—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Walhalla Methodist church will meet with Mrs. J. R. Earle on Friday afternoon, November 28th, at 3 o'clock.

—There will be a meeting of the Civic League at Pitchford's Hall next Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

—Columbia phonographs, records and needles—all styles, sizes and prices. The "Columbia" is the best machine made. Call and see our line. Bell's drug store. adv.

—Miss Minnie Burton left recently for Atlanta, where she entered Draughton's Business College. Miss Minnie graduated at the close of the last term of the Walhalla High School, and has many friends who wish her great success in her studies.

—A large crowd is expected in Walhalla next Monday—December 25th. The Master advertises several valuable tracts of land. The Colley land, near Salem, will also be sold at this time. Look up these advertisements and give them a careful reading.

—The many friends of Mrs. Joe McCarey are pleased to note that she is back at her accustomed place at the store of C. W. Pitchford, having fully recovered from her long illness. Her daughter, Miss Lois, is also much improved, and hopes are held out for her early complete restoration to health.

—The Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Company will give four (4) cents each for every good cotton seed meal bag you will bring them. See that all holes are mended. Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Co., Westminster, S. C. ad.-tf.

—All the members of Oconee Conclave, I. O. H., are urged to be present at the meeting on Thursday night of next week, December 14th. At this time officers for 1914 will be elected. The conclave deemed it best not to serve a banquet on Thanksgiving night this year, but it will be served on the night of December 3d. The committee in charge are making preparations for a sumptuous dining. Don't forget the date, and make arrangements to be present.

—N. J. Gambrell, of Route No. 5, Westminster, has recently returned from a pleasure trip to Texas, and he reports that crops in that section of the Lone Star State in which he visited (Eastland county) are not nearly so good as in this section of South Carolina. The lack of rain early in the year very materially reduced the Texas production, both in cotton and grain. Mr. Gambrell was visiting his cousins, who have resided in Texas for a number of years.

—Pleasant and profitable employment for women, girls and boys. Apply to Hetrick Hosiery Mills, Walhalla, S. C. t. f.-adv.

—Walhalla people are looking forward to a great treat in music on the night of December 5th, at Pitchford's Hall, when the Clemson Glee Club expects to give an entertainment. We hope every music lover will not forget this date and bring their families. There will be sixteen men in the number, and they guarantee a good performance, with songs, mandolin quartettes and choruses. Popular prices, 25 and 15 cents. Keep Friday, December 5th, in your mind. Don't forget it.

—Young, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Sanders, of Greenville, died in that city on the 19th of this month, of pneumonia. The body was brought to West Union, and from there taken to Poplar Springs, where the interment took place. Rev. J. A. Bond, of the Baptist church, conducting the services at the grave. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are former Oconeeans and have a host of friends in this county who sympathize deeply with them in their sorrow. They returned to their home the latter part of last week.

—New and up-to-date patterns in sterling and community silver. R. A. McLees, Walhalla. adv.

—Maple Camp, No. 721, W. O. W., of Walhalla, will give an oyster and fish supper on next Saturday night, the 29th, at 7.30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. A great occasion is anticipated. During the evening there will be addresses made by prominent members of the order and others. The supper is not for Woodmen alone, but the public is expected and urged to attend and patronize the Woodmen in their efforts to provide a pleasant evening for their members and friends. Tickets for the supper will be sold for 25 cents each. All will be welcomed.

—The annual meeting of the Fourth District Medical Association, which embraces the counties of Anderson, Greenville, Pickens, Oconee, Spartanburg and Union, opened its session at Anderson this morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. J. W. Bell, of Walhalla, and probably others of the local physicians will attend.

—Special attention is called to the Thanksgiving services to be held at St. John's Lutheran church Thursday morning. This service will be non-denominational, all the churches joining in a union Thanksgiving. Remember that the service will begin at TEN o'clock, and be present promptly.

