee.

Tamasee, Oct. 13.—Special: John Simms, an old veteran, is seriously ill at his home near this place. His many friends hope for his recovery.

Hayne Jones, Lee Kelley, Misses Marion, Lillian, Cornelia and Ruth Kelley attended the Coe-Wilcox marriage. They report a lovely wedding.

Miss Lizzie K. Townes, of Greenville, is staying a short while at her place above here and is having some houses erected, which will add greatly to the place.

Cotton picking is progressing nicely in this section. The pea crop is also having attention. Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Wilcox spent a few days recently at the home of Mrs. C. Jones. They left last Wednesday for Walhalla.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge, October 1st, a daughter. The family of Billy White has been sick for the past few weeks with diphtheria. They are all improving rapidly. Belton Kelley is wearing a smile. It's a girl.

Mrs. Rod White has been unwell for some days, suffering with a throat trouble. Misses Marion and Ruth Kelley were among those who stood the teachers' examination on Friday, the 6th. We wish these young ladies much success.

Itch relieved in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Never fails. Sold by J. W. Bell, druggist.

Items from Fair Play.

Fair Play, Oct. 16.—Special: C. D. Marett and sister, Miss Pauline, of Westminster High School, spent the week-end with homefolks. Miss Kate Marett spent Tuesday in Lavonia shopping.

Mrs. Sam Burriss, of South Union, and Mrs. Lucy Burriss, of Richland, were guests of Mrs. W. L. Dobbs Monday afternoon.

O. F. Isbell and daughter, Miss Zelma, and Mr. and Mrs. Dock Isbell spent the week-end visiting relatives in Bowman, Ga.

The Philathen class met last Saturday afternoon and reorganized and elected the following officers: Mrs. W. R. Davis, teacher; Mrs. E. P. Calhoun, assistant; Miss Zelma Isbell, president; Miss Dora Dooley, vice president; Miss Ruth Lindsay, secretary and treasurer; Miss Hettie Grubbs, assistant. The class will meet every second Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Midnight in the Ozarks, and yet sleepless, Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes, "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, a grippé, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, it's the best known remedy. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.
