NORMAN'S DRUG STORE, Walhalla, S. C.

but quality is the main thing with us. You do not want anything particularly cheap about medicines that are supposed to do you good. The purest and freshest drugs cost more than the stale and shop-worn kind, yet we put up prescriptions here in the best style for most reasonable prices. We are quick, accurate and always ready to serve you.

Agency Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal.

A Special Communication of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., will be held next Friday evening, April 21, 1914, at 8:30 o'clock. Work in the first degree. W. C. Hughes, W. M., W. O. White, Secretary. adv.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. adv.-11.

—Mrs. M. A. Merritt, of Cleveland, Ga., is spending some time in Walhalla visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Earle, and family.

—Assistant Attorney General F. H. Dominick, of Newberry, was in Walhalla for a short while last week looking after his "political fences."

—The famous Brimmer tomato plants, 2 dozen for 25c, from the Anderson Floral Company, delivered free. See advertisement in this issue.

—Fertilizers? Nothing to beat the V.-C. brands. We sell them at prices that defy competition. W. M. Brown, Walhalla. adv.

—Miss Fannie Broyles, of Townville, spent the latter part of last week in Walhalla as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hughes. Miss Broyles is engaged in teaching at the Blue Ridge High School.

—Frank E. Harrison, of Charleston, and Louis C. Harrison, of Greenville, spent Saturday and Sunday in Walhalla visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison, and among their friends here, who are always glad to meet them.

—We regret to announce the death of Miss Watkins, which occurred at the home of her nephew, Tom Watkins, in the Pleasant Hill section, last Tuesday. Interment took place Wednesday afternoon in the Watkins burial ground near the place of her death. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved relatives.

—For Sale Cheap—Fischer lot, on Main street, containing one-half acre, store and residence. Will sell whole or divide. See B. R. Moss, Walhalla. adv.-16

—Read the new advertisements of the Bank of Walhalla; Westminster Bank, Westminster Loan and Trust Co., Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster; Hunter's, Seneca; Carter's Spot Cash Store, Norman Drug Store, Walhalla, and other business houses and legal announcements. Keep up with what is going by reading The Courier weekly.

—E. B. Keys, of Belton, spent the latter part of last week in and near Walhalla, being a visitor at the home of K. H. Fretwell, near town. Mr. Keys has numerous friends in Oconee. He at one time resided in the Whetstone section, his father having owned property in that part of Oconee. He is always a welcome visitor to this section.

—Second-hand Rock Hill buggy and harness at a bargain—$16. See S. N. Pitchford, Walhalla. adv.

—There are many friends of Mrs. J. B. Hill who will regret to learn that she has been quite sick for the past week or more. She is improving at present, though her improvement is slow. We hope that she may soon be restored to perfect health. Her son, Dr. John B. Hill, of Greenville, spent a short while here last week as did also Ross Hill, of the same city, they having come over on account of their mother's illness. They have numerous friends here who are always glad to meet them.

—Pleasant and profitable employment for women, girls and boys. Apply to Hetrick Hosiery Mills, Walhalla, S. C. t. f.-adv.

—The county political pot will begin to boil after next Saturday, when the local clubs all over the county will meet and choose delegates to the County Convention. Up to the present time candidates have been a little shy, but the ice is broken this week with the announcement of John H. Brown, of Walhalla, as a contestant in the race for the office of County Treasurer. Others will follow Mr. Brown's lead from now on, and it "straws indicate the direction in which the wind blows," there will be many this year seeking the offices within the gift of the people. Who will be the next to announce?

—At the meeting of the Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, at the parsonage, on Monday afternoon, an unusual feature was introduced—visitors from Korea. Rev. Marion Stokes, son of Dr. J. L. Stokes, and missionary to Korea, with his three lovely little boys, were presented in full Korean costume, and entertained the society with conversation in the Korean language. Rev. Stokes also sang in Korean, some of our familiar Gospel Hymns, and told many interesting things of the manners and customs of the people. He is a pleasant, entertaining speaker, of most affable manner, and impresses all who meet him with his earnestness and devotion.

—The famous V.-C. brands of fertilizers—any brand you want, any quantity you need. Prices right. See me. W. M. Brown, Walhalla. adv.

PAY ALL BILLS BY CHECK

and there will never be any disputes. The Bank of Walhalla invites household as well as business accounts. Most women know how difficult it is to make their cash balance when they pay in cash. You can avoid all the trouble and worry by opening an account at the Bank of Walhalla. Then you'll know where every cent of your money goes.

Bank of Walhalla, WALHALLA, S. C.

—Just received car of fresh Portland cement. W. M. Brown. adv.

—The 42 Club will meet with Miss Eloise Strother Friday afternoon, April 24th, at 4 o'clock.

—Miss Annie Cobb, of Westminster, spent Saturday and Sunday in Walhalla visiting among relatives and friends.

—R. S. Rutledge and grandson, Burt Rutledge, are on a visit of several days to relatives and friends in Greenville and Laurens counties.

