

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Bring your cross-ties and shins to Carter & Co. adv.

—Mrs. W. F. Smith and children, after a week's visit to Mrs. Smith's parents and brothers near Fair Play and at Bowersville, Ga., have returned to their home near Salem.

—For Sale—One fine mule, two cows, one 2-horse wagon (White hickory) good as new, corn and fodder. C. Melchert, Walhalla, adv. 44

—Mr. and Mrs. W. Patrick Dickson, who live near Oakway, were among friends in Walhalla for a short while last week. Mr. and Mrs. Dickson resided here for several years and made many friends, who are always pleased to meet them.

—Before you buy, get prices and information on gents' clothing and gents' shoes at J. & J. S. Carter's, Westminster. adv.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Walhalla Methodist church will meet at the church next Monday afternoon, October 21st, at 4 o'clock. All members urged to attend promptly.

—Oliver chilled plows and all repairs at Hutchison Bros. & Co., West Union. adv. 43

—Mrs. W. H. Cary left last week for Honea Path, where she will spend the winter with her husband, who is engaged there in the cotton business. Their many friends here regret their departure.

—Wanted—Renters for two one-horse farms. Good stock and all necessary tools furnished. Apply at once to Sam J. Isbell, Walhalla. adv. 43

—M. L. Alexander, of Ardmore, Okla., has two important announcements in this issue of The Courier. They will be found on the first and sixth pages. Read them if interested in good land propositions.

—Plenty of good quality hard and soft brick. W. John Schroder, Walhalla, S. C. 43* adv.

—Miss Letitia Reid, who has been spending some time at Woodstock, Ala., with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Martin, is in Walhalla again, to the delight of her many friends. She will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Claud W. Reid.

—Good shingle mill and engine for sale on easy terms. T. E. Alexander, Walhalla. 44-adv.

—Comptroller General A. W. Jones paid his annual official visit to Oconee about ten days ago, checking up the financial department. He found the county offices in such shape as to justify a repetition of his usual complimentary remarks, stating that Oconee officials stand at the head of the list for general excellence, the offices being found in first-class shape.

—"Regina," have you seen it? The best shoe for style and dress that is made. Another shipment of them coming in soon—tan, gun metal and patent leather, in the latest cuts. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster. adv.

—Numerous friends of Mrs. Todd Cowan and family, who for some time resided near Westminster, will regret to learn that they have moved to a distant State. They are now residing at Dearborn, Missouri, having become established in their new home there on October 3d. From a letter received from Mrs. Cowan we are pleased to note that they are delighted with their new home, and find conditions in that section of Missouri quite ideal.

—Rev. Rhett R. Doyle, of Centenary, spent several days this and last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doyle, near town, and among other relatives and numerous friends here and in the community. Rev. Doyle was granted a two-weeks' vacation by his congregation and spent the end of his rest period at his old home. Rev. Doyle has hosts of friends in Oconee who were delighted to have him with them again. He returned to Centenary this morning.

—For Rent—One good two-horse farm with eight-room house. See L. E. Beard at Walhalla Hotel. adv.

—Mrs. Geo. S. Phillips and two children, of Decatur, Ga., were in Walhalla among friends for a short while Monday. Mrs. Phillips has been on a visit to Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger and daughters at Conners and among other relatives for a few days. She is pleasantly remembered here by many as Miss Lizzie Hunsinger. Mrs. T. J. Hannon, of Greenville, has also been visiting at the home of Mrs. Hunsinger for some days. Mrs. Phillips returned to her home Monday. Her visit here was the source of much pleasure to a host of friends.

—The Seneca Bank and the Westminster Bank will receive payments and give receipts to those who owe me, when it is not convenient for you to find my son, Wales Lowry. Please pay promptly. I cannot carry over any paper except as already agreed. adv. 1 T. M. Lowery.

—Major G. M. Lynch, of Pickens county, spent last week in and near Walhalla visiting his sons, W. R. and G. A. Lynch. Mr. Lynch is 75 years of age, but as erect as the average man of thirty, and is remarkably well preserved. He is an ex-Confederate soldier, having served along with Col. R. A. Thompson and other Oconee veterans in the up-country regiments. Mr. Lynch has several times been honored by the citizens of Pickens county, having served as County Commissioner and County Supervisor. This was his first visit to Walhalla in ten years, and his presence here was the source of much pleasure to many old and new friends. Major Lynch lives in the Oconee section of Pickens county. This is noted as one of the finest corn sections in the State, but the Major says crops are very short in that fertile valley this year.

—Everybody ought to prepare for a rainy day, and everybody likes to be helped. J. & J. S. Carter, Westminster, want to help you, I know, because they have a dandy line of rubber and storm coats for men and rain coats and rubber sandals for ladies and children. Don't forget to call on them if you need anything in the rainy-day line, for J. & J. S. Carter have it for you. adv.

