NEWS FROM RICHLAND.

The Burial of Mrs. Simpson—Important Church Meeting.

T. B. Wyly returned to his work in Columbia last Tuesday after a week's visit to homefolks here. He was accompanied by his wife, who will spend some time with him.

Miss McClanahan, of Westminster, spent several days last week at the home of Hon. E. E. Verner.

Miss Fredda Hughs is in Atlanta, where she is receiving dental treatment.

Mrs. J. J. Lewis and daughter, Miss Ella, of Pickens, are visiting at the home of W. H. Hughs.

Stokes Wyly returned to his work last week after a short vacation at home. He holds a position in the post office at Georgetown.

We are glad to report that Master Marion Hughs is growing stronger. He has been confined to his bed for nearly a month, and we hope he will soon be able to be up again.

Henry Hughs made a visit to Greenville Tuesday.

Miss Annie McMahan starts to visiting rural schools to-day for the purpose of helping them in any way they may need it.

A protracted meeting will begin at Rock Springs Methodist church next Sunday evening at 4 o'clock if everything is favorable.

A meeting of the officers (elders and deacons) of Richland church was called to be held at the church next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to transact business pertaining to the welfare of the church.

We are very sorry to note the death of Mrs. Simpson, which occurred at her home in Anderson Monday night of last week. She was more popularly known here as Miss Emily Dendy, youngest daughter of Thomas and Lucy Dendy. The funeral services were held at her home in Anderson Tuesday evening and her body was brought here Wednesday on No. 39, accompanied by her husband and several of his and her relatives. The corpse was carried to Richland Presbyterian cemetery and buried at 3 o'clock. Among those who were present at her burial, besides a large number of friends and relatives of this community, were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dendy, of Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. Maret, of Lavonia; Plumer Dendy, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Terrell, Mrs. Luther England and H. C. Terrell, of Westminster; Mr. Simpson, his mother, two brothers and other kin of Anderson. The floral offerings at the grave were beautiful and numerous.

Jefferson to Supplant McKinley.

Washington, July 19.—The McKinley post card is doomed to disappear. The features of the martyred President are to be removed to give way to those of Thomas Jefferson. Postmaster General Burleson has written to Senator Burton, of Ohio, that his decision in this regard is irrevocable. The Senator had protested personally against the change and had forwarded to Mr. Burleson a protest from the McKinley Club of Canton, Ohio. The Postmaster General replied that the people's endorsement of the author of the Declaration of Independence in the last election justified the change. He insisted that no slight to the memory of McKinley was meant.

LEE G. HOLLEMAN.

Walhalla Boy Making Good in Public and Private Affairs.

(The State, July 20.)
Because the affairs of the city of Anderson have been wonderfully successful and because more permanent improvements have been made during his administration than during the several years preceding, Lee G. Holleman, mayor of Anderson, has won the title of "progressive mayor." Mayor Holleman is a native of Walhalla, Oconee county, and is 41 years of age. After securing a common school education in Walhalla, Mr. Holleman moved to Townville, Anderson county, where he remained only a short time. He returned to his native county, stopping at Seneca. After a short residence in that town he came to Anderson and was employed by Bleckley & Co., general merchants. When the People's Bank of Anderson was organized in 1900 Mr. Holleman secured a position as book-keeper. In a short time he was made assistant cashier. In 1906, when the office of bank examiner of South Carolina was created, Mr. Holleman was appointed to that position for a term of four years. He only served two years, however, when he resigned and came back to Anderson to become president of the People's Bank, which had been reorganized, the capital stock having been doubled. His bank now has the largest capital stock in Anderson county. In August, 1912, Mr. Holleman was sworn in as mayor of Anderson, having defeated three other candidates. Supported by a progressive board of aldermen and himself being exceedingly progressive, Mayor Holleman has accomplished wonders for his city. During the short tenure of his office, about ten months, the city has spent approximately $45,000 out of the current funds for improvements of a permanent nature. Mr. Holleman holds the position of secretary and treasurer of the South Carolina Bankers' Association, to which position he was elected several years ago. He is also vice president of the Anderson Guaranty and Trust Company of this city.

Storm Followed Abnormal Heat.

(Columbia State, July 20.)
Yesterday brought to Columbia and vicinity after a night abnormally productive of discomfort—the highest temperature reading of the year so far, and the highest of record in 27 years for July 19, with two violent thunderstorms, accompanied by heavy rain and some hail, which wrought damage, inconsiderable in particular cases, but rather extensive in the aggregate; not to speak of inflicting acute annoyance of various kinds on nearly the whole population.