—Mrs. M. W. Carter left last Sunday for Gainesville, Ga., where she will spend a week or two visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Winchester.

—For buggies, wagons and harness call on W. M. Brown. adv.

—The cold snap that arrived Saturday evening ended in a good frost in this section Monday night. It is not thought, however, that the frost was sufficiently heavy to do material damage.

—Married, at the residence of the bride, in the Walhalla mill village, on Thursday last, April 16th, at 2 o'clock p. m., Miss Sallie Hoxit and J. E. Swezey, both of Walhalla. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. M. Lyda, of the Baptist church.

—W. F. Hodge and family moved last week from Seneca to Walhalla and are occupying W. A. Strother's residence on North Broad street. Mr. Hodge will have charge, we are informed, of the power plant of the Walhalla Light and Power Company. He and his are cordially welcomed to Walhalla.

—Miss Marguerite Brennecke returned to Walhalla Monday from Greenwood, where she had spent several days among relatives and friends. It will be learned with much pleasure by many here that her brother, L. A. Brennecke, who has been seriously sick for some time, is considerably improved at present.

—Oliver chilled plows and repairs for sale by W. M. Brown. adv.

—The Hill and Whitmire farms, in the Old Pickens section, are among the best in the county, according to reports reaching The Courier. Mr. Hill is personally superintending the "rehabilitation" of his farm, which has been rented out for several years, and this year he will be personally responsible for results obtained, minus any misfortunes that may come as the result of droughts or freshets. The Hill and Whitmire farms are generally conceded to be "patterns" that any one might well follow, and in any ordinarily good crop year it is a rest to the eye and a joy to the lover of nature to look over the broad acres of fine crops that are produced on these places.

—The Hayne Circle was most delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bell Saturday afternoon, April 18th. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Jas. H. Darby and Misses Eloise and Irene Strother. The parlors were fragrant with narcissus and lilacs. An informal Indian program, arranged by the hostess, was "charmingly" rendered; piano solo, "Red Wing," Mrs. Sifford; a reading of "Issaquena," by Chas. S. Reid, Mrs. Verner; solo, "Juanita," Miss Irene Strother; "The Death of Minnehaha," Miss Lord; solo, "The Blue Juniata," Mrs. J. A. Ansel; piano solo, "The Big Chief," Mrs. Wilcox. An Indian contest was then announced by the pictures of the chiefs themselves, as the result of which on drawing Mrs. J. A. Steek became the lucky owner of a lovely wicker beaded Indian basket, Miss Chase a tango chain, and Mrs. Rogers a sandwich basket. The favors were brought in by little Miss Caroline Darby, the "Little Indian Maid," and each guest was presented with a red carnation. A delicious salad course with hot chocolate, was served. Those present, besides the club members, were Mrs. Sifford, Mrs. Marion Stokes, of Korea, Mrs. Marshall, Miss Chase, of Columbia, and Miss Lord.

—Strayed—White bird dog, about six months old. Reward if returned to Sam L. Verner, Walhalla. adv.

—The 42 Club will meet with Miss Eloise Strother Friday, the 24th, at 4 p. m.

—S. E. Durham, of Westminster, is in Walhalla this week visiting among relatives and friends.

—J. A. and Miss Anabel Rhodes, of Greenville, spent Sunday in Walhalla visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Rhodes.

—The Sidelis class of the Walhalla Baptist church will meet with Miss May Fant on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

—Hulls and meal at C. W. & J. E. Bauknight's, Walhalla. adv.

—Quite a number of Walhalla citizens are in attendance upon the session of Federal Court at Greenville this week, among them being Commissioner J. W. Shelor, Dr. John J. Thode, Clerk of Court J. F. Craig, T. E. Alexander, Deputies W. F. Orr and A. T. Reid.

—Rev. Robt. Cobb, of the Mountain Grove section, was a business visitor to Walhalla last week. Mr. Cobb is in his 79th year. His wife is about his age. Mrs. Cobb fell a year or more ago and has been an invalid since that time, caused by the breaking of her hip. Mr. Cobb himself is badly crippled, having been severely wounded in the war.

—John Rogers, aged about fifty years, died at his home in the Hetrick Hosiery Mill village last Saturday night, after a lingering illness. Funeral services were conducted Monday, followed by interment, which took place at the Ebenezer cemetery Monday morning at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Massiah Cobb. Mr. Rogers leaves his wife and two daughters to mourn his death. The family moved to Walhalla some four years ago. Mr. Rogers was a good citizen and a consistent member of the church at the hosiery mill village, with which he had been connected since its permanent establishment. In their sorrow the members of the family have the sympathy of numerous friends.

