Subject: "Nehemiah's Prayer." Nehemiah I.

Golden Text: "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James v:16.

1. Verses 1-3-Who was Nehemiah?

2. Where was Shushan?

3. What had probably caused the distress of these Jews who were then in their own country?

4. By whom and when had the wall of Jerusalem been broken down?

5. Verse 4----Would you say Nehemiah did the wisest thing to first give himself up to weeping, to fasting and to prayer? Give your reasons.

6. When the church is in great need, or the nation in calamity, or we have sore family or business trouble. how much do prayer and fasting avail?

7. Two good men of equal ability and opportunity, one of them precedes every new enterprise with days of special prayer, the other starts right at the work and prays as he goes; which will likely have the greater success, and why?

8. Verses 5-6-Is it helpful, or necessary, in private prayer, to select choice language to tell God of His greatness and goodness, and to be as careful of our oral composition as if it were to appear in print? Give your reasons.

9. Is it probable that many devout people stir their own hearts more, and give God a clearer presentation of their needs in vocal prayer, in company with other devout people, than by their private prayers, and if so, why is it?

10. What is the benefit of sustained or repeated prayer, for the same thing?

11. Verse 7-In what particulars had these Jews specially sinned?

13. What are our chief national sins which we should confess to God, and should we pray for them to cease?

14. Verses 8-9-Is it our duty, or ternoon, Tom Elrod shot and fatally wounded Aleck Graham. Mr. Grathrough his right hip. It is alleged in what way is it helpful, to remind God of his promises? 15. When God brings calamity upon a people, or an individual, for wrong doing, is it meant by God as a bane or a blessing? Why?

16. What would be the result if God rewarded us for wrong doing? 17. When does God do away with, or prevent, the natural consequences of our sins? 18. When God forgives us, on repentance, what is included in such pardon? 19. Should those who have been saved from their sins and have become the loyal children of God, confess sins on general principles, even if they are conscious of having sinned?

20. Verse 10--Is there reason to think that a backslidden church is in precisely the same relation to God as so many sinners in the world?

21. Verse 11-What influence did this prayer have upon Nehemiah's request to the king?

22. What proof have you that prayers for specific things are answered to-day? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Fouching Scene Enacted in Court

Verdict Not Unexpected.

Bambery, Nov. 16 .--- After being in in a personal difficulty near their room for only one hour and a George's Creek church yesterday af- half, the jury in the case of the State against LeRoy B. Tuten brought in a verdict of not guilty. When it was ham was shot at close range with a announced that a verdict had been shotgun, the shot tearing a large hole reached the court warned the people not to make any demonstration and not a sound was made by the crowd in attendance as the jury filed to their and returned when Elrod, who had a seats. The verdict was not unexpectgun in his hands, shot. Both parties ed, and when it was read by the clerk a touching scene was enacted as the defendant and his elderly father shook hands with their attorneys and the members of the jury. Tuten was charged with the murder of J. R. Langford, a prominent merchant and farmer of Hampton county. Langford was found dead in a field near the outskirts of Brunson in September of last year. At first it was thought that he had died from natural causes, but examination led the authorities to take a different view of the case.

WHY TEACHER WAS TARRED.

Was Too Popular in Community to Suit Other Women.

Lincoln Center, Kans., Nov. 16 .-A flood of affidavits was let loose in the circuit court here to-day at the beginning of the hearing of an application by E. G. Clark, a wealthy miller of Shady Bend, for a change of venue in the case in which he with eight other men is charged with "assault and battery" in connection with the tarring of Miss Mary Chamberlain last August. Miss Chamberlain was in court, accompanied by her mother and brother.

Since Miss Chamberlain was decoyed to a lonely spot on a country road, seized by a band of more than a dozen men, her clothing torn off and her body coated with tar, she has remained in close retirement in her home in the little Shady Bend community, where she taught school, and where, it is said, her popularity with the men caused jealous wives and sweethearts to urge husbands and lovers to inflict on her the torture which created a storm of indignation throughout the State.

At the opening of court to-day County Attorney McCanless stated he had more than 300 affidavits to offer to the court to prove that there is no reason why a fair trial should not be given all the accused men in this county.

Pleas of guilty were suddenly announced by three of the most prominent accused in connection with the tarring of Miss Chamberlain. These announced pleas of guilty: E. G. Clark, president of the Shady Bend Milling Company; Watson Scranton, Shady Bend farmer; Jay Fitzwater, Shady Bend farmer. Judge Grover reserved sentence.

When court was salled County Prosecutor McCanless presented affidavits from many citizens of Lincoln county to show that the cases could be tried fairly in the county. "We will announce to the court that we have decided to withdraw our application for a change of venue," declared S. C. Millekin, of counsel for the defense.

When the formal pleas of guilty had been announced, one of them by Clark, upon whose case those of the other eight men accused of connec tion with the tarring were expected to hinge and Judge Grover had reserved sentence, the court said: "It is necessary that I reserve sentence for, as I have heard no testimony, 1 really do not know the nature of the offense. Accordingly 1 will wait until the other cases have been heard.' The first surprise at the pleas of guilty over, Sherrill Clark, a merchant of Shady Bend, A. N. Simms, a former employee in Everett Clark's mill, and John Schmidt, a farmer, were placed on trial charged with "assault and battery."

