

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW FRIDAY

Wood-Sheppard Wedding Last Wednesday—Items of Interest.

Seneca, Oct. 29.—Special: R. M. Tribble and T. E. Stribling visited Clemson College last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Florence Reid will go to her home in Rock Hill Friday, where she will attend the wedding of a relative. She will return to Seneca next Wednesday.

The annual chrysanthemum show will be held in the Harper store room, recently vacated by the Bee Hive, on next Friday afternoon and night. Oysters will be sold by the ladies of the Aid Society of the Presbyterian church. The door receipts from the flower show will also be given this society. The exhibit will open at noon and continue all afternoon and in the evening. An admission of ten cents will be charged to the show in the afternoon, but there will be no admission at night. The chrysanthemums will be sold as usual, and it will be a splendid opportunity for flower lovers and growers here and elsewhere to see the novelties and also to purchase the handsomest mums in the history of chrysanthemum culture in the county. Don't forget the date—Friday afternoon and night of this week, the first of November; also the oysters, cooked and served to the queen's taste. This being the first opportunity given the public to get oysters this season, it goes without saying that there will be a fine patronage. Our friends from the country and neighboring towns are especially invited to be present.

A number of our people are going to Greenville Wednesday night to see "Alma, Where Do You Live?" Ben Greet players, in "She Stoops to Conquer," were seen by a good crowd of Seneca people at Clemson last Saturday night. A large number also saw the football game in the afternoon, when Clemson was again victorious and beat the Citadel by a score of 54 to 14.

The Wood-Sheppard wedding last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wood, parents of the bride, was a beautiful one, and was witnessed by a large gathering of friends. The bride was never prettier than in full bridal attire. The home was attractively decorated, there being several rooms used on suite. The ceremony room was tastily decorated with salvia, the mantel being banked with the gorgeous bloom, from which were seen numbers of burning tapers. The wedding march was played by Miss Carrie Hunter and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Patton, of Blacksburg. There were no attendants. A delightful luncheon was served.

On Monday afternoon Misses Mary Julia Reid and Rebecca Todd, tendered a hostery and handkerchief shower to the bride-to-be, Miss Bertha Lee Cox, whose wedding will occur on the afternoon of the 30th instant. Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Verna Stribling, was the signal for the guests to repair to the dining room. Here Miss Todd, as hostess, presided with attractive ease and dignity, and proposed the following toasts: "To the bride," Miss Verna Stribling; Response, Miss Bertha Lee Cox; "To the Bachelor Girls," Miss Mary Julia Reid.

A charming meeting of the Gossips was held with the Misses Gignilliat last Wednesday afternoon. Forty-two was played, and at the close of the game a delicious luncheon was served.

A young lady arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Craig last Monday, the 21st instant, and is royally welcomed by the old parents.

Ben Lee Hamlin, visited home-folks Saturday.

Mrs. R. Y. H. Lowery is visiting relatives at Townville.

Miss Marguerite Adams, who is teaching a large music class at Townville, visited her home-folks the past week-end.

T. B. Jones, of Townville, was a visitor to Seneca last Sunday.

T. S. Stribling is in charge of Harbin's grocery store while Mr. Harbin is engaged in other business affairs.

Miss Mamie Blalock, of Westminster, visited her friend, Miss Sadie Parker, last Saturday.

Mrs. W. M. Morrison, of Clemson, spent Saturday afternoon shopping in Seneca.

The basket ball game between Walhalla and Seneca resulted in the defeat of our team by a score of 14 to 5. We advise vigorous and steady practice for our girls, and see what the result will be from another game.

Large numbers of hands are seen going out to the works on Conners, where the dam is being built for the electric power plant. It is said that work there is progressing rapidly.

John McAlister, of Charleston, visited relatives here the first of the week.

The friends of L. H. Cary are pleased to see him sufficiently convalesced from a recent severe attack of illness to be out again. He came over last Saturday from Greenville and is now in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cary.

Mrs. Lillie Tribble and son Gus left last Thursday for Florida, where they will spend the winter.

The Davis home was destroyed by fire early this morning. A small house on the same lot was dynamited and undoubtedly saved adjoining houses.

Hungry Bull Gores Owner.

A prize Jersey bull, angry at not being given his morning feed, attacked its owner, O. A. Selman, a young farmer of Douglasville, Ga., at the State Fair grounds in Macon last Saturday morning, and seriously injured him. The man's left leg was gored to the bone from the knee to the hip, and he is in a critical condition at the City Hospital, Macon. Stenders-by lassoed the bull and prevented it from trampling the prostrate man to death.

It is more sensible to pay serious attention to the health of the people in the country than for a multitude to sing "The Star-Spangled Banner!"

WESTMINSTER NEWS IN BRIEF.

Sudden Death of M. A. Terrell in Atlanta Last Friday Evening.

