SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1912.
"World's Temperance Sunday."
Hosea VII.

Golden Text: "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink, that tarry late into the night till wine inflame them!" Isa. V:11.

1. Verses 1-2—Why cannot a nation nor an individual to be morally healed as long as wrongdoing is continued?

2. If a government is corrupt and the teachers of the nation false to their trust what will be the condition of the people?

3. Would men in authority act corruptly if they actually realized that God took notice of their every wicked way?

4. What effect does continued wrongdoing have upon the judgment of the sinner, upon his own acts?

5. Verse 3—How fares the nation when the King, the President, the Governor, the Judge or others in high authority have been subtly blinded by "graft" or influenced by wine?

6. Verse 4—When lust and anger burn in a man until his whole life is "leavened" what is the influence of such a life and what will be the man's future?

7. Verse 5—What is the difference in the effect of "wine" upon the "king" and upon the plebeian?

8. What is the general effect of drinking wine at banquets and other similar functions?

9. At what stage in wine drinking does an ordinarily decent man join "his hand with the scorners?"

10. Verse 6—After an all night carousal how does a man feel in the morning?

11. When men "lie in wait" to do some devilish thing and drink while they wait what effect does the drink have upon them?

12. Verse 7—When men are "hot" with wine is it ever a burning desire to do good? Give your reasons. (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

THE ALEXANDER REUNION.
A Guest Writes of the Enjoyable Time at Gathering.

The twentieth annual reunion of the family of James D. Alexander was celebrated October 27, 1912, which fell on Sunday this year. The weather was ideal and all present in the best of spirits. The guests began to arrive about 9 o'clock in the morning and departed about 4 p. m. At the usual hour for dinner several of the gentlemen began arranging an improvised table for a regular picnic spread. Then the wives and daughters began emptying well-filled boxes and baskets of all sorts of delicious eatables, and soon the table was bountifully spread and all present partook with appreciative zest.

One honored guest was Mrs. Wm. Gipson, of Georgia, a sister of Jas. D. Alexander. The children of this loyal man present were Miss Elizabeth Alexander, Theodore and W. O. Alexander, Mrs. Louisa Abbott and Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger. Besides these there were 38 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, 20 distant relatives and 60 visitors.

Among the visitors were Ben and Grover Dean, of Avalon, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan and three children, of Pickens; Russell Lawrence, of Central; Ralph Lawrence and Paul Armstrong, of Richland, and several of Mrs. DuBose's children from near Walhalla.

The descendants of this loyal and patriotic family have settled mainly in the Conners section, and the majority of them are faithful and pious Baptists—in fact, they constitute the strongest element of humanity in their domain.

It was like reading an interesting book for the writer to watch the scenes of this noble race vie with each other in jest, courtesy and animated conversation, which went on so smoothly that little cases of love-making were carried on covertly, and local events discussed so absorbingly that the time for disbanding came before any one was aware of the flight of time.

Thus passed a day long to be remembered, with hopes of a pleasant and profitable return next year.

Let us congratulate the family on the thoughtful way in which they have preserved the old home and the

13. When we find men "hot" with rebellion against good judges and good government, to which class do they generally belong, total abstainers or drinkers? Why?

14. In these days how many good, God fearing men use wine as a beverage?

15. Verse 8—When professed Christians consort with the wicked what will be the inevitable result, and why?

16. What kind of a man is he who compares with "a cake not turned," that is burned on one side and half raw on the other?

17. Verses 9-10—What proportion of drinkers are so fuddled that they are unconscious of loss and cannot see danger?

18. When men or women are besotted with pride what hope is there for them?

19. Verses 11-13—What were the results when God's ancient people relied upon other nations for help when God had promised them all the help they needed?

20. Verses 14-16—How is it that when men have brought great suffering upon themselves by sin they still insist upon rebelling against God?

Allendale Girl Killed.

Savannah, Nov. 1.—Miss Ruth Myrick, 16 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Myrick, died this morning when she was run down by a Charleston and Western Carolina passenger train at Allendale.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Murrayville, Ill.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but I was so that I began taking your Compound. I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."—Mrs. CHARLES MOORE, R. R. No. 3, Murrayville, Ill.

SUNSHINE RAYS.

The monument to Miss Marye R. Shelor has been erected in the Richland cemetery. I know the Sunshine-rays will be glad to know of the completion of the monument to our much loved State Leader, and that a fitting memorial has been placed in marble over her grave, telling of her being the first State Leader in South Carolina.

As many of you may not be permitted to visit the grave and see the stone we give a brief description of it:

The pedestal is placed upon a solid concrete foundation; on that a smaller block of marble, and then a shaft of beautiful blue marble, standing 6½ feet high, with cradle around the grave. On the south face is an emblem of the rising sun, with the words: "Jesus is the 'light of the World.'" Engraved just under is

Marye R.,
Daughter of John W. and M. J. Shelor.
Feb. 24, 1876.
May 30, 1911.
I shall be satisfied when I awake with Thy likeness.

The west side has in large letters "SHELOR" on the base.

On the north is the monogram of the International Sunshine Society, and the emblem. Just under this is engraved "In loving remembrance of our first State Sunshine President." Then follows the practical motto of her life's work, to wit:

"Lord, help me to live from day to day

In such a self-forgetful way
That even while I kneel to pray
My prayer may be for others.

