—R. S. Rutledge is on a visit to his sons, Fred and "Bub" Rutledge, at North Augusta. Mr. Rutledge will also visit relatives in Columbia and Greenwood before his return home.

—Dr. Fahnestock, dentist, in office Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will make appointments for other days if desired.

—Jack Verner returned to Walhalla last week from Atlanta, where he has been attending the College of Physicians and Surgeons. He will be here among friends and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Verner, until the fall session opens.

—John M. Daniel, Esq., of Greenville, was among the visitors to Walhalla last week. He spent a day here among friends and making new acquaintances. Mr. Daniel has announced himself as a candidate for Solicitor of the Tenth Judicial Circuit.

—Cook's Improved cotton seed; pure, 50c. bushel. J. F. Davis, Walhalla, S. C., Route 2.

—Miss Maude Chalmers was among the teachers of Oconee who attended the State Teachers' Association at Charleston last week. She will visit among relatives and friends in Columbia, Newberry and other places before returning to Walhalla.

—R. T. Jaynes, Esq., W. A. and C. F. Hetrick will leave the latter part of this week for Philadelphia, where they will attend the annual session of the National Convention of Hosiery Manufacturers. After the meeting of this body they will go to New York on business for the Hetrick Hosiery Mills.

—Fifty pairs Florsheim oxfords, worth $4 and $5, to close out at $3 and $3.50. Good styles, but broken sizes. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.

—Rev. A. P. Maret, missionary of the Beaverdam Baptist Association, will preach at Double Springs next Sunday, May 5th, at 11 o'clock a. m. and at Whetstone at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon. The members of these churches are urged to attend, and a cordial invitation is extended to the general public.

—The merchants of West Union (Neville Bros., Hutchison Bros. & Co., C. W. Wickliffe and J. F. Morton) request us to announce that from to-day, May 1st, until September 15th, they will close their stores at 7 o'clock p. m., Saturdays excepted. The trading public will please govern themselves accordingly.

—"The Florence" automatic wickless and valveless oil stove. We will be glad to show you this stove and how easy it is operated. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.

—We clip the following item from the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette News of April 26th: "Proprietor J. L. Alexander, of the Battery Park Hotel, has had as his guest recently R. T. Jaynes, Esq., of Walhalla, S. C. Mr. Jaynes, who is one of the most prominent attorneys of Walhalla, after a visit of some time to Mr. Alexander, has returned to his home."

—B. F. Douthit and family, who have for a number of years resided several miles west of Walhalla, moved to town last week. They are occupying rooms at the Keith place with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Grant and family. Mr. Douthit has moved into town to be more conveniently located for performing his duties as a member of the rural police force.

—If it's wagons you are talking about buying, let me come and let me show you. We've got 'em, and prices are the lowest and terms the easiest. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.

—The Walhalla Democratic club can be found at the office of Sheriff W. M. Kay, where H. P. Holleman will take pleasure in adding thereto the names of those entitled to vote at this precinct, but whose names are not now on the roll. Inquire if your name is there. Every voter should see that his name is on one of the Democratic club rolls in the county.

—Thurman, the nine-months-old son of Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Douthit, died at his home here last Wednesday night at 9 o'clock, after a lingering illness. In their deep sorrow the bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends. Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at the home, after which the interment was made in Westview cemetery.

—Wanted—200 bushels cane seed. Will pay $1 per bushel cash for all brought in this week. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.

—Ray Fahnestock was with homefolks and among Walhalla friends for a short while this and last week. Mr. Fahnestock recently came to Walhalla with his family with the intention of engaging in truck farming and poultry raising near town, but "the call of the city" proved stronger than the call "back to the farm." He will return to Greenville in a day or two, his wife having gone ahead. He will be employed by the American Machine and Manufacturing Co. Their friends here regret their departure.

—"If you ride, ride right!" High Point bugles are always up in quality. Just received a car load of beauties. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—International stock feed for horses and mules. Moss & Ansel's.

—Born, on Tuesday, April 16th, unto Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Walker, a son.

—Charlie Pitchford, of Wofford College, spent the latter part of last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pitchford.

—Fresh fish at Phillips' Market next Friday and Saturday. Call or phone your orders early.

—Chas. H. Humphries, of Union, spent several days here this and last week visiting his family at the home of Mrs. G. K. Maxwell.

—Rev. J. G. Law will preach at Richland Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11.30 o'clock. Public cordially invited.

—A good two-horse farm, near Fair Play, to rent. Apply to J. D. Sheldon, agent. 15-

—Miss Susie Sharp, of Rivoli, is spending this week here visiting at the home of her uncle, J. W. Holleman. She has many friends who are glad to meet her again.

—Mrs. W. J. Beard is spending this week at Tamassee. For some time she has been suffering from an attack of grip, and she has gone to Tamassee in the hope of being benefited by the change.

—Paints, roofing, guttering, etc. See D. E. Good, Walhalla.

—Miss Myra Ballenger, of Richland, is spending this week in Walhalla visiting Mrs. Geo. M. Wilcox. Rev. Mr. Wilcox is expected to return this evening from Elberton, Ga., where he went to perform a marriage ceremony.

