HOW TO HANDLE THE MILK.

Practices that Will Prevent Milk from Becoming Sour.

Clemson College, April 24.—Special: Many people have written to Clemson College from all parts of the State recently complaining to Prof. J. M. Burgess that their milk was souring without apparent cause. These people do not realize, Prof. Burgess said, how warm the weather has become. The trouble is due to the spring changes. The souring of milk in practically every case about which he has been questioned has been due to the increased temperature. Bacteria are the sole cause of the souring of milk and it is when the weather grows warm that bacteria find living conditions which just suit them.

Prof. Burgess advises the use of special care in milking and in handling the milk afterwards. This is the only thing that will effectually prevent milk from turning during the warm weather. Prof. Burgess' advice is meant for home dairies. It also applies to commercial dairies in principle, but naturally more complicated processes are advised for the latter.

The first requisite for clean milk is a clean cow. Before milking wash the cow's udder. The next thing is to be sure that one's own hands are thoroughly clean when milking. Use special care in cleansing the vessels used in milking. Do not use ordinary cooking utensils, but have separate vessels. It will pay to invest in small-top pails to be used exclusively for milking.

After milking strain the milk from the pail through three thicknesses of cheese cloth. Do this immediately. The utensils into which the milk is strained and in which it is to remain for some time should be scalded thoroughly and sunned beforehand. Put the milk in a thoroughly cool place and keep it cool until the cream rises. This is most important. The sooner milk is cooled after being taken from the cow the longer it will remain sweet.

These precautions are urged upon every farmer by Prof. Burgess. Dirty milk is not only more expensive, since it sours so quickly, but it is capable of transmitting to those who drink it many of the worst diseases. Clean milk, on the other hand, will always be one of mankind's most beneficial foods. Keep milk clean.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

Sour Stomach, Heart Burn

In October, 1910, we received a letter from Mrs. Hall, from which we make the following extracts:

"About twelve years ago my health began to fail. I couldn't eat anything without suffering for it. I had heart burn, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, smothering spells, pains in my sides and back. In fact, I suffered all over, and a cough almost like consumption. Doctors failed to relieve me; in fact, they didn't seem to know what ailed me. I continued to grow worse until I was able to sit up only a part of the time. I had almost lost all hopes of ever being any better.

MRS. JAMES A. HALL,
Box 36, Norris City,
Illinois.

"But one day some one threw some books in at my door. I read them and found them to be Peruna books. They described my feeling so truly I sent at once and got a bottle and began taking it. You pronounced my ailment systemic catarrh, and gave me some advice.

"When I had taken two and one-half bottles I began to eat without suffering. I continued to improve. "When I had taken eight I was like a new person. That was nine years ago.

"I think Peruna the greatest family remedy there is, for so many ailments are due to catarrhal trouble. I would advise any one afflicted with catarrh to take Peruna and I am sure it will leave."

In the Revised "His of Life" we have many similar testimonials which should interest sick people everywhere. Sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

EYES ON S. C. SCHOOL WORK.

Educators of Nation Watching Rural School Experiment.

Clemson College, April 24.—Special: Men ranking high in many lines of educational work are watching with interest the demonstration school experiments which are being made in this State under W. W. Long, State agent of demonstration and superintendent of the extension division of Clemson College. One hundred and forty rural schools in this State are now teaching practical agriculture by the method of having the boys and girls actually to grow crops on a three-acre demonstration plot connected with each school. Mr. Long's aim is to have before long at least five schools in each county doing the work. It is the first experiment of its nature that has been made in America.

Upon his return from the Conference for Education in the South at Louisville, Ky., Mr. Long said that the demonstration school work had attracted the widest sort of attention among all the educators assembled at the big convention, who insisted upon hearing the details of the work. The following letter was received by Mr. Long from A. P. Bourland, executive secretary of the Conference for Education in the South: "I congratulate you heartily upon the success you are making with the demonstration plots at your 140 schools. You are getting at the problem directly and effectively. You have struck the right line.

"I know how arduous it is to follow it out, but I am sure you will do it, for it means everything to the rural schools."

Through their attorneys—J. E. Boggs and A. H. Dagnall—B. L. Sumney and Mrs. Willie Sumney have brought suit against Anderson county, alleging personal injuries to Mrs. Sumney in the sum of $6,000.

Mrs. Sumney received injuries on November 23d, 1913, when she was thrown from her buggy on a bridge in Garvin township, the cause of the accident being due to a hole along the edge of the bridge.

The case has been docketed in the office of the Clerk of Court, and will likely be called for trial at the next term of Common Pleas Court.

WE ARE READY.

"We do not know what we will be called upon to do, but we are ready."
—Admiral Badger.