—Re-cleaned Appler seed oats at C. W. & J. E. Bauknight's. adv.

—John J. Busch has opened up a grist mill in the rear of the Crails-Verner store building.

—Mrs. N. L. Fant entertained most delightfully the members of the 42 Club yesterday afternoon.

—For Sale—Several farms; 50 to 200 acres. Cash or easy terms. Call on or write Jas. H. Darby, Seneca Oil Mill, Seneca, S. C. adv.

—Mrs. B. F. Bradley, of Easley, spent last week in Walhalla as the guest of Mrs. L. A. Brennecke. Mrs. Bradley has a host of friends here who were delighted to meet her. She is the wife of the late Major Bradley, who established the first paper published at Easley—the Messenger.

—Good time to buy coal; $5.25 per ton delivered at your home, $4.25 at mill. No less than 500 pounds delivered. Phone Hetrick Hosiery Mill, Walhalla. adv.-t

—Mrs. R. L. Rogers left yesterday morning for Fountain Inn, where she was called by letter announcing the serious illness of R. W. Rogers, father of the late Rev. R. L. Rogers. Mrs. Rogers is quite aged, and last Saturday suffered a stroke of paralysis. There are numerous friends of the family here who will regret to learn of Mr. Rogers' illness and hope for favorable news from him.

Dr. Fahnestock, dentist, in office Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will make appointments for other days if desired.

—Miss Ida Biermann was at home to a number of her young friends on Thursday of last week. Several delightful games of hearts dice were played, at which Miss Eunice Macaulay came off victorious and was presented with a box of delicious homemade candy. Hot chocolate and cake were served, and all united in assuring the young hostess of their enjoyment of a delightful afternoon.

—Cole grain drills at Hutchison Bros. & Co., West Union. adv. 43

—Misses Georgia Burns and Georgia Elford, who have been spending the summer at their cottage residence in West End, will return to their home in Charleston tomorrow. We learn that this is probably the last summer these ladies will spend in Walhalla for several years. This announcement will be a source of deep regret to their many friends here.

—The body of John P. McCarey, who died in a hospital at Gadsden, Ala., last Wednesday, was brought to Walhalla last Friday afternoon, and the remains were interred in Bethel cemetery, after funeral services conducted by Rev. G. M. Wilcox, of the Walhalla Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member. Mr. McCarey was taken suddenly ill with typhoid fever, and his family here did not know of his illness until a telegram was received announcing his death. Mr. McCarey was about 45 years of age and was a son of the late James McCarey, who resided with his family at the Burnt Tanyard, on Little River, for a number of years. Besides his wife, who was Miss Johannah Lay, he is survived by five children and one sister, Mrs. L. R. Vandiviere, of Savannah, Ga. We join with other friends of the family in extending sympathy in their sorrow.

—We have installed a button machine. We can make buttons, all sizes, to match any cloth. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla. adv.

—Mrs. R. L. Rogers was the gracious hostess to the Hayne Circle Tuesday afternoon, October 8th. An exceedingly interesting program was well rendered as follows: "Later New England Writers," Mrs. Steek; "An original review of 'Queed,'" Miss Harrison; "The Sewing Society," selected from "Weavers of Dreams," Miss Ansel. After transacting its business the circle adjourned to spend a lively conversational hour with the hostess. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Rogers, assisted by her attractive little daughter and Mrs. Steek. Those present were Mesdames C. W. Bauknight, L. M. Brown, Jas. Darby, J. A. Steek, J. W. Bell, George Ansel, J. B. Umberger, R. L. Rogers, W. C. Hughs, E. L. Herndon and W. L. Verner, and Misses Ansel, Harrison, Smith, Strong and Strother. The annual business meeting of the circle will be with Mrs. Charles Hetrick on October 22d, at 4 p. m.

—Oliver chilled plows and all repairs at Hutchison Bros. & Co., West Union. adv. 43

—Miss Annie South, of Anderson, spent the latter part of last week visiting Miss Sallie L. Williams at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hughs, near town.

—Mrs. C. H. Humphries and child, of Union, are spending a while visiting Mrs. Humphries' mother, Mrs. G. K. Maxwell. It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Humphries will move to Spartanburg in the near future.

—Appler re-cleaned seed oats at $1 per bushel. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla. adv.

—Mrs. Stephen Hunter, of Westminster, and Miss Alice Hunter, of Florida, spent yesterday in Walhalla as guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd. Miss Hunter is visiting among numerous relatives and friends in various sections of Oconee.

—So little interest is manifested in the election held yesterday for Attorney General that nothing indicative of the result can be given out. Seventeen out of 30 precincts in Richland county give Lyon 1,033, Peoples 1,175. From nine precincts in Oconee Lyon received a little more than 400, while Peoples had less than 200.

