No regular program had been arranged, but C. G. Jaynes, president, opened with an appropriate talk and was followed by M. R. McDonald, secretary and treasurer, and H. Hughs. It was decided to hold the picnic every two years instead of yearly. An extemporaneous debate between M. R. McDonald, and Harry R. Hughs, on "Woman Suffrage," was enjoyed by all on account of the many witty points made by each. Later the following officers were elected: M. Stokes Stribling, of Seneca, president; Harry R. Hughs, of Walhalla, vice president, and Stiles S. Stribling, of Richland, secretary and treasurer. After dinner had been served several of the old games were played, including "bull pen" and "base."

ALLEN EMMERSON PAROLED.

Trial Was One of the Most Noted in Anderson County.

Anderson, Aug. 15.—Allen Emerson, who was paroled by the Governor late to-day, went to the penitentiary more than six years ago to serve a life sentence for the murder of Thomas Drake, an aged and leading farmer of Anderson county. While his attorneys were taking his case to the Supreme Court, Emerson escaped from the Anderson jail by means of a key he made from a stick of solder. During the ten months he was a fugitive the Supreme Court affirmed the verdict of the lower court. Emerson later surrendered to a constable and was taken to Columbia to commence his sentence. The trial attracted much interest and was one of the most noted ever held in Anderson county.

MAN KILLS HIS WIFE IN FIGHT.

Fatal Battle Between Man and Woman in a North Carolina Hotel.

Hamlet, N. C., Aug. 16.—Guests of a local hotel yesterday rushed into a room from which they saw smoke issuing, and found stretched on the floor the dead body of a woman who had given her name as Mrs. George S. Nance, of Macon, Ga. Her skull was fractured in several places, her clothing had burned off, and beside the body lay an empty beer bottle.

Her husband, who came to the hotel with her this morning, was arrested in a room three doors from that of the woman, and told the police a sensational story of killing his wife after they had engaged in a struggle.

According to the report given by the police, Nance said that his wife had told him she knew he was crazy, and that she was also insane "and would stop at nothing." They struggled and he seized the beer bottle and fractured her skull; then he poured kerosene over her clothing and the furniture and set fire to the room.

After a coroner's jury had returned a verdict that Mrs. Nance had been killed by her husband, George S. Nance, he was hurried to jail at Rockingham, where he was charged with murder and arson.

In Mrs. Nance's handbag was a receipted bill from S. B. George & Co., Greenville, S. C., addressed to Mrs. George S. Nance, 321 Laurens street, Greenville. Her shoes bear the mark of a Knoxville, Tenn., firm.

Nance appears to be about forty years old. He had more than $500 in his pockets, together with a government bond for $1,000 and a deposit slip showing $1,000 deposited in a Macon, Ga., bank.

Had Lived in Greenville.

Greenville, S. C., Aug. 16.—Mrs. George S. Nance, killed by her husband at Hamlet, N. C., yesterday, was known in Greenville. She spent three months here, and with her husband left this city yesterday morning.

Mrs. Nance came here three months ago and engaged in the sale of a patent medicine. She left Wednesday for Norfolk to meet her husband and returned with him to Greenville Wednesday to make preparations to leave for the summer. It is said that the husband had just been released from an insane asylum and Mrs. Nance is said to have discussed her husband's mental condition with friends here.

In Macon, Ga., Also.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 16.—George S. Nance, who last night killed his wife in a hotel at Hamlet, N. C., was here for a short time last week at a hotel. He was accompanied by his wife. He does not live here, however, and the hotel where he stopped supposed him to be a traveling salesman. Before leaving Macon he deposited $1,000 in cash in a local bank. Further than this nothing is known of the man.

HON. JOSH ASHLEY IMPROVES.

Doctors Expect He Will Recover from Paralytic Stroke.

Anderson, Aug. 17.—After visiting Representative Joshua W. Ashley this morning, who was stricken with paralysis last Thursday, his entire right side being affected, Dr. Shirley issued a statement to-day which said that the patient is much better and that there is hardly any doubt but that he will pull through this attack.

Mr. Ashley is able to articulate slightly this morning and Dr. Shirley says the fact that he has the use of his affected leg and arm in a small degree increases the hope for recovery. Mr. Ashley is a very sick man, says the doctor, but his wonderful vitality and strong constitution are working in his behalf. He is not out of danger by any means, but unless something unforeseen happens the danger mark will have been passed in the next few days.

Shoots Dog, Hits Boy.

Anderson, Aug. 16.—Clyde, the 10-year-old son of Luther Erskine, was shot and wounded by Homer Eisman at 8 o'clock to-night, when Eisman fired on a dog supposed to be mad as it attacked young Erskine. The dog attacked one of two people before reaching the Eisman home. It had a fit in front of the Eisman place on Dickson avenue and Mr. Eisman hunted his gun. The Erskine child was crossing the street and the dog was attempting to attack him when Eisman fired. The shot took effect in the boy and also in the dog. The boy's condition is not considered very serious.

Constable Shoots Negro Acquitted of Shooting Him.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 16.—Wild excitement was caused in the city court room early last night when Robert Sears, constable and former deputy sheriff, shot down Will Smith, a negro, a moment after a jury had acquitted the latter of a charge of shooting at Sears last December while the constable was trying to make an arrest. One shot broke the negro's arm and another penetrated his shoulder and cheek. He will likely recover.

Judge Armstead Brown and officers of the court hid behind desks and furniture to escape the fusillade of bullets. Sears was finally overpowered and Judge Brown ordered him to jail for contempt of court.

FOR SALE

I have a good list of Small and Large Farms to offer you this season. If it is a Small Farm near town, or a Large Tract several miles out, I have what you want.

Let me know exactly what you want and I will be glad to show you what I can offer you.

With the Democrats now in power reducing the cost of most all the articles the farmer uses, and the Treasury Department turning money and favors to the South, certainly it is the opportune time for you to buy a good Farm for a home.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm call on me at my office over Westminster Bank, or write me.

Box 152 Westminster, S. C.