Eau Claire, the suburban section adjoining Columbia on the north, suffered most in actual physical damage. There two dwellings were struck by lightning, workmen who had sought asylum in a tool house were stunned and blistered and two stores were flooded. Barns and outhouses were demolished, blinds wrested from dwellings and many trees broken or uprooted.

In the city damage was general, but no instances of any magnitude were reported. There was hardly a household, however, which did not suffer inconvenience of some sort as the result of the disturbance.

Free Speech Woman Arrested.

Portland, Ore., July 19.—Having failed to live up to her agreement to leave the State by midnight last night, Dr. Marie E. Ecu, the woman physician who led a "free speech" demonstration by feminine Industrial Workers of the World Thursday night, which ended in her arrest, was formally charged to-day with inciting riot, carrying weapons, and assault with a deadly weapon. She was refused bail. Dr. Ecu threatened to stab officers with hat pins dipped in poison if they interfered with her. An officer was scratched by a pin in arresting her. The injury gives no evidence of poison.

Belton Merchant Dies.

Anderson, S. C., July 18.—John C. Kay, a well-known merchant of Belton, died here to-day at the hospital following an accident yesterday. An operation was performed here, but was without success. He was 45 years old, prominently connected and is survived by his wife and four children.

ROBERT T. TODD DEAD.

Former Oconee Boy Loses Life by Accident in Texas.

Last Wednesday the sad news of the untimely death of Robert T. Todd reached Walhalla. He and his wife and infant daughter were visiting a cousin near Elgin, Texas, and on the afternoon of July 13th he and his cousin were riding horseback, when Mr. Todd's horse became unmanageable and he was thrown against a tree and instantly killed, his neck being broken by the fall.

Robert Terrell Todd was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd, of Walhalla, and was born November 29, 1887, in the Bethel section, near here. At an early age he united with the Bethel Presbyterian church, and was a consistent member of this church until a few months ago, when, at his own request, he was dismissed to the Presbyterian church of San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Todd's life was early consecrated, and he exemplified to a marked degree in his daily walk the religion he professed. Honest, sincere and true, he was known by all his acquaintances as a humble Christian.

In January, 1907, he enlisted in the United States Marine Service and was assigned to the battleship Vermont. He accompanied the Atlantic fleet on its cruise around the world. In January, 1911, his enlistment expired and he received an honorable discharge. While in the service he received several promotions.

About September, 1911, he moved to Texas, and on April 17, 1912, was happily married to Miss Launa R. Ferrell, of Round Rock, Texas. One daughter blessed this union, born March 19, 1913.

Mr. Todd died July 13, 1913, and was buried July 14th at Round Rock, Tex. Mr. Davis, of the Presbyterian church, conducted the funeral. The hearts of our people go out in sympathy to the bereaved family. Mr. Todd is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd, four sisters and two brothers, all of Walhalla.

We regret the removal of these good people from our midst, but wish them much success in all of their undertakings.

Conditions are good for the buildings of dwellings. Some of our people have already remodeled and painted their houses, adding much to their appearance. Material is being laid down at J. L. Moser's place for the erection of a new dwelling house.

A series of meetings will be begun on Thursday night, July 24th, at Poplar Springs Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. Z. I. Henderson, will be assisted in the services by Rev. Mr. Hammett, of Greenville. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

FOUR GOOD CITIZENS GONE.

Death Visits Westminster and Vicinity, Taking Old and Young.

(Tugaloo Tribune.)

The death of James H. Ligon, which occurred at his home on Main street at about 6 o'clock on the evening of July 15th, brought great sorrow to many. Mr. Ligon had been ill a little more than two weeks, having suffered a bilious attack on Sunday, June 29. He was in bed only a few days and was thought to have been on a fair road to recovery. But four or five days before his death he was again taken seriously sick, and though medical aid was promptly summoned and careful attention given him, it was soon realized that his case was hopeless.

Mr. Ligon was 70 years old, having been born in 1843. He was a native of Anderson county and was brought up in and near the town of Williamston. He enlisted in the Civil War from Anderson county as a member of Company B, Hampton Legion. He served in the Carolinas and the Virginias. He was courier to Gen. Gary's Brigade in some of the engagements.

Returning home at the close of the war Mr. Ligon was married to Miss Anna Duckworth, of Williamston. They resided in Mississippi for a few years. Coming to Westminster in the seventies, when the town was just started, he lent a hand in the upbuilding of it. The section where he built his home was then in woods.

