WALHALLA, S. C.:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1913.

A REAL ILLUSTRATION.

Our people were given last Sunday a real illustration of the great need of a large and commodious auditorium. It is a mighty bad advertisement for a town when people from the outlying communities come in on special occasions and find themselves crowded out and unable to hear or see that for which they came. Many of our citizens of the town were also disappointed Sunday, but that is not nearly so bad as the disappointing of our friends and neighbors from out of town.

We have not heard recently anything with reference to the school auditorium, but if any demonstration was needed to bring home to us the absolute necessity of adequate accommodations for audiences on special occasions, that demonstration was given last Sunday.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION.

In a conversation Monday with a gentleman who does not live in the town of Walhalla, but who had occasion to be in town last Sunday, and walked out about the outskirts, our attention was called to the horrible condition of the public slaughter pen, which is located almost on the town line. The conditions he describes are certainly deplorable, and if but a tenth as bad as he described, they are entirely deserving of the tribute he paid them: "A menace to health and a disgrace." We mention here this matter in order that those in authority may have public knowledge of a condition needing attention.

And it may not be amiss to call attention also, in advance of bad conditions, to another source of menace—the emptying place of the county sewerage. We do not know what conditions are there now, but in times past they have become extremely obnoxious to residents near and far. It will be well to prevent, by precautionary measures, this place again becoming a breeding place for mosquitoes and an incubator for germs. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

THE BOY SCOUTS.

The organization of the Boy Scouts in Walhalla has been heralded with no small degree of pleasure on the part of citizens generally, and it is to be hoped that the organization will grow and prosper, fulfilling the mission for which it was intended. We find these pertinent obligations along the things to which Boy Scouts subscribe when they join the organization:

"I will do my duty to God and the King. . . I will do my best to help others, wherever it costs me. . . I know the Scout law and will obey it. . . A Scout's honor is to be trusted. . . The Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others. . . A Scout is courteous. . . A Scout is thrifty."

And yet we understand that the name "Scout" does not mean all that it should here in Walhalla. Take, for instance, an occurrence recently at the open house, when there was no small demonstration of bad order. "Is there no way to stop this?" was asked. "No," was the reply, "they are Boy Scouts."

What do you think of that, boys? The organization of Boy Scouts stands for all that is good, and noble, and true. To be a Boy Scout tells to the world that the owner of the title is a gentlemanly boy—a boy to whom anything mean, or little, or ungentlemanly, is an offense.

Are you a Boy Scout, young friend? Keep your obligation ever before you, and never let it be said, in derision, "He is a Boy Scout; you can do nothing."

The News and Courier's "Panama Canal Edition" issued last Friday was a hummer—its ninety-two pages bristling from beginning to end with good, live matter on timely subjects pertaining to the commercial worth and growth of Charleston and the State at large. It was a comprehensive resume of what our State and chief city are now and hope to become in the near future. The News and Courier may well congratulate itself upon having rendered its home city and the State a real service in putting important facts so attractively before the outside world.

LETTER SENT TO VETERANS.

Arrangements for Entertainment at Gettysburg Reunion Set Forth.

Major Gen. B. H. Teague, commanding the South Carolina Division, U. C. V., has addressed to the veterans a letter setting forth officially the arrangements that have been made to care for them during the Gettysburg reunion, July 1-4, next. The letter follows:

To the Confederate Veterans of South Carolina: The State of Pennsylvania has extended an invitation to all Confederate veterans to unite with the Grand Army of the Republic in the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, July 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this year, on the battlefield.

The Legislature of our State at its last session appropriated $1,000 to pay for the transportation of such Confederate veterans residing in South Carolina as participated in that battle. The Gettysburg survivors only are to share in this fund for their transportation, and those who purpose attending the celebration must furnish a certificate, attested by a Confederate veteran, sworn to before the Clerk of Court of the county in which they reside, and forward the same to the commanding officer, Gen. B. H. Teague, Aiken, S. C., on or before the 15th day of June.

All veterans who purpose attending the celebration, who were not participants in the battle of Gettysburg, will have to pay their own railroad fare. Free entertainment will be furnished to all veterans in a large camp to be established for this purpose.

Remember, all Confederate veterans who were not in the battle of Gettysburg, who attend this celebration, must obtain, before leaving home, a certificate signed by the commander or adjutant of a camp of United Confederate veterans. This certificate will be presented at Gettysburg to secure entertainment.

While any veteran wearing civilian's clothes will be entertained, it is desired that all who can will wear the gray uniform.

B. H. Teague, Major General, S. C. Division, U. C. V. Official: S. E. Welch, Attorney General, Chief of Staff.

Camp Norton.

