WIND STORM VISITS COLUMBIA.

Telephone and Telegraph Poles Down and City in Darkness.

Columbia, June 28.—For two hours this afternoon Columbia was visited by a heavy storm of wind, hail and rain, accompanied by lightning and thunder. The disturbance was the most severe of its kind to strike this section for some years. Heavy damage was suffered by public service companies, stores and residences in all parts of the city. Plate glass windows were blown in, signs and fences were blown down. Office buildings were flooded and ventilators were torn from skylights. Telephone and telegraph poles were blown down and trees mutilated, making the streets impassable in some places and filling roadways with wires. As a result the city tonight is in darkness. At least eight hundred telephones are out of commission. Lightning struck in many places within the city limits and resulted in one small conflagration.

As a result of road conditions resulting from the storm an automobile three miles out of Columbia on the Two-Notch road, skidded, the machine turned over and the occupants were violently thrown out. Mrs. J. D. Goldson, of Columbia, sustained a broken arm, broken collarbone and fractured ribs. Miss Vickie Sauls, of Orangeburg, suffered a broken collarbone. Both were hurried to Knowlton's Hospital. Other occupants of the car escaped with a severe shaking up. They were James Goldson, B. B. Goldson, P. C. Turner, A. D. Brownie, Miss Linnie Goldson, all of Columbia.

Former Policeman Killed.

(Anderson Mail.)

Joe Kelly, a former policeman at Williamston, was shot and killed on the streets of that town Monday morning by Policeman Claude Poore.

It is said there had been bad feeling between the two men for some time. Kelly was former policeman, holding the position now held by Poore. Kelly was not armed.

Kelly was arrested on Sunday by Poore for disorderly conduct, and was locked up for a few minutes.

Poore shot at Kelly six times, only two of the shots taking effect, one of these near his heart. Immediately after the shooting Kelly was carried into Sullivan's store, and was shortly afterwards taken to Greenville by Dr. Frank Lander, his wife and G. W. Sullivan. He died before reaching the hospital at Greenville. His body will be taken back to Williamston for burial.

Poore surrendered after the shooting and was brought to Anderson by Mayor Vance Cooley and lodged in jail.

Kelly was 40 years of age and lived on a farm near Williamston belonging to Dr. B. F. Brown. He leaves a wife and about eight children.

The shooting, according to a statement by Poore, was due to threats from Kelly and his menacing attitude when they first met after the arrest.

Six County Mules Killed.

Belton, June 29.—Six mules, the property of Anderson county, were instantly killed by lightning Saturday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock near Calhoun. As the cloud approached the convicts sought shelter in an out-house in the yard of Jas. Mattison and the teams were left at the roadside. When the bolt came 13 of the mules were knocked down, but seven soon recovered and the other six were killed instantly.

The bolt first struck a tree in the yard, then passed into the house, tearing a hole through the wall, knocking the papering and pictures from the wall, then passed through the hall and tore a mantle in the parlor to splinters and did other minor damage. Several of the family were in the house at the time, but aside from a slight shock suffered by one of the young ladies none of them was injured.

The mules were very valuable animals and possibly cannot be duplicated for $300 apiece. The animals were insured for $100 apiece, which is the maximum amount taken by the insurance companies on this class of risks.