Mr. Ligon was a man of honor and integrity, and was true and loyal to his friends. He is survived by his widow to whom the sympathy of a wide circle of friends is extended in her hour of sorrow and affliction. The deceased leaves one brother, B. W. Ligon, of Atlanta.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Brooks, assisted by Rev. R. L. Duffie, at the late residence of the deceased Wednesday afternoon at 4.30. Interment was made in Eastview cemetery at the conclusion of the funeral.

Mrs. Lula Davis.

Mrs. Lula Simpson Davis, widow of the late Wayman Davis, died at the home of her father-in-law, W. T. Davis, of the Oconee Mill village, last Thursday night after a brief illness. She leaves one child, father, mother, one brother and several sisters to mourn her death. Mrs. Davis was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson and a granddaughter of the late Harrison Jennings. She was a member of the Baptist church and a devoted Christian lady. Mrs. Davis was a young woman, about 25 years of age. Her husband died about three years ago. The fond parents and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their sorrow. Her body was buried in the cemetery of the First Baptist church Friday. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Brooks.

Mrs. Martha Jane Singleton.

It is with profound sorrow that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Martha Jane Singleton, widow of the late Miles P. Singleton, which sad event occurred at the Singleton home place, on Tugaloo river, near Taber church, last Friday afternoon, July 18th, at 1 o'clock.

Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery of Nazareth M. E. church Saturday at 12 o'clock noon by the side of the grave of her husband, who had preceded her to the grave just eight months. Funeral services were conducted at her late residence by her nephew, Rev. J. L. Singleton, pastor of the Methodist church at Starr, and assisted by Rev. M. M. Brooks, of Westminster.

Five sons, Revs. J. F. and H. L. Singleton, George, William and A. W. Singleton, and son-in-law, J. T. Porter, were the pall bearers.

Mrs. Singleton before her marriage was Miss Martha Jane Higgins, of Pickens county, and she was in the 79th year of her age. She was married to Mr. Singleton November 16, 1854. Their married life covered a period of 58 years. Mr. Singleton having departed this life on the 20th day of last November.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Singleton were born six sons and two daughters, all of whom are living: George E. and Thos. P. Mrs. Jas. T. Porter and Miss Sallie Singleton, of the Taber section; Rev. Jas. F. Singleton, pastor of the First Baptist church at Statesboro, Ga.; Rev. Henry L. Singleton, of the South Carolina Conference, whose home is at Loris, this State; W. A. and A. W. Singleton, of the CHINESE MUTINY ON STEAMER.

Passengers Thrown Into Panic—Several Persons Wounded.

New Orleans, July 21.—Mutiny of 26 Chinese on the steamship Comus, arriving to-day from New York, resulted in a panic among the passengers, the probable fatal shooting of one of the mutineers, the wounding of three others and slight injuries to First Officer M. L. Proctor, of the Comus. The general fight occurred on the forward deck of the steamer to-day.

Proctor probably owes his life to the bravery of Mrs. Florence Shaw, a stewardess, who saved him from being thrown overboard by the infuriated Chinese. The officers ordered all the Chinese to the hold when the vessel was about 40 miles down the river. The Orientals protested it was too hot down there. Proctor insisted, and six of them had rushed him to the rail when Mrs. Shaw appeared. She battled her way among the Chinese and prevented them from throwing Proctor overboard. Proctor then drew his weapon, fired and the fight began.

Other members of the crew and several volunteer passengers rushed to the melee amid screams of the women passengers, terrified at the pistol shooting and free use of clubs. Finally the Orientals were cowed by superior force and weapons and were sent to the hold. The most seriously injured man is shot through the lungs and it is said he will die.

The Chinese were being brought here to act as strike-breakers for the United States Fruit Company, whose seamen walked out some time ago. Each is under $500 bond. Fearing some might try to escape as the Comus was coming up the river, the Chinese were ordered to the hold.

When the boat docked the Orientals were ordered to come back on deck one at a time. With drawn weapons, police, who had been notified by wireless, took the men in charge. All except the wounded were taken to the fruit company's station and disposition of them has not yet been decided.

Life is a masquerade. Otherwise people wouldn't fall in love at first sight.

railway mail service, whose homes are at Westminster and Easley, respectively. There is one brother, living, John Higgins, of Easley. He attended the funeral last Saturday.

Mrs. Singleton had been a devoted member of the Methodist church for more than half a century. Her life was a long, useful and estimable life, and she was honored, loved and respected by all her friends and acquaintances. She reared her own monument and her deeds of charity praise her, while her children rise up and call her blessed.

Before moving to Oconee the Singleton family resided in Pickens, coming to this county twenty-five years ago. It can be truthfully said there was never a happier or more beautiful home than that of which Mr. and Mrs. Singleton were the head.

