LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—You can't lose. Read this page.
—Miss Lucille Sloan, of Anderson, is visiting her friend, Miss Helen Fant, this week.

—For Sale—300 bushels good corn; lot of fodder. Jas. H. Darby, Walhalla, S. C.

—Jas. Harrison, of Clemson, spent several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Harrison.

—For Oliver chilled plows and repairs go to W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Miss May Fant, of South Union, spent the week-end in Walhalla with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fant.

—Look for the star on the heel. Why? See this page.

—Misses Lella and Olive Doyle, of Calhoun, spent several days last week in Walhalla visiting their friend, Miss Katie Harrison.

—Rev. John G. Law will preach at Richland next Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock. Public cordially invited to attend and take part in the service.

—Dr. Fahnestock, dentist, in office Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will make appointments for other days if desired.

—The many friends of Mrs. A. Jafferson will regret to learn that she has been quite sick for two weeks. We are glad to report, however, that she is somewhat better at present, and hope that she may soon be enjoying good health.

—We are requested to make the following announcement: "The members of Poplar Springs Baptist church are urged to meet next Sunday, the 17th, at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of calling a pastor for the remainder of the year 1912."

—Education consists in knowing things—know how a range is made inside and outside. Call at our store during our special Majestic range demonstration this week. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.

—Severe Page, aged about 25 years, died at his home in the Brass-town section last Monday, death resulting from a relapse of measles. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his death. The body was interred yesterday afternoon at Long Creek.

—For Sale—Seven-year-old Jack; guaranteed safe; or will trade for good horse or mule. Geo. M. Ansel, Walhalla.

—Rev. J. W. Sheriff will preach at Hopewell Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is a special service, not being the regular day for services, and all are requested to note the change and attend if possible. Public cordially invited to attend.

—Miss Annie Reid left yesterday for Pendleton, where she will engage in the millinery business during the present season. Miss Reid has had considerable experience in conducting this line of business, and her friends here wish for her every success in her new field.

—Karl Jensen, who comes Friday night, is a Swedish humorist of the first rank. He will present two scenes from Macbeth in full costume. He will give a vivid description of Sweden, "The Land of the Midnight Sun," and will demonstrate the use of the foil and rapier. Be sure to be on hand.

—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Brown, of the Wolf Stake section, will regret to hear of the continued illness of the latter. For the past week she has been confined to her room. Her friends throughout the county will regret to learn of her illness and hope for her early restoration to health.

—Now is the time to buy a first-class middle-burster. W. M. Brown sells them, and the price is right.

—Do not fail to hear Karl Jensen on Friday night at Pitchford's Hall. The entertainment is given for the benefit of the track team of the Walhalla High School. The prices of admission will be 25 and 35 cents. You will be delightfully entertained by one of the foremost humorists on the lecture circuit of to-day.

—G. E. Rhodes, of Union, is in Walhalla for a few days among friends. Mr. Rhodes is a printer by occupation and has recently been thrown out of employment by reason of the fire which destroyed the building and plant of the Union Times, on which he has been employed for some time. He has numerous friends here who are pleased to see him again.

—Mr. Poultryman and Mr. Farmer: Do you want plenty of eggs at all times for table use and to spare for market? If so, get a few settings of our White or Buff Leghorn or Buff Orpington eggs. The breed is yet to be originated which will excel the Leghorn as an egg machine. For prices see our ad on 6th page of this issue. Progressive Poultry Farm, Richland, S. C.

—Recently several of our subscribers have paid their subscriptions to The Courier with the announcement that "that is the last dollar I owe in the world." L. H. V. Hobson, of Westminster, called on us Monday, May 1, a year in advance from April 1, and announcing, "I don't owe you that dollar, and I don't owe a dollar to any man." Happy Hobson! May his success and good fortune continue!

—For disc and smoothing harrows call on W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Paints, roofing, guttering, etc. See D. E. Good, Walhalla.

—J. J. Lee, who has been spending some months in Florida, has returned to Oconee, and is in Walhalla, having been drawn as a juror in the court now in session. Mr. Lee has many friends here who are pleased to meet him again.

—W. H. Hester, of Spartanburg, spent several days this and last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schiff, on Faculty Hill. Mr. Hester is pleasantly remembered here by many, who are always glad to meet him. For a number of years he had charge of the Walhalla Hotel.

—Eggs for hatching—Barred Rocks, utility stock; $1 per setting of 15; order early. W. D. Wright, Seneca, S. C., Route 1.

—H. C. Harbin, of Seneca, was in Walhalla Monday on business and among his friends. Mr. Harbin has been engaged in employment for some months past with the Harris Lumber Company, of Aiken. He is home for a short while looking after his interests in connection with his appointment as a rural policeman.