In connection with the above notice with reference to the July reunion at Gettysburg, it will prove of interest to many to read a short sketch prepared by J. W. Holleman a year ago regarding the organization of "Camp Norton." The article follows:

Walhalla, April 7, 1912. On the 7th day of April, 1902, some Confederate Veterans met in the Court House at this place and organized a "Camp of Confederate Veterans," and as this is the tenth anniversary of said organization, I have concluded to give an account of the same, and it may be interesting to some of those old veterans who still live, and to the descendants of some who have crossed over and answered "Roll Call" on the other side of the river.

The organization was made as follows: Col. Robt. A. Thompson, Commander, Colonel 2d Rifles. Major Stiles P. Dendy, 1st Lieutenant Commander, Major 2d Rifles. Sergt. R. Y. H. Lowery, 2d Lieutenant Commander, Co. C, Orr's Rifles.

WILLIAM BIBB SERIOUSLY ILL.

Number of Citizens Go to Chattanooga—Visitors and Others.

Westminster, May 27.—Special: Commencement is over, the teachers have departed to their several homes and the children are enjoying vacation.

We are sorry to learn that Roland T. Duke is confined at his home with typhoid fever. Editor Gossett, of the Tribune, was in Greenville Friday and Saturday.

Wm. Bibb was taken seriously ill Saturday afternoon at the home of his nephew, T. C. Bibb. They immediately wired his daughter, Mrs. S. Y. Jameson, of Macon, Ga., and his son, J. Hugh Bibb, of Atlanta. Both arrived Saturday night and are at the bedside of their father. We hope to hear of an improvement in his condition soon.

Messrs. Taylor and Jayroe, Mrs. Taylor and a number of the pupils of the Westminster High School went picnicking on Chauga last week. They report an enjoyable day.

Lem Martin was quite sick last week. We are glad to hear he is improving. Dr. Otis Whitten, of Atlanta, is here for a few days. He will visit his family at Pendleton before returning to his work.

Miss Marie Hall is at home for vacation. She has been at Chocoma for the past session. Mrs. I. S. Pitts and children are spending this week in Greenville with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Mason.

Mrs. Lee G. Leathers, of Atlanta, is visiting relatives here. The following left this morning for Chattanooga to attend the old soldiers' reunion: W. H. Raggsdale, R. B. Honea, Will Dillard, Edgar Meares, Oscar Pitts, H. B. Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. A. Zimmerman.

Mrs. Vada Maret and A. R. N. Folger, of Seneca, were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Reeder. Rev. J. J. Payser performed the ceremony. The bride and groom left on No. 40 Monday afternoon for their home in Seneca.

Wm. B. Terrell, of Paconet, is visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Terrell. Owen Cannon, of Tiger, Ga., was here last week to see his daughter, Mrs. Hollenfeld, who is very sick. He is an uncle of our townsman, F. W. Cannon.

Keith Bearden returned Friday from the Greenville exposition. Jones Yow, of Avalon, Ga., was here last week on business. I. S. Pitts was in Greenville at a Masonic meeting last week. Miss Christine Mulkey entertained a few of her friends Friday evening.

Another social feature of the week was the entertainment of the B. Y. P. U. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Mulkey last Thursday evening.

Death of Good Woman—Locals. Little River, May 26.—Special: This section had a good rain on May 23d. Cotton is coming up fine now and the bud worms are still topping corn.

Mrs. E. A. Perry has been very sick the past week. Her condition is better at this time, to the delight of her many friends. Mrs. I. S. Alexander has been on the sick list the past week. Her many friends hope for her early restoration to health.

Mrs. J. S. Holden is slowly improving at this time from her serious sickness. Her many friends will be delighted to hear that, with assistance, she is able to go to the table for her meals.

Miss Ida Holden, who has typhoid fever, is doing fairly well, but still confined to her room. Mrs. Andrew Cash, whom we recently reported as seriously sick, passed away on Sunday, May 18th, at 9 a. m. She was a bride of some 6 or 8 months and a very beautiful woman. She leaves a heartbroken husband and several relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their time of sorrow. The funeral took place at Mount Carmel on Monday following her death. Earle Tow, a highly respected citizen, some 50 years of age, died at his home in the Salem section and was buried at Salem cemetery May 25th at 3 p. m., after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. Wado Nicholson. Friends extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

A tent meeting has been in progress in Salem for the past week, conducted by Rev. Davis and others, and will probably continue through the coming week. The May meeting at Salem has passed off again. No one seriously hurt—a bond or two to make to the town authorities was all.

Terrell, M. A., Co. F, Orr's Rifles. Todd, Thos. C., Co. E, Orr's Rifles. Taylor, Franklin, Co. B, 2d Rifles. White, N. L., Co. K, 12th Regt. Wilson, M. H., Co. C, Orr's Rifles. Miss Sallie Norton was elected sponsor of the Camp.
