The Morgan Reunion.

A very pleasant occasion was the gathering of friends and relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Huskamp, near West Union, on the 20th instant, to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, wife of the late Mattison Morgan. Mrs. Morgan is a Christian mother whom the children, friends and relatives delight to honor and to show their appreciation of her worth.

Mrs. Huskamp, daughter of Mrs. Morgan, invited the children and a large circle of friends and relatives to take part in the celebration. In response to this invitation 125 persons assembled at this hospitable home. The day passed off very pleasantly in conversation, singing and a splendid dinner spread on a long table under the shade of trees in the yard. This was fairly laden with good things to eat that satisfied the appetites of all, and much was left.

Mrs. Morgan is the mother of 9 children, 59 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Hunnicutt, who were born and reared in Anderson county, and in early life moved to Oconee and settled near New Hope church, and they were active in church work during their long lives. Mrs. Morgan is a sister of our esteemed citizen, J. M. Hunnicutt, who faithfully served as county commissioner for a number of years. She is a devoted Christian woman and is of a family that is religiously inclined. She is anxiously looking forward to the time when she will be reunited with loved ones who have gone before.

We trust this good woman will celebrate many more birthdays, and that the remainder of her stay here will be bright, peaceful and happy.

SENATOR LUKE LEE'S WIFE

Is Being Treated With the Von Ruck Anti-Tuberculosis Serum.

Washington, May 29.—Interest of the Senators in the Von Ruck anti-tuberculosis serum which cured Senator Kern, Democratic leader of the House, increased to-day after it became known that the wife of Senator Luke Lee, of Tennessee, is now receiving the same treatment at Dr. Von Ruck's sanitarium at Asheville.

Mrs. Lee has been at several sanitariums, and only about two weeks ago was removed to Dr. Von Ruck's, and although said to be in an advanced stage of the disease, she is reported to have been benefited by Dr. Ruck's treatment. All the Senators are especially interested in her recovery, and the resolution of Senator Overman, of North Carolina, which passed the House by a unanimous vote on Monday, has already borne fruit.

Surgeon General Rupert Blue, in charge of the public health bureau, and who was directed by the Senate to make a thorough investigation of the serum, said to-day that no time would be lost in obtaining cultures and distributing them among government hospitals for tests. Dr. Von Ruck has already placed his disposal of the medical school, and experiments are now being made there.

Senator Kern to-day talked freely of his experience at the sanitarium. The Democratic leader spoke of many others who were cured by Dr. Von Ruck about the same time as himself. Among them were Mrs. J. M. Trotter, wife of a wholesale grocer of Chattanooga, Tenn., and prominent in society there, and Mrs. Frier, of Shelbyville, Tenn.

"There were many others there at the time and I have since met and corresponded with a number who said they had not experienced any recurrent attack," said the Senator.

THE K. OF P. GRAND LODGE.

Next Grand Lodge Session will be Held at Chester—300 in Aiken.

Aiken, May 28.—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of the Domain of South Carolina, in annual State Convention here yesterday and today, came to a close this morning a few minutes before noon. The next session will be held at Chester.

The business meeting this morning was given over to routine work, and the election of Grand Lodge officers for the ensuing twelve months. Dr. Geo. W. Dick, of Sumter, was elected Grand Chancellor; H. K. Osborne, Spartanburg, Grand Vice Chancellor; Herbert E. Gyles, of Aiken, Grand Prelate; C. D. Browne, Abbeville, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal; Wilson G. Harvey, Charleston, Grand Master of Exchequer; Dr. J. M. Oliver, Orangeburg, Grand Master at Arms; E. R. Cox, Darlington, Grand Inner Guard; George Strohm, Grand Outer Guard; Dr. E. A. Boozer, Columbia, Grand Tribune. Hon. Mendel L. Smith, of Camden, was elected Supreme Representative for four years, and M. R. Rivers, of Charles, was chosen as his alternate.

The Grand Lodge by vote placed itself on record as being opposed to a change in the minimum age limit for entrance into the order from 21 to 18 years. It made its usual appropriations, running between $80 and $100 to the Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopal orphanages of this State.

The success marking the Grand Lodge held here four years ago characterized the one just brought to a close. It has been conservatively estimated that as many as three hundred delegates from all parts of the State attended one or more of its sessions, and the Knights have been very profuse in their praises of the charms and hospitality of Aiken.