—"If you ride, ride right!" High Point buggies are always up in quality. Just received a car load of beauties. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—At the services at the Methodist church last Sunday morning it was announced that the collection would be donated to the fund for the relief of Mrs. Wilkes, wife of Rev. E. Alston Wilkes, who died recently. The collection was not large, few if any knowing of its purpose until announced at the service. It has been and is being increased considerably by contributions added since Sunday.

—Get your shoes free. See Bauknight's advertisement, this page.

—It will be learned with pleasure by Walhalla friends of C. H. Humphries, of Union, that his loss by fire in that city last week was comparatively small. Mr. Humphries occupied a store room in the building in which the Union Times was located, and while that part occupied by Mr. Humphries escaped the fire, considerable damage was done to his stock by water. We are informed, however, that the damage is practically covered by insurance.

—If it's wagons you are talking about buying, then come and let me show you. We've got 'em, and prices are the lowest and terms the easiest. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.

—Rev. W. Bruce Doyle, of Wadesboro, N. C., and Rev. R. Doyle, of Centenary, S. C., arrived in Walhalla the latter part of last week, having come in response to telegrams announcing the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. W. H. Doyle. Friends of the family will be glad to learn that Mrs. Doyle's condition is considerably better. We hope for her early recovery. She recently suffered a stroke of partial paralysis. Rev. W. B. Doyle returned to his home yesterday afternoon. Rev. R. Doyle will remain for a few days.

—Something for nothing is worth while—$8 worth of ware for nothing is worth your time to investigate. See our big ad. in this paper. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.

—Judge R. W. Memminger will lecture at the Court House to-morrow night (Thursday) at 8:15 o'clock, taking as his subject "Retrospect of the Progress of the Country." Judge Memminger is a deep thinker and fluent speaker, and those who go to hear him will be well repaid. His subject as given above is not in full, and his lecture will be much wider in scope than one might imagine. We bespeak for him a large audience. Every juror, grand and petit, Court officials and the public generally should hear him. He will give each one some morsel of wholesome food for thought.

—Horses and Mules.—I have just returned from St. Louis with a carload of fine young mules and horses. I want to sell them quick, and to do so will sell them for less money. Now is your chance to buy a good horse or mule. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.

—Robert H. Hughs, aged about 45 years, died last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Roberta Hotel in Spartanburg, having been stricken suddenly with heart failure. Mr. Hughs was a printer by occupation and resided at Woodruff, S. C. Several years ago he was married to Miss Ellie Bellotte, a daughter of the late Samuel A. Bellotte, who with his family resided near Walhalla for some time. Mr. Hughs is survived by his wife and one child. The remains were interred at Greenville, at which place his first wife was buried. One child by his first marriage also survives. The sympathy of many in the county will go out to the bereaved ones.

—Married, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. L. Pierce, near West Union, on Sunday, March 2d, Miss Mary Pierce and Richard Wilson. Only a few friends and the immediate families of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion, a color scheme of green and white being carried out. After the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served for the couple and their guests. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful. There are many friends of the young couple who will join with us in extending to them every good wish. The ceremony was performed by Notary Public Jas. H. Hunsbrett.

—Blow up your stumps with Dupont dynamite. I carry a large stock of the best. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Apples—3-pound cans, 2 for 15c. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.

—W. H. Cary returned to Walhalla last week. He is suffering from grip and has been confined to his home. His friends hope to see him out soon.

—We are requested to announce that Rev. J. E. Crim will preach at Pleasant Ridge on the fifth Saturday in this month at 3 o'clock p. m. and on Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. Public invited.

—$8 worth of ware will be given away FREE with every Majestic range sold at our demonstration this week only. Moss & Ansel.

—Mrs. R. Callaway has opened her stock of millinery in the building on Main street known as the Green Front, and she will be pleased to see all her friends and former patrons at any time. She will have with her this year Mrs. C. G. Jaynes, who is well known to the millinery trade here. They have just returned from the Atlanta millinery market. Their stock continues to arrive and within a few days they will have one of the best stocks ever brought to the up-country.

—Cook's and Toole's Prolific Cotton seed for sale; carefully selected; grown from seed direct from originators; $1 per bushel as long as they last. J. B. Harris, Westminster, R. F. D. No. 2.

—Moss & Ansel have been giving a demonstration on Majestic ranges this week. They have been serving hot biscuit and coffee all day during the early hours of the evening. In this way they have also been demonstrating their coffees and flour. It has also proved quite a convenience and comfort to friends from the country, the weather being bad, and a cup of hot coffee being relished by all who have had to stand around in the cold. Carry your wife to see the demonstration. The man from the factory will be here until Saturday night.