—We are requested to announce that W. P. Garrett and others will conduct a singing at Cheochee next Sunday, May 5th, and at Bethlehem on the fourth Sunday in May. Public cordially invited to attend both and to bring books and well-filled baskets.

—Mrs. Clem Watkins left last week for Columbus, Neb., in response to a telegram announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Hames, which occurred at her home the first of last week. Friends of the family sympathize deeply with them in their hour of sorrow.

—For Sale—One good horse; 7 years old; weight 950 pounds. Cash or good security. W. F. Hughs, Walhalla, S. C. 16-18

—The second quarterly conference of Walhalla Circuit, M. E. Church, South, will be held at the parsonage, in West Union, on Saturday, May 11th, at 11 o'clock. All official members of the circuit are urged to be present. The meeting will be a very important one.

—A. Bowls White, who for some time has been engaged as clerk at the Oconee Inn, Seneca, has gone to Gainesville, Ga., where he has accepted a position with the Princeton Hotel. Mr. White formerly lived in Walhalla and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. White.

—Miss Ethel Westmoreland, of Griffin, Ga., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Duffie Todd, and among other relatives and friends in Walhalla. Miss Westmoreland is a daughter of R. B. Westmoreland, a former citizen of Walhalla. Miss Hattie Frasier, of Madison, is also a guest of Mrs. Todd this week.

—Up to the present time forty candidates have announced for office in Oconee. There are four new candidates this week, viz.: Jno. M. Daniel, of Greenville, for Solicitor; Arthur F. Finley, Westminster, R. F. D., for Auditor; W. N. Woolbright, Seneca, R. F. D., and Elbert F. Hudson, Westminster, R. F. D., for County Supervisor.

—Big line trunks and suit cases. If you need any for your summer vacation call and inspect our line. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.

—Claude Reid left this week for Woodstock, Ala., where he has gone to see his sister, Miss Letitia, who is quite ill. Miss Reid has hosts of friends here who hope to hear of her early recovery. Mr. Reid was accompanied as far as Atlanta by Mrs. Reid, who will spend a short while in that city visiting her sister, Miss Dora Pitchford, and other relatives.

—Mrs. J. I. Linler left the first of this week for Lexington, where she went in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her brother, W. W. Knight. Mr. and Mrs. Linler have but recently moved to Walhalla from Cornelia, Ga., but there are numerous friends of the family who will join with us in the hope that the stricken one may be restored to health.

—Spartanburg Journal: "Among the visitors in the city to-day is J. R. Earle, a prominent attorney of Walhalla, who has served as State Senator from Oconee county for eight years. Mr. Earle is being mentioned as a candidate for Attorney General in the next State election. He said this morning that he has not as yet made formal announcement of his candidacy, but would probably do so in the near future."

—Now is the time to buy a first-class middle-burster. W. M. Brown sells them, and the price is right.

—Elias and Wilton Earle, of Townville, were business visitors to Walhalla yesterday. The Messrs. Earle are engaged extensively and intensively in farming, and so far as we are informed they are the only users of engine power in Oconee in the preparation of land for farm purposes. A day's work with their gasoline-operated plow represents from six to seven acres. A harrow is operated in connection with the plow, and when the day's work is done the land gone over is ready for planting. The cost of operation is about $4.50 per Jay, showing a cost for land preparation up to the planting of the crop from 75 to 90 cents an acre. They are delighted with results so far. One great beauty of this system is the fact that during the winter, when "power" of the average farmer is busily engaged cutting their heads off, the gasoline power is either costing nothing for maintenance or bringing in revenue by operating machinery about the farm. In two trips Mr. Earle, with his engine power, hauls twelve tons of guano from town to his farm.

—Tomato plants for sale. N. L. Fant, Walhalla.

—"B. F." the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Cantrell, died at the home of its mother in the knitting mill village last Wednesday, April 24th. The little one had been sick for only a short while. The cause of its death was measles. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow. Funeral services and interment were at Cheochee Baptist church and cemetery Friday last week.

—E. W. Curtis, of Blairville, Ga., spent several days in Walhalla last week visiting his nephew, W. S. Grahl, and family. Mr. Curtis years ago visited Walhalla frequently on business, but had not been here for some twenty years or more. He was struck with the many improvements about Walhalla and with the fact that but few of the people he knew when he was familiar with the town are now here.

—Blow up your stumps with DuPont dynamite. I carry a large stock of the best. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—News of the death of James J. Haley, of Westminster, who died last week at Hot Springs, Ark., came as a surprise to friends here and brought sorrow to many who had known him. Mr. Haley was well known all over Oconee, having been prominent in business affairs and in politics for many years. He served Oconee for several terms as County Commissioner and did faithful service in that capacity. The Courier joins with many other friends of the deceased in extending to the bereaved family condolence in their sorrow.

