SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LINSOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS BIBLE QUESTION CLUB.

The object of the International Press Bible Question Club is to promote, by questions, through the press, thought and investigation on the teaching of Scripture in connection with the International Sunday School Lessons.

(Copyright 1910 by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

Subject: "Joseph Meets His Brethren." Gen. xlii.

Golden Text: "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." Gal. vi: 7.

- Verses 1-6—How many of our troubles are there that we cannot end or mitigate by doing something?
- Which is the worst calamity, to be paralyzed with fear by a great trouble, so that we only sit down and do nothing, or the trouble itself? Why?
- Suppose Joseph's brethren had not sold him a slave into Egypt, how would God have protected that country against this great famine?
- Was it better or worse for the world or the cause of God, or the men themselves, that Jacob's sons committed the cruel sin of selling their brother? Why?
- If Joseph had not been reigning in Egypt, but had remained in his own country, what would he probably have been doing there?
- Verses 7-14—Why would you say, or not, that Joseph treated his brethren when he met them just as God wanted him?
- Would you say, or not, and why, that it is ever right to dissemble or act a lie or to say what you do not mean?
- Why did Joseph act and speak roughly to his brethren?
- What good results did Joseph's method of treating his brethren produce?
- How were Joseph's dreams fulfilled?
- Verses 15-20—Is Joseph's expression, "By the life of Pharaoh," an oath, or, at any rate, is it such language that a Christian should imitate?
- If Jesus had been in the place of Joseph do you think he would have compelled these men to bring their youngest brother, Benjamin? Why? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)
- Why does God so frequently "prove" or test, his best beloved children with troubles before he gives them some signal blessing?

14. Verses 21-24—How would this event have the tendency to remind them of their cruelty in selling their brother Joseph into Egypt?

15. When sorrow for our sins comes only as a result of the dire trouble brought on us by our sins, may it, or not, be true repentance? Why?

16. What is the connection between conscience and memory as illustrated by this story?

17. What was Reuben's pleasant memory in connection with the selling of Joseph?

18. When is it not right to follow the promptings of a tender heart?

19. Verses 25-28—Would the fact that they found the money they paid for the corn in the mouth of each sack have troubled them so much but for their guilty consciences? Why?

20. Why is it that the average sinner thinks of God when he is in great trouble?

21. Verses 29-38—How did their report of their experiences in Egypt affect their father, Jacob, and what do you think of his decision not to let Benjamin go?

Burned to Death Lighting Fire.

Niles, Ohio, May 7.—Mrs. John Fleming, aged 52 years, was burned to death to-day when she attempted to light a quick fire with coal oil. Her aged mother, Mrs. Shira, attacked by heart disease, died a few minutes later.

2,000,000-GALLON OIL FIRE.

Huge Oil Tank Struck by Lightning, Causing Fierce Blaze.

New Orleans, May 7.—Several hundred panic-stricken school children fled from the Asheville School building to-day in a blinding rain storm, when lightning struck an oil tank belonging to the Texas Oil Co. and set fire to the more than 2,000,000 gallons of crude oil which it contained.

There was no explosion, but the flames burst forth in an instant and enormous volumes of black smoke ascended to a height of more than a thousand feet. A half dozen other large oil tanks nearby were endangered by the heat. The fire started at 10.45 and at 3 o'clock was burning fiercely. A levee was hurriedly constructed around the burning tank to prevent the fire spreading in event the tank should collapse.

Mexican Exiles Wed.

New York, May 3.—An interesting romance culminated yesterday afternoon when Senorita Mercedes Madero, the beautiful and spirited sister of the slain President of Mexico, became a bride of Senor Antonia Canalizo in the Church of la Esperanza at Broadway and 156th street at 6 o'clock. There were only a few friends at the ceremony, but many relatives of the bride and groom, most of them exiles from Mexico, filled the church.

Senor Canalizo, who is very wealthy, was a member of the Mexican Congress from Lower California when Madero was President. He helped put Madero in power. He and Senorita Madero were to have been married in the Mexican capital on April 12th. The revolution upset their plans. Senorita Madero, with others of her family, escaped to Havana and then to New York. Later they were joined by Senor Canalizo. The bride was given away by her father, Francisco Madero. There were no attendants. All other members of the family were in mourning. The honeymoon will be an extended trip around the world.

Carolina 1912 Cotton Short.

