THIEVES VISIT BOUNTY LAND.

About Three Hundred "Fries" Stolen—Local Notes of Interest.

Bounty Land, June 3.—Special: Some of our people are taking in the meeting which is going on in Seneca.

Miss Myrtle Davis, of Anderson, visited her home people Sunday, returning Monday.

Miss Emily Denny, of Westminster, is visiting the Misses Davis.

C. K. Rankin has returned from Greenville, where he has been for eye treatment. We regret to learn that it is probable that he will lose one eye. His suffering, however, is not so great, and we hope his affliction may not extend into the unaffected eye.

Chicken thieves are prevalent in this community, there having been about three hundred stolen last week—all frying size chickens. Mesdames D. A. Peritt, W. H. Miller, Richard Kirby, Robert McMahon and others lost nearly all they had raised. This loss means quite a good deal, too, as vegetables are late and farmers have been dlecting themselves for quite a while already.

Little Miss Mildred and Master Rhoderick Heller, of Fair Play, are with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith.

The news of the marriage of Miss Jessie Doyle and J. T. Green, of Anderson county, which occurred last week, came as a surprise to her many Bounty Land friends, who congratulate the groom on his selection of a life companion, whose many amiable characteristics will endear her to all with whom she may be thrown. May their voyage through life be peaceful and prosperous.

Miss Hettie Guntharp, of Shiloh, was a guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. Lowell Smith.

M. T. Hubbard's family have about recovered of measles and are able to be out.

Mrs. J. M. Gillison spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Clinton Stribling, of Seneca.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Myers, of Oakway, are visiting relatives in the community to-day.

Mrs. C. D. Corbin and Miss Cary Doyle visited the family of W. H. Doyle, near Walhalla, last week.

We are glad to report that Joe Rankin's condition is somewhat improved.

A sprained ankle may, as a rule, be cured in from three to four days by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers.

Good Meeting Closed.

Poplar Springs, May 29.—Special: Rev. Z. I. Henderson has just closed a week of special services here. Our prayer meeting and Sunday school conditions seemed to make this a pressing need. The preaching was searching and of a high order. We trust we are built up and stronger in church and community. Communion was held Sunday. We were given the privilege of greeting the family of our new minister. We wish them joy, comfort and good success in their present field of labor.

John C. Lee's contest acre of corn is the best we have seen.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders and son Robert have returned from an extended visit to D. F. McAllister and family, of Americus, Ga. A beautiful farming country and good crop conditions are reported—at least two weeks ahead of ours.

Makes the Nation Gasp.

"The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands who suffered from burns, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. It is the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c. at all drug stores.

TELEPATHY WARNS OF DEATH.

Charles Campbell, 11 Years Old, Drowns When Boat Overturned.

(Atlanta Constitution, 2d.)

The shrill voice of a newsboy, shouting the news that a "man had been drowned in Piedmont Lake," was the strange physiic agent that brought a presentment to H. W. Campbell, an insurance agent, that his son, Charles W. Campbell, aged 11 years, was the victim who perished by being thrown from an overturned boat in the lake at 2.30 yesterday afternoon.

"I had never known that my boy went to the lake, and had no reason to believe that he was anywhere but home when I heard there was a drowning," said the father Saturday afternoon. "My heart leaped into my throat when I heard the newsboys shouting that a man had been drowned, and even after I had bought a paper and hastily read that the victim was a man, I knew that it was a mistake and that it was my son."

The father reached Piedmont Lake thirty minutes after Policeman C. H. Hamilton, of the city department, telephoned him the news of the drowning, but he was too late to see the heroic fight made by internes and life-savers to fan into a flame the little spark which feebly fluttered at intervals while they were trying to infuse life into the frail body by artificial respiration. Fifteen minutes after the lad reached the hospital surgeons who eagerly watched for the slightest pulsation declared the lad dead. The father broke down and wept bitterly, telling of the strange presentment between sobs.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when a man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give to a woman and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at all druggists.
