FORTY YEARS IN MINISTRY.

Dr. J. L. Stokes Will Preach Next Sunday Morning and Night.

The general public of Walhalla, and especially the church-going people of the town, will be interested in the fact that next Sunday Dr. J. L. Stokes will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of his ministerial labors by preaching sermons morning and night, taking as his texts and sub-jects for the two services Scripture lessons with appropriate bearing upon this anniversary occasion. Forty years is a long term of service, but Dr. Stokes has rounded out this period, and it is but fitting that he should draw from the ripe experience of his labors for the Master lessons that may well be given to the people for their consideration and careful thought. Dr. Stokes Dr. Stokes well worth always has something well worth while for his hearers to listen to and take home to ponder over, and we feel sure that all who hear him next Sunday will have abundant cause to congratulate themselves upon their good fortune.

Not only the members of Dr. Stokes's congregation are urged to attend, but-everybody, no matter of what denomination, or whether of any denomination, is invited and urged to attend. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these special services at the Methoidst church next Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours for ser-vices. You will be well repaid for any special efforts put forth to ena-ble you to attend either or both the

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

So Says Jury in Case of G. W. Tidwell at Greenville,

Greenville, May 23.—Geo. W. Tid-well, Sr., slayer of R. Emmett Walker, was found guilty of manslaugh-ter yesterday by the jury in the case. The announcement of the verdict at 5.20 p. m., followed deliberations lasting more than eight hours. A motion for a new trial was announced immediately after the verdict had been read. The immobile countenance of Tidwell was un-changed as the verdict was an-nounced. When the jury made known that a verdict had been reach-ed, Tidwell was immediately sent for, not being in attendance upon court at the time. When he entered the court room there was a hush of expectancy, all eyes being turned upon the man whose name had been prominently before the public during the past 'ew months. Tidwell's iron nerve served him well during the trying ordeal. He appeared no more perturbed when the clerk arose to ead the verdict than the first morning he entered the court room. The auditorium was crowded to the doors and hundreds clamored for admittance when the news spread that a verdict had been reached.

George W. Tidwell, Jr., left for his home in Augusta. Mrs. Isabella Tid-well and Miss Olive Tidwell will return to their home in Clinton to-day.

New York Limited Ditched.

Savannah, Ga., May 23.—Seaboard Air Line, Florida to New York train, was wrecked at Anderson, a siding 6 miles south of Savannah, this morning. Engineer A. C. Gruber, of Savannah, was killed and Fireman Sawyer Hallman, Savannah, and H. F. Roach, express messenger, Jack-onville, injured. Officials of the line say that train wreckers are responsible for the acci-dent. Where the train ran into a siding the switch lock was broken. dent. the light on the target extinguished and the switch half thrown. A half mile above the wreck a trestle was fired, the officials claim, by the same person, or persons, but this was ex-tinguished before any harm was Atlanta Merchant Killed.

Atlanta, May 22.—J. M. George, a deputy marshal in the municipal court of Atlanta, shot and instantly killed Thos. E. English, of 18 Gresham street, in the latter's place of business, early Thursday night. Immediately afterward George reported at police headquarters and surren-dered. He was later released on George went to English's place of business to levy on a cash register. When he had stated his business an altercation arose, resulting in a scuffle over a revolver, during the course of which George fired the fatal shot with a revolver.

Convicted of Ugly Crime. Greenville, May 23—H. T. Thomp son, white, aged 42 years, was sentenced by Judge T. J. Mauldin in the Court of General Sessions to-day to be electrocuted on the last Friday in July. Thompson was convicted of an unnatural crime, the alleged detalls of which are too revolting for publication. The scene following the passing of the sentence was one of the most pathetic ever witnessed in per hundred. the Greenville court house.

Editor Keowee Courier: It is deemed proper to give a brief summary of the new constitution and rules of the Democratic party of South Carolina.

Qualifications for club membership and for voting in primary elections are: Applicant must be 21 years of age, a white Democrat, a citizen of the United States and of the State, must have resided in the State two years, in the county six months, and in the club district 60 days. If a negro, applicant must have voted for Hampton in 1876, and the Demo-eratic ticket continuously since.

There must be a new envoll-ent. Each county must be divided into separate club districts by the county executive committee, which must meet on the first Monday in June, or as soon thereafter as possible, to name the club districts, and places where the books are to be opened. Appli-cants shall present themselves in person before the club secretary, or enrolling officer, and sign the roll, or make their mark if they are unable to write, giving their age, occupation and post office address. Properly prepared books are furnished each club for this

The club rolls shall be closed on the last Tuesda; in July of each election year. Secretaries of clubs shall file the rolls, properly cer-tified, with the county chairman, who shall make and file certified copies with the Clerk of Court for public inspection. County committees shall purge the rolls, giv-ing due notice by mail to all persons the legality of whose enroll-ment is questioned. The county committee can thus revise the club rolls and correct the same by either adding or taking off names, as to them may seem proper.

Books of enrollment must be opened by the secretary of each club on the second Tuesday June in each election year.

The State executive committee shall arrange for two separate campaign meetings in each county, one to be addressed by candidates for State offices, and the other by candidates for United States Senator.

Chairmen of county executive committees in the same Congressional District shall arrange separate meetings for candidates for Congress and Solicitor.

WESTMINSTER NEWS ITEMS.

ommencement Affords Week of Pleasure—Child Bitten by Snake,

Westminster, May 26.—Special: Mrs. H. M. Fallaw, Mrs. O. K. Breazeale and Mrs. W. J. Stribling, of Westminster, and Mrs. George Davis, of Orangeburg, attended the Young Woman's Auxiliary at South Union Saturday. Mrs. Davis is at the head Saturday. Mrs. Davis is at the head of the Y. W. A. work in this State and her talk to the Y. W. A.'s was very instructive. Mrs. Fallaw's subject was "The Ideal Leader," which she handled with ease, having that poise we admire in one who speaks to large audiences. The meeting was to large audiences. The meeting was a very enjoyable one in every way. The house-keepers of South Union are noted for their hospitality. A delicious collation was served under the spreading oaks at noon.

Miss Mary Anderson, of Chicora
College, Greenville, is home on a acation.

The play, "The Irish Linen Ped-dler," given at the auditorium last Thursday evening for the benefit of the track team, was a most decided "hit." It was full of fun from beginning to end. The chorus girls were very pretty in their Irish cos-tumes, in "A Little Bit of Green"; in fact each number deserves spe cial mention, hence we give the full program:

1. Songs—"Just a Little Bit of Green," and "Where the River Shan-non Flows." Chorus of girls. 2. Duet—Twickenham Ferry. Eleanor Keese and Theodore Pay-
