Golden Text: "Let us have grace, whereby we may offer service well pleasing to God with reverence and awe." Heb. xii:28.

1. Verses 1-2—How had the children of Israel spent the three months since they left Egypt and what experiences had they passed through?

2. Verses 3-4—Is God more accessible, or not, and why, from one place than he is from another?

3. What is the meaning of the statement, "And Moses went up unto God"?

4. When we pray or make requests, or ask questions of God should we, or not, expect such a clear cut answer from him as Moses here received? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

5. Verses 5-6—Are God's promises conditional or unconditional? Why?

6. What is the substance of God's promises for time and eternity today to his obedient children?

7. Verses 7-8—If these people, when their hearts were stirred with penitence, promised God to be true to Him, but afterwards were not true, would God bless them at the time of making the promise as if they had subsequently fulfilled their vows?

10. How do the people now recognize when God has spoken to a man who says he has a message from God?

11. Is it possible to-day for God to work effectually through a church whose members are living in known sin? Why?

12. Verses 12-15—Why did God make it a capital offense if any of the people should attempt to touch this mountain?

13. What did it mean then, and what does it mean now, for the people to "sanctify" themselves?

14. Verses 16-25—If you have been on a high mountain, or can imagine what it feels like to be there during severe thunder and lightning, then describe the feelings of awe which the Israelites likely experienced at Sinai.

15. What would likely be the religious effect of these awe-inspiring phenomena?

16. Are religious resolutions formed under exciting influences liable to be lasting or not, and why?

17. Are all God's spiritual blessings or revelations for every Christian, or are some of them for the select few, as in this case? Why?

18. Heb. xii:18-21—What scene does the writer here depict?

19. What would you say is the difference between God's appeal to the Israelites at Sinai, and His appeal to us now?

20. Verses 22-23—What are the ultimate spiritual ideals or conceptions at the present of every devout man when he comes to God?

21. We properly cultivate our sense of God's presence, should we also cultivate the sense of the presence of this "Innumerable company of angels"? Why?

22. Verse 24—What is the significance of coming to "Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant"?

CROP MONEY SENT TO SOUTH.

Deposits in Chief Cities—Several Millions in First Deposit.

Washington, Aug. 1.—The Treasury Department to-day began making deposits of the additional $50,000,000 government funds that are to be placed with banks in the agricultural States to aid in the movement.

The first deposits were made in the reserve cities in the Southern States, among which it is unofficially stated, were Baltimore, Md., Richmond, Va., Atlanta, Ga., and Memphis, Tenn., the three latter each receiving $750,000.

The apportionment of the funds has been completed, according to information at the department. It was stated unofficially that the largest deposits would be made with the national banks at Chicago, this being the most important reserve city in the agricultural States. The next largest deposits for the South are to be made in St. Louis, with Baltimore second and New Orleans third.

No official announcement of the amount sent to these cities has been made, but unofficially it has been learned that Baltimore will receive between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 and that Chicago and St. Louis will divide in the neighborhood of $15,000,000.

New Orleans banks, it was learned unofficially, will receive about $1,000,000.

Seat on Exchange $46,000.

New York, Aug. 22.—The sale of a seat on the New York Stock Exchange for $46,000 was reported Tuesday. The price represents an advance of $5,000 over the last previous transfer and is $9,000 above the season's low price, which established a low record for more than a decade. Since the improvement in business on the stock exchange in the last few weeks a number of offers on seats have been withdrawn.

LAMENTATIONS LOST CHANCE TO DIE.

Mrs. Harris Begged that She Be Left in Flames.

New York, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Sarah Harris, who attracted wide attention last year by an appeal to the State to kill her because she was paralyzed, was threatened with death when flames from a nearby fire cracked the windows of her room in an uptown sanitarium yesterday.

When two attendants found her she pleaded with them not to take her away.

"This is the first chance I've had to die," she said. "Please let me stay here, and if this room catches fire all my misery will be over."

She was taken to a safe room in the institution.

Mrs. Harris was formerly Miss Sarah Garfunkel, of Charleston, and her case has attracted much interest and sympathy in that community.

None of her family are living there now, they having moved to New York some years ago.