—The graduating class and faculty of the Walhalla High School have issued handsome invitations to the commencement exercises, which will be held at Wagener Theatre on Friday evening, May 17th, at 8 o'clock. The members of the graduating class are: L. Earle Beard, Louise J. Busch, Ellen A. Duncan, Myra W. Fant, Eulah J. Grant, Charles Hetrick, Thodosia C. Hughs, Eunice A. Macaulay, Mary Ellen Wilson. The class address will be delivered by Dr. Geo. A. Wauchope; salutatory by Earle Beard; Mary Ellen Wilson, valedictorian. The full program for the occasion will be published later.

—Loans on Farm Lands—Amount $300 to $10,000; terms easy. Address R. T. Jaynes, Walhalla. 19

—H. J. McKinney died at his home in Anderson last Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Mr. McKinney was a Confederate veteran and was known in this section. The Daily Mail of Saturday says: "Mr. McKinney was a gallant Confederate veteran, having served throughout the four years of the War Between the States. He was an upright, honorable man and was respected by all. He is survived by his wife and the following brothers and sisters: H. A. McKinney, of California; L. P. McKinney, of Anderson; W. J. McKinney, of Carlinville, Ga.; W. B. McKinney, of Walhalla, and Mrs. Jesse Smith, of Atlanta."

—News of the death of Mrs. R. J. Overton, which occurred at her home at Fort Motte, S. C., Monday last week, was received in Walhalla with deep regret. The deceased was a niece of Mrs. I. H. Harrison and Miss Hattie Darby, and had numerous other relatives and hosts of friends here to whom the sad intelligence of her death came as a great shock. Mrs. Overton was before marriage Miss Cantey Hane. She had frequently visited here, and by her charming personality drew to her as staunch friends all who knew her. She was 33 years of age at the time of her death and is survived by her husband and two children. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved ones. Misses Hattie and Anna Darby attended the funeral at Fort Motte last Wednesday.

—For Oliver chilled plows and repairs go to W. M. Brown, Walhalla.

—Shingle mill and engine for sale on easy terms. T. E. Alexander, Walhalla, S. C. 20

—Miss Rath Walker was the charming hostess to the Paul Hayne Circle on April 23d. The following was the literary program for the afternoon: Roll call, Fact about a Battle of the Civil War; historical, Causes of Civil War; historical, Grant and Lee; "The Conquered Banner"; selection from "In Ole Virginia." The club showed its interest in ambitious girls by a donation to the free scholarship fund. The scholarship is given by the Federation of Women's Clubs. The meeting was a most interesting one. During a delightful social half hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. C. Carter, served an ice course. The guests present were Mesdames Bauknight, Verner, Darby, Bell, Wilcox, Umberger, Steck, Rogers, Denny, F. H. and R. C. Carter, Misses Strother, Ansel, Harrison and Strong.

—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Hetrick Hosiery Mills in this issue. The managers of these mills are endeavoring to attract the attention of people who need work. Unquestionably this industry has placed at the door of the worker an avenue to better conditions than no other enterprise has opened. The work is clean and healthful, the sanitary conditions are ideal, wages good, and altogether the Hetrick Hosiery Mills present to the men, women and children of working age an opportunity that few communities afford. Recent endeavors of the managers of this mill are in the way of ideal sanitation, beautifying the mill and village premises, toward the establishment of the best there is in the home life of those whose time is employed in and around the mill. Encouragement is lent to the employees in the matter of arranging flower and vegetable gardens. A park has been laid off, and beyond this a good pasture has been set aside for the use (free of charge) of those residents of the village who desire to keep cows. Those desiring to secure remunerative employment will do well to write or call at the offices of the Hetrick Hosiery Mills.

—No. 2452 wins in shoe sale at Bauknight's this week.

—Try our Corn Belt breakfast bacon. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.

—Mrs. S. Y. Stribling and daughter, Mrs. Nellie of Roswell, Ga., spent several days in Walhalla last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Reid. They have many friends here who are always pleased to meet them.

Escapes An Awful Fate.
A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy, for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, it's the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

South Carolina Fires.
Columbia, April 27.—The March report of the State insurance department shows that during the month there have been 148 fires, with a total loss of $153,482.
Sparks on the roof is given as the cause producing the largest number of fires. The causes coming next are coals from stoves or fire places and defective flues.
Greenwood county sustained the greatest loss ($57,718), with Darlington county next ($13,410.). The total loss shows an increase of $6,392 over that of March, 1911.

FORD TOURING CAR.

Don't buy a Ford just because of its wonderful speed and racing records. Such tests have their value; they show the car is supreme under exceptional circumstances; but buy a Ford because of what you know it accomplishes in the labor of the day's work—because of its steadfast endurance, its low upkeep, its universal satisfaction. You see them wherever you go and they are going wherever you see them.

Ford Service for Ford Owners
Ford owners—more than 100,000. Ford dealers—nearly 5,000. One dealer to about every 17 owners. That is what Ford Service means. It is an individual service. Close to your elbow when you buy a Ford.

Ford branches and dealers in all cities, towns and villages are at your elbow with Ford Service for Ford Owners.