With to-day's pleas of guilty in, four men now stand guilty of a part in the tarring of the young school teacher. The first was Edward Ricord, the barber, who pleaded guilty yesterday and who also remains to be sentenced by Judge Grover.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed.'

CARDUI Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and alling, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and alling sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

FRIEND OF LIQUOR INTERESTS.

Speaker at Municipal League Says Federal Policy Helps Tigers.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 16 .- With the conclusions of discussions on franchises, education and police and liquor problems, the 17th annual meeting of the National Municipal League and the 19th National Conference for Good City Government came to a close to-day. Los Angeles invited the convention to meet there next year, but the meeting place was left to the executive council to name. F. S. Spence, a municipal official of Toronto, Canada, told the delegates that so long as corporations operated public utilities under the franchise tory service. Plans for an extensive study of local option and all other questions allied with the liquor problem were recommended in the report of the committee on liquor, presented by Camillus G. Kidder, of Orange, N. J. A determination of the safest hands in which to lodge the issuance of liquor licenses was deemed to be of prime importance.

Fugitive Killed in Fight.

Brevard, N. C., Nov. 16 .- In a pitched battle late this afternoon on the outskirts of Brevard, Deputy Sheriff Branch Paxton, of Transylvania county, shot and instantly killed Leroy Elrod and badly wounded his father, Thomas Elrod. The officer was painfully hurt and bruised by the attacks of the two men, whom he was endeavoring to arrest.

Early this morning the local officers were wired to look out for the two Elrods, father and son, who are wanted in Pickens county, South Carolina, for the alleged murder of a man there yesterday. The two men were located this afternoon, and Sheriff Shuford and the deputy went after them. In closing in on the two men the deputy reached them first and ordered their hands up. While covered with the officer's gun and being searched for weapons, the elder Elrod knocked the pistol from the officer's hands, and a desperate hand-to-hand conflict followed for several minutes. There was a general exchange of shots between the three, but only one took effect, Leroy Elrod being shot through the breast. The elder man was soon overpowered and brought to the county jail.

Sheriff Shuford reached the scene too late to render assistance, having gone further away to head off the escape of the men.

Thomas Elrod is about 60 years old. His son was only 19. He admits having shot the man in Pickens county yesterday, as charged. Sheriff Roark, from South Carolina, arrived just after the shooting, having driven through the country.

The coroner held an inquest tonight and acquitted the local officer of all blame in the matter.

This led to the arrest of Mary Harris, a young white woman, who was alleged to have been intimate with Langford, and Richard Williams, a negro. The two prisoners were carried to Columbia for safekeeping. Subsequent statements by the girl led to the arrest of LeRoy B. Tuten, well known farmer.

Mary Harris was the principal witness against Tuten, but her testimony was greatly weakened by several conflicting statements she had made in regard to the case.

The trial began Tuesday, and two days were taken up in testimony and arguments. The final speeches were made yesterday and the case was given to the jury, which soon returned its verdict.

A change was granted from Hampton county to Bamberg on the ground that Tuten could not get a fair trial in the county in which the crime was committed.

Train Kills Man and Horses.

Gainesville, Ga., Nov. 16 .--- Fred Black, agod 20, was instantly killed and Roe Crane was seriously injured, at Oakwood, near here, to-day, when a Southern railway passenger train ran down a wagon they were driving. Their two horses were also killed.

Kindelsparger, laborers of Beverly, who some time ago were sentenced in a justice court to 90 days' imprisonment each, are to be tried later on appeal.

Five men have already paid fines of $1 each for their connection with the case. They witnessed the "tarring" and were convicted and fined to prevent them from refusing to testify against friends.

About Ostrich Farming.

The latest industry in the United States to be tabulated by the government is ostrich farming. Raising of poultry has long fascinated a large share of the American population and is fascinating more and more because of the enhanced price of eggs and the growing quality of the literature telling of the possibilities of the great American hen. But the literatures have barely touched the subject of ostrich farming. Uncle Sam's writers of bulletins in the department of agriculture have started at it and they present an interesting picture.

In the first place, it appears that an ostrich chick six months old is close pos worth $100, and a pair of good ostriches are worth $200. The business has taken some hold in this country and ostriches are raised in Arizona, California, Arkansas, Texas and Florida. It has been demonstrated that various parts of the United States are fited for ostrich raising. The American imports of ostrich feathers in the fiscal year 1910 amounted to more than $5,500,000, and they are increasing, whence it appears there are large possibilities here in the way of a market. The amount to be received from the feathers of each bird in a year varies from $20 to $30. Moreover, both the ostrich eggs and the flesh are good for human consumption. Consul General Skinner, from Hamburg, makes a report on the Hagenbeck ostrich farm near Hamburg. This farm grows ostriches successfully. Moreover, they grow larger there than in hot countries. At this farm the ostriches are hatched partly in the incubators, and a large-sized duck acts as foster mother to the young birds.