Washington, May 8.—The census bureau has issued the report of the cotton ginned for 1912 in South Carolina. It shows that the crop for last year fell below that of 1911 by 468,350 bales, and was 12,830 bales more than the crop of 1910. The total number of bales for the three years is as follows:

1912	1,223,798
1911	1,692,146
1910	1,210,968

The crop for 1911 was the bumper crop in the history of cotton growing in South Carolina. The census report shows that Orangeburg county lead with 60,699 bales and Georgetown tailed the counties with a production of 3,157. Richland county produced 21,172 bales as compared with a production of 12,613 bales in 1911 and 15,249 in 1912.

Oconee County produced in 1910 15,196 bales; in 1911, 22,824 bales; 1912, 15,516.

Ate With Negrass—Lost His Place.

Texarkana, Ark., May 9.—Because he ate a meal with a negress servant in his home, D. A. Stephenson, principal of the Central High School, on the Texas side of this city, was today summarily discharged. Formal charges were filed with the board of directors of the high school.

Mr. Stephenson was told that if he did not appear before the board and plead in extenuation that there is no law or regulation against a white teacher eating a meal with a negro, he could consider himself discharged. He did not appear before the board. Stephenson at noon to-day left Texarkana for his home at Hickory, Mo. He came here last September and had recently been re-elected principal of the school for another year.

A Fire Alarm for Wedding.

Chicago, May 8.—Truckman Wm. J. Warner turned in a fire alarm last night to enable members of truck company No. 19 to attend his wedding. His companions could not all be relieved of duty to be his guests, so at 10 o'clock, when everything was ready for the ceremony, Warner pulled a box.

When the apparatus arrived Warner explained that the "fire" was in his heart and ushered the firemen into the home of the bride, rubber boots, mackinaws, helmets and all. A half hour later they were back at the fire station.

Warner met his bride, who was Miss Sarah Miller, when he rescued her from a fire several months ago.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Callahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.

TROOP TRAIN DYNAMITED.

250 Huerta Soldiers Killed—Mines Planted by Insurgents.

Nogales, Ariz., May 8.—A troop train bearing 250 Federal soldiers was destroyed with dynamite and most of the passengers killed, according to an official report received here to-day. The disaster occurred near the Sonora-Sinaloa State line.

The Federals were on the way from San Blas to Alamos when intercepted by the insurgents, who had planted mines along the tracks.

Nearly 2,000 uncivilized Yaqua Indians have joined the State troops, said the report.

United States army officers here to-day heard nothing of the reported capture of the war aeroplane below Tucson and continued their search for the missing machine.

Aeroplane Corps for Rebels.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 8.—Eight men, including several American aviation enthusiasts, are involved in the alleged plan to furnish Mexican rebels an aeroplane corps, which resulted yesterday in the arrest of Dieder Mazon and his machinist, Thos. Dean, at Tucson, on charges of violation of the neutrality laws. The rebel agents, including several Americans, it was stated, had offered $55,000 for the services of an aviator for three months in Sonora.

Object to Word "Catholic."

Philadelphia, May 8.—The move to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church by inserting the word "Catholic" was to-day voted down at the 129th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Diocese. Delegates to the general convention of the church in New York next October were instructed to oppose the change. The vote was: Ayes (clericals) 130, laymen 93; nays (clericals) 53, laymen 27.

Earnest consideration of a resolution making it necessary for persons desiring to be married to produce a health certificate in the same manner as it is now required at the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul in Chicago was urged in the report of the commission of social service of the diocese.

To Increase Salary of Ministers.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 7.—At to-day's session of the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey a canon was adopted providing that married ministers in new parishes should be paid an annual salary of $1,200, and unmarried ones $1,000 a year. It is said the action of the New Jersey Diocese will become an issue throughout the church, which will have for its aim "higher pay."

Her Picture on "Filthy Lucre."

New York, May 3.—Miss Edna James, of San Antonio, Texas, an art student here, is receiving congratulations of her friends as she is the girl whose portrait is likely to become more popular than any other. It is safe to say her picture will be in every American home, as it will appear exclusively on Uncle Sam's paper money. It was recently selected by a committee of Congress as the central feminine figure of a decorative group on the reverse side of the new currency.

Must Pay Teacher $40,000.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 5.—The Court of Appeals here to-day upheld the decision of the Common Pleas Court that Jerome Probst, an attorney of Detroit, must pay $40,000 to Miss Alma Broderick, former Cleveland and Chicago teacher, for breach of promise. The decision sets aside a contract whereby Probst turned over securities to the girl which she alleges to be worthless.