—For Sale—Grist mill with 15-h. p. gasoline engine; plant in first class condition. Bargain for quick sale. Good will and fine patronage. See S. K. Denny, Walhalla. adv.

—All the stores in Walhalla will observe Thanksgiving Day strictly, the doors being closed on "Sundays." The Courier office will also observe the day, as well as the county officers at the Court House. The Walhalla post office will observe the same hours as for Sunday. The banks will also be closed. The general public is urged to so arrange affairs as that they will not be inconvenienced by the closing of business houses.

—Several young people from other parts of the State are in Walhalla to attend the Crisp-Rhodes wedding to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Among them are Miss Mamie Duncan, of Columbia, who will act as maid of honor; Geo. R. Tolbert, of Greenwood, who will act as best man; Miss Anabel Rhodes, of Greenville, sister of the groom-elect; Miss Katie Robins, of Whetstone, cousin of the bride; J. A. Rhodes, of Greenville, will arrive on day at noon, and Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Walker, of the Cedar Springs Institute will reach Walhalla to-night. Rev. C. S. Blackburn will officiate at the ceremony at the Walhalla Methodist church. Dr. N. F. Walker interpreting to the young couple. In the sign language, as the ceremony is said by Rev. Mr. Blackburn.

—Quite an interesting service was held at the Walhalla Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, when Dr. John G. Law preached for Rev. Geo. M. Wilcox, the pastor. Last Sunday was the 40th anniversary of the entrance of Dr. Law into the ministry, and it was just 40 years ago that the now venerable minister was ordained and installed as pastor of the Walhalla Presbyterian church. Dr. Law preached the same sermon last Sunday from the same pulpit that he preached on his ordination, his text being found in the Gospel of St. John, 21st chapter, 17th verse: "He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me?" The service was greatly enjoyed by a large congregation. Among those present at services last Sunday were three who had heard the sermon preached 40 years ago—Judge J. W. Holleman, who was then a member of the church, and has been continuously since; Mrs. W. L. Verner and Miss Hadie Thompson, who were then girls in the Sunday school. The venerable Doctor has a host of friends here and elsewhere over the State who will join heartily with The Courier in the wish that he may yet have many years of peace, prosperity and happiness added to "the days of the years of his sojourn," which have already been many and full of good works.

—Full assortment of the famous Hawkes' eye-glasses at Bell's drug store, Walhalla. These glasses are known the world over. If your eyes need help, call and see us. adv.

—The sad news of the death of Henry R. Ford reached Walhalla last Saturday morning. Mr. Ford had been taken suddenly ill but recently, when it was found that he was suffering from a malignant form of pelagra, from which he had been suffering, in a milder form, for some time past. He had been under treatment for some time, but when he was taken seriously ill he was sent to the hospital in Columbia for treatment, but nothing could be done for him, and death resulted within a few days. Mr. Ford was a good citizen, and for a number of years he resided in Walhalla with his family. He was born in Hart county, Georgia, in 1871, but had resided in South Carolina for 26 years, his parents having moved to this State when he was a boy. Mr. Ford is survived by his wife, who was Miss Maggie Smith, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smith, and five children. His aged mother, who now lives in Hart county, Georgia, and six brothers and two sisters also survive. The brothers and sisters are: Newton Ford, of Pelzer; B. P. Pratt, Guy and James Ford, of Hart county, Georgia; J. M. Ford, of Walhalla; Mrs. Florence Walker, of Lincoln, Tenn., and Mrs. Rosa Adams, of Hart county. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at Westview Cemetery, Walhalla, in the presence of a number of friends of the family, the services being conducted by Rev. C. S. Blackburn, his pastor. Mr. Ford having identified himself with the Seneca Baptist church about four months ago. The music at the interment was rendered by a choir from the Walhalla Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Rector, of Barnesville, Ga., attended the funeral. Mrs. Rector is the oldest child of the family of H. R. Ford.

—Fresh barrel of cranberries, only 10c. quart at Carter & Co.'s. adv.