"We are ready."
Glorious words—in peace or war—State them clearly, near and far, Local pride, or national glory, Let them live in song and story; Answer for the boys in blue: "What we are called upon to do, We are ready."

"Veni, vidi, vici," stands For imperial Caesar's bands. Nelson calls with wondrous beauty, "Every man to do his duty." "Give me liberty or death," Our great Henry's glorious breath— Each was ready.

"Boys, do not give up the ship," Fell from the fallen Lawrence's lip. "Fire, Gridley, when you are ready," Dewey states in accents steady. Still this call rings something new: "What we are called upon to do, We are ready."

Washington provoked to fight; James Monroe extends the right; Grant and Lee in opposition, Each fulfilling conscience's mission; When the call rings clear and true: "What we are called upon to do, We are ready."

Jefferson authority "cracks," But the world his judgment backs; Cleveland dominates condition; Roosevelt marked a high position; Schley and Wheeler answered true: "What we are called upon to do, We are ready."

Such the spirit of the West; Youngest, greatest, purest, best; In the days of revolution, In the days of evolution, Answer clear, good men and true: "What we are called upon to do, We are ready."

In the battle of our Lord, Live we by His Holy Word? Listed we beneath His banner, Tell we by our word and manner In the fight 'twixt false and true: "What we are called upon to do, We are ready."

FAMOUS SINGER'S TROUBLES.

Caruso Will Again Face Breach of Promise Suit.

New York, April 23.—Enrico Caruso, the world famous tenor, was sued for breach of promise of marriage yesterday by Miss Mildred Meffert, of No. 741 Fifth avenue.

The summons and complaint were served on Caruso at the Hotel Knickerbocker.

Miss Meffert, who is described as an accomplished and attractive young woman, demands $100,000. The alleged promise of marriage, according to the complaint, was made at No. 225 West Eighteenth street, April 3, 1909.

Italian Sweetheart Lost Suit.
The famous tenor's troubles with women have occupied much space in the newspapers. About a year and a half ago Caruso was sued by a former sweetheart, Signorina Ada Glacchetti, in Italy. He was vindicated after a sensational trial, and his accuser was sentenced to imprisonment for one year and to pay a fine of $300 for defamation of character.

The signorina collapsed on hearing the sentence and had to be carried from the court room. Caruso received an ovation from the crowd outside.

The tenor was arrested in 1906 for annoying a woman in the monkey house of Central Park Zoo. He was found guilty by a magistrate and fined $10.

Cow Eats Clay.
(Progressive Farmer.)

A reader says he "hauled some clay into the cow lot from a ditch bank and the cow eats it every time she gets a chance. What must be done to prevent this cow eating the clay?"

The cow eats the clay either because of a deranged or "sour stomach," or else because she is failing to get the salt or other mineral matter she needs in her feed. Give her one ounce of common salt and one tablespoonful of ashes in her feed once a day, or perhaps a tablespoonful of the following mixture twice a day in a little ground feed would correct the trouble: One-fourth pound each of powdered nuxvomica and dry sulphate of iron and one pound each of pulverized charcoal and cotton seed meal.

If the trouble is due to indigestion it will probably also be necessary to reduce the feed and feed a balanced ration of sufficient variety. The clay eaten is not likely to hurt the cow.

AVIATORS OFFER TO AID ARMY.

Hydroplanes Would Be of Great Service—Flyers Ready to Go.

New York, April 23.—Believers in the possibilities of aeroplanes for warfare are pointing to the fact that should the trouble with Mexico resolve into a declaration of war the aeroplane will prove of incalculable service to the United States in the effective blockade of Mexican ports.

The army and navy will not want for efficient aviators should their services be required. Within the past few days scores of machines have been placed at the disposal of the War Department by volunteers. Fifty licensed pilots, members of the Aero Club of America, have signified their willingness to enter the service of the United States for duty in Mexico.

Two aeroplanes and three government aviators are en route to Mexico aboard the scout cruiser Birmingham on its way from Pensacola, Fla., to join Rear Admiral Badger's fleet.

Albert B. Lambert, millionaire aviator, telegraphed yesterday from St. Louis to the War Department, asking for command of the United States Aviation Corps. In an interview, Mr. Lambert is quoted as saying:

"One hydro-aeroplane can do more in five minutes than a torpedo boat can do in five hours, and it has the fighting strength of three regiments of men."

He had been formally assigned to command of the Atlantic division with headquarters at Governor's Island, but the orders to that effect were canceled because of developments in Mexico.

Gen. H. L. Scott, until recently in command of a cavalry brigade at Fort Bliss, Texas, to-day became assistant chief of staff of the army, succeeding Gen. Wotherspoon.