—Any one having beef or milk cattle or good feeders for sale should see J. Whit Grant or T. J. Todd, Walhalla, S. C.

—We are informed that there is to be a new bank established at Westminster. It is stated that the new enterprise will be ready for business by May 1st. Prominent business men of our sister town are mentioned in connection with it, and it is understood that the bank will begin business with a good capital. (The Westminster Tribune, which has just reached us, announces the capital stock of the new bank to be $20,000. The name will be "The Westminster Loan and Trust Co." A. Zimmerman, of Westminster, and L. A. Edwards, of Seneca, are petitioners for the charter, and also principal stockholders. A handsome new building will be erected at once.)

—For Sale—High Point top buggy, nearly new; also harness. Empty flour barrels, two for 25 cents. Apply to Walhalla Bakery.

—A leap year masquerade dance was given by the young ladies of Walhalla, complimentary to the young gentlemen, on Friday night, March 8. The chaperons for the occasion were Mesdames N. L. Fant and G. L. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. White. Those who enjoyed the dance were Misses Katie Harrison, Lucille Sloan of Anderson, Helena and May Fant, Mary Ellen Wilson, Verna Stribling and Mary Julia Reid of Seneca, May Sue Epton, Irene White and Lella Doyle, of Calhoun; Oliver Doyle of Calhoun, Louis Harrison, Willette Sloan of Anderson, John Schumacher, Earle Beard, M. R. McDonald, Whit Holleman and Pat Adams of Seneca, Ozzie White, James Harrison of Clemson College, Hugh Holleman, Harry Earle, Wales Lowery of Seneca.

—For Rent—5-room concrete cottage and 4-room frame cottage; both on Main street; in good repair. Apply to R. D. Oelkers, Walhalla.

—Not a few have noted with regret the absence of a long familiar face and form in and about the Court House this week. We have reference to our venerable friend, Milton Nicholson, Sr., of the Whitewater section of Oconee. For 20 years he has been ballist to the grand jury, and for 18 years out of the 20 he was present at every session of the Court, but during the past two years failing health has broken his splendid record to some extent. At present he is at his home in the upper part of the county, not being well, but more especially to remain with his good wife, who is also quite feeble. Our good friends have our best wishes for restoration to health. They are kindly remembered by many, for these good old people have a mighty warm place in the hearts of those who know them, especially those of us whose good fortune it has been to enjoy the whole-souled hospitality of their home in the great blue hills.

—Wanted—Several young men for positions in mill; good wages can be made by those who want to work. Apply to Fredrick Hosiery Mill, Walhalla, S. C.

—Mrs. Nancy Harbin died on Friday, March 1st, at her home in the Tokena section of Oconee, in her 65th year, after a short illness. The deceased was the widow of the late D. S. Harbin, who died about a year ago. They were married in 1865, and of this union seven children, six sons and one daughter, survive. Mrs. Harbin for quite a while had resided with one of her sons, L. T. Harbin, at the old homestead. She was a good woman and was known and loved by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. She was a consistent member of the Cross Roads Baptist church, with which she had been identified for a long while. Funeral services were conducted March 2d at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. W. Abbott, of the Baptist church, who is 90 years of age. The interment was made in the Hopewell cemetery. There are many who will learn with deep regret of the passing away of this good woman. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends.

—Does the word "reputation" mean anything to you? Stop and think and figure and you will know why the Majestic range has the reputation of being not only the best, but the least expensive. Let the man from the factory show you. See our big ad. in this paper. Moss & Ansel.

YOUR FREE

We are determined you shall know that "Star Brand Shoes Are Better," even if we have to give you a pair—and that is just what we are going to do.

Each week we are going to return to you (or some one) the price paid for a pair of shoes bought during that week. When you buy a pair of shoes at our store next week or the week after or any week during March, April or May, you will be given a tag bearing a number. Another tag bearing the same number will also be given to you. You keep the first tag, write your name on the second tag and deposit it in our locked and sealed Contest Box.

Drawings will be held each Tuesday at 11 o'clock A. M. Winning number will be placed in window and published each week.

REMEMBER THE ONE HOLDING THE LUCKY NUMBER WILL RECEIVE BACK THE FULL AMOUNT PAID FOR THEIR SHOES.

C. W. & J. E. BAUKNIGHT,

Walhalla, S. C.

It Pays to Buy for Cash!

—Frost proof cabbage plants fresh every week at Schumacher's.

—Hon. J. H. Wharton, of Laurens county, was in Walhalla Tuesday among friends. Mr. Wharton is in the field for Railroad Commissioner.