A special car from Augusta last night brought over more than 100 Knights who joined their South Carolina brethren in the enjoyment of the theatrical entertainment in the theatre last evening, Paul Gilmore in "The Hayoc." This was followed by an open air reception in Geddings Park, where myriad electric lights cast a brilliant glow. Hundreds upon hundreds were present, moving here and there and greeting old friends.

Hero's Body Reinterred.

Savannah, Ga., May 30.—The body of "Light Horse Harry" Lee, of Revolutionary fame, father of Robert E. Lee, was disinterred yesterday at Dungeness, Cumberland Island, where the remains had been buried for almost a hundred years, and now lies beside that of his distinguished son.

A delegation from the Virginia Legislature came to Cumberland Island after the remains, an appropriation for this purpose having been made by the Virginia Legislature.

The casket was taken to Fernandina aboard a private yacht and there began its journey to Virginia. It was buried in Lee Chapel, on the Washington and Lee University campus, in Lexington, Va., to-day.

"Get Out, or Learn to Smoke."

Washington, May 29.—Senator B. R. Tillman, who proposes to abolish smoking in executive sessions of the Senate to protect his own health, sent a letter to-day to each member of the Cabinet asking them to prohibit smoking in their respective departments to protect women employees.

Accompanying the letters were copies of a letter the Senator had received from a woman government employee, who protested against smoking in government offices, and said: "Whenever pro'est is made by any of the women we are told to 'get out or learn to smoke yourselves, and then smoking will not trouble you.'"

Had Murdered Man's Pistol.

Chester, May 28.—Monk Stevenson, colored, was lodged in jail this morning on the charge of having had in his possession recently a pistol belonging to John Q. Lewis, the Confederate veteran who was killed near Cornwall on the night of April 24.

Stevenson claims that he purchased the weapon from Bob Davis, a brother of Dave Davis, who is now under arrest with his wife, Anna Davis, on the charge of having killed the aged soldier. It is believed that there was a conspiracy against Mr. Lewis and there will probably be several arrests before the entire matter will finally come to light.

Continued ill health is assigned as the cause of the act.

Must Have White Radishes.

Washington dispatch: Secretary Bryan is not too busy with affairs of State to do the marketing for the Bryan household. Almost any morning the Secretary of State may be seen in a local market place with a large basket swinging from his left arm. Mr. Bryan seems to enjoy marketing. He elbows the crowd and apparently does not mind it any more than he did when making his political campaign tours.

His fondness for the white radish is now generally known among market men, and they try to keep on hand the kind he likes. The other

WAS "FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH."

Pink Wright, Colored, Was True Friend and Faithful Servant.

(By Mrs. J. L. Shanklin.)

About 10 o'clock Monday—May 19, 1913, the spirit of Pink Wright, colored, winged its way to the God who gave him life and whom he tried to serve while in the flesh. Pink was over 70 years old and was one of the old ante-bellum negroes who remained faithful to their white friends to the last. As a slave he was owned by Mrs. W. K. Livingston and lived on her large estate on Seneca river until the beginning of the war. He was body servant during the war to Whit Kilpatrick, brother of Mrs. Livingston, and when Mr. Kilpatrick died, Pink, still loyal to his charge, brought the remains home to "Old Miss," and was a staunch friend to the Livingston family as long as he lived.

Since the abolition of slavery he had been a most faithful servant in the family of the late Carl J. L. Shanklin, whom he tenderly nursed during the helplessness of the last 14 years of his life. He was ever at the post of duty. If a physician had to be summoned, no matter how bitter and disagreeable the weather, Pink was ready to go. If the snow was too deep for a horse to travel he would cheerfully go afoot. The writer of this sketch feels that in his death she, her children and grandchildren have not only lost a faithful servant, but a true friend. He willingly offered his services to the sick, white or colored. In winter he would say, "I'll see if dey need any wood cut," and in summer, "I can draw fresh water in de night, or go fo' de doctor."

Pink had been in feeble health for more than a year, during which time he was carefully attended by his white friends, who freely provided everything necessary for his comfort. There were several of his white friends with him when the end came. The pastor of Concess church, Rev. L. D. Mitchell, made a recent visit to him, prayed with him and read to him comforting portions of the Scripture, and to him Pink gave evidence of his faith in Christ as his Saviour.

Though Pink's skin was black, his heart was white. Though the Ethiopian can never change his color, the Lord pondereth the hearts of men and judgeth in equity and righteousness, and we believe that Pink's soul is at rest. "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."
Richland, May 27, 1913.

day, however, much to the Secretary's disappointment, his favorite vegetable was not to be had. "You know I must have white radishes," said the Secretary to a woman shopping beside him. "No other kind will do."