"Help me, in all the work I do,
To ever be sincere and true,
And know all I'd do for you
Must needs be done for others."

Not only the warm-hearted Sunshine-rays of South Carolina gave, but others who had only known her through her pen. The president general, Mrs. Alden, sent $5 from International Headquarters; one contribution came from Washington; others from Georgia, Maine, Ohio—even from London, England. One of the nobility sent a contribution from Spain. The D. A. R. sent $5 through their president, Mrs. Riggs, of Clemson. All of these I sincerely thank; and I thank these also, my co-workers, for the help they gave me: Mrs. Rosa Reeder Morgan, South Union; Mrs. Fannie Hutchenson, Center; Mrs. J. W. Abbott, Rocky Knoll; Mrs. Anna Wilson, Clearmont; Mrs. Lou Barron, Fairview; Mrs. Fannie Foster, Rock Springs; Mrs. W. P. Reid, Seneca; Miss Lalla Ballenger, Richland; Miss Rose McDonald, Westminster; Miss Effie Martin, Return; Miss Dollie Knox, Fair Play; Miss Cary Doyle, Bounty Land; the Misses Pearl and Edith Pike, Alice Haggerty and Maud Maroney, Salem; Miss May Snead, Welcome; Miss Hortense Taylor, Wolf Stake.

No doubt some of these, my helpers, in raising the money had some contributions from the children, but failed to give the names. If any children have been left out I am very sorry, and I assure you it was not done intentionally. I may have lost some myself. I have been too sick part of the time to do anything, and I fell and hurt my arm, so it was a long time that I could not write.

I hope every one who has contributed may see the work at Richland church cemetery.

Two little girls were not satisfied to give just what I asked, but each gave fifty cents.

While it has been a work of love, it is not quite finished. We still owe a little less than $10 on the work.

I asked each child in the county to give five cents towards the monument, and promised when it was finished that I would have the names published. The following responded: The first little one to give was Julius William Davis, Atlanta, Ga. Then followed Mary Lucius Foster, Marion C. Hughes, Lucy J. Dendy, Joe A. Shanklin, Sara Davis, Mary Julia Shanklin, William A. Shanklin, Jennie McMahan, Janie Neville Shanklin; Edwin L. Morehead, Robert B. Morehead, Anna R. Morehead, John D. Morehead, Bart M. Morehead, Americus, Ga.; Henly Sullivan, Burt Sullivan, Jule Abbott, Ben Abbott, Jr., Eugene Abbott; Elizabeth M. Lewis, Gordon W. Gresham, Helena, Ga.; Virginia Wright, Caroline Wright, Louise Wright, Eleanor Wright; John Paul Gillison, Chas. B. Gillison, Mary Frances Gillison, Pine Mountain, Ga.; Nellie Ford, Beatrice Ford, Rose Gibson, James Burris, Bertie Harris, Flora Partain, Oliver Partain, Nannie B. McJunkin, Nellie Crawford, Doyle Pryor, Varnie Crawford, Mark Harris, Hugh Neville, Lavonia Loftis, Wyatt Tomkins, Lou Cole, Leland Cole, Aden Cole, Grace Sullivan, Clyde Allen, Georgia B. Thomas, Bertie Thomas,

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

Fite Pays His Fine.

(Atlanta Journal, Oct. 29.)
Judge A. W. Fite, of the Cherokee Circuit, has paid the fine of $500 assessed against him by the Court of Appeals for contempt of that tribunal, but remarks made by him Monday afternoon indicate that his attitude toward the Court of Appeals is unchanged.

The fine was paid to Clerk Logan Bleckley by Judge Geo. F. Gober, one of Judge Fite's attorneys in the contempt proceedings. He was accompanied to the clerk's office in the Capitol by Dr. R. B. Harris, of Cartersville, a close personal friend of Judge Fite, who raised the $500 for the fine by circulating subscriptions in the various counties of Cherokee Circuit.

Five crisp $100 bills were handed over to Clerk Bleckley, who receipted for them and immediately turned the money into the State Treasury.

Only a woman can understand the paralyzing effect of disorders in the female organism—the misery of it and its depressing influence on the mind. Many women who formerly suffered from these disorders owe their present health to Dr. Simmonds' Squaw Vine Wine. It exercises a powerful restorative influence on the female generative system, builds up a strong body, restores healthy regularity and promotes cheerfulness and a clear, rosy complexion. Price $1 per bottle. Sold at Bell's drug store, Walhalla.

A Card from Mr. Shelor.

Editor Keowee Courier. Please allow us the use of your columns to thank the many friends of our beloved daughter for the handsome monument erected in Richland cemetery to her memory.

We are grateful to Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin and her able corps of noble women as assistants, mentioned above, and to the sympathizing children, who have given so lovingly to the cause, and to C. F. Adams, of Seneca, who executed the design of the monument in marble so faithfully, and to all others who took part in the work, for the rays of Sunshine expressed in their gift, and the comforting assurance of their sympathy in our sad affliction. May the rays of light from our Heavenly Father fill the soul of each contributor with the Sunshine of everlasting life.

Respectfully,
John W. Shelor and Family.

Robert Anderson, alias "Jack the Killer," who is said to have killed two white women and a white man in Tampa, Fla., a month ago, and who stated in letters to the police of that city that he had killed three others, was arrested in Jacksonville last Thursday. He made no attempt at murdering the officers when he was arrested.