—One good turn deserves another. Turn your eye to the upper corner of this page. We do a "better" turn for you.

—The many Walhalla friends of Court Stenographer Clyde Smith, of Anderson, are pleased to see him in Walhalla again. It is like "comin' home," he says, to get back among his Walhalla friends.

—People who know are going to buy a Majestic range during our demonstration week. You would too if you knew. Read our advertisement in this paper. Moss & Ansel.

—Help the track team by going to see Karl Jensen Friday night. The program is a delightful one, consisting of seven parts. Mr. Jensen has been well received wherever he has appeared, and has never failed to please. His entertainment is clean and first class. You will never regret having heard him. He will close his program by singing "Home, Sweet Home," in Swedish.

—Don't buy "unsight unseen." Let the man who knows show you all about ranges at our store this week. Moss & Ansel.

—It is reported that Mrs. Rosa Fahnestock has purchased a lot in the "Walhalla Highlands," on which it is proposed to erect a Catholic church. For years there have been efforts in this direction, but they have never materialized. Mrs. Fahnestock is a staunch adherent to the Church of Rome and is the financial force of the local flock of that denomination. The location chosen offers a splendid site for a church building.

—Your neighbor knows his Majestic range uses little fuel—bakes perfect—heats abundance of water good and hot and costs practically nothing for repairs. Let us show you why. Call during our demonstration this week. Moss & Ansel.

—Hons. F. M. Cary and John B. Harris were business visitors to Walhalla Monday.

—Don't ask us to give you the $8 worth of ware with a Majestic range after our demonstration week, as that special offer applies this week only. Moss & Ansel.

—Mrs. S. A. Lockwood has been confined to her room at the Walhalla Hotel for some time with a severe case of grip. Her friends "I'll be glad to know that she is now improving. We hope to see her out soon.

—Jeff B. Marett, of Seneca R. F. D. No. 1, was in Walhalla Monday on business, and informed us that he is in the race for the office of Coroner. Mr. Marett for several years served as a Magistrate at South Union, this county. Whit Knox, of High Falls, has also announced to friends that he will ask for the office of Coroner. There are others here this week feeling the political pulse, among them L. H. V. Hobson, who is out for Supervisor; W. M. Fennell, for House of Representatives; C. R. D. Burns (so it is reported to us, but not by Mr. Burns himself,) for the Senate. Though not authorized by the gentlemen themselves to make the announcement, it is generally understood that Sheriff W. M. Kay and Clerk of Court J. F. Craig will be in the field for re-election to their respective offices. R. W. Grubbs, it is said, will tackle the County Treasurer's place, and D. A. Smith will shell the woods in an effort to land the office of County Auditor. It is also reported that W. M. Brown, of Oakway, will be a candidate for the House of Representatives. It has been reported to us also that John B. S. Dandy, Esq., will make the race for the office of Judge of Probate. The old saying that "the woods are full of candidates" is none the less true because only a few have shown themselves. Just wait till the political horn is blown in earnest and the voters prick up their ears. Candidates will then jump from cover like scared rabbits before a pack of beagles.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Oelkers, who have for some time resided in Greenville, have moved to Clemson College, where Mr. Oelkers is now engaged as guard of convicts at work there.

—"Watch the Fords go by!" But in the meantime, during this bad weather, read the Ford advertisement on the fourth page of this issue. Ask R. C. Carter or L. O. White about Fords.

—Rev. G. M. Wilcox returned to Walhalla yesterday from Gray Court and Owings, in the bounds of Enoree Presbytery, where he preached last Sunday in the interest of the endowment work for the Presbyterian College of South Carolina.

—Mrs. R. Callaway returned last Saturday from Atlanta, where she and Mrs. C. G. Jaynes had been for some days making selections for their stock of millinery. Shortly after reaching Atlanta Mrs. Callaway experienced a very unpleasant incident. As she and Mrs. Jaynes, accompanied by an Atlanta lady who had met them at the station, were going to the home of friends on Garnett street, a negro boy ran up behind them, grabbing the handbag carried by Mrs. Callaway, who held on to it until the handbag gave way. The negro ran a short distance, took a purse from the handbag, the latter being flung back to the ladies. As the negro started to run away he showed Mrs. Callaway backward, and, unable to recover herself at the instant, she fell backward and was rendered unconscious by reason of the back of her head striking on the pavement. Fortunately she was not seriously hurt. The purse, however, which contained about $10 and some valuable papers, was not recovered. It was found that the thief was working in the capacity of delivery boy for one of the mercantile firms of Atlanta, and was returning from a trip on which he had delivered goods at a residence in the vicinity in which the purse-snatching took place.
