WALHALLA, S. C.:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22, 1914.

THE DEAF DO NOT BEG.

In view of the fact that the citizens of Walhalla are every now and then called upon by certain parties claiming to be deaf, and asking for contributions to aid them, the following article, written to the Union Times by H. R. Smock, himself a mute, will prove of interest. Mr. Smock seems to know whereof he speaks, and his observations are more apt to be correct than those of people who hear, yet do not take time to investigate in cases of appeal for aid, but give continually on the theory that it is better to give to a hundred unworthy persons than to turn away one deserving seeker of alms. We quote:

It is not my habit to kick, but there are times when a person has got to kick in order to get a redress, so this is why I kick and yell from house-tops.

There has now and again been a young, blue-blooded man "doing" this town. He claims to be deaf, having lost his hearing from sickness. His hands are cards containing some sad words about his hard luck, etc., and asks alms to help swell his fund to enter a school for the deaf. One of my fellow friends saw one of these impostors in a street car. When through collecting alms and when he came to this deaf friend he had a hand full of small change. He says, "It sure beats the band how liberal people are."

As a matter of fact, education is free for the deaf as for the hearing. There are one or more excellent schools for the deaf in every State. Education in these schools is not only free, but board as well. Suppose a man, admitting he is not deaf or incapacitated in any way, comes along and begs help to get his education, he would be turned down flat. Although it is less difficult for the deaf to obtain an education than the hearing, yet "this old gag always takes in the dupes and the dough."

IT'S SURPRISING

That So Many Walhalla People Fail to Recognize Kidney Weakness.

Are you a bad back victim? Suffer twinges; headaches, dizzy spells? Go to bed tired—get up tired? It's surprising how few suspect the kidneys. Kidney trouble needs kidney treatment. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. Have convinced Walhalla people of their merit. Here's a Walhalla case: Walhalla testimony. Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it. Mrs. Rose Hutchins, Knitting Mill Hill, Walhalla, S. C., says: "My kidneys were in bad shape and I suffered intensely from pains in my sides. I had backaches, my heart palpitated and mornings I felt all worn-out. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills that I got at Dr. Bell's drug store. They benefited me in every way. I don't think there is another kidney medicine that does better work than this one."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hutchins had. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. ad.

SHIP OWNERS ONLY BENEFIT.

Some Interesting Facts Dug Up from Old Correspondence.

Washington, April 17.—Joseph H. Choate, American ambassador to Great Britain during the negotiation of the Hay-Pannecote treaty, believes correspondence with the British government at that time precludes the idea that American coastwise shipping can be exempted from paying tolls through the Panama Canal.

Former President Taft, who signed the Panama Canal Act, containing the exemption clause, thought that in doing so he was granting a subsidy to American coastwise shipping and believes that unless Congress reverses itself the United States will have to submit the question to arbitration.

These points, both welcomed by repeal advocates, were brought out to-day at the hearing before the Senate committee on interoceanic canals. Senator Simmons introduced a transcript of an address delivered by Mr. Taft before the Canadian Club at Ottawa last January and Mr. Choate's views were submitted in a letter to Henry White, secretary of the American embassy at London, while Mr. Choate was ambassador, accompanied by letters addressed by him to Secretary of State Hay, explaining the progress of the negotiations.

Mr. Choate wrote that the correspondence "established beyond question the intent of the parties in the negotiations that the treaty should mean exactly what it says and excludes the possibility of the exemption of any kind of vessels of the United States. Equality between the United States and Great Britain is the constant theme."

Mr. Choate reviewed the attitude of Lord Lansdowne by saying that "it abrogated the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, gave us an American canal, ours to build as and where we liked; to own, control and govern, on the sole condition of its being always neutral and free for the passage of the ships of all nations on equal terms, except that if we got into a war with any nation we can shut its ships out and take care of ourselves."

TWO PECULIAR SETS BROUGHT.

One Against Railway and One Against Telegraph Company.

(Charleston News and Courier.)
For alleged refusal of an agent of the Southern Express Company to deliver to him the body of his son, which had been shipped from Texas, J. W. Lee, of Chesnee, in Spartanburg county, is suing the company for damages of $5,000. The action was begun in the State Court of Spartanburg county, but was sent up to the United States Court and is now on the docket of the court here.

According to the complaint of Lee, his son, Dexter Lee, a private in the United States army, died while in Texas, and his body was delivered to the express company by an agent of the United States government for transportation to his home. The charges to be paid by the government. Upon its arrival in Chesnee, Mr. Lee applied for the body, but the agent at Chesnee refused to allow him possession until the charges were paid. The plaintiff further alleges that he attempted to explain that the government was responsible for the charges, but that the agent would not heed his words. It is set forth that he was able to secure the body only upon taking out claim and delivery papers.

Another case, also sent up from the State Court of Spartanburg county, possesses features of interest. W. A. Aldrich has entered suit against the Western Union Telegraph Company for $5,000, alleging the following circumstances: That the telegraph company failed to deliver a telegram and notified the sender that the addressee had not the amount of the charge for transmission, advising the sender to prepay the message.