—One letter for C. R. Houchins is the only advertised mail remaining in the Walhalla post office for the week ending November 24th.

—The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. F. E. Harrison on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

—Postmaster N. L. Fant announces that the locked mail pouch for the freight train has been discontinued. This is due to the fact that Blue Ridge train No. 10 now connects at Seneca with Southern No. 38, thus eliminating the necessity for using the freight train.

—There will be preaching at the Bethel Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. G. M. Wilcox, at which time the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. Public cordially invited to be present. There will not be any services in the Walhalla church next Sunday.

—Merely a matter of good taste—Winnie Davis candies, 50c. pound, at Carter & Co.'s. adv.

—The 16-year-old son of Alex Stewart, of the Salem section, accidentally shot himself on Monday about noon, losing his right hand as a result of the accident. The accident occurred as young Stewart was riding on a wagon, the gun in some way being discharged. The load took effect at the wrist, necessitating amputation. The operation was performed by Drs. B. F. Sloan, of Walhalla, and S. S. Meroney, of Salem. The young man is reported this morning as getting along nicely.

—The ladies of the Civic League, directing a play, the entire caste of which is made up of local talent, will present to-morrow (Wednesday) night, at Pitchford's Hall, "When Women Vote." The cast is composed entirely of young ladies—Misses Dora Pitchford, Irene Strother, Mamie Harrison, May Fant and Frances Stribling. In addition to this "The Humanophone" will be presented, this being staged as follows: Harry R. Hughs, director; Marion Moss, assistant; "notes"; Misses Dora Pitchford, Irene Strother, Mamie Harrison, Gertrude Bieman, May Fant, Eunice Macaulay, Mary Ansel and Myrtle Brown. The ladies promise an evening of thorough enjoyment, and they will be delighted to greet all their friends. Don't miss it. The ladies are raising funds for civic improvement purposes, and they should be given every encouragement in the way of liberal patronage. Popular prices—25 and 15 cents.

—Stamps for Christmas.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The postmaster at Philadelphia is taking no chances of running short of stamps for Christmas business. He has just ordered 90,230,000 stamps, valued at $1,696,000, the largest single order ever made.

—When a woman has grown children she never loses any time in informing you that she was married when she was a mere child.

—Would Make Them Better If They Could.

The makers of Foley Kidney Pills know that they have absolutely the best combination of curative and healing medicines for kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities that it is possible to produce. That is why Foley Kidney Pills are the best medicine for the purpose you can buy. Bell's drug store. adv.

Richland News Happenings.

Richland, Nov. 24.—Special: The past week of warm, clear weather was greatly appreciated by the farmers, for they were able to do almost twice as much as in cold weather.

Mrs. E. E. Verner left Thursday to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Furman Burns, in Fountain Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis and children, of Atlanta, are visiting home-folks in the community.

Miss Cora Wyly left Saturday for Evatt, where she will open a five-months' school this morning. We hope she will have a successful term.

Miss Pearl Verner spent the week-end in Westminster with Miss Kate McClanahan.

Although the "bird law" was up on the 15th, there has been very little hunting so far, but the birds will almost be scared to death Thursday, for nearly everybody goes hunting on Thanksgiving.

Miss Carrie Smith, our primary teacher, has organized a home-keepers' club among the girls of the school according to the bulletins sent out by Winthrop College. The girls seem to take great interest in the work of the club. Cooking is one of the most important features. They are given recipes each Friday to be tried on Saturday, and they make a report of their success Monday morning. This will accomplish two things—help the girls to learn how to prepare and cook a number of nice dishes and will give the mother a rest on Saturdays.

There will be Thanksgiving services at Richland church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. I. E. Wallace. The public is cordially invited to come out and spend an hour of thanksgiving to Him who has given us such a bountiful harvest.

Rev. M. M. Brooks preached his last sermon at Rock Springs Methodist church Sunday afternoon, unless conference returns him to this circuit for another year.
