INTERESTING TEXAS LETTER.

Geo. W. Abbott Quite Ill—Oceneane in Texas Prospering.

Weatherford, Texas, R. F. D. No. 5, Jan. 31.—Dear Old Courier: We missed you last Saturday, and this made us a little more crazy than usual, so we began to look around and study, coming to the conclusion that it could be our fault. Our excuse is that we have had sickness at home. First, Mrs. Abbott had an attack of grip, which lasted three weeks, and there being only two of us it kept me tramping around. She is better now.

George W. Abbott, my brother, is and has been sick or feeble for the past year, and has been seriously sick for the last three weeks. (That is the cause of our neglect.)

We are lost without the good old Keowee Courier, which enables us to keep up with our old friends. We missed seeing the ad. or notice of the penitentiary being for sale, supposing it is of no further use. It would save transporting prisoners to Columbia to be turned loose.

I suppose we have some friends yet in South Carolina who would like to hear from us, and not being able to write them separately, will say that I have passed my 75th birthday, but still able to harness a pair of horses and plow if I want to (ride of course).

Our country was very dry last year. Wheat and oats were light; corn a failure, with only half a crop of cotton. It began to rain in the fall and a great deal of small grain was sowed, which has furnished some fine pasture all winter. No stock is being fed except milk cows and beef steers, and these only for profit. A great many beef steers are fed in our locality. We have a creamery at our town (Weatherford) that paid out $23,000 to farmers last year. This country is going wild on silos. My neighbor, Mr. McFarland, built eight of concrete last year. He is the largest cattle feeder in our settlement. There are three McFarlands who are engaged as cattle feeders, also Messrs. Estleman, Shaw, Milburn, Kaughman, Woodhouse, Martin and W. H. Kuhlman. We live in a fine settlement—good, moral people—Sunday school and church-going people. We have daily mails, and everybody has a telephone. Roads are fine, and a great many of my neighbors have autos. One of my sons re-

THE OLD FARMERS' SOCIETY.

Centennial of Pendleton Society to Be Held in 1915.

All good citizens, of any occupation, are cordially invited to meet with the old Farmers' Society at Pendleton on Thursday, February 12th, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing officers of the society for the year, and also to perfect an organization to boost the centennial celebration of the society, which will take place in 1915.

The older, active members of the society who reside in the immediate vicinity of Pendleton do not claim all the honors due this grand old institution, which was founded and had its early life managed by the citizens of Old Pendleton District, which then covered every nook and corner of the now three counties of Anderson, Oconee and Pickens, and each and every farmer and other citizen in these three counties is now privileged to come in on Thursday, February 12th, and take a hand in the first centennial. We desire all to come in at the first meeting and see to it that we start out right by putting competent officers and committeemen to manage all the affairs and each manager a live wire, which will transmit the slogan "Successful Centennial," all along the line.

J. C. Stribling, for Society.

Tug Rammed by Steamship.

New York, Jan. 31.—The steamship Concho, of the Mallory Line, outward bound for Galveston, to-day rammed the tug Dinsdale, off the Statue of Liberty, sinking the tug almost immediately. The captain and engineer of the tug were picked up by a passing craft, but two deckhands were drowned. The Concho, undamaged, continued on her way, after rendering what assistance she could.

cently visited us, coming in his auto 400 miles. Our children are all doing well.

Well, Bro. Steck, I could say more, but fear worrying some one. Will say, however, that I hope to get the good old paper next Saturday. I enclose $2 for two more years. May the great God of Heaven bless you all in our prayer.

J. Ben Abbott and Wife.

"TURNED OFF AGAIN."

An Annual Occurrence in the Case of Walhalla's Magistrate.

Walhalla, Feb. 3.—Editor Keowee Courier: "Turned Off Again!" This has been an annual occurrence since Mr. Blease has been Governor. He does not appear to love me as well as he would if I had been convicted of some crime and sent to the chain-gang or the penitentiary. For some reason, best known to himself, Senator Verner has ignored the primary election and recommended my removal as magistrate. They are to be congratulated upon the appointment of a gentleman and a true Democrat—one who is not subservient to demagogues and cranks. I am sure he will make an efficient and conscientious officer.

I have held this office for ten years, and in the discharge of my official duty it has been my constant desire and intention to consider the rights of litigants in cases brought before me, on their merits, and to decide the issues submitted fairly, impartially and in accordance with justice as it appeared to my mind. I do not claim perfection, or that I have never made a mistake, but I do claim that I have endeavored at all times to seek for truth and justice, and that without fear or favor of any man.

I take this opportunity to thank my friends for their many expressions of confidence and their valuable assistance in the bitter struggle for the past few years against the powers that be.

A. P. Crisp.

Charlton's Trial Postponed.

Como, Italy, Jan. 31.—Porter Charlton's trial for the murder of his wife has been postponed until June, at the request of the Judges of the tribunal, who ordered a minute investigation into the prisoner's mental, moral and physical condition and the declaration that his wife was sexually abnormal, possessing a dual nature.

Box Supper at Cross Roads.