Westminster, Oct. 29.—Special: Moses Aaron Terrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Terrell, of this place, died at his home at 165 Alexander street, Atlanta, last Friday evening, October 25th, at 11 o'clock, from an attack of acute Bright's disease. Mr. Terrell and his wife were visiting relatives in Westminster the first part of last week and had just returned to Atlanta last Wednesday. Everybody in Westminster was shocked Thursday when a message was received, saying that he was at the point of death. He was taken ill Wednesday night and gradually grew worse until the end came. He was unconscious and speechless from the first attack until the time of his death. Mr. Terrell was a well known freight conductor of the Southern Railway, on the Greenville and Atlanta division. He was extremely popular, and his many friends over the entire division will receive the news of his death with much sorrow. His body was brought here Sunday and was taken in charge by the Masonic fraternity in conformity with his request. Westminster Lodge, No. 200, A. F. M., met at their hall and marched in a body to the train to meet the remains, which were taken to the Presbyterian church. Brief services were conducted by Rev. R. L. Grier. He was assisted by Rev. A. P. Marrett. The pall bearers were Master Masons I. S. Pitts, F. H. Shirley, J. T. Porter, W. A. Singleton, James Norris and Knox Anderson. At Eastview cemetery, where the body was laid to rest, the beautiful burial ceremony of the Masonic fraternity was used. The floral offerings were beautiful. Two of the handsomest came from the Order of Railway Conductors, Lodge No. 457, and from his railroad friends who had known him and worked with him. Mr. Terrell was 33 years old on the 11th day of last May. He was born near Tugaloo river, where the family of Miles P. Singleton now reside. His childhood and young manhood days were spent in and around Westminster, and in 1901 he began work on the Southern railroad. Mr. Terrell united with the Baptist church here about 14 years ago, but joined the Presbyterian church in Atlanta last year. On June 19, 1911, he was married to Miss Ella Harper, of Fountain Inn, who survives him. Besides his parents he is survived by four sisters and four brothers—Mrs. W. L. England, Messrs. J. A. Terrell and H. C. Terrell, of Westminster; Mesdames J. R. Garner and Hazel Smith, of Greenville; W. B. Terrell, Paoleto; Conway Terrell, Atlanta; and Mrs. N. A. King, of Texas. The many friends of the grief-stricken family extend to them their heartfelt sympathy.

Basket Ball Victory.

The High School basket ball team defeated the Seneca High School team last Friday afternoon by a score of 14 to 5. The Walhalla team made five goals from trial throws and four goals on free throws. The Seneca team made two goals from trial and one goal on a free throw. The playing of the Walhalla team was especially good, each member of the team helping to win the victory. Miss Reid, of the Seneca school faculty, and Miss Eunice Macaulay, of Walhalla, acted as officials. Quite an enthusiastic crowd from Walhalla witnessed the game and cheered the team on to victory. The Walhalla team has not been defeated since its organization.

Physician's Visit.

Dr. Rogers, of the State Board of Health, visited the school Monday and gave interesting talks to the children on the hookworm disease. The speaker used charts in showing the cause of disease and exhibited a few of the worms. He showed the effect the disease would have on the patient and explained the treatment. It is certain there are several cases in the school, as there are in most schools in the State. Dr. Rogers will be at the court house Saturday for the purpose of examining all children who wish to be examined. The examination is free and it is hoped many will take advantage of the opportunity.

Track Meet Next Friday.

The track team will have its second race of the season on Friday afternoon, when they will meet the team from Westminster High School. The race will begin near the Confederate monument at 4.30 p. m. and will end in Westminster. Each school will have fourteen or fifteen runners, each lap being six-tenths of a mile. The Westminster team is strong, and our boys realize that the race is to be a hard one, but they are going into it with a determination to win. The best spirit has always existed between the two schools, and the Walhalla team, if defeated, will not be discouraged.

A Log on the Track of the fast express means serious trouble ahead of it if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesseheimer, of Lincoln, Nebraska, had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only fifty cents at all druggists.

Suicide at Greenville.

Greenville, Oct. 28.—In a moment of temporary mental derangement today Mrs. Ed. Stansell committed suicide by hanging herself with a small cotton rope which had been affixed to a gas pipe. The tragedy occurred at the home on DeCamp street. The body of Mrs. Stansell was discovered by her little daughter, who called assistance, though aid reached the home too late. Mrs. Stansell was prominent in church work. Before her marriage she was Miss Annie Gilreath, of Cartersville, Ga.

Vice President Sherman Ill.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Alarming reports of the condition of Vice President Sherman resulted today in Dr. Peck issuing a bulletin saying that Mr. Sherman is a very ill man, but last night's reports are greatly exaggerated. He sat up Sunday and walked about the house. His condition is not such as to make him apprehend immediate crisis, said Dr. Peck.

Saves Leg of Boy.

"It seemed that my 14-year-old boy would have to lose his leg on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. F. Howard, Aquone, N. C. "All remedies and doctors' treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles. 25c. at all druggists.

Pope Havird Paroled.

Columbia, Oct. 26.—Pope B. Havird, of Saluda county, serving a five-year term for assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, was today paroled by the Governor during good behavior and upon the further condition that "if he violates any of the criminal laws of this State and be convicted therefor thereafter that he shall be returned to the State penitentiary to serve the remainder of the sentence in the case for which this parole is granted." Havird was convicted at the March term, 1911, Court of Saluda county, and sentenced by Judge Sease to five years on the county chain gang. The particular charge for which Havird was convicted was an effort to drive his mule and buggy over Miss Carrie Mitchell, a young lady teacher, Havird being incensed because she had whipped one of his children.

Self-Defense Plea Avails.

Atlanta, Oct. 26.—After being out since yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of Policeman J. W. Camp, charged with murdering his roommate, Samuel A. Belding, also a policeman, to-day brought in a verdict of not guilty. Camp pleaded self-defense, declaring that his friend became angered; that both reached for their revolvers on a dresser, Camp shooting first.