—Most pleasant and enjoyable to the number of guests in attendance was the afternoon at which Mesdames S. A. Lockwood and J. A. Steek entertained last Thursday in compliment to sixteen matrons and maids of Walhalla. The parlor was bright and fragrant with tall vases of lilacs, in which room the guests were received and tables were placed for progressive "42". Several games were enjoyed, after which time was called and three pr ty decks of cards were given to the winners of the afternoon. Mrs. Sidney Adams captured first prize, Miss Irene Strother second, while the consolation fell to Mrs. J. H. Darby. Delicious cream and cake, with mints, were served the guests by Misses Julia Maxwell and Pauline Steek.

—Try one of our famous International stalk cutters. They do the work. Sold by W. M. Brown. adv.

—The Hayne Circle members and a number of visitors were charmingly entertained at the home of Mrs. John A. Ansel last Friday. The vocal solo, "The Spring Has Come," by Miss Irene Strother; A Comparative Study of the Simon Benet Method, by Miss Alice Strong, read by Mrs. J. W. Bell; "Folklore of the South," Mrs. Hetrick; "Where Easter Began," Miss Smith. The hostess then passed around egg-shaped cards with pencils, with which all were to guess answers to a clever Easter contest. The questions were written on the colored eggs, arranged in nests of apple blossoms on the various tables. A number, having guessed all the eggs correctly, drew for the first prize, Miss Ruth Walker was the fortunate winner of a pretty basket of Easter eggs. Mrs. Sifford drew second prize, a picture of Baby Stuart. Places were then found at the tables, where a delicious sweet course, with coffee, was served by the hostess, assisted by her two pretty daughters, Misses Emily and Caroline Ansel.

—Robert Craig, one of Oconee's most highly respected citizens, died at his home in the Taber section last Friday, April 17th, and was buried in the cemetery of Chauga church on Sunday, the 19th. Mr. Craig was 79 years of age. He was a consistent Christian and staunch church worker for many years, and leaves behind an enviable record as citizen, Christian and Confederate soldier. He served throughout the war, rendering valiant service to the cause of the Confederacy, after the conflict of arms taking up with energy the work of rehabilitating the country left desolate by reason of the war. In early life he married Miss Sarah Wheeler, of Georgia, and had he lived until the 19th of April (the day of his burial) he would have celebrated with his life companion the 50th anniversary of their wedding. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Arthur Craig, of Central, Pickens county, and W. R. Craig, of the Westminster section; and six daughters, Mrs. Hepple Moorehead, Mrs. Clarkie Dickson, Mrs. Sallie Dickson, Mrs. Carrie Honea, Mrs. Fannie Perkins and Miss Mollie Craig, who reside in the vicinity of Westminster. There are numerous grandchildren also to mourn his passing away. To the bereaved ones we extend sincere sympathy in their sorrow.

—R. Duncan has disposed of his interest in his Metz runabout to Redmond Fowler and now "also runs" a Ford.

—We are glad to see our good friend, Wm. Lausterer, out again, after a protracted illness. He is looking much better than for some time past, and we trust he will soon be enjoying his usual robust health. He has so far recovered as to be able to resume work, and it is his intention to open his shop next Monday at the old stand, where he will be pleased to meet friends and patrons.

—R. H. Cowan, of the Oconee Creek section of the county, was in Walhalla last Saturday and paid The Courier a pleasant call. Mr. Cowan is a very pleasant old gentleman. In October next he will have reached his 80th year, and his wife attained her 81st year last February. Mr. Cowan has read The Courier continuously as a subscriber for 56 years, he having subscribed for it first in 1858. He was born and raised in Oconee, and has spent all these years, with the exception of a few when he resided in Alabama before the war, within the bounds of Oconee. We hope that our good friends may have yet many more years of happiness and prosperity before them.

Walhalla High School.

Friday, May 1st, will be "Field Day." There will be contests in arithmetic, spelling, writing, drawing and declamations in the morning. In the afternoon the athletic contests for girls and boys will be held.

In addition to these contests, the regular meetings of the Issaquena, Palmetto and Calhoun Societies will be held. The doors will be thrown open to patrons and friends of the school and every one will be welcomed by the teachers.

The speakers for commencement are Dr. John G. Law, who will preach the baccalaureate sermon, and Prof. D. W. Daniel, of Clemson College, who will deliver the annual address. The exercises will be held in the school auditorium beginning Sunday, June 7th.

Meeting at Cross Roads.

There will be a patrons' meeting at Cross Roads school house on Saturday afternoon, April 25th, at 4 o'clock. The object of the meeting is to discuss plans for improving the school generally. The advisability of building a new room and adding a third teacher for the school will also be discussed. Every patron in the district is urged to be present, as this is work of mutual interest and importance. J. W. Harrison, Principal.

No Loose or Broken Hub Bands on Studebaker wheels

Studebaker hub bands are made of a specially refined iron perfectly adapted for this use. Hub bands are welded by electricity and then shrunk on by hydraulic pressure.

There is not the slightest possibility of Studebaker hubs weakening from usage or from weather conditions. No strain or climate severe enough to injure them.

Studebaker Wagons

Every part—iron or wood—is made in the same careful way as the hub and banding. That's why Studebaker wagons run easier and last longer.

Come in and see the Studebaker.