—W. M. Fennell and T. J. Todd have bought out W. H. Campbell's market, and are ready to furnish the best of meats at the best prices, and will pay best prices for hides, chickens and eggs, beeswax. Let them see it before you sell. Phone No. 75, Walhalla, S. C. adv.

—D. H. Rabens is quite ill at his home here, having suffered an attack of fever a few days ago. His condition, however, is not thought to be serious, and he is reported some better to-day. We hope that he may soon be restored to health. He came back to Walhalla about a year ago from Charleston, being unable to stand the climate there longer.

—The many Walhalla friends of Clyde Smith will regret to learn that he is quite sick at Anderson. The Anderson Mail of Tuesday announced that Mr. Smith has gone to the hospital to undergo an operation for the removal of a tumor on one of his knees. The Mail says: "While the operation will be painful it will not be serious and he will probably be able to be out again in less than a week. This tumor has been giving him considerable trouble of late and his physicians advised an operation, as the malady might possibly bring on more serious trouble."

—If you want buttons to match your suit we can make them. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla. adv.

—There will be an all-day stinging at Mountain Grove church on the fourth Sunday in this month, October 27th. The public is invited to attend and bring well-filled baskets.

—Prayer meeting will be held at the Walhalla Methodist church this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock. The members of the congregation are urged to attend, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

—Paints, roofing, guttering, etc. See D. E. Good, Walhalla. adv.

—The State and Federal elections will be held on Tuesday, November 5th. Notices of these elections will be found on the second page of this issue. There are several Constitutional Amendments to be voted on by the citizens of South Carolina at this election.

—Cedar Camp, W. O. W., of Walhalla, unveiled a beautiful monument to the memory of C. A. Burton in the Baptist cemetery last Sunday afternoon. Woodmen from all parts of the county were present. The ceremonies were impressive. About 200 people were present.

—If you want anything next to the best shoe (the Regina) you can get the Vassar, Queen Quality and other kinds of pretty shoes at J. & J. S. Carter's, Westminster. adv.

—The relay race between the boys of the Junior track team of the Walhalla High School and the boys of the West Union school resulted in a victory for the Walhalla boys last Friday afternoon. As the last boy of the Walhalla team reached the Confederate monument the last relay for the West Union boys reached the corner at the Walhalla Hotel, about 400 feet to the bad. The work of the West Union boys is considered good, however, this having been the first race in which they had participated.

—The high school track team will have their first relay race of the session on Friday afternoon when they meet the team from the Seneca High School. There will be fifteen runners for each school, each runner going for six-tenths of a mile. The race will start at 4.30 p. m. from Seneca and the finish will be at the Confederate monument about 5.30 p. m. The Walhalla team will be selected from the following boys: Loyd Brown, captain; Furman Hill, Robt. Macaulay, Claude Garrett, Geo. Kaufmann, Marion Moss, Joseph Riehle, Mason DuPre, Eugene Abbott, Henry King, Bishop Grant, Enis Abbott, Louis Riehle, Harley Phillips, Gordon Fant, Louis Sanders and others.

PAROLED CONVICT KILLS MAN.
After Few Months Freedom Lonnie Hall Commits Another Crime. (Columbia State, Oct. 14.)

Kelsey Moore, who was hit on the head with a brick last Sunday morning on lower Main street by Lonnie Hall, who was paroled in December, 1911, by Governor Bleasde, died last night at 7.10 o'clock at the Columbia Hospital. Hall, who was convicted in 1909 of manslaughter and sentenced to 12 years in the penitentiary, is now lodged in the city jail.

In the fight which occurred last Sunday morning between the two men it appears that Hall struck Moore with a brick swung around by means of a wire attached to it, inflicting a severe wound in the head.

Lonnie Hall was a prominent figure in police and magistrate court circles in Columbia for a number of years and served several sentences for petty crimes. In 1909 he killed Eber Ashford and was sentenced to twelve years in the penitentiary.

Governor Bleasde's "Statement of Pardons, Paroles and Commutations" devotes two pages to the parole of Lonnie Hall, which was granted on December 4th, 1911.

Notes from Richland.

Richland, Oct. 14.—Special: The past week was very favorable for cutting and curing hay, but those who didn't get through hauling up Saturday are wishing they had pushed a little last week.

Miss Pearle Verner has returned to her work in a hospital in Greenville after a ten days' visit to home-folks here.

Miss Pauline Hughs, of Clemson College, spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Annie McMahan.

Mr. Wooley and his hands have been putting new timbers on the Conners trestle the past two weeks. The Richland Gin Company have been running their gin lately and have ginned about 70 bales this season.

Rev. F. D. Vaughan filled his appointment at the Fair Play church yesterday.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25c. at all druggists. adv.