NO FRENCH LOAN FOR HUERTA.

Paris Denies Report—Says Democratic Power Temporary.

Paris, Aug. 21.—A report from Mexico City that Paris and other bankers in Europe had offered a loan to Huerta of twenty million dollars can't be confirmed here. The report is discredited by banking houses. The French foreign office takes the view that it would be unwise for French bankers to lend money to the Mexican government until the United States recognizes Huerta.

Huerta is Foxy.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Intimations are contained in Provisional President Huerta's reply to the American note presented by John Lind that President Wilson is not backed up by Congress or the American people in his stand against recognition of the Huerta government.

Referring to the attacks on the Washington administration by members of Congress and pointing to the official recommendations of Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson advising recognition, Huerta declares he is entitled to be recognized. He holds that the Democratic party's power is temporary, and argues that recognition of his government is a partisan question in the United States. He intimates that he reaches his conclusion on private advices from Washington.

This information was obtained Wednesday night from those who know the contents of the Huerta note so far as it has been deciphered. The complete note is not yet at hand, but the principal argument has been placed before administration officials.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Walhalla Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak. Backache and other kidney ills may follow.

Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy. Proof of their worth in the following:

J. T. Moore, clerk in cotton warehouse, R. F. D. No. 4, Seneca, S. C., says: "I had attacks of backache and pains through my loins. Other ailments showed that my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me. I recommend this remedy to every one troubled by weak kidneys."

"When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Moore had. 50c., all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. adv.

DIGGS WAS FOUND GUILTY.

Convicted on Four Counts—Maximum Five Years Each Count.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—In eloping with Marsha Warrington from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nevada, Maury I. Diggs, former State architect of California, was found guilty of violating the Mann act, which makes it a felony to transport women for immoral purposes from one State to another. This was the verdict Wednesday night of the jury that tried him.

Five years on each count in the Federal penitentiary is the maximum penalty.

There were six counts in the indictment and the jury found a verdict of guilty on the first four.

The case went to the jury late today with no attempt by the defense to prove that Diggs did not transport Marsha Warrington across the State line from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev., or that they did not live there for three days as husband and wife.

These acts, it was admitted, had been committed, but they did not constitute a violation of the Mann act because they had not been done with criminal intent. The trip to Reno had been half an accident. If Diggs and Marsha Warrington, with F. Drew Caminetti and Lola Norris, their companions, had not missed an earlier train they would have remained within the State, and though their offense against morality would have been the same, they would not have transgressed a Federal statute.

"This defendant," asserted the government prosecutor, "did not deny on the stand the truth of the essentials we have shown here. He had to admit them all. This defendant relies upon his own depravity and licentiousness."

In seeking to establish that the trip was not premeditated and that the two girls had not been induced to take it by threats of scandal on one hand and promises of marriage on the other, Diggs willingly testified to his own misconduct and the embarrassments, domestic and business, into which it had led him.

Caminetti Faces Similar Fate. San Francisco, Aug. 21.—With Maury I. Diggs, convicted and awaiting sentence for having violated the Mann white slave act in transporting Marsha Warrington from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev., for immoral purposes, the government turned its attention to-day to Diggs' companion in flight, F. Drew Caminetti, indicted for the same offense for having taken Lola Norris on the excursion to Reno.

Diggs, who was visibly shaken by the jury's verdict last night, was released at midnight on $20,000 bail, furnished by his father, I. P. Diggs, and his uncle, Marshall Diggs. He will be sentenced to the penitentiary on September 2. Five years is the maximum penalty on each count.

Friends of Caminetti Gloomy.

Friends of Caminetti were depressed to-day over Diggs' conviction and by the attitude of the court toward that defendant. Judge Van Fleet, who also will try Caminetti, said in his charge to the Diggs' jury: "If you find that the defendant and his companion, Caminetti, were actuated in their departure, or flight, from Sacramento by a fear of exposure or arrest, but that nevertheless in taking these two girls along, there existed the intention to subject them to the immoral purpose charged, the defendant is guilty."

The testimony in the Caminetti trial is expected to follow closely that adduced for and against Diggs.