To the bereaved family is extended the condolence of many friends.

Mrs. Mary Hunter.

Died, at the home of her son, W. M. Hunter, about four miles south of Westminster, on Saturday, July 19, Mrs. Mary Hunter, aged 83 years. Mrs. Hunter's death was due to the infirmities of age. She was critically ill only a couple of days. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery of Bethel Baptist church, near Oakway, Sunday afternoon at about 6 o'clock, funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. J. Patsour.

Mrs. Hunter had been a faithful member of Bethlehem Baptist church for a number of years. She was an estimable Christian lady and was ripe for the kingdom. She was the widow of the late Capt. William Hunter, who died at Mountain Rest eleven years ago. She was a native of Pickens county, but the family had resided at Mountain Rest for more than thirty-five years.

Her surviving sons and daughters are as follows: W. M. and J. L. Hunter, of Westminster; Davis Hunter, of Reno, Nevada; Mrs. Andrew Bearden, of Oakway, and Mrs. Lizzie Orr, of Mountain Rest. She leaves also several grand and great-grandchildren.

The sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

THE LOCAL NEWS AT SENECA.

Vines Promise Big Yield of Fruit. Mountain Party Returns.

Seneca, July 22.—Special: The dull, hot days have been relieved by refreshing showers. The crops and gardens are very promising.

Quite a number of our farmers who have engaged in cantaloupe culture report a fine prospect. The melons will be ready for shipment in about ten days, and there are no signs of borers yet. The arsenate of lead treatment up to this date seems to be all that is claimed for it. The tenants on the Coleman mill place have about six acres in this toothsome melon. Prospects are that Seneca will be an extensive market for cantaloupes.

Miss Margaret Adams will teach music at the Adairsville (Ga.) Institute the coming term.

Miss Carrie Hunter is spending some weeks in Atlanta studying music at the conservatory.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, of Clemson, were guests at the Colona apartments on Monday.

The Jocassee Valley party, consisting of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Doyle, Judge and Mrs. Eustace Hopkins, the Misses Gignilliat, Miss Louise Farmer, Harry Woodward, Pat Adams, Rupert Nimmons, Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Thomson and children, and Mrs. J. W. Scribbling, after spending a delightful fortnight at Hotel Rankin, returned to Seneca rejuvenated and charmed with the whole trip. The fine bathing afforded by the White-water river was greatly enjoyed by all. Good banjo and violin music each evening incited the merry dance. Harry Woodward's skill as punch maker will long be remembered. The game all bid out as soon as the rumor of so-fine-fish-and-fried chicken in abundance made up for lack of squirrel and pheasant.

Mrs. M. W. Crisman, of Atlanta and Athens, is spending a few days at the Colona apartments. Mrs. Coleman is on route to Wrightsville Beach to join her son, Dr. Coleman, who is house physician at the Seashore Hotel for the season.

Miss Nina Gignilliat, of Atlanta, visited her uncle, G. W. Gignilliat, and family the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. Lowvel, Miss Pearl Lowvel, Mrs. Annie Brown Lowery and Jim Brown will be guests of the Colona during August.

Blew Off Head With Dynamite.

Grand Rapids, Minn., July 21.—While a half dozen workmen looked on, John Ahe, a farm hand, placed a stick of dynamite on his head and lighted a fuse. His head was blown in fragments. He left a note imploring his friends to express no regret at his act.

SAFER THAN CALOMEL.

Dodson's Liver Tonic at Night Will Straighten You Out by Morning. Calomel May Knock You Out of a Day's Work.

If you are a calomel user, next time you are tempted to buy it ask your druggist if he can absolutely guarantee the drug not to harm you. He won't do it, because he CAN'T do it.

But here is a perfect substitute for calomel which the druggist does guarantee—the famous Dodson's Liver Tonic. Bell's Drug Co. will refund your money without question if you are not thoroughly satisfied.

Go to Bell's Drug Co., whom you are acquainted with, and find out about the great number of people who are taking this remarkable remedy and feeling better, keener, healthier, and better able to enjoy life than they ever were when taking calomel.

Why? Because calomel is a poison—one that may stay in the system, and while seeming to benefit you temporarily, may do harm in the end. If you haven't felt these ill-effects so far, it is because you are fortunate enough to have a strong constitution.

Don't take the risk any longer. Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic (50c.) and note how easily and naturally it corrects all bilious conditions, how it clears away that sick headache and coated tongue, how it sets you right without ache or gripes. The most wonderful thing in the world for constipation.

All this without the slightest interference with your regular habits. ad.