Look at Your Plumbing.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers. adv.

One Year for Selling Morphine.

New York, April 16.—John J. Van Horn, a practicing physician for more than 15 years, received to-day a sentence of one year in the penitentiary for the sale of morphine. "Since his conviction," said Justice O'Keefe, "nine men and women have been arrested in another establishment conducted by the prisoner. The drug terror in this city is becoming frightful. We are sorry that we cannot give him a longer sentence."
Van Horn is 52 years old.

GEN. COXEY'S SECOND MARCH.

Several Thousand Witness the Departure of 200 Marchers.

Massillon, Ohio, April 16.—Headed by "Gen." and Mrs. Jacob S. Coxe, in an old phaeton, drawn by a mule, the second "army" of the commonwealth, about 200 strong, assembled at the call of a bugle in Massillon's business section early today.

From shanties along the railroad tracks outside the city limits, from the Socialist hall and from the city prison, the men gathered. Police authorities released all vagrants from prison who said they would leave town with the cavalcade.

Rev. H. L. Wilson, of Rockdale, Pa., official chaplain of the "army," offered an invocation before the "army" started on the march to Washington, praying for the success of "Gen." Coxe's program. Several thousand persons assembled this morning to witness the departure of the army.

Why Villa Hates Huerta.

Juarez, Mexico, April 17.—Huerta, at the battle of Bellano two years ago, compelled Villa, then serving under him, to get on his knees and apologize for some offense. Later Huerta threw Villa into prison in Mexico City, where Villa learned to read and write. Villa finally escaped. On the assassination of Madero and the elevation of Huerta to the Presidency, he started a revolution.

Straight at It.

There is no use of your "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as we can see why you should not do so. This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world-wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by all dealers. adv.

Man Killed by Lightning.

Timmonsville, April 16.—A single flash of lightning, unaccompanied by a thunder storm, killed Will Laney, 21 years of age, as he was plowing on his father's farm, two miles from here, this afternoon. The young man's horse was also killed and a negro planting cotton 50 yards away was rendered unconscious by the force of the stroke.

Children's Diseases Very Prevalent.

Whooping cough is about everywhere. Measles and scarlet fever almost as bad. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for inflamed throats and coughing. Mrs. I. C. Hostler, Grand Island, Nebr., says: "My three children had severe attacks of whooping cough, and a very few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar gave great relief." Bell's drug store. adv.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. Richmond, 199 Waldo Street, Providence, R. I.

A Minister's Wife Writes:

CLOQUET, MINN.—"I have suffered very much with irregularities, pain and inflammation, but your wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has made me well and I can recommend the same to all that are troubled with these complaints."—Mrs. JENNIE AKERMAN, c/o Rev. K. AKERMAN, Cloquet, Minnesota.

From Mrs. J. D. Murdoch, Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. MURDOCH, 25 Gordon St., South Quincy, Mass.

OUT FLAT-FOOTED FOR BLEASE.

John L. McLaurin Says Intends to Line Up All Candidates.

Columbia, April 15.—Claiming that R. L. Manning has drawn the factional lines in the race for Governor Senator John L. McLaurin, who is also a candidate for that position, came out square last night on the Blease side of the issue, saying that Mr. Manning had espoused the anti-Bleasure side. Senator McLaurin stated that he intended lining all of the candidates up. Asked what he thought about the issues of the campaign, Senator McLaurin said: "Well, I stated them in an address a few days ago. Mr. Manning has drawn the factional lines in his platform, and he and I are the only ones who have taken a clean-cut position as to how we stand on that issue. I accept the challenge and you mark my word, this race will be between Manning and myself. Political non-descriptors running with the hare and barking with the hounds will never get out of the briar patch.

"The most important issue is the warehouse bill, but it is non-political and no one should try to make political capital out of that.

"Compulsory education is a hobby, primary reform a fake that has fizzled out, and the Fortner bill a racial instinct."

Lumbago-Sciatica Sprains
"The directions says, it's good for lumbago too,—Sloan's cured my rheumatism; I've used it and I know." Do you use Sloan's?
Here's Proof.
"I had my back hurt in the Boer War and two years ago I was hit by a street car. I tried all kinds of dope without success. I saw your Liniment in a drug store and got a bottle to try. The first application caused instant relief, and now I get for a little stiffness, I am almost well."—Fletcher Norman, Whitsett, Calif.
Instant Relief from Sciatica
"I was kept in bed with sciatica since the first of February, but I had almost instant relief when I tried your Liniment."—H. H. Hawkins, Frankfort, Ky.
Sprained Ankle
"As a user of your Liniment for the last 15 years, I can say it is one of the best on the market. Fifteen years ago I sprained my ankle and had to use crutches, and the doctors said I would always be lame. A friend advised me to try your Liniment and after using it night and morning for three months I could walk without a cane and run as good as any of the other fellows in my department. I have never been without a bottle since that time."—Mr. William H. Bruce, Central Linn, N. Y.
